DESCRIPTION:

Personal and professional files of Guichard Auguste Bolivar Parris, 1903- (M.A. Columbia 1932), director of public relations for the National Urban League. Included are correspondence, diaries, manuscripts, notes and printed material from his personal files, his files on the history of the National Urban League, manuscript materials for Blacks in the City; a History of the National Urban League, Boston, Little, Brown, 1971 (written with Lester Brooks) and administrative files of the National Urban League. Parris' personal files include folders on his organizational affiliations outside the National Urban League; of particular interest are copies of his correspondence with Mary McLeod Bethune while he was affiliated with the National Youth Administration. Bethune is among the catalogued correspondents, as are Theodore Roosevelt and Ruth Standish Baldwin.
