DESCRIPTION:

Typescript copies of letters from Dr. George D. White, a surgeon in the Confederate army, to his wife; and other family letters, accounts, etc. Copied from originals in the possession of Robert H. White, Dr. White's grandson. The copies were made as part of the Historical Records Survey. The ribbon copies have been edited with footnotes explanatory of certain points in the letters, and attached to the ribbon copy is a brief extract of the letter's content. There is an index of persons and subjects referred to in the letters and also an appendix, as well as a chronology of Dr. White's life and of the Confederacy. Besides the original ribbon copy there are some carbons included. 87 letters are present.

JAN 1955

Colonel Robert H. White, grandson of Dr. Geo. White, contacted Special Collections today about borrowing the carbon copies while here in N.Y. Mr. Baughman OK'd the loan. Col. White owns the literary rights to these letters as a member of the family & possessor of the originals.
