DESCRIPTION: Correspondence, manuscripts, documents, photographs, printed material and drawings of Nikolai I. Skorino (1888-1965), member of the Leib-Gvardii Egerskii Polk (Imperial Guard Jaegers' Regiment) and of its veterans' organization in exile. The correspondence, primarily from the late 1940s through the early 1960s, is chiefly of a personal nature as are the documents. The manuscripts, photographs, and printed material pertain in large measure to the activities of the Egerskii Polk, its veterans' organization in Belgium, and to other military veterans' organizations in exile. Of particular note are ca. two dozen glass negatives of photographs of Russian military life in the World War I era.
