DESCRIPTION: The papers of Aleksandr A. Titov (1878-), professor of chemistry at the University of Paris (Russian program) and former member of the Moscow city Duma and of the All-Russian Union of "Zemstvos." The collection consists of correspondence, manuscripts, several photographs, documents, financial records, subject files and printed material. The correspondence is chiefly from the period 1925-1958 and includes letters from Mark Aldanov, Anton Denikin, Ivan Shmelev and one or two items each from Ivan Bunin, Pavel Miliukov, Aleksei Remizov etc. The documents and financial records are primarily personal and the subject files include materials on a number of commemorative celebrations and on various exile organizations in France.
