DESCRIPTION: Correspondence, manuscripts, documents, photographs, subject files, and printed materials of Sergei S. Belosel'skii - Belozerskii (1895-1978), member of the Imperial Horse Guard and later an emigre activist in the United States. The materials in the collection fall into two distinct groups: those relating to the Belosel'skii-Belozerskii family, and those relating to the Horse Guards. The family materials include correspondence from Aleksandr Gorchakov, Edvard Grieg, François Guizot, Nicolas I, King of Montenegro, Illarion Vorontsov-Dashkov, Wilhelm I, Emperor of Germany, and a number of Russian grand dukes and duchesses. There is a photograph of the 1896 coronation at the Kremlin. The manuscripts include several works by Aleksandr Belosel'skii-Belozerskii (1752-1809), who was a poet and the Russian ambassador to Turin in 1792-1793. There are documents relating to several members of the Belosel'skii-Belozerskii family.

The part of the collection concerning the Horse Guards primarily relates to emigre activities in Europe and America during the 1930's. The materials include manuscripts for a history of the Guards, biographical sketches, minutes, newsletters, orders and several hundred photographs, many of which date back to the mid 19th century. Among the printed materials are journals, illustrations and a number of scrapbooks. The collection also contains several dozen oversize albums, illustrations, documents and photographs.
