

COLUMBIA LAW SCHOOL,
THE COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, AND
THE CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF ETHNICITY AND RACE PRESENT

LAW AND HISTORY WORKSHOP FALL 2010–SPRING 2011

Belonging: Citizenship, Membership, Status

October 7, 2010

‘Everyone has a Right to a Nationality’: Thinking About Statelessness in Mid-Twentieth-Century America—with reflections on *Flores-Villar v. United States

Linda Kerber, University of Iowa

November 18, 2010

Jews, Law, and Identity Politics in the Progressive Era

William Forbath, UT Austin School of Law

February 10, 2011

The True Story of Ah Jake: Language and Justice in Late-Nineteenth-Century
Sierra County, California

Mae Ngai, Columbia University

March 31, 2011

Crossing Borders: the Fenians and the Crisis over Citizenship

Lucy Salyer, University of New Hampshire

All workshops will take place from 4:15–5:45 p.m. in the Case Lounge (Room 701), Jerome Greene Hall.

Papers will be posted at www.law.columbia.edu/center_program/law_history/events