

CONTENTS OF VOLUME XXIII

ARTICLES

	PAGE
HISTORY AND THE PLAIN MAN. By the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Crawford and Balcarras	289
SCIENCE AND HISTORY. By A. F. Titley	108
THE IMPORTANCE OF MEDIEVAL STUDIES IN THE TEACHING OF HISTORY. By Professor D. C. Douglas	97
MEDIEVAL MUSIC FROM THE POINT OF VIEW OF THE HISTORIAN. By M. Deanesly	193
MR. JOLLIFFE'S CONSTRUCTION OF EARLY CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY. By Gaillard Lapsley	1
THE GROWTH OF NATIONAL SENTIMENT IN FRANCE BEFORE THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY. By Dorothy Kirkland... ..	12
THE CONDOTTIERE JOHN HAWKWOOD. By Fritz Gaupp	305
OF THE ANTIQUITY OF PARLIAMENTS IN ENGLAND: SOME ELIZABETHAN AND EARLY STUART OPINIONS. By E. Evans... ..	206
(1) SOME RECENT WORKS ON OLIVER CROMWELL. (2) NOTE ON THE PORTRAITS OF CROMWELL. By E. S. de Beer... ..	120
BRITISH FOREIGN POLICY IN THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. By E. Jones Parry	322
THE PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE, 1838-1938. By R. B. Wernham... ..	222
A REVIEW OF THE RELATIONS BETWEEN GUIZOT AND LORD ABERDEEN, 1840-52. By E. Jones Parry	25
THE MUNICH AGREEMENT. A RETROSPECT. By Lewis Einstein... ..	331
THE EIGHTH INTERNATIONAL HISTORICAL CONGRESS: 28 AUGUST-4 SEPTEMBER 1938. By B. Behrens and Jean O. McLachlan	236
RECENT HISTORY SCHOOL-BOOKS PUBLISHED IN GREAT BRITAIN. Compiled by A. T. Milne... ..	186, 382

HISTORICAL REVISIONS

LXXXV. BOLINGBROKE AND THE IDEA OF NON-PARTY GOVERNMENT. By Professor H. N. Fieldhouse	41
LXXXVI. THE EARLY HISTORY OF ENGLISH TOWNS. By R. R. Darlington	141
LXXXVII. CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN AND THE LIBERAL IMPERIALISTS (1906-1908). By J. E. Tyler	254
LXXXVIII. GIBBON AND The Decline and Fall . By J. J. Saunders	346

NOTES AND NEWS

Antiquarian Ramblers' Club, formation of, 40. Association for Education in Citizenship, Summer School in Norway, 343. British Archaeological Association, Reginald Taylor Prize, 344. British Records Association, course in Palaeography and Archive Science, 40. Historical Association: appointment of representatives to British Film Institute committee, 137; Easter Vacation course, 1939, 135, 250; election of new members of Council, 37, 342; gifts by Central London Branch, 136; publications, 138, 252; HISTORY, new address of office, 40; holiday tours, 252; letter to the Times on the importance of the teaching of history, 250; meeting of Council at Newport, 38; offer of publications at reduced prices by the Economic History Society, 252; resolutions on requirements in teaching of history, 135; thirty-third Annual Meeting at Manchester, 40, 138, 250, 341; place of meeting for 1940, 344; vacation course on "Aids to the Teaching of History" at Swansea, 343; vote of thanks to retiring President, Professor Hearnshaw, 135. Hudson's Bay Record Society, formation of, 136. Institute of Historical Research, change of address, 39. National Council of Social Service, appointment of a Local History Committee, 251. National Maritime Museum, annual report, 344. Public Record Office centenary, 136. Royal Historical Society, Alexander essay prize, 39; David Berry essay prize, 251. Society of Genealogists's list of transcripts of parish registers, 137. Stamp, A. E., obituary notice, 37. Victoria County Histories, publication of hundredth volume, 39.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Poison of History, 139. The review of B. Wilkinson, Studies in Constitutional History, 252. Professor Powicke's correction of a review of Dom McCann, Saint Benedict, 345.