DESCRIPTION:
Correspondence, manuscripts, subject files, and printed materials of Miha Krek (1897-), all concerning the London Yugoslav government-in-exile during World War II. Krek, who had been a minister in pre-war Yugoslavia and was a leader of the Slovene People's Party, was deputy prime minister in the London government. There are one or two letters each in the collection from Louis Adamic, Edvard Benes, and Anthony Eden. There are files of correspondence and related materials from or to such Yugoslav exile leaders as Slobodan Jovanović, Dušan Simović, and Franc Snoj, and also several files on events in Slovenia during the war.

For box list see verso.
