DESCRIPTION:

Correspondence, manuscripts, documents, and printed materials of the Russian writer Vladislav Khodasevich, which were collected by or sent to the Russian-American historian Mikhail M. Karpovich (1888-1959). Karpovich worked in the Russian embassy in Washington in 1917-22, and later spent many years as a history professor at Harvard. Khodasevich, widely regarded as one of the greatest Russian poets of the 20th century, lived the last part of his life in France; he died there in early 1939.

There are 6 letters by Khodasevich to Karpovich, and 2 to other people. Manuscripts and documents by Khodasevich include poetry, notes, essay autobiographical information, listings of his publications, earnings, daily work, and references to him in print. Printed materials consist of clippings and an annotated copy of his Poeticheskoe khoziaistvo Pushkin (1924). There are also 2 items in the collection by Raisa Blokh, and 1 by Georgii Ivanov.

For list see verso.
