DESCRIPTION: Correspondence, manuscripts, documents, photographs, and printed materials of Baroness Sofiia I. Taube (188?-1957), writer and editor in Russia and the emigration who wrote under the name Sofiia Anichkova. Among her books was Zagadka Lenina; while in Russia before the 1920s, she edited such literary periodicals as Skazki zhizni and Almanakh. There are single letters in the collection from Georgii Ivanov, Aleksandr Kuprin, Petr Struve, and other writers. Manuscripts consist primarily of writings by Anichkova-Taube, including her memoirs of literary life in Petrograd in 1917-24: "Vechera poetov v gody bedstvii." Other manuscript items and drawings by other writers also concern these "poets' evenings." Also included are memoirs by her husband, Emmanuil N. Taube, about Czechoslovakia at the end of World War II. There are numerous photographs of Anichkova-Taube. Printed materilas consist of her books, books inscribed to her, scattered issues of periodicals which she edited or published in, and newspaper clippings.
