

CONTENTS OF VOLUME XXI

ARTICLES

	PAGE
THE HISTORIAN AND THE LAWYER. By the Rt. Hon. Viscount Sankey, G.B.E.	97
HISTORY IN THE MAKING. By Sir Charles Peers, C.B.E.	302
THE PRESENT STATE OF THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL EVIDENCE OF THE ANGLO-SAXON CONQUEST. By J. N. L. Myres	317
WESTMINSTER ABBEY AND THE CORONATION SERVICE. By Dr. Lawtence E. Tanner, M.V.O.	289
THE PILGRIMS' WAY. By C. G. Crump	22
ISABELLA, THE SHE-WOLF OF FRANCE. By Professor Hilda Johnstone ...	208
THE REFORMATION PARLIAMENT AS A MATRIMONIAL AGENCY AND ITS NATIONAL EFFECTS. By Dr. A. F. Pollard	219
THE FOUNDING OF AMERICAN CIVILISATION. By Professor T. J. Wertenbaker	109
THE LAST HUNDRED YEARS OF HISTORICAL GEOGRAPHY. By J. N. L. Baker	193
SIR CHARLES FIRTH, 1857-1936. By E. S. de Beer	1
THE PLACE OF AMERICAN HISTORY IN ENGLISH EDUCATION. By Professor H. Hale Bellet	331
THE PLACE OF ECONOMIC HISTORY IN THE TEACHING OF HISTORY. A DISCUSSION. By T. Williams	14
THE TEACHING OF HISTORY BY MEANS OF "LINES OF DEVELOPMENT." By M. V. C. Jeffreys	230
MUSEUMS OR MAUSOLEUMS. By J. Laver	120
THE NINTH ASSEMBLY OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF HISTORICAL SCIENCES. By G. T. Hankin and Professor L. M. Penson	131

HISTORICAL REVISIONS

LXXVII. THE ANNEXATION OF THE TRANSVAAL, 1877. By Professor A. F. Hattersley	41
LXXVIII. FRANCO-ENGLISH RELATIONS, 1350-1400. By Dr. E. Perroy ...	148
LXXIX. THE DOMESDAY SURVEY. By Professor David Douglas ...	249
LXXX. THE YOUNGER PITT AND THE HOUSE OF LORDS. By Professor A. S. Turberville	350

NOTES AND NEWS

Obituaries: Sir Charles Firth, 34; Dr. Montague Rhodes James, 137; Dr. Eleanor C. Lodge, 34; Sir Richard Lodge, Dr. Charles Sanford Terry, 239. Personal (appointments, etc.), 240, 341. British Joint Committee for interchange of appointments between women teachers in British and American schools, 342. Local history at Holy Trinity Boys' School, Blackheath Hill, 343. Anglo-French Historical Conference, 35. Fourth Anglo-American Conference of Historians, 35, 138. International Numismatic Congress, 241. Leverhulme Research Fellowship awards, 138. Oxford Historical Society, appeal for new members, 343. Royal Historical Society, Alexander Prize, 36. Lincoln Diocesan Record Office, 139. Warburg Institute, work of, 241. Latvian Institute of History, international essay competition, 342. Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, archives of, 242. The Historical Association: Thirty-First Annual Meeting, 36, 138, 241, 340; formation of Branch at Lisbon, 341; resolution to British Film Institute on the Historical Film, 34; Revision Courses in History, 138, 240; revision of text-books, 137; Illustrations Committee, lantern slides, 341; Propaganda Committee, increase in membership, 137, 240; tours, 240, 341; Wireless Committee, 138, 240; Publications of the Association, Annual Bulletin of Historical Literature, 242, pamphlets, 36, 139, 343.

CORRESPONDENCE

Analysis of Examination Papers, 37, 246. Examination of Examinations, 139, 243, 348. Guide to sources of seventeenth-century English history in the Reports of the Royal Commission on Historical Manuscripts, 248. Gyrwe, 36. History of the Anglo-Saxons, 344. Queen Elizabeth and the English Catholic Historians, 347. Teaching of Current Events, 39. Thomas More, 345.