DESCRIPTION: Rearranged in alphabetical order, please see our card catalog

Personal correspondence and papers of the American statesman, John Adams Dix (1798-1879). The collection is composed mainly of letters to and by Mr. Dix, beginning in 1813 and continuing throughout his lifetime. The correspondence which doubtless has been preserved selectively is almost entirely with prominent public figures of the period: military, political and literary men. In addition to the correspondence are miscellaneous papers, speeches, essays, clippings and leaflets; includes also a small file (38 items) of the correspondence and papers of John I. Morgan (1787-1853). The collection has a calendar index.
