

NOTES AND NEWS

Obituaries: Dr. Thomas Ashby, 131; Dr. F. P. Barnard, 330; Professor L. Brentano, 329; Professor Edw. Channing, 47; Sir John de Villiers, 132; Dr. Alexander Gordon, 44; Dr. William Hunt, 328; Dr. Allen Johnson, 47; Professor W. R. Lethaby, 237; Sir Charles Lucas, 129; Dr. J. M. Mackay, 132; H. E. Malden, 130; The Countess Martinengo-Cesaresco, 133; Dr. Philip Norman, 132; Sir J. Balfour Paul, 330; W. G. Perrin, 46; Dr. Adam Shortt, 46; Dr. J. R. Tanner, 45; Sir R. C. Temple, 45; Professor von Wilamowitz-Moellendorf, 329. Personal (appointments, etc.), 47, 129, 237, 328. The Friends of the National Libraries, 41. Treasure Trove, 42. Manorial and other local records, 133. Publications of the National Portrait Gallery, 240. Luton and its name, 133. The centenary of Thomas Hodgkin, 134. The Central Council for School Broadcasting, 239. L.C.C. Lectures to Teachers, 239. The Act of 1931 amending the Ancient Monuments Act of 1913, and the problem of Hadrian's Wall, 330. International Congresses, Conferences and Committees: on Ancient Monuments, 331; of Historical Sciences, 47, 331; of Colonial History, 331; of the History of Science, 238. Anglo-American Historical Conference (third quinquennial meeting), 238. The Unity History School, 48. The Royal Historical Society: Alexander and Berry Prizes, 134, 332; meetings, 240. The Navy Records Society, 332. The Historical Association: gifts to, 41, 240, 327; Twenty-fifth Annual Meeting, 39, twenty-sixth, 48; organisation of Groups, 128; an enterprise of the Manchester Branch, 128; Inquiry into the Value of Films in Teaching, 328; publications, 48, 134, 332.

CORRESPONDENCE AND ERRATA

History in the first School Examination, and the Case for Experiment, 48, 135; Educational Films, 49; Early Scotland, 134; Documents relating to Ceylon, 333; The History of Prices and Measures, 333; The Heathen Pass-ee, a correction, 335; Other errata, 137, 335.