DESCRIPTION:

Papers of the Coordinating Committee for Slavic and East European Library Resources(COCOSEERS), a national committee of research library directors, subject specialist librarians, and Slavic scholars, which had as its goal the development of Slavic library resources in the United States. Records include correspondence, manuscripts, memoranda, documents and printed materials. The correspondence is mainly about the operation and projects of COCOSEERS. The manuscripts include a number of research reports on projects conducted by COCOSEERS. There are memoranda concerning the operation of COCOSEERS. The documents consist chiefly of financial records: bank statements, vouchers and receipts. The printed material includes bulletins and published reports on Slavic library resources, as well as catalogs of publishers.
