DESCRIPTION:
Papers of Aleksandr A. Kolchinskii (1880-1967), an officer on the staff of the imperial army before and during World War I. The papers consist of correspondence, manuscripts, documents, photographs, and printed materials. Manuscripts include notes taken on a speech by General Lavr Kornilov in August 1917; Kolchinskii's writings on the history of the Pavlovsk Military Academy (including a published book by him); and his diaries from the early 1950s. Also included are Kolchinskii's Russian army documents; items relating to his work in the Belgian Congo during World War II; and several photographs of army officers during World War I.
