

OCT 22 1965

CONTENTS

	Page
John G. Kunstmann, "Some Unprofessional Remarks on the Elijah-Episode of the Old High German Muspilli ." . . .	5
Arnold Williams, "Relations Between the Mendicant Friars and the Regular Clergy in England in the later Four- teenth Century."	22
William H. Wiatt, "Sir Thomas Wyatt's Wordplay." . . .	96
Herbert H. Petit, "A Wood Needing Clearing: Desiderata in Anglo-Norman—English Linguistics."	102

NOTE

The publication of the first volume of Annuaire Mediaevale marks at least initial success of an attempt to provide an outlet for the worthy studies of mediaeval students. The editorial policy of the journal is intended to observe only the demand of scholarly excellence; the editorial board hopes to attract in particular those manuscripts whose subject or scope are often outside the editorial policies of existing reputable publications, as well as studies in the more familiar areas of mediaeval culture.