DESCRIPTION: Correspondence, manuscripts, photographs, and printed materials of social worker and writer Graham R. Taylor (1880-1942). The collection concerns his service in the American Committee on Public Information Press Bureau in Vladivostok, from the end of 1918 to March 1919. Included are carbons of outgoing correspondence; a report by Malcolm Davis on public opinion in the Zabaikal region; press releases and translations by the Committee; and newspaper summaries prepared by the Intelligence Section of the American Expeditionary Force in Siberia. There are American publicity photographs, including New York scenes. Printed materials of the Committee consist of all 14 issues of its Druzheskoe Slovo (Dec. 1918-March 1919), and several pamphlets. Also in the collection are two issues of Russian newspapers: Voennya Vedomosti (Novonikolaevsk) and Ekho (Vladivostok).
