Suspension of Effective Date for Data Security Policy on the Morningside Heights Campus

On January 8, 2013, the IRB released a new Policy for Data Security Plans Involving the Storage of Electronic Research Data Constituting Protected Health Information or Personally Identifiable Information with an effective date of February 1, 2013. Please be advised that the effective date for the Policy as it relates to the Morningside campus has been suspended pending further discussions on the implementation of the Policy. We will inform you of any changes in the Policy and the new effective date in the near future.
