In the May issue appears the first of a series of articles on Kantianism and the Modern World. These articles will present an introductory analysis and study of the philosophy of Kant, its idealistic development in Hegel, and various reactionary tendencies (materialistic Marxism, the Positivism of Mill, and the Pragmatism of William James). The concluding article of the series, "St. Thomas and the Modern Mind," will offer the philosophia perennis as the remedy for the ills of our war-torn world.
