

ROSALIND HOROWITZ

Orality and literacy and the design of schooling for the twenty-first century: Some introductory remarks

i

Part I: Views on the autonomy of text

DAVID R. OLSON

Children's understanding of interpretation and the autonomy of written texts

3

MARTIN NYSTRAND and JEFFREY WIEMELT

When is a text explicit?
Formalist and dialogical conceptions

25

Part II: Where are the differences between oral and literate discourse?

WALLACE CHAFE

Grammatical subjects in speaking and writing

45

DOUGLAS BIBER

Oral and literate characteristics of selected primary school reading materials

73

Part III: Relationships between written and oral language and reading problems in the schools

FRANK R. VELLUTINO, DONNA M. SCANLON,
SHEILA G. SMALL and MELINDA S. TANZMAN

The linguistic bases of reading ability:
Converting written to oral language

99

ROSALIND HOROWITZ

A reexamination of oral versus silent reading

133

Contents

CARLA BAZZANELLA and DANIELA CALLERI Tense coherence and grounding in children's narrative	175
HAJIL HATIM The pragmatics of argumentation in Arabic: The rise and fall of a text type	189
MUHAMMAD SHAKIR and MOHAMMAD FARGHAL Y-activation of schemata in relation to background knowledge and markedness	201
SOYLAND Common-sense in clinical discourse	223
TOINE VAN TEEFFELLEN Argumentation and the Arab voice in Western bestsellers	241
ROBIN WOOFFITT I was just doing X... when Y': Some inferential properties of a device in accounts of paranormal experiences	267
ZHANG DELU Role relationships and their realization in mood and modality	289

Contents

- ELYSE ABRAHAM
 Why 'because'? The management of given/new information as a constraint on the selection of causal alternatives 323
- JOY-ANNE FITZPATRICK
 Differences in marital conflict: Social and physiological versus cognitive explanations 341
- MONIKA FLUDERNIK
 The historical present tense yet again: Tense switching and narrative dynamics in oral and quasi-oral storytelling 365
- SUSANNE GÜNTHER
 'A language with taste': Uses of proverbial sayings in intercultural communication 399
- LINDA JÖNSSON and PER LINELL
 Story generations: From dialogical interviews to written reports in police interrogations 419
- ANSSI PERÄKYLA and DAVID SILVERMAN
 Owning experience: Describing the experience of other persons 441
- AGNES VAYREDA and CHARLES ANTAKI
 Explanations in abortion discourses 481

Contents

ANNA DUSZAK

Schematic and topical categories in news story reconstruction

503

BRIGITTE ENDRES-NIGGEMEYER, WIM WAUMANS

and HITOSHI YAMASHITA

Modelling summary writing by introspection: A small-scale demonstrative study

523

MINAKO ISHIKAWA

Iconicity in discourse: The case of repetition

553

JOANNA THORNBORROW

Orderly discourse and background knowledge

581

AMY B. M. TSUI

The pragmatic functions of I don't know

607

Index of articles in Volume 11

623