

Table of Contents

Wrestling Bodies: An Introduction

Zoe Detsi-Diamanti, Katerina Kitsi-Mitakou, Effie Yiannopoulou	7
---	---

Part I: Bodies Wrestling with Representation

Metaphors of a Body Meant to Die

Costas Canakis	13
-----------------------------	----

Getting Dirty with the Body: Abjection in Mary Shelley's Frankenstein

Panagiota Petkou	31
-------------------------------	----

Ill Bodies, Diseased Texts: Writing and Reading as Contamination in Francisco Delicado's Portrait of Lozana and Juan Goytisolo's The Virtues of the Solitary Bird

Victoria Rivera-Cordero	39
--------------------------------------	----

Let's Get Physical: Heidegger's Cyborg and the Vicissitudes of the Machine / Body

Bernd Herzogenrath	55
---------------------------------	----

Mechanical Choreographies of an "Evolutionary Alchemist": Stelarc's Techno Body and Multimedia Performance

Tatiani Rapatzikou	67
---------------------------------	----

Part II: Bodies Wrestling Against Social and Cultural Regulation

Foreign Bodies: The Grotesque Body in the Fiction of Jeanette Winterson

Paulina Palmer	81
-----------------------------	----

Consider the Blonde Head Severed: Subverting Beauty in Victorian Literature

Goldie Morgentaler	95
---------------------------------	----

Perseus's Shield: The Politics of the Body in Humanitarian Campaigns Gregory Paschalidis	107
The Body In Situ , the Body in Crisis: From the Happenings of Allan Kaprow to the Vienna Actionists Claudine Armand	125
Corporeality and the Metropolis: Dissolving the Body in Paul Auster's The New York Trilogy Betty Nigianni	139
BOOK REVIEWS	153
CONTRIBUTORS	169