DESCRIPTION: Correspondence and memoirs of Vladimir A. Vereshchagin (1888-), nephew of the artist Vasilii Vereshchagin. Correspondence includes letters from a number of major emigre cultural figures, such as Ivan Bunin, Matil'da Ksheshinskaia, Vasilii Nemirovich-Danchenko; there are also poems by Nemirovich-Danchenko and by Nadezhda Teffi. In addition, there are letters by members of the Imperial family in exile, particularly Grand Prince Vladimir Kirillovich. Vereshchagin's memoirs touch on such subjects as his childhood and family, the Imperial Corps of Pages, cultural life in St. Petersburg and Petrograd, and the early 1920s in Petrograd and Moscow. In addition, there is a pamphlet of poems by Vereshchagin, Stikhi (1955).
