DESCRIPTION:

Correspondence, manuscripts, documents, photographs, subject file, and printed materials of Evgeniia I. Vagner (1889-ca. 1970?), and her husband, zoologist Iulii N. Vagner (1865-1944). While most of the correspondence is personal, some of it relates to Iulii Vagner's scientific research. There is a manuscript by an unknown person about Ivan D. Sytin, and a number of notebooks with entries by Evgeniia Vagner. The documents include passports, travel documents, service records, and diplomas of both Evgeniia Vagner and her husband, chiefly concerning their lives in the emigration in Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, and at the end of World War II, in Germany. There are three folders of photographs, a subject file concerning Evgeniia Vagner's immigration to the United States, and such printed materials as picture post cards and copies of two editions of a book by Iulii Vagner, Nachal'nyi kurs prirodovedeniia, Kiev, 1908, and Belgrade, 1924.
