

African Renaissance

Vol 2. No.2 March/April 2005

Contents

From the Publisher Jideofor Adibe	5
Nigeria: Rousing The Sleeping Giant
Nigeria: Towards a Better Union Ibiyinka Solarin	10
The Nigerian Woman in Comparative Perspective: Some Reflections Ali A. Mazrui	14
Reforming the Nigerian Public Service Yushau Shuaib	17
Corruption in Nigeria: Implication for National Development Emmanuel Onyebuchi Ezeani	22
Youths, Conflicts and Perpetual Instability in Nigeria Kenneth Omeje	34
The Weapon of Speech: Rhetoric and the Nigerian Military Sanya Osha	39
Nigeria and Its Economic Growth Strategies: Why Institutions Matter Victor E. Dike	47
Rethinking Nigeria's Problems Uche Nworah	56
Is Nigeria a Regional Hegemon To Be Feared? Issaka K. Souare	59
Boxing: Rousing the Nigerian giant Adeyinka Makinde	68

Discussions

The Nigerian Woman in Comparative Perspective: Some Reflections by Professor Ali Mazrui.
Discussant: Professor Ibiyinka Solarin.	73
Rejoinder from Professor Mazrui	76
Reply from Professor Solarin	76
Concluding remarks from Professor Mazrui	76

Nigeria: Towards a Better Union by Ibiyinka Solarin.	77
Discussant: Kenneth Omeje	79
Reply from Ibiyinka Solarin	81
Nigeria: Towards a Better Union by Ibiyinka Solarin	84
Discussant: Ibraheem A. Waziri,	84
Reply from Ibiyinka Solarin
Reforming the Nigerian public service by Yushau Shuaib
Discussant: Emmanuel Onyebuchi Ezeani	84

Togo

Togo: The State is Dead: Long Live the State
John W. Forje	88

Kenya

Presidential Paralysis and Kibaki's Rhetorical War on Corruption in Kenya
Ken Kamoche	96

Mali

Malian Reflections:
The Significance of a Name and an Insight into Local Knowledge
Jamie B. Wallace	102

USA

Slavery and the American Economy
Waldron H. Giles	108

Reviews

Interview

Rudy Interviews Askia	112
-----------------------	-----

Inbox Fun

Husband Superstore	120
E-Quipped
Lisa Polya	121

Obituary

Dunstan M. Wai: A Eulogy by Professor Ali A. Mazrui	125
---	-----