DESCRIPTION:

Papers of Nikolai N. Nikolaev (1872-1957), a lawyer who claimed that his father was the illegitimate son of revolutionary Mikhail Bakunin. Nikolaev was a Kadet deputy in the 4th State Duma, served in the White army, and in the White Kuban' Rada. He came to the United States in 1923, where he was a prominent member of the United Russian Mutual Aid Society in America (Russkoe Ob"edinennoe Obshchestvo Vzaimopomoshchi v Amerike, ROOVA). These papers consist of correspondence, minor and fragmentary manuscripts, and clippings. The bulk of the collection consists of manuscripts and fragments, including a brief autobiography and manuscripts on the Kadets, the Civil War, and ROOVA.

For folder list see verso.
