DESCRIPTION:

Papers of Khristofor A. Owie (or Aue; <sup>1884-1918</sup>), an officer in the Imperial Army who emigrated to Australia. The collection consists of correspondence, manuscripts, memoirs, minutes of meetings, documents, maps, photographs, and printed materials, mostly relating to World War I. Correspondence, mostly to Owie, includes a letter from Grand Duke Gavriil Konstantinovich. Memoirs are by Sergei Konoplev concerning World War I, and manuscripts appear to be by Owie on the war and anti-Communist topics. Minutes are for the Society of Officers of the 3rd Infantry Regiment of the Life Guard (Leib-Gvardii 3-ii strelkovyi polk). Maps, documents, and photographs deal mostly with Owie's service during World War I. Among the photographs is one of Nicholas II from 1913.
