

Historical Epistemology Conference

Friday, October 10th : Morning

Breakfast (10:00-10:30)

Welcoming Remarks (10:30)

Panel 1 (10:35-12:00)

- 1) Patrick Singy, "What Is Historical Epistemology?"
- 2) François Delaporte, "A Normative History"

Friday, October 10th : Afternoon

Panel 2 (1:30-3:00)

- 1) Mary Poovey, "What Does Historical Epistemology Want?"
- 2) Kevin Lamb, "Historical Method, Philosophical Style"

Break (3:00-3:30)

Panel 3 (3:30-5:30)

Moderator: Arnold Davidson

- 1) David Plunkett, "How Does the History of Concepts Matter? An Essay on the Normative Import of Historical Epistemology"
- 2) Tuomo Tiisala, "Epistemological Normativity and its Contingencies"
- 3) Paolo Savoia, "Superficiality, History, Practices"

Keynote (5:30-6:30)

Peter Galison, "The Local and the Global"

Saturday, October 11th : Morning

Breakfast (10:00-10:30)

Panel 4 (10:30-12:00)

- 1) Vincent Debaene, "Can We Change the Rules of the Game? Scientists and Writers in Modern France"
- 2) Yves Gingras, "Naming without Necessity"

Saturday, October 11th : Afternoon

Panel 5 (1:30-3:00)

- 1) Matthew Jones, "Historical Epistemology, Historical Positivism"
- 2) Claude-Olivier Doron, "Why Should We Need an Epistemological History of Racism?"

Break (3:00-3:30)

Keynote (3:30-4:30)

Arnold Davidson, "The Politics of Truth"

Reception (4:30-5:30)

All talks will take place at the Maison Française, Buell Hall , Columbia University