DESCRIPTION: Correspondence, manuscripts, documents, photographs, subject files and printed materials of Mikhail M. Zolotarev (- 1958). Zolotarev served in the White navy in the Far East during the Civil War, and left the Soviet Union during the twenties. He emigrated to New York and was associated with both the library and the Russian Institute at Columbia. The correspondence includes letters from Petr P. Iurenev, Aleksandr I. Konovalov, and Geroid T. Robinson. There are photographs of two actors from the Moscow Art Theater: Vasilii Luzhskii and Ivan Moskvin. The correspondence dates from 1879 to 1950 and includes some miscellaneous items apparently unrelated to Zolotarev. There are manuscripts by various authors on religious and political themes. The subject files include materials relating to several Russian emigre organizations, the White navy, and Columbia University. Among the printed materials are booklets, journals, clippings and posters.
