MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

The market is inactive, and presents little if any opportunity for review. Business for the week has been apparently confined to sales under foreclosure, and of these there have not been a superabundance. A more hopeful feeling—whence obtained we can not say—has sprung up since our last report, and the impression seems to obtain that the market will continue strong and steady. At all events, real estate operators seem to us the least disconcerted of any whom we meet in the course of business, and generally express faith in their specialty. In default of anything to the contrary, we can fairly say that prices are well sustained, owners still adhering to preconceived opinions.

MARKETS.

The markets are more inactive. Dullness in the lines of trade, within our review, is not unusual at this season of the year, but the adverse circumstances of the past twelve months have so extended the customary quietude as to make it more remarkable.

In opening our report for 1874 a partial retrospect of the year gone by, with a glance at the possibilities of that to follow, cannot be amiss.

The financial disorders, which culminated in panic, during the fall, were the result of sanguine and overzealous speculation, and the troubles of Wall Street, impending, however, long, and forseen, doubtless, by many, were not so evenly distributed as to admit of easy descent to ruin, through long preludes of dullness. The case has been otherwise with the building trades. The same spirit of speculation, as wild, perhaps, in its way, has characterized building transactions, but its conclusion, with its consequent disaster, so to say, has been of more gradual growth and devoid of precipitation. As a result, our markets have endured a steadily increasing depression, with almost a final stagnation; and were it not that in building, as in all lines of legitimate trade, there is a certain amount of steady and non-speculative business, and a demand which requires a sure amount of supply, employers and employees would have been long since utterly at a standstill. It may not be generally considered that the strikes in themselves were a speculation, yet such is the case. Workmen combined for increased wages and reduced working hours, making, as it were, a "corner" upon employers. Success inspired an excitement and confidence akin to the tone of the gambling operations of "the street." This success, however, had its legitimate fruit, in clashing with the speculations and purposes of builders, and withdrew men largely from the field of active building operations. At the same time it interfered with honest trade, by creating a tightness in the labor market, and a necessity for increased expenditure on the part of those who desired to build for their need or for investment. Cautious men, under such circumstances, withheld their hands and means. Builders lost the facilities which enabled them to continue their speculations, even had they so desired, under the altered relations created by the demands of the workingmen. Since then the steady trend of every speculation to crisis, affecting all classes of the community alike, has gradually cut off trade, depressed business, and has suspended employment. The effect of the strikes on the building markets can hardly be overestimated, yet it is probable that they have only operated to bring about a recurrence to safer business and sounder transactions. That there was not a sudden and ruinous panic among the working classes is due not to their own action, but to the fact, as we have heretofore cited, that the decline in trade has been gradual, and that a certain necessary amount of work had to be performed.

Material has declined during the year past to the lowest prices obtained for many seasons; this, of course, dependent upon the demand. Houses can be built more cheaply, except in cost of labor, which has not yielded to altered circumstances. In comparison with many other lines of trade, we are yet disposed to consider the building trades as fairly off as any or the best of them. Much business has been done, sometimes at loss and sometimes at gain, and from a glance at our series of reports, and from personal knowledge of the course of trade, the balance cannot have been altogether unfavorable. There has not been trade enough, however, to perpetuate faith in its power of recovery. The coming year must bring new and better indications, and we believe that these would be nearer at hand had the panic of September last been more widespread and general. For public need, and for general good, even at the cost of greater hardships than the people have been called upon to endure, the bursting of the speculative sore should have had free vent, until in purification it had brought health. Now, it only seems repressed, with no time certain for its reappearance. Uncertainty for the future, therefore, pervades our field. There is hope, yet despondency. Business, in many of its aspects, cannot be worse, except in total default, and in others it indicates life. With the wintry season compelling suspension of arrivals of material, the demand of trade will fall upon stocks laid by to carry through the winter, and we may expect a natural strengthening of prices proportioned to the outgo. Of this there are now signs indicative, and should stocks become well depleted, and building operations take on moderate activity by the early spring, the call upon the reserve stocks at the points of manufacture will be active enough, not only to sustain but to enhance values. We incline to believe that another season will develop more life, and we would assert our belief more confidently could we but anticipate any wise action on the part of the workingmen. Their intentions are matter of doubt and distrust to builders and others interested, and this uncertainty detracts greatly from the chances of improved trade. Certain lines of trade have fared and will fare better than others, due to the fact that they have channels of operation extending far beyond our special locality, and are thereby removed from its influences.

We append our review, briefer than for some time past. The markets offer very little occasion for present remark. Holidays and season combine to add inactivity to already dull markets, of which we give the fairest report that we can conceive.

BRICK.—The market is inactive, but strong, and prices are quite firmly maintained. Arrivals have diminished, although we have reports of from 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 of brick coming in during the past week. We advance our range of quotations for pale and up-river brick, and hold strictly to our quotations on Haverstraw Bays. We quote: Pale, ₱ M, $4@4.50; Up-river, $6.25 @7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7.25@8.75; Croton Fronts—brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT.—Meets with a light jobbing demand, and we have no reports of wholesale transactions. We quote: Rosendale at $1.75@2, and foreign at $5@5.75 ₱ bbl.; delivery, 25 cents ₱ bbl., additional.

FIRE BRICK.—Are quiet and nominal, at $50@55 for red Welsh, and $40@50 for American.

FOREIGN WOODS.—The market is quiet, with indications of activity for the opening year. We revise our quotations on Frontera mahogany, and renew our quotation of San Domingo crotches.

GLASS.—The closing of the year involves a diminution of trade, and the market is more quiet than it has been. We retain our list of discounts.

HAIR.—We have no news in connection with this market, and retain our quotations, nominally, at 20@25 cents for cattle, and 24@30 cents for goat.

LATH.—Are quiet, but firm, at $2 ₱ M.

LIME.—Is dull, a light jobbing trade covering all the business. Prices are steady and firm, with stronger tendencies as the winter advances. We quote: State, —common, $1; finishing, $1.50. Rockland—common, $1.10; finishing, $1.75 ₱ bbl.

LUMBER.—The market is dull and inactive for all kinds; retail trade falling off to almost nothing, while the wholesale business is limited to occasional sales for export. As we have before indicated the season is unfavorable to active trade, and it may be several weeks before the market regains activity. Our quotations are unaltered, and prices are strong and may be expected to advance as soon as any demand arises, which draws upon the stocks laid in for winter supply.

The charters comprise: A new Tern. schr., 520 tons (to arrive from Fall River), hence to Cadiz, staves, $60 for heavy pipe, $50 for heavy hhd., and $32 for bbl.; an Am. barque, 560 tons, from Portland to River Plate, lumber, $19, net; an Am. brig, 320 tons, from St. Marys, Ga., to River Plate, $27 and primage; a schr., 162 tons, from Jacksonville to Point Petrie, lumber, $10; two schrs., from Jacksonville to New York, resawed lumber, $9; one, 142 tons, hence to Jacksonville and back, with lumber, $11 for the round; one, from Jacksonville to New Haven, resawed lumber, $9; an Am. barque, 478 tons, hence to Malaga, staves, $50 for light and $70 for heavy pipe; an Am. barque, 439 tons, from a Mexican port in the Gulf to New York, wood, at or about $5,000; a Br. brig, 187 tons, to Trinidad, P. S., hhd. [shooks, 36 cents; one, 170,000 lumber, from Jacksonville to Port de France, Martinique, $9.50; a schr., 200,000 resawed lumber, from Cat Island, La., to New York, $12; one, 200,000, from Jacksonville to New York, $9.

EASTERN NOTES.

From the Boston Lumber Trade, Dec. 27:—

As usual at the close of the year, business is quiet. Prices remain steady without material change, and there is no fact to induce change in either direction. There is no excess of stock, in view of the probable wants of the opening spring trade, and business operations, involving any considerable demand are, and, for several weeks will be, suspended. There is but little Eastern lumber arriving, and even this amount is probably more than dealers desire just at this time. We note one arrival, viz., on the 26th, the schr. Charlie Bell, from St. John, N. B., with 66,300 feet spruce boards and 29,000 laths, for Edw. D. Peters & Co.

From the same:—

ST. JOHN. N. B., Dec. 22, 1873.

Since our last there is no change to report. A number of our mills are still running shooks, but unless some demand springs up for them we cannot expect the mills to run much longer.

The shipments of boards and shooks to Cuba, this winter, show a great falling off, in comparison with the shipments of former years, but we hope that after the holidays the Cuban market will improve.

In the deal trade we hear of some small contracts for next season's delivery, at about the same rates as were paid last year, but it is rather early to tell how this trade will open.

We hear of nothing going forward to the United States, about all of our coasters being laid up for the winter.

FOREIGN NOTES.

From the Liverpool (England) Shipping and Commercial Express, Dec. 4:—

(From Messrs. Farnworth & Jardine's Circular.)

The arrivals of mahogany during the month have been 974 logs from Tabasco, 277 logs from Belize, and 35 logs cedar from Tabasco. The auction sales here during the past fortnight have been well attended, and the whole of the mahogany offered was sold, the better qualities and larger sized wood sustaining their full value, although a slight reduction had to be conceded on the poorer qualities. For Tabasco mahogany there is a good and steady demand throughout the country, its present reduced value inducing the inland trade to buy freely for stock, which has enabled us to clear off the various imports as soon as landed; and the stock here now consists of one cargo only which has not yet commenced landing, although another is also ordered here. For Minatitlan wood there is a good demand, especially for large and good medium sized wood, in consequence of the almost entire absence of this in the late imports from Honduras, which have consisted chiefly of poor and small wood, for which low prices have had to be accepted; but a good cargo of fair-sized Honduras wood should sell rapidly. St. Domingo mahogany of good quality quite sustains its price, and at the late auction sales all the veneer wood, both in the City and Porto Plata cargoes, brought extreme prices, while lengthy curls also sold well; the stock of Spanish wood now consists almost entirely of short curls, which are very unsaleable. Cuba wood is much inquired for, and early arrivals will realize full prices, there being none in stock here. Cedar suitable for machine-making and segar boxes has fallen in value very considerably, and shippers would do well to curtail their operations; pencil wood also is dull, and the stocks are quite sufficient. Walnut from America and Canada has been more inquired for, and full prices have been realized; but we are afraid that these will hardly be sustained, as we hear of some heavy shipments to this country. Italian and Circassian wood are both very unsaleable, and the stocks are quite sufficient. Satinwood is in fair request, although prices are not so high as they were a short time since. Rosewood remains neglected, and the stocks are heavy. Zebrawood is but seldom inquired for. Lignumvitæ is wanted, the most saleable sizes being 7 to 10 inches diameter. Lancewood spars are wanted, and command extreme prices.

METALS.—Copper.—Manufactured is steady at previous quotations. The market has been active, with prices firm at 25 cents for cash deliveries and 26 cents for futures. Later, business fell off, prices remaining strong and unchanged.

Iron.—We are called upon again to vary our quotations. Scotch pig being generally dull; American pig is steady, with stronger indications. New rails have been quiet, with subsequent activity in American. Old have been in better inquiry. Scrap has moved more actively, and manufactured continues quiet but firm.

Lead.—Pig is quiet at 6¾@6¾ cents for foreign, and 6@6½ for domestic, and manufactured is steady at the usual rates.

Tin.—Pig has experienced some activity, but has lapsed into quietude, being quoted at 28¼@28¾ for straits; English, 26½@27½; and banca, 32@32½, all gold. Plates have met with some activity, but prices are unchanged and steady.

Zinc.—Sheet is dull at our quotations.

NAILS.—Cut are irregular, some lots offering lower than our quotations. Prices are somewhat nominal, and we quote: 10d. to 60d. common fence and sheathing, ₱ keg, $4.15@4.25; 8d. and 9d. common do ₱ keg, $4.50; 6d. and 7d. common do ₱ keg, $4.75; 4d. and 5d. common do ₱ keg, $5; 3d. and 4d. light, ₱ keg, $5.75; 3d. fine, ₱ keg, $6.50; 2d. ₱ keg, $7.25; 2d. fine, ₱ keg, $8.25. Cut Spikes, all sizes, $4.50; Finishing, Floor, Box, Coopers, Slating, and Brad Heads: 3d. (Slating), ₱ keg, $6.75; 4d. and 5d. ₱ keg, $5.50; 6d. and 7d. ₱ keg, $5.25; 8d. ₱ keg, $5; 10d. to 60d. ₱ keg, $4.75.

CLINCH NAILS.

1¾ to 1 in.	2 & 2¼ in.	2½ & 2¾ in.	3 in. and longer.
$6.25.	$6.00.	$5.75.	$6 ₱ keg.

OILS.—Linseed closed firm at 86@87 cents for crushers and 91 cents for boiled and refined.

PAINTS.—The market, although very quiet, has been firm, with stronger tendencies for many leading foreign goods. American white leads are strong, with a fair jobbing demand. Zinc paints are steady at quoted rates, and American red lead continues firm at 9 cents, currency. Vermilions are strong at our quotations. China clay is scarce for spot, and is held at $28, currency.

PITCH—Generally dull and nominal at $3.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market has been generally dull and nominal, and we quote at 40 cents for merchantable, 41 cents for shipping order, and 42 cents from store.

TAR—Has been nominal at $3, closing steady at $3@3.25 for all kinds.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.

Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

PIANO-FORTES.

THE DECKER BROTHERS
are the owners of the only patents granted to any person of the name of DECKER for improvements in
PIANO-FORTES.
All genuine
DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS
have the following line cast on the iron plate in the inner left-hand corner of the instrument:
"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the
DECKER BROTHERS
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.

This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.
EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE is guaranteed for seven years.

The splendor of tone for which the
DECKER BROTHERS'
instruments are world-renowned is the same in each of the three varieties of PIANO-FORTE—

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Quite a large number of our subscribers often desire to give the agency of their property to competent men, who are attentive to their business, judicious and honest. To such persons we can recommend no better gentleman than Mr. James R. Edwards, 69 West Twenty-third Street, next door to the Masonic Building. Those who have houses to rent, as well as for sale, and those who want to hire or purchase houses, will find it to their advantage to deal with Mr. Edwards, whose card appears prominently on our first page. We would also call attention to a characteristic advertisement of this gentleman on the last page of this paper.

Of the several Savings Banks in the city, none have become so popular as the Trades' Savings Bank, which transacts business in Twenty-third Street, near Eighth Avenue. The business of this institution has been increased under the present management more than one-half, for the simple reason that it is conducted more in accordance with the spirit of the times than its associate banks, which take more into consideration the conveniences of the institution than that of their patrons. At the Trades' Savings Bank you can draw your money as late as 8 o'clock in the evening, a convenience of great importance to those who keep their petty cash in a bank like this. We recommend all our up-town friends to open accounts with this bank, which deserves to be encouraged for its enterprise as well as its solidity.

INTERESTING ITEMS IN REGARD TO THE ANNEXED DISTRICT OF WESTCHESTER COUNTY AND THE REGISTER'S OFFICE AT WHITE PLAINS.

As all papers in regard to the annexed towns of Morrisania, West Farms, and Kingsbridge, which have been heretofore recorded in the Register's office at White Plains, are to be recorded in the Register's office of the city and county of New York on and after the first day of January, 1874, General Sigel, Register for the county of New York, has had an examination made in the various town offices of the annexed district as well as the Register's office at White Plains, and from him the following items have been obtained, which may be of interest to the public:

The Annexation Act, chapter 613, which provides for the annexation of the towns of Morrisania, West Farms, and Kingsbridge, in the county of Westchester, to the city and county of New York, passed May 23d, 1873, requires all chattel mortgages and other instruments in writing which have been heretofore filed by the various town clerks to be delivered to the Register of the city and county of New York. The whole number of chattel mortgages filed in the Town Clerk's office, town of Morrisania, is 684. The satisfaction pieces are filed with the chattel mortgages, and certified copies given at any time desired.

At the Town Clerk's office for West Farms, which is at Tremont, there is an old index book from 1858 to 1869, and according to the same there have been 220 chattel mortgages filed; while another index from 1869 to the present time shows the filing of 119 chattel mortgages, making a total of 339. Many of these are no longer valid, and no remarks can be found as to their being cancelled or not. These mortgages are not numbered, and there are no bills of sale.

The Town Clerk for Kingsbridge has on file in his office nine chattel mortgages.

At the Register's office at White Plains, upon a careful examination, the following was elicited:

On or about the 17th day of May, in the year 1684, A.D., the first deed, and about the year 1750 the first mortgage, was recorded in the office (though as to the latter, the date is not exactly certain.)

The entire number of Libers of Conveyances is 862, and of Mortgages 634, of which number there are 442 Libers of Deeds and 364 of Mortgages from the year 1860 to the year 1874. There have been about forty Libers of Deeds and forty of Mortgages for the whole county of Westchester from November, 1872, to November, 1873, and about one-fourth of these Libers are filled with instruments from the annexed district—Morrisania, West Farms, and Kingsbridge. The Libers, however, are smaller than those in the Register's office of New York city, the number of pages of a Liber at White Plains being 480, and at New York city 700. All papers relating to the conveyance of property, such as powers of attorney, agreements, &c., are recorded in the Libers on Conveyances. The total number of Satisfaction Books in the office is seventy-eight, of which about seven are used per year.

The indices to the Libers are similar to those in the Register's office of New York county.

As to the map department there are many very important maps deposited at the office at White Plains, a part of which ought to be copied, as they would be of great importance and benefit to the New York Register's office, especially the larger maps, such as the maps of Morrisania, &c.

The No. of maps for Morrisania at White Plains is.. 86
" " " West Farms " " " " ..105
" " " Kingsbridge " " " " .. 2

And many more for Kingsbridge which are found in the Index Book under "Yonkers."

"The books, records, documents, and other instruments in writing relating to the annexed district, and belonging to the office of the Register, shall remain the property of the county of Westchester. All conveyances by deed, mortgage, or all other instruments affecting the real or personal property within the territory hereby annexed—which are now required by law to be recorded or filed in the Register's office at White Plains until the first day of January, 1874—shall remain in the same force and effect as if this act had not been passed; and on and after such date all such conveyances, documents, and other instruments in writing shall be recorded and filed in the Register's office for the city and county of New York in the same manner in which like conveyances or instruments in writing are now required by law to be recorded or filed." All searching prior to 1874 will have to be made at White Plains, while the searches from January 1st, 1874, will have to be made in the Register's office of this city. Business men might find it a convenience if all the papers referring to the annexed district and contained in these Libers—say as far back as 1860—were copied in order to refer to them here, but a prudent person would, after all, only use them as a mere reference, and prefer the original books at White Plains. The copying of these papers would be an expense of from $25,000 to $30,000.

The number of officers in the Register's office at White Plains is fourteen, among them one searcher and eight copyists.

There are a great many questions to be decided in regard to the form in which papers have to be presented in the Register's office for record, and on this subject we will speak in a subsequent article.

THE TIMBER QUESTION.

To the Editor of the Real Estate Record.

SIR: In the Boston Lumber Trade of the 27th inst., Mr. B. Wait, of Muskegon, Michigan, reviews the letter of Mr James Little, of Montreal, on the question of the consumption and supply of timber, which was presented at the recent meeting in Chicago of the National Board of Trade, and which appeared in your paper of the 25th October last.

Seeing such a prominent article from a gentleman residing near what might be called the heart of the pine forests of the West, we have a right to expect some valuable information, instead of accusations of inaccuracies which exist only in his own imagination, and conjectures regarding the Canadian stock of timber of which he honestly enough avows his entire ignorance. If the estimates presented (of which he pretends to have some knowledge) are at all accurate, instead of disproving, they confirm in the most positive manner the correctness of Mr. Little's statements.

A careful examination of the letter referred to, and of Mr. Wait's remarks thereon, compels me to assume that he has never read the letter he has undertaken to criticise—not a single statement of any importance that he is so almost fierce in challenging appearing therein.

Referring to the consumption of timber he makes Mr. Little say "that the pine tree crop east of the Rocky Mountains will be totally consumed in five short years." This whole statement is simply gratuitous, as Mr. Little does not say anything of the kind, or anything in the slightest degree like it. What he does say (and his remark will bear reproducing) is, "The enormous consumption of lumber, timber, and shingles by the people of the United States is but partially realized by them or others. It can not be conceived by a statement in figures. No adequate idea can be formed of the quantity comprehended in ten thousand millions of feet,* the amount of the annual consumption, so as to realize the work of destruction that is going on. But they may, in some manner, be able to understand their position when the fact is presented that, notwithstanding the vast extent of their forests, ten to twelve years at the outside will leave them without a stick of pine, spruce, hemlock, or oak between the headwaters of the Mississippi and the Eastern seaboard." A prediction fully warranted by Mr. Wait's own figures presented below.

And again, "He avers, during the next twelve years, judging from the past, this country will require seventy thousand (70,000) millions feet of lumber, and that we have not more than half that amount remaining in the woods." This paragraph is, like the former one, purely imaginative, since Mr. Little avers nothing of the sort, nor is it at all likely he would do so; his whole argument going to establish the fact that the consumption of the country, allowing a reasonable increase for the future, would be more than double the amount in that time. He does speak of seventy thousand (70,000) millions feet as the probable amount that Michigan will be called upon to supply during the next twelve years to meet the extra demand that will be made on her on account of the other States getting short of stock.

This amount, however, appears to be twenty thousand (20,000) millions feet in excess of Mr. Wait's own estimate, which, together with his estimates of the stock of pine in other States, we give below, without attaching any value to them further than to show the absurdity of his pretensions. Mr. Wait's figures are:

Michigan	50,000,000,000
Minnesota	18,000,000,000
Wisconsin	16,000,000,000
Pennsylvania	7,000,000,000
West Virginia	7,000,000,000
Maine	1,500,000,000
New York	900,000,000
Florida (yellow pine)	1,700,000,000
North Carolina (yellow pine)	1,600,000,000
Georgia " "	1,500,000,000
Virginia " "	150,000,000
South Carolina " "	90,000,000
Total East of the Rocky Mountains	105,440,000,000
" West " " "	70,000,000,000
Grand total, North, South, East, and West	175,440,000,000

Leaving out of all calculations the seventy thousand (70,000) millions feet mentioned west of the Rocky Mountains, since we could get timber from the north of Europe for less than the cost of freight alone, even if the Pacific side did not want it all, and discarding the small figures, we have one hundred and five thousand (105,000) millions as the whole of the pine timber supply of the United States from the northern frontier to the Gulf of Mexico, and from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic Ocean, according to Mr. Wait.

Allowing these figures to be correct, it would appear that if the consumption is anything like the amount claimed for it, viz., ten thousand (10,000) millions feet annually, it would take only ten years and six months (to be exact) to use up all the pine timber in the whole of the United States east of the Rocky Mountains and down to the Gulf of Mexico, without any allowance for increase in the future rate of consumption. This is certainly a pitiful showing of the pine timber crop of the United States. Nothing in the tenor of Mr. Little's letter shows that even his view of the supply is not largely in excess of that here presented.

As to the stock of Canada, this gentleman with a few strokes of the pen magnanimously presents the Dominion with one hundred thousand (100,000) millions feet, or thereabouts, of pine, fir, and spruce, or at least says he believes there is this amount, but does not state any reason for his faith, It is full time to discard this method of treating the timber question, assuming any ridiculous amount when knowing nothing about it, and parading it before the country as authority. This has always been the way in which the question has been treated. When we go West we hear of the inexhaustible forests of Canada, and when in Canada we are called on to contemplate the illimitable forests of the West.

Mr. Little appears to have dealt very liberally in regard to the supply of Michigan, and it would seem only fair to allow him to speak of his own country, with which he is no doubt as conversant as anyone, and when he computes the available white pine of Canada at thirty thousand (30,000) millions feet, he probably knows what he is talking about.

Adding the Canadian supply, equal to three years, to that of the United States, and assuming the foregoing figures for this country as correct, we have thirteen years as the limit, without anticipating any increase whatever in the future rate of consumption; but allowing only five per cent. as the annual increase, it would take just ten years to use up every stick and description of pine, white or yellow, available for our use on the continent of America. Even admitting that the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota could furnish their present annual cutting for a period of twenty years, does not alter the case in the least, since these States, being the only extensive pine territory now remaining, must in a few years turn out more than double their present production, or we will be compelled to look to Europe for the largest part of our requirements.

In conclusion, the writer distinctly disavows all responsibility for the foregoing estimates, and claims only that he has drawn fair deductions from the figures presented by those pretending to be informed on the subject.

The more, however, this question is investigated, the plainer does it appear that Mr. Little is none too soon in calling attention to the rapid destruction of the forests of the country, and also to our folly in trying to keep out Canadian lumber by means of a senseless tariff.

WILLIAM LITTLE.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

Since our last report more life has been displayed in the general market than at the auction room. Several sales at private hands have occurred, and all of them are of fair indications. In view of this activity, in advance of the regular season, we are led to believe that there will be more inquiry, and a growing disposition to make real estate investments. Should this view prove correct, we may expect an active spring business. Prices continue well sustained, and we cannot see that the condition of the market is altered, except in the slight activity mentioned.

GOSSIP.

The Department of Public Parks has presented an application to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment requesting that there be set apart, out of the extra contingent fund, the sum of $83,906, to be used for surveying and laying out streets in the new Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards, during 1874; and to provide for indebtedness already existing in respect to the same. The Civil and Topographical Engineer connected with the Department is now actively engaged in examining the work necessary to be done in connection with sewerage, new streets, &c ...Within the past few years more than $2,000,000 of assessments have been set aside by the courts, and proceedings of this character are multiplying to such an extent that within the past three weeks nearly five hundred such proceedings have been commenced by one firm alone....The Counsel to the Corporation advises Mayor Havemeyer that he should not approve the resolutions passed by the Common Council authorizing the Commissioner of Public Works to do certain work in streets immediately adjoining the Riverside and Morningside Parks, as the law is not clear as to the r right to give this authority; and the probabilities are that the whole assessment would be eventually set aside, and the expense thrown upon the city.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

OPINIONS OF THE COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION.

Where by law the entire cost of a local improvement is assessable upon the property benefited, the Board of Assessors cannot deduct from the assessment the difference between the amount for which a first and delinquent contractor agreed to do the work, and the total cost as ultimately incurred upon the completion of the work by another contractor.

The city has a right of action for such difference against the sureties of the first contractor, and the recovery operates as a penalty to secure the corporation and local owners against delays from improvident bids and failures to perform.

But the laws do not give the amount reserved to the local owners; and the labor, expense, and trouble caused to the corporation, through its officers, in the matter of local improvements, are such as might render the retention of such recoveries in the city treasury equitable and just.

The Commissioners of the Board of Public Parks have the power at once to survey, map, and plan for bridges over and tunnels under the Harlem River, and to construct the same; also to make surveys, maps, and plans, for roads, avenues, streets, public places, and sewers, in all that part of Westchester County, if any, included in the territory over which they were given control in chapter 534 of the act of 1871, and not included in the boundaries of the towns of Westchester and Eastchester.

After January 1, 1874, the Park Commissioners, under section 14 of chapter 613 of the laws of 1873, are authorized to lay out, construct, and maintain, all the roads, avenues, and streets, in the towns annexed to the City of New York from the County of Westchester.

In such laying out and construction, the Commissioners will be governed by existing ordinances of the Common Council of New York, applicable to work of similar character.

The money required therefor must be raised by the City of New York, in the manner provided by law with regard to improvements in that city.

MARKETS.

Everything is in anticipation, and the dullness of trade continues unchanged. Foul weather has supplemented the inactivity of the holiday season by making business in almost every branch of the building market very nearly impracticable, although there are indications of reviving trade in the way of new and more frequent orders. Few goods have been moving, dealers awaiting clear skies. In some of the lines of trade prices are just now undergoing revision, and until new price lists are settled few reports of business from such sources can be expected. We present, in various instances of our report, comparative statements of prices of leading articles, which we would supplement with similar tables of export or consumption, only that full and reliable data cannot be obtained for the purpose.

BRICK—Are very inactive, and duller, if anything, than they have been previously. The weather discouraged movement, all building operations enduring an enforced suspension. The arrivals have been quite fully up to the average for the close of a season which the open weather has prolonged. Prices in 1873 attained a very low point, quoting, in some instances, 50 per cent. lower than at the beginning of the year, and in all cases, except in Croton fronts, showing a marked decline. Toward the close of the year values strengthened, and with the opening of the present year the variation in prices was not as remarkable, but still sufficient to indicate the altered character of business. For the present week, although of the dullest, prices remain unchanged, and we quote: Pale, ₱ M, $4@4.50; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7.25@8.75; Croton Fronts —brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT—Ended the year quietly, and from all reports with less business than for the year preceding. It naturally shared in the dullness which pervaded all branches of trade largely dependent upon active building operations, but maintained its price generally and steadily under the operation of the rule which fixes for the year a value which is nominally maintained no matter what concessions may occur to facilitate trade. The week past makes no new showing either in business or quotations. Trade is of a jobbing character, and indifferent at that, and we quote: Rosendale at $1.75@2, and foreign at $5@5.75 ₱ bbl.; delivery, 25 cents ₱ bbl., additional.

FOREIGN WOODS.—There is an increased activity in the market, or as stated to us "much improved feeling with a fair demand." The amount of business transacted during 1873 was about equal to that of 1872, and at one time promised better, as business prior to the panic was exceedingly fine. We have reported sales of 275 logs of Bahia rosewood at an average of 4 2-100 cents per pound, and of lignumvitæ, large, at $90, and small, at $18.50 per ton. Sales of west coast Mexican cedar were also held at an average of 17 cents per foot.

GLASS.—Trade has fallen off, and the market is quite inactive. American window is in very little request, and French is without business. Discounts are: for French, 50 and 10 to 60, and for American, 60 and 5. The volume of business for 1873 shows a decline of from 20 to 30 per cent., as compared with 1872.

HAIR—Is dull and nominal at 20@25 cents for cattle and 24@30 cents for goat. Prices throughout the past year have been irregular, and stocks have not been easy to work off, thus frequently inducing sales at rates below the general market prices, and oftentimes leaving quotations in doubt. The new year has not yet improved this condition of business, and much more must be done in the building line before the market can acquire a tone which can be called strong, or quotations which may be considered valuable.

HARDWARE.—We introduce this market exceptionally at this season. Its extent and variety preclude, in general, specific reports. The adversities of 1873 have naturally affected it, but to a more limited extent than other branches of trade local in character. The trade are now engaged in revising price lists and discount sheets, for which this is the season; until this week is completed, business will not be very active. Among the changes already noted are the following: Cut tacks, full weight, are reduced to 40 and 7½ ₱ cent., before 35, and half weight do. 70 and 7½, before 67½ and 7½. Iron shoe nails are now quoted 10 cents (½ cent off.) Copper tacks and shoe nails are reduced to 50, before 56 cents. A new list of the American Screw Co.'s screws shows no change for sizes under ¾ inch. Flat-head brass screws are quoted 52½ from old list, before 60 ₱ cent. discount, and round-head 50 off. ¾ inch, Nos. 12 to 16; ⅞ inch, Nos. 13 to 16; 1 inch, Nos. 12 to 20; 1¼ inch, Nos. 14 to 20; 1½ inch, Nos. 15 to 20; 1¾ inch, Nos. 16 to 24; 2 inch, Nos. 16 to 24; and all 2¼, 2½, 2¾, 3, 3½, 4, 4½, 5, and 6 inch are variously reduced. Other sizes are unchanged, and brass screws and machine screws remain as before. Discount on flat-head iron, 52½ ₱ cent., against 47½ ₱ cent. dis. from old list. Round head iron, 50 ₱ cent. dis., against 45 ₱ cent. dis. from old list. Fillister head iron, 45 ₱ cent. dis., against 40 ₱ cent. dis. from old list. Fillister head brass, 45 ₱ cent. dis., against 10 ₱ cent. from old list. The above subject to a discount of 7½ ₱ cent. for $500 in six months ending June 30. Stove bolts are quoted 15 ₱ cent. dis., before 10 per cent. dis. Tire bolts, 50 and 5 ₱ cent. dis., before 45 ₱ cent. dis. Coach screws, 15 ₱ cent. dis., before 10 ₱ cent. dis. Hand rail screws, 40 ₱ cent. dis., before 25 and 10 ₱ cent. dis. No. 6 Putnam horse nails are reduced to 28, before 29 cents. Wrought iron pipe is quoted 72½ ₱ cent. discount from the old list of Felix Campbell & Co. First quality planes are quoted 30 ₱ cent. discount, and 2d quality, 40. Boynton's saws are 30 ₱ cent. discount, and an extra 5 ₱ cent is allowed to the retail trade on prompt cash.

The Stanley Works present the following discount sheet: Strap and T. hinges, 30 and 7½ ₱ cent.; narrow wrought butts, 30 and 7½ ₱ cent.; table do., 30 and 7½ ₱ cent.; back flaps, 30 and 7½ ₱ cent.; pew-door hinges, 30 and 7½ ₱ cent.; chest do, 30 and 7½ ₱ cent.; broad fast and broad loose butts, 35 and 7½ ₱ cent.; reversible butts, 12½ and 7½ ₱ cent.

LATH—Are in little demand, but are nominally quiet and firm at $2 from dealers' hands. Eastern are quoted from the yards at $2.35. We append the following:

LIME.—The market is dull. A fair amount of stock is in dealers' hands, probably sufficient to meet all demands likely to accrue before spring. The course of the market for the past year was generally steady after a decline from the opening prices of the year. At one time dealers who thought to speculate were caught by an unexpected turn in prices, Rockland selling considerably lower than values previously considered cheap. This, however, was an exceptional occurrence, and was speedily changed by the action of the Rockland manufacturers who declined further shipments of their material. Prices, thereupon, resumed previous quotations. Our report at the opening of last year assumed a diminished manufacture during the year preceding of about 15 per cent. The circumstances of the past year must have largely increased this percentage, and has, probably, more than doubled it. We quote the market steady and firm at: State—common, $1; finishing, $1.50; Rockland—common, $1.10; finishing, $1.75 per bbl. The course of prices for a series of years may be gathered from the following:

COMPARATIVE PRICES, JAN. 1ST.

	Common, per bbl.	Lump, per bbl.		Common, per bbl.	Lump, per bbl.
1864	$1.35	$1.60	1870	$1.50	$2.00

LUMBER.—The weather has been specially unpropitious for business, which, in a wholesale and retail way, for the week just closed, was very dull. Not that the market is destitute of promise, for orders have been accumulating, and to an extent indicative of better trade than we have been called upon to report for several weeks past. The export trade seems to have obtained more life, and we hear reports of large orders awaiting shipment for the African coast—an unusual locality. Prices remain unchanged throughout our list, with every assurance of strength. Pine is in more active demand, and will probably meet with better business in the demand of manufacturers who are preparing to make up their goods for spring trade. Hardwoods are held firmly at the best prices, but do not meet with a very active call. There is fair ground for the belief that they will be in improved demand. Yellow pine is dull, and cargoes are not selling as freely as heretofore. Yard prices, however, are strictly maintained. Spruce is in indifferent request, Eastern being dull at $16@18. The hopeful expressions for trade in the earlier part of December were not realized, and business fell off largely in comparison with the same month in the preceding year. The year 1872 has been characterized as prolific of difficulties and surprises to lumbering men, but while it cannot be said that 1873 has been so full of surprise, it has certainly equalled, if it has not surpassed, 1872 in its difficulties. No demand has, seemingly, arisen during the past year as to fairly compensate the labor expended. In numerous instances trade has been forced at a loss, and capital engaged has suffered proportionately. The reasons are obvious. The demand has largely fallen off. There have been no accidents of fire to call for large supplies; the tendency of the financial interests of the country to crisis has curtailed many manufactures, and the reduction in the general requirements for building purposes has detracted from the demand. These opposing influences, aided by speculations, excited an overproduction and glutted the market until stocks were sacrificed to meet expenses.

Sacrifices of this character have not been sufficient to work off stocks at points of manufacture. The demand has been too inconsiderable to create active healthy trade. Through our contemporaries, at the sources of supply, we are assured of surplus stocks, and are informed that fewer logs will be cut during the present season. Yet, from various circumstances, we incline to the belief that a diminished logging business is doubtful, and we expect in the spring to find the mills running on full time, and turning out as much lumber as ever.

It is probable that, with another season, the lamentation of producers will be renewed, but this is not to be taken as an invariable demonstration of poor business. The trade for the year past must have some bright aspects, despite its many shortcomings, and we incline to believe that manufacturers take soldiers' license and grumble even at the best. The exports of lumber for 1873 have been a little in excess of those for the year, preceding, but the account is so evenly balanced as to be unimportant in detail.

The charters for the week comprise: a Br. brig, 250 tons, to Malaga, staves, at or about $51.50 for light pipe, and $41.50 for light bbl.; an Am. brig, 361 tons (now at Boston), from Norfolk to Matanzas, R. R. ties, 40 cents; an Am. schr., 301 tons, to Cardenas, cooperage stock, current rates; one, 200,000 resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to Portland, $11; two, from Mosquito Inlet to Norfolk, New York, or Boston, live oak, lump sums; an Am. brig, 487 tons, to Havana, box shooks, 15 cents; one, 248 tons, to Matanzas, box shooks, 15 cents; a schr., 150,000 resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to New York, $9; one, from Fernandina to New York, lumber, private rate.

MICHIGAN AND WISCONSIN NOTES.

From the Saginaw Courier, Dec. 31:—

All estimates of the log crop of this winter made last fall were of a small crop, not exceeding one-third of the amount put in one year ago. As the season advanced and the snow fell every circumstance confirmed the correctness of this calculation, and yet there was a fear on the part of many who were desirous that there should be no overstock that if the winter was favorable many who were holding back from want of means or for other causes would start in later or about the first of January. Reports from nearly every point where lumbering operations are conducted are to the effect that there is not one camp this year where there were five or six last winter, and that in many localities they have had no snow to speak of. This is the case in the neighborhood of Loomis and some localities on the Cass; and at no points, except possibly on the Shore streams and the upper Tittabawassee, is the hauling anywhere near decent. This will effectually dispose of additional operations, and will also curtail the operations of those already in the woods. A number of camps, it is reported, have stopped work altogether. The Mason County Record, published at Ludington, at the west end of the Flint and Pere Marquette Railway, says that many camps on the Pere Marquette have suspended work for want of snow. We are inclined to think that this falling off, while it may be a temporary hardship to some lumbermen who are heavily in debt, will work advantageously to the lumbering interests in general and to localities dependent upon the lumbering business. The tendency for the past few years has been for men to run wild into the lumbering business, and every lumberman seems to have used his utmost efforts not only to gain possession of all the pine lands within his reach, but each season to cut and put into the streams the greatest possible amount of pine logs, and to convert them into lumber as rapidly as possible. In this all-absorbing business every other productive interest in its vicinity has suffered neglect. The result has been that the streams have been crowded beyond their capacity, much valuable timber has been wasted, the markets have been overstocked, and lumber has been reduced to a price which will scarcely pay the cost of manufacture, and at the same time other important interests, such as the establishment of other manufactures, the development of our agricultural resources, the culture of our fruitful soil, all of which would have been sources of profit, have been neglected; and, as a consequence, lumbering districts feel more keenly than almost any other the pressure of hard times. The shortage in the log crop the present winter will decrease the supply of lumber in the market next season, and should there be a reasonable demand for the article prices must consequently advance. A prominent lumberman remarked to us the other day that he was glad to see such a winter as this, believing it to be for the best interests of lumbermen in general.

From the annual report of the Inspector-General of lumber for the Saginaw district, as published in the Saginaw Courier of January 1, we collate the following:

The amount of lumber certified to by this office is only about one-half the amount of lumber shipped from this inspection district. This discrepancy will always occur here, as some of our heaviest manufacturers never dispose of their stocks in this market but ship to their different depots for sale.

And some dealers from abroad buy logs and have them manufactured to suit their own markets; and, as a consequence, all such lumber is shipped without passing through this office.

The amount of lumber shipped through this office during the past year has averaged, by inspection, as follows, viz.:

Ten and three-quarters per cent. of qualities known as uppers, seventy-six and one-half per cent. of common, and twelve and three-quarters per cent. of culls.

The amount of lumber certified to by this office during the season of 1873 is as follows, viz.:

	Feet.
Upper qualities	21,157,089
Common	149,796,033
Culls	24,760,689
Total amount by inspection of qualities	195,713,811
Total amount measured straight	17,798,162
Total amount inspected and measured	213,511,973

The total amount of lumber manufactured through the past season at Manistee—as gathered from a statement in the Manistee Standard—is 183,245,071 feet, divided among seventeen mills, an increase of 12,939,156 feet over the amount cut last year. 100,000,000 feet of logs were left over at the close of the season, 45,000,000 of which are in Manistee Lake. As near as can be estimated there were 10,000,000 feet of lumber on mill docks. The estimated amount of logs to be cut this winter is put at 100,000,000 feet, which, with the amount left over, will leave a stock of 200,000,000 feet for next season.

The Muskegon Reporter gives the following as the result of operations on the east shore of Michigan for 1873:

	Feet of Logs.
White Lake, sawed	69,272,076
Muskegon Boom, rafted	407,115,650
Grand River, rafted	157,000,000
Grand Rapids, cut	67,231,387
Manistee, sawed	183,245,071
Pentwater	22,520,000
Ludington	87,009,891

From the Detroit Free Press of Dec. 30:—

We present below our annual summary of the lumber production of Michigan, for the season of 1873. It is not entirely complete, for the reason that reports are lacking from several lumbering points in the State. If in each instance—that is, in amount cut, and on hand, and to be put in—a small per cent. of the gross amount be added to the grand total, the estimates will be sufficiently, if not entirely, correct:

The Muskegon Lumberman has figures from Menominee which show the past season's cut there to have been 123,913,012 feet. Of this amount 40,000,000 feet will be held over.

At Ford River, Michigan, 18,000,000 feet has been cut the past season, and 3,000,000 feet of logs left over.

At Flint 64,100,000 feet of lumber has been worked up, 21,750,000 feet of which is held over, and, also, 32,500,000 feet in the shape of logs. As it is expected that 26,000,000 feet of logs will be cut in the Flint district this winter, there will be put upon the market from there, next year, 80,250,000 feet of lumber.

The Au Gres Company rafted, the past season, 63,281,236 feet, against 23,870,742 in 1872. The Rifle River Company handled 80,872,607 against 61,000,000 last year.

The Muskegon Booming Company, since the month of April, have docked 407,115,650 feet of logs.

There are 80,000,000 feet of lumber piled along the track of the Detroit, Lansing, & Lake Michigan Railroad, between Ionia and Howard City, awaiting shipment. This road is rapidly acquiring prominence in the State, as one of the chief thoroughfares leading to the lumber regions.

At Manistee, according to the Standard, there was last season cut 183,245,071 feet of lumber.

At Frankfort there was cut into lumber about 7,800,000, and into shingles 2,000,000, making a total of timber cut 9,800,000. There is being held over in logs 700,000 feet, and lumber 300,000. About 4,500,000 feet of logs will be put in this winter.

At Ludington 83,670,191 feet was worked up, of which 3,120,000 feet will be carried over, and also 27,800,000 feet of logs reserved for next season. There is expected to be 50,000,000 feet of logs cut this year.

At Pentwater there was cut 16,744,813 feet, with 3,720,000 feet of logs, and 1,500,000 feet of lumber still on hand.

At White Hall the season's cut has amounted to 29,470,086 feet, and at Montague to 51,109,082 feet, with 2,597,000 feet cut up into shingles. At these points 15,000,000 logs, and 13,000,000 feet of lumber are held over. During the winter, 47,000,000 feet of logs will be cut.

The figures for Muskegon are: Season's cut, 329,688,825 feet; logs and lumber to be carried over, 150,000,000 feet

In and about Grand Haven 117,535,000 feet have been cut, and also, 12,530,000 pieces of lath. Including shin gles, pickets, etc., the total cut for this neighborhood will be 121,600,000 feet. There is now on hand 26,900,000 feet of lumber, and 50,200,000 feet of logs. The present winter, 77,000,000 feet of logs will be put in.

We repeat here, for the sake of aggregating the whole figures for the State, the season's operations at Grand Rapids, as previously published in the Free Press, viz.: The season's cut of lumber amounts to 68,696,387 feet. There is 6,000,000 feet of lumber on hand, and 10,000,000 feet of logs. About 50,000,000 feet of logs will be cut this winter. During the past season, in addition, 18,000,000 shingles and 19,000,000 pieces of lath were manufactured.

At Big Rapids the season's cut reached the amount of 20,000,000 feet of lumber; 13,000,000 feet of lumber and 8,000,000 feet of logs will be carried over.

At Saugatuck and vicinity there was last season manfactured 65,000,000 feet; and at Newaygo and neighboring points, 125,000,000 feet.

The shipments from the Saginaw River, during the season of navigation, was 479,945,955 feet of lumber, 87,000,000 feet of lath, and 45,000,000 shingles. According to the figures published in the Free Press yesterday, 213,511,973 feet were inspected in the Saginaw district last year.

At Port Huron there was cut 36,969,210 feet of lumber, and 19,191,500 pieces of lath. There will be carried over 11,500,000 feet of logs, and 8,800,000 feet of lumber.

There are still in the booms at Au Gres and Rifle Rivers, Bay County, 33,250,000 feet of logs. In both these streams there will be put, this winter, 55,000,000 feet of logs.

The Tittabawassee Boom Company rafted, last season, 275,000,000 feet of logs.

GENERAL WESTERN NOTES.

From the Dubuque (Iowa) Herald of Dec. 30:—

Trade in lumber continues to be light, but the majority of dealers are experiencing as much as usual during the month of December, when it generally falls off. There is every prospect for a lively demand next spring, as stocks are low throughout the country, and lumber must come from some source for building purposes. Price lists are of little use at present. The desire to obtain trade "cuts" rates all round, and bills are filled at some figures.

After all that is said about dull trade, shipments show that it is fully as good as it was a year ago, going from what source it will.

From the Winona (Minn.) Republican:—

The editor of the Chippewa Herald has recently interviewed Governor Pound, president of the Union Lumbering Company, Chippewa Falls; ex-president Schricker, of the Beef Slough Logging Company; and S. B. Stannard, of St. Louis, secretary of the Patrick Brothers Manufacturing Company, on the prospects of the lumber trade during the coming season. Governor Pound thought that, should the winter continue favorable, more logs would be banked on the Chippewa this season than ever before. There are, however, very few old logs on hand, save such as have been driven past the mills, most of which are in Beef Slough. On other streams, he thought, the amount put in would exceed the general estimate. Mr. Schricker thought most of the mills on the Mississippi had enough of last season's logs to keep them going till July. There are 50,000 yet in Beef Slough, and a large number in the booms of the St. Croix and Black rivers, mostly ordinary logs. Mr. Stannard said that nearly every safe harbor on the Mississippi contained a large quantity of lumber, which would be thrown on the market in the spring, and the probability was that the market would be overstocked. All these gentlemen thought that the ordinary lumbering operations of the coming year would not prove remunerative to manufacturers. The increased product of lower grades, and the scarcity of first-class logs, would cause a wider difference in price; the poor tending downward, and the better grades upward. Manufacturers of the highest grades of lumber would make money, but on the lower grades there would be heavy losses.

PENNSYLVANIA NOTES.

We gather, from the Gazette and Bulletin of January 3d, the following comparative statement of the stock on hand at Williamsport, Pa.:

	Ft. Bd. Measure.
Stock on hand Jan. 1, 1873	152,062,053
Rafted out of boom in 1873	318,342,712
Total for 1873	470,404,765
Shipped in 1873	243,462,489
Stock on hand Jan. 1, 1874	226,942,276

If we add to the logs rafted out of boom for 1873 the logs floated by canal from Lock Haven to this point, and sawed at our mills, we have manufactured about 325,000,000 feet of lumber the past year.

The prices were about the same as 1872 up to the financial crisis, when a slight decline was perceptible, but the sales have not been materially affected.

Our lumbermen carry over, in their pools, about the same amount of logs as last year, while the boom is entirely empty, thus avoiding any possibility of loss from early spring freshets.

From the Chicago Journal:—

And now the lumbermen propose to hold a convention. At least a proposition to that effect is under consideration. The farmers, the printers, the ironmongers, the mechanics, the clergy, the railroad managers, and men engaged in nearly every kind of business are given to the assembling of themselves together to discuss their peculiar interests. It would probably pay the lumber interest also. The proposition was first made by a Chicagoan. The Michigan Lumberman seconds the motion heartily.

A Montreal man, one Little, is trying to scare folks by raising the cry of "Timber famine." Some one versed in the lumber statistics of the country gives the total pine resources of North America as 248,440,000,000 feet, but Mr. Little tells us that "the pine crop east of the Rocky Mountains will be used up in five years." It now amounts to 178,440,000,000 feet. This estimate may be an exaggeration. The lumbermen are afraid the duty on foreign lumber will be taken off, on the ground that timber, not lumber, needs protection.

It is worthy of note that while a reduction in the logging business of the season is noticeable the country over, the falling off is much greater East than it is at the West. In all likelihood our Chicago lumber market will rule higher next year than it did last summer. It could hardly go lower. The demand for city consumption may be small, but the prospect is that the country demand will be unusually large. The farmers are getting good prices, and will doubtless be liberal in making improvements in the coming season.

CANADA CORRESPONDENCE.

Review of the Lumber Trade of Canada, by CARBRAY & ROUTH, Lumber and Commission Merchants, of Montreal and Quebec, Dec. 31st, 1873.

It is always more pleasant to review a buoyant market than a falling or dull one. In the former case everybody is in good humor, for, though, it is true, higher figures have to be paid, still, better prices are realized, and the articles move off and are replaced as quickly as they can be handled; but in a dull season, no satisfaction is experienced in buying cheaply, for the yards are full and everything is plentiful but buyers.

The past year has been a most disappointing one, in this respect, to every one; opening at high prices, it is true, but with prospects of a large business at paying rates to everybody, all thought a rushing trade would be done, and laid themselves out accordingly. Though stocks were large at mills the markets supplied by them were almost bare, trade brisk and steadily advancing, and, as far as Canada was concerned, the cut of logs was reported small—adding another incentive to the cry of "short wool." We, however, early gave it as our opinion that there was something wrong, and that a fall in prices was close at hand. Indeed, before June, when the first new logs were only just reaching the saw, sellers were both numerous and importunate, and, up to the close of navigation, slight concessions were continually being made in prices on different pretexts, which, in the aggregate, showed, by the end of the season, a pretty considerable falling off. There is no doubt that matters would have mended considerably before the close, if the panic had not occurred, but this unfortunate affair killed off the reaction that was quietly and surely taking place.

With respect to next season, we have confidence in its prospects. A country like the United States, consuming 10,000,000,000 feet per annum, cannot pass two seasons like the last one; and, with a quieter money market, we expect to see a turn in affairs which cannot but have a considerable effect on lumber. We think, however, the improvement will come quietly, and for that reason will be all the more lasting.

Pine.—The stock of last winter, though fairly large, was soon exhausted; but, to the astonishment of mills, no contracts for new cuttings were made, and, as week after week passed without sales, manufacturers began to think that it was time to change plan of operations. Many, therefore, turned on to deals, which sold well during the whole season and at paying prices. We append a comparative statement to show that if in spring, 1871, there was money in making deals there was decidedly no risk in accepting the quotations for June, 1873. Prices are per Quebec standard hundred (2,750 feet B. M.).

Pine—1st quality	$84	$112
2d quality	54	72
3d quality	27	36
Spruce—1st quality	32	44
2d quality	23	36
3d quality	16	28

The stock of sawn lumber now on hand is large, but will be in fine shipping order by opening of navigation, and we shall be very much mistaken if it does not largely changed hands during the course of the winter. There are already appearances of this, and, as mills are disposed to be liberal, no large dealers will lose the opportunity of laying in a cheap stock if he can only convince himself that the prospects ahead are fair; we think there are many who will have no difficulty in coming to this conclusion. We might add that the cut last year was smaller than the previous year, only day work (or half time) being the rule at all the large pine mills, and the logs having come to hand very late, many mills lost a month's sawing. The logging will not be large, but we look for a fair average get out; mills laying themselves out to cut sufficient logs to keep themselves busy the whole next season, night work excluded.

Spruce.—Nothing whatever was done with the United States in 1873, if we may except some trifling shipments of boards manufactured the previous season, and which could not have been cut up this year for the prices at which they were shipped. Every spruce mill, as early as January and February, decided on cutting deals for the European market, and, as must be observed by our comparative statement above, the result was entirely satisfactory to them; their cutting thus netting them between $13@14 ₱ M feet, instead of $10@11—prices realized for boards in 1872.

The season for logging in the spruce sections being extremely propitious, a very much larger quantity will be made than usual, if the winter continues as favorable to the end, but a large proportion is already contracted for, to be cut into deals, and the balance is intended for the same purpose, but held at present for higher prices.

Hemlock.—Comparatively little doing in this wood, though there was some demand, at the beginning of the season, for 3-inch stuff to replace 3-inch cull pine which was very high. There is a very large quantity of this description of lumber in Canada, but it is considered that present quotations do not pay for cutting it.

Shipments.—To River Plate show a considerable advance, as will be seen on reference to our export list. It comprises every quality of lumber, both dressed and in the rough, pine, spruce, and a little hemlock.

Freights.—(The best index of state of business) were extremely dull, by canal, the whole season, paying very litle more than boats' running expenses, and closed at 30 @35 per cent. less than rates paid last year. Ocean freights were very high, and ruled 30@40 per cent. higher than in 1872.

EASTERN NOTES.

From the Boston Lumber Trade, Jan. 5:—

We have nothing to report this week of change either in stocks or prices of lumber. As usual, at this season, business is entirely at a standstill. Business operations, involving any considerable transactions, will be suspended for some weeks; though, as we have suggested, there is every reason to expect an opening of trade earlier and an amount greater than usual. This, we believe, is in accordance with the opinion of gentlemen of largest experience and information in the trade. There have been no arrivals of lumber from the Eastward.

The arrivals of hardwood for the past two or three weeks have been very light indeed, with the exception of one cargo which has been placed in hands where its influence will not be felt on the market. We are in hopes that the small arrivals of hardwood will have a beneficial effect on the market by helping dealers to sell off what stock they may have accumulated, and that as the manufacturers start up in spring the demand will be equal to if not in excess of the supply. The stocks of lumber in this market are light, our dealers having, as a general thing during the year, purchased only to supply immediate wants; and the course they have pursued has been a most judicious one, as their credit has stood unimpared during the recent ordeal; and should spring trade open lively better prices can be realized than had they overstocked themselves.

METALS.—Copper.—Manufactured is steady at 33 cents for new sheathing; bolts and braziers 35; nails 40; yellow metal, new sheathing, 26; bolts 32, and nails 26 cents. Business has not been brisk, ingot selling at 21¾@25 cents for present, and 26 cents for February delivery.

Iron.—Scotch pig has been in limited demand, and the arrivals, amounting to about 1,000 tons, have all been placed in store. American pig is quiet; rails of all kinds are inactive, and scrap is without movement of note. Refined bar from store is dull, and we note a reduction of $10 per ton in "Burden's Best," ordinary sizes. The imports of iron to New York for 1873 were—

Lead.—Pig has been quiet, and prices are nominally as heretofore. Pipe and sheet are quoted at 10 cents; bar at 9¼ cents, and tin-lined pipe at 16½ cents, less the usual discount. The imports for 1873 were as follows—

	Pigs.

Tin.—Pig has weakened, and prices are in buyers' favor. Plates are quiet, but steady and strong at our quotations.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.

Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economicaland durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the

This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.
EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Our numerous up-town subscribers are referred to the card, prominently displayed, of Messrs. S. B. Goodale & Co., 5 West Twenty-third Street (Fifth Avenue Hotel.) It will be seen that these gentlemen, who were the pioneer brokers in that section of the city, can attend to all matters pertaining to real estate without incurring, on the part of our readers, the necessity of going down town. As they are commissioners for all the States in the Union, they are enabled to draw up all papers required by the laws of distant States, and official documents can thus be had in all their amplitude without going below Twenty-third Street.

FIRE-PROOF MATERIAL.

We lately witnessed a series of experiments in testing the Teil Cement which is designed for the construction of fire-proof buildings, partitions, flooring, ceiling, and for general building purposes. The experiments were made in presence of the Board of Fire Underwriters and several members of the press, and were eminently satisfactory in supporting the claims of their projectors to the production of a fire-proof material. The tests were as follows:

1. A small house made of hollow cement blocks with walls seven and one-half inches thick in some parts, and eleven and one-half in others, was unequally divided by a partition of the same material, seven and one-half inches in thickness. The ceiling was composed of two-inch hollow blocks attached to wooden beams, and the floor of blocks laid between wooden beams, which were thinly covered with cement. A large fire, profusely sprinkled with crude petroleum and fed with wood until intense heat was obtained, was kindled in this building. The fire in the house was extinguished after burning about an hour. The exterior of the partition was scarcely warm, and when a hole was cut in the flooring the beams were found unscorched.

2. A section of a Mansard roof was also exhibited, composed of two-inch hollow blocks of the cement for the ceiling, resting on iron strips, which were attached to wooden beams. Above this, at a distance of seven inches, was a roof composed of wooden purlins and solid arched blocks of the cement, two and a half inches thick at their centres. Hot fires were kindled against this roof, within and without and were steadily maintained for about forty minutes. Water was then thrown on, without cracking the cement, which had remained firm and hard. The roof was cut through, and the wooden partitions were found unscorched.

3. A hollow block, containing three compartments, filled with shavings, paper, and a stick of pine wood. The apertures were closed with fresh cement, and the block was then thrown into the fire in the model house, where it was drenched with petroleum. After remaining in the flames for about twenty minutes it was removed and broken open, when its contents were taken out uninjured.

THE TIMBER QUESTION.

Mr. James Little, of Montreal, takes up the gage of war offered by Mr. Wait, of Muskegon; and in a long letter to the Boston Lumber Trade reviews the assertions of Mr. Wait in somewhat similar style to the communication upon the same subject in our last issue. Mr. Little disputes Mr. Wait's construction of his opinions and expressions, and taking Mr. Wait on his own ground among other things says:

The Provincial Government and lumbermen of Canada will be surprised to learn that there are such magnificient timber territories yet remaining in the Dominion, of the existence of which they have been so long ignorant. It certainly will be news to them to hear that they have within five per cent. as much timber yet left as all the States of the Union from the Rocky Mountains and the Gulf of Florida East, which he estimates at 105,000,000,000.

* * * * * * *

The only pine sections of any moment in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec are Georgian Bay in the former, and the valley of the Ottawa, which divides them. The spruce is confined chiefly to the valley of the St. Lawrence below Montreal, and that is called the Eastern Townships, and there is scarcely a river, stream, or creek within the provinces but has been explored from their mouths to their sources by the lumbermen, and with but a few exceptions below Quebec have been lumbered on for years. * * * *

Ottawa is the only extensive pine region we have, and with a few exceptions, where the owners preserved their limits for the sawmill, and some Government sales which took place recently on the head waters of that river, the whole region has been run over time and again for square timber, and they are now rapidly stripping it of what is left for the sawmills, and as we will, in a very few years from now, be called on to supply the Eastern and Middle States with nearly their whole consumption, I am convinced we will not have as much pine left as will supply our own local wants a dozen years after the close of the next decade. * * * * *

The amount of sawed lumber, as given by satisfactory statistics, supplied for the annual consumption of the Northern States, including what is furnished by Canada and the South, is 6,500,000,000. All the timber used for all purposes, square, round, and flat; all the timber made into shingles, and all the produce of the small mills in the Northern timber section, required for local wants, and of which no estimate is made, will amount, altogether, at a very low computation to 500,000,000, which, added to the sawed lumber, will give a total of 7,000,000,000, showing just fifteen years' supply for the Northern States alone, without leaving a foot in the South either for home consumption or export, and this on his own figures of the aggregate amount of the whole of "Uncle Sam's Eastern Farm" as he calls it; and if we add but five per cent. yearly increase the North will use up all the timber of both North and South in less than twelve years, allowing what is now received from Canada to fill up the deficiency which must, in the nature of things, arise from the innumerable mills scattered over the country, outside the timber sections, being thrown idle for want of saw stock.

The present year will, of course, be an exceptional one as regards consumption, not because lumber will not be required, but by reason of the temporary money stringency, which will restrict both supply and demand. We see, however, that in the face of a money panic raging since the beginning of September last, Chicago shipped about forty per cent. more lumber last year than the preceding one, and yet it is well known that the retail yards, both East and West, are unusually short of stock, and it is a question if it would not require all that remains at the mills to fill them up their usual proportions, which goes to show that no falling off or even stationary demand need be apprehended when the money market assumes its normal condition.

GOSSIP.

The Superintendent of Buildings, in extending the functions of his Department to the new wards, notifies builders and property owners that plans and specifications for all new buildings, alterations, repairs, and removals must be presented to his Department for examination and approval, prior to the commencement of the projected work. The Superintendent further notifies architects, builders, and others, having plans and specifications for the erection, alteration, or repair of buildings to file with his Department, that in all cases where iron girders or lintels are provided to support brick walls, it will be necessary to submit properly drawn and figured elevations of the walls to be so supported ...The books of annual record of the assessments upon the real and personal estate of the City and County of New York, for the year 1874, are now open for inspection and revision, and will remain open until the 30th day of April, 1874, inclusive, for the correction of errors and the equilization of assessments....The Department of Public Works reports the following list of certificates of cost of improvements, transmitted to Board of Assessors: Outlet sewer, in Eightieth Street, through Hudson River Railroad to Eighty-first Street, to Tenth Avenue, to Eighty-third Street, to Ninth Avenue, to Eighty-eighth Street, to Eighth Avenue, with branches, $154,682.18; under-ground drains, between Seventy-fourth and Ninety-second streets, and Eighth and Tenth avenues, $93,042.66; regulating, grading, &c., Sixty-seventh Street from Third to Fourth Avenue, $7,065.54; total, $254,790.38.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

The general market continues to evidence life, several sales, through private sources, having been reported since our last review. All of these transactions are of fair merit, as regards the condition of the market, and one of them (lots on Eighth Avenue, at One Hundred and Second Street) would have been exceptionally noteworthy but for the fact that the quoted price is the result of a trade. This circumstance detracted from the strength of the sale. At the Exchange the usual formalities of the season have been indulged in, and foreclosure proceedings have nearly monopolized business; but a change is apparent, even here, for we have noted one or two offerings in the regular course of trade. These last, however, have not been prolific of results, and did not realize prices sufficient to prevent them from being bought in. There is no abatement of opinion. The same prices are asked, and there is a fair amount of examination and inquiry, and the market continues steady, with moderate movement.

MARKETS.

Trade for the past week, although a little improved in some of its aspects, has not been good. Together, the markets are dull, with no present prospect of activity. This must endure for several weeks, as nothing short of an extraordinary emergency will induce any active building before the chances of the Spring season have been generally taken into account. The real estate market may favorably affect building interests; but this is completely dependent upon its activity and the designs of buyers. Speculative building chances have been about all taken up, and it is likely that business will be confined to the steady call of legitimate trade, which, by comparison with the over-production and speculation in building operations, and everything connected with them, puts a duller aspect upon business than it would otherwise be entitled to wear.

BRICK.—The market is very dull. The open weather has prolonged shipments hither, and until the river closes decidedly, we may look for continued arrivals, and consequently no stiffening in prices. The chances just now are in buyers' favor, dealers picking up cargoes at slightly reduced rates, and putting them off to whosoever can or will take them at a very slight margin of profit. Quotations are nominally unchanged, as follows: Pale, ℔ M, $4@4.50; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7.25@8.75; Croton Fronts—brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

In our comparative statement of prices published in our last issue, the market price of Philadelphia Fronts upon the 1st day of January, 1872, was by a misprint incorrectly quoted at $28@30. The proper statement is the following:

	1872.	1873.	1874.
Phila. Fronts.	$32.00@35.00	$40.00@45.00	$28.50@30.50

CEMENT.—Cement is in very indifferent request, at $1.75 for Rosendale; and $5@5.75 for foreign. Delivery to be added.

FOREIGN WOODS.—We have no changes to note diverse from the character of our last report. Trade indicates improvement and a demand fair enough to promise better business. Our quotations are retained.

GLASS.—Importers of French window have had a conference, concluding with a determination to advance prices, the advance, however, to be left to the judgment of the respective dealers. This action of dealers amounts to little more than an agreement to do what they have all along been doing, that is, selling at their convenience, and upon the best terms to keep their trade. A slight advance in prices all round may be expected, say from 5 to 15 per cent.; but in default of active trade we retain our quotations, premising that the market is firm, with upward tendencies.

HAIR—Presents no feature calling for criticism or review, and is dull and inactive at our quotations.

HARDWARE.—The market is fair and prices are generally well sustained both in foreign and domestic stocks. We present the following lists of discounts: Ames' shovels, reduced to 12½ ₱ cent. dis., with an additional 5 ₱ cent. for $500 in the six months. Lock manufacturers have agreed upon a uniform list for door and pad, dis. 50, and 2 ₱ cent. Parker's parallel vises are quoted 20 ₱ cent. dis. Parker's blind hinges 90 and 95, are reduced to 50 and 10 ₱ cent. dis.

The Stanley Rule & Level Co. have issued a new Price List. Sliding T bevels are quoted 45 ₱ cent. off; gauges, 45 ₱ cent.; hard screws, 25 ₱ cent.; hickory and lignumvitæ mallets, 10 ₱ cent.; planes—Bailey's patent, 20 ₱ cent.; plumbs and levels, non-adjustable and patent do., 60 ₱ cent.; Stanley's boxwood rules, 60 ₱ cent.; ivory do., 50 ₱ cent.; screw drivers, No. 1, 30 ₱ cent.; do. No. 2, 40 ₱ cent.; spoke shaves, 10 ₱ cent.; tackle blocks, 25 ₱ cent.; and try squares, No. 2, 45 ₱ cent.

Nettleford & Chamberlain screws, &c., are quoted the following discounts from the American list: iron screws, flat head, 52½ and 10 ₱ per cent.; iron screws, round head, bright, 50 and 5 ₱ cent.; brass screws, flat head, 52½ and 10 ₱ cent.; brass screws, round head, 50 ₱ cent.; machine screws, flat head, 60 and 12½ ₱ cent.; machine screws, round head, 60 ₱ cent.; stove bolts, round head, 15 ₱ cent.; screw eyes, hooks, and gate and cornice hooks and eyes, iron, 70 ₱ cent.; do. brass, 70 ₱ cent.; rivets, 8 oz. to 3 lb., 40 ₱ cent.; rivets, 4 lb. to 14 lb., 33⅓ ₱ cent. The Wheeling Hinge Co.'s goods are quoted as follows: strap and T hinges, 40 ₱ cent. dis.; narrow and wrought butts, 35 ₱ cent. dis.; table hinges, 30 ₱ cent. dis.; back flaps, 30 ₱ cent. dis.; loose joints, 40 ₱ cent. dis.; broad butts, 40 ₱ cent. dis.; reversible butts, loose joint, 40 ₱ cent. dis. And wrought iron goods as follows: wrought hasps and staples, 60 and 10 ₱ cent.; wrought hooks and staples, 60 and 10 ₱ cent.; wrought staples, 60 and 10 ₱ cent.; wrought rings and staples, 60 and 10 ₱ cent. Screw and strap hinges: 8, 10 and 12 inches, 7½ cents ₱ lb. net; 14 to 36 inches, 6½ cents ₱ lb. net. Hook and eye hinges: ⅜-inch in diameter, 13 cents ₱ lb. net; ⅝-inch diameter, 11 cents ₱ lb. net; ¾-inch diameter, 10 cents ₱ lb. net; ⅞-inch diameter, 10 cents ₱ lb. net.

LATH—Are in light jobbing demand, and are firm at $2.00.

LIME.—The market is very quiet and almost inactive, the demand at present being confined to indoor work. We quote: State—common, $1; finishing, $1.50; Rockland—common, $1.10; finishing, $1.75 ₱ bbl.

LUMBER.—Business at the yards has been a trifle better, and more activity has developed, chiefly confined, however, to disposing of orders which accumulated during the rainy weather. Prices are generally unchanged. We advance our quotation upon 1¼ inch spruce splank one cent, and quote white wood, inch. at $45, lowest rate. We have added cypress to our list, quoting at $45@55 for all kinds. This wood is esteemed valuable for use in tanks, brewers' vats, and for kindred purposes. Pine is firm and in moderate request, at our quotations. Hardwoods are strong, with a light demand. Yellow pine is without much business, in a retail way. Cargo rates are $29@33. Spruce is in very ordinary request, Eastern selling at $16 for chance cargoes, and at previous quotations for ordered schedules, with arrivals seemingly diminished.

The charters comprise a tern. schr., 258 tons, from Jacksonville to Matanzas, railroad ties, 40 cents; a schr., 165 M lumber, from Jacksonville to Trinidad, P. S., $10; a schr., 150 M resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to New York, $9; option New Haven, $9.50; one, 180 M do., from Charleston to New Haven, $8; one, 300 M. do., from Savannah to the Sound, $8.50; an Am. tern. schr., 413 tons, from Boston to River Plate, lumber, $20 net; an Am. schr., 300 tons, to Cardenas or Matanzas, box shooks, 15 cents; a Tern. schr., 357 tons, to Havana, at or about $1,400, and back from Pensacola, lumber, $12; a schr., 160 M lumber, from Jacksonville to Martinique, $9.50; an Am. brig, 326 tons, to Matanzas, box shooks, 15 cents; and back, molasses, $4; a schr., 130 M resawed lumber, from Pensacola to New York or a Sound port, $12; one, 150 M lumber, from Brunswick to Fall River, $9; one, 200 M lumber, from Fernandina to New York, $9; one, 250 M dry boards, from Fernandina to Philadelphia, $8; and one, 150 M resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to Philadelphia, $8.50.

GENERAL WESTERN NOTES.

From Berthold & Jennings' Annual Lumber Circular.
St. Louis, Mo., January 1, 1874.

The year 1873 has developed many remarkable phases in all branches of trade, and presented features of a character wholly unexpected, leaving, in many instances, the well-studied theories of so-called scientists totally undemonstrated; or, more properly, facts have occurred requiring, as it were, new sets of principles from which to evolve the results as they have transpired. No other branch than the lumber trade, with its exclusive and peculiar systems of conducting manufacture and supply, is more sympathetic or answers quicker to any great favorable variation, or depression in the financial markets and affairs of the country, and in point of fact as well as theory, it has proved itself a veritable barometer in this much, that almost of necessity it has felt the influences and effects, and has quickened and increased, or for the time being, suffered.

DESTRUCTION OF THE FORESTS.

The extensive destruction and denudation of the forests in the United States and Canada, which is continued in augmented proportions, has become a subject of such moment and consideration as to merit notice at all times. About one hundred and seventy-five thousand acres of pine were cut the past year in Minnesota and Wisconsin for building purposes alone, and the greater portion destined for the Mississippi River markets. This amount will be increased gradually until the extent will be prodigous, yet it is reasonable to believe, from the immense quantities of standing pine in those States, that for some time no important direct influence will become palpable; still, in fifteen years or so, it can be prophesied, with show of fulfillment, that the supply of lumber will be a source of anxiety and calculation to consumers who now give the fact little attention. It is true that there are vast quantities of yellow pine and cypress in the South which cannot be consumed for many years, and this restricts the demand for Northern timber to the Northern, Middle and part of the Western States, and a portion of the Eastern seacoast. We mention this fact, as many Northern authorities fail to notice this large supply of first-class material growing in the Southern States.

QUALITY OF LOGS.

The greatest difference exists in the quality and size of white pine logs that were cut twenty, and as late as twelve years ago, and those manufactured into lumber now. It was usual, say fifteen years ago, for logs sent to river mills to scale from 500 to 1,200 feet board measure for ordinary lengths, and the largest percentage into the better grades; while now they only run from 200 to 275 feet to the log, or about six to three to the thousand feet, and three and a half logs to the thousand are considered a good average. This shows that the best trees have been selected, and that the better timber grows close to the banks of streams. Logs are hauled now as far as two to eight miles from the banks.

CHANNELS OF TRADE.

It has become a matter of much comment in the white pine regions, and the opinion prevails to some extent, that transactions with consumers will be transferred from dealers, or middle men, to the manufacturers, and in connection therewith that the railway is fast usurping the function of the Father of Waters for transportation of lumber, and also that the river markets will inevitably lose much of their trade and profits. As there are grounds for a difference in belief, it may not be improper to present a few points in this connection. Lumber markets, or distributing points of any magnitude, are invariably situated on large water routes, and one thing which makes itself prominent here, is the cheapness of bringing the lumber to these points. It is manifest that it can be rafted and floated, (and has been sent by vessels to lake ports), at less cost than by loading and shipping on cars by rail. Lumber, from its bulky nature, requires immense tonnage to handle it, and it will be some time before railroads can furnish sufficient facilities for the large business done in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Consumers need over two-thirds of their material seasoned, and with the capital now, or may be, in use in the West, it is improbable that the mills will undertake to stack and hold their lumber for the purpose of retailing to them. Indeed, the mill-men have generally been compelled to realize on the most of their winter's cut before a succeeding winter, to enable them to carry on operations in the woods. Again, country consumers will buy their lumber from convenience where they ship their products. Dealers and river markets are a necessary evil (?) and convenience to mill-men, and will never lose their occupation.

TRADE OF 1873.

We give the following statement, showing the extent of the log yield for 1873:

	Feet.
Total amount cut on the St. Croix, Chippewa, Black, Wisconsin, and Upper Mississippi	1,031,380,000
Amount on hand January 1st, 1873	430,000,000
Total	1,461,380,000

By comparison with our statement of last year, the supply for 1873 will be found to be 118,120,000 feet less than for 1872. There were 310,620,000 feet less cut during the winter of 1872-73, but the amount of old logs left over from the season of 1872 was 430,000,000 feet, showing a difference in excess of amount left over from the season of 1871 of 192,400,000 feet. This was yet a larger stock than events warranted, but with the poor facilities for presaging future occurrences at command of the present generation, lumbermen must be content to believe this one of the impenetrable mysteries of Providence, which is, however, meagre consolation. There was less lumber needed to satisfy the demand during the period from April to October than even for the corresponding period of 1872, and few opportunities were given to make inroads into new stocks. The inactivity, painfully apparent during September, which culminated in a senseless panic, and the prevalence of utter lassitude and passiveness ever since, placed manufacturers, especially those holding lumber, in a serious predicament, and the situation was only intensified by maturing liabilities at this most inopportune time. Of course, it was impossible to make a fair disposition, and the condition has improved little or none, except in the exhibition of a better feeling.

ST. LOUIS MARKET.

In placing before the business community identified with the lumber trade of our city, an exhibit of the past season's transactions, we would mention the fact, that the large profits characterizing the business of five, ten and fifteen years ago, are fast becoming less sure, and are reduced to a more certain method of fair profits, according to the energy and tact necessary to keep up with the requirements of the times. It is therefore very desirable and convenient to have a complete exposition of each year's results, to establish a foundation for judgment and ideas of the coming year, and we are glad to continue our circular for their benefit, and hope for more co-operation in preparing our future statements.

The demand for city consumption in the spring was excellent, and a goodly amount of lumber was required; but the shipping trade was comparatively small, and did not meet the justified expectations. A great many houses were erected, but operations suffered a serious impediment in the stringency of money in the fall. The receipts of lumber were much larger than for 1872, in the aggregate, and more capital found employment than ever before.

LUMBERING IN THE UPPER MISSISSIPPI VALLEY.

Upper Mississippi River.—There were cut and banked on this river and tributaries above Minneapolis during the winter of 1872-73, 176,380,000 feet of logs, and with 50,000,000 feet on hand at the commencement of the season, the total stock reached 226,280,000 feet for 1873. There were 161,880,670 feet scaled and manufactured at Minneapolis during the year, and 34,500,000 feet at points above. There are now 30,000,000 feet of logs in booms ready for 1874. The operations are about ten per cent. above the aggregate of 1872.

St. Croix.—On this river and tributaries the amount of logs put in during the past winter footed up 180,000,000 feet, and there were 80,000,000 feet on hand in the entire river to commence with. The amount run in booms at Stillwater was 166,000,000 feet, of which 63,000,000 feet were manufactured at that place, and the balance, 103,000,000 feet, run through for points below. There are about 40,000,000 feet on hand so far, this winter, at Stillwater.

Chippewa.—The total feet of logs cut on the Chippewa and tributaries, in the season of 1873, was about 400,000,000 feet, and the stock on hand at the beginning was 80,000,000 feet. There were 264,760,000 feet of lumber manufactured at Eau Claire, Menominee, and Chippewa Falls, and 55,000,000 shingles and 75,000,000 lath. There are now 70,000,000 feet in the river. The amount banked did not include all cut.

Black River.—There were cut and banked on this stream, &c., during the winter of 1872-73, 175,000,000 feet of logs; run out during the summer of 1873, 195,000,000 feet, of which amount 50,000,000 feet were manufactured into lumber at La Crosse. There were 10,000,000 feet of lumber also run out. There are about 175,000,000 feet of logs back in the river to come out.

Wisconsin.—During the winter of 1872-73 there were cut and banked 60,000,000 feet of logs, and there remained over from the previous winter, 40,000,000 feet in booms and small tributaries, which gave a total supply of 100,000,000 feet. About 70,000,000 feet were run into booms. The amount of lumber manufactured during the season was 80,000,000 feet, and the quantity being held for 1874 is variously estimated at 30,000,000 to 40,000,000 feet.

REVIEW AND PROSPECTS.

The various estimates and statements which precede these remarks, tend to show that the year was in some respects an anomaly in the history of the lumber trade. The supply (speaking of pine) was smaller than the previous year, yet the stocks on hand now (with the exception of Chicago) are larger in the majority of important markets in the West. This is incontrovertible evidence that the demand and sales were of less magnitude than during 1872, from causes noted before. There is one thing in this trade which is hardly correct from the natural order of things, and that is, the supply has has not been governed by the demand, as the supply is necessarily furnished before the extent or character of the demand is known, and lumbermen have almost invariably used their last opportunity to make their cut as large as they could. The stocks of lumber held have cost as little as they ever will, and there is every reason to believe that the trade will increase. The value of stumpage is rapidly enhancing, and is an object of interest and investment by capitalists. As regards St. Louis, although holding large stocks (unusually so) of white pine, yet the receipts are not as large as during 1869 and 1870, and still there are more avenues of trade opened, and railroads have since developed large sections of country. The stock is not as large as it should be, considering that St. Louis should control a great portion of trade that up-river towns receive. And first of all the question of railroad freights and facilities are paramount and merit attention they do not get. Persistent efforts on the part of dealers would not be useless, and will bear fruit eventually. In the northern pineries the expectation and general belief is now that not more than one-fourth on some streams to one-half on others will be put in this winter. Wages have been reduced thirty-three per cent, and it is feared by some that the lumbermen will endeavor to increase their cut just in proportion as is saved in this way. For instance, we will suppose there are 200,000,000 feet put in on the Chippewa the present winter. It requires the labor of twelve men in a season's work to cut and bank

1,000.000 feet of logs, and to bank 200,000,000 feet there would be a saving (counting the reduction as one-third) to allow the putting in of 100,000,000 feet for nothing at last year's prices for the 200,000.000 feet; but this would necessitate the employment of more men, and their cost of living, which determines the whole question and brings the figures lower. These are suggestive figures and may prove unnecessary under the circumstances. It is urged by some of our advices that provisions are higher in their districts and the roads very bad, which will place the cost of logging at ninety-five per cent. of last year. The stringency of money will prevent the usual operations, and there cannot be heavy stocks got out. Building will, we believe, receive an impetus as an investment, as the unstable value of railroad and corporation stocks and bonds will deter many from using that mode of investing.

EASTERN NOTES.

From the Boston Lumber Trade, Jan. 12:—

We have no arrivals this week from the East, and but one from the South. There is so little doing at the present time in building, that the demand at the yards is very small, and the wholesale trade is at a stand still. There is no change in quotations.

SOUTHERN NOTES.

From the Savannah, Ga., Advertiser and Republican of Jan. 9:—

Trade is looking up, there being quite a large number of orders on the market, and all the mills are running. Prices are quite low as yet, however. We quote:

Ordinary sizes	$18 00@19 00
Difficult sizes	22 00@25 00
Flooring boards	21 00@25 00
Ship stuff	21 00@25 00

Freights.—New York and Sound ports, lumber, $8@9; lumber to Boston and eastward, $10@11; to Baltimore, lumber, $7. Business in lumber is improving, with vessels in fair supply. The rates for timber are from $1.50@2 higher than lumber rates. West Indies and windward, $10@11, gold. Lumber to River Plate, $26 and 5 ₱ cent. United Kingdom—timber, 50s. for direct port. Rio Janeiro, $23 and 5 ₱ cent.

METALS.—Copper.—Manufactured is unchanged from our last quotation. Ingot is in more demand and prices are firm at 24¼ cents for present delivery, and 25 @26 cents for future.

Iron—Is in indifferent request, and sales are quite restricted. The market for Scotch pig is rather depressed, and American moves very slowly. Rails are without business; scrap is dull, and manufactured is steady, at our latest previous quotations.

Lead.—Foreign pig is dull; domestic in better demand. We quote bar at 9¼ cents: sheet and pipe 10 cents, and tin-lined pipe, 16½ cents, all less 10 ₱ cent to the trade.

Tin.—Pig is rather inactive, with steady and strengthening prices. Plates are in moderate demand, and prices are firm, sales occurring at and within the range of our quotations.

Zinc.—Sheet is steady at our quoted rates.

NAILS.—Cut are quiet, and prices are unaltered. We quote: 10d. to 60d. common fence and sheathing, ₱ keg, $4.15@4.25; 8d. and 9d. common do ₱ keg, $4.50; 6d. and 7d. common do ₱ keg, $4.75; 4d. and 5d. common do ₱ keg, $5; 3d. and 4d. light, ₱ keg, $5.75; 3d. fine, ₱ keg, $6.50; 2d. ₱ keg, $7.25; 2d. fine, ₱ keg. $8.25. $6.25.	$6.00.	$5.75.	$6 ₱ keg.

OILS.—Linseed has advanced in price and is held firmly at 91@92 cents for jobbing lots, while 93 has been declined for future delivery.

PAINTS.—The market has been moderately active and prices generally are steady. American quicksilver vermilion has been advanced 10 cents, and is now held at $1.40@1.45. White leads are steady, and our list generally remains unchanged.

PITCH—Has been in limited demand, selling $2.75 ₱ bbl., and closing steady at $3.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market has been lively and speculative. Prices early in the week went up to 43½ cents, at which sales have generally been made. At the close of our report holders were asking 44 cents, and quotations are as follows: merchantable, 43; shipping order, 43½; and from store, 43¾ cents.

TAR—Has been quiet and steady, at $2.75 for Washington and Newbern; and $2.75@2.87½ for Wilmington.

ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

[FROM THE ALBANY ARGUS, JANUARY 10, 1873.]

The receipts at Albany during the seasons of 1872 and 1873 were:

Boards and scantling, ft	431,348,700	246,670,300
Shingles, M	12.602	12,392
Timber, ft	2,800	12

Staves, lbs	200,480.400	208,060.100

It was estimated that the stock of lumber on hand in this market on January 1st, 1874, was from 85,000,000 to 90,000,000 feet; on January 1st, 1873, it was 110,000,000 feet; January 1st, 1872, it was 86,000,000 feet; 1st January, 1871, it was 90,000.000 feet.

The current quotations at the yards at the close were as given below, though it is generally understood that sales were made of low grades of pine below the published quotations. And the closing quotations of the season, as has been the result of observation of previous seasons, remain unchanged until the opening of navigation.

The current quotations of the yards are:—

Pine, clear, ₱ M.	$58 00@$60 00
Pine, fourths, ₱ M.	53 00@ 55 00

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.
Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

Decker Bros.'
Grand, Upright, and Square
PIANO-FORTES.

THE DECKER BROTHERS
are the owners of the only patents granted to any person of the name of DECKER for improvements in PIANO-FORTES.

All genuine
DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS
have the following line cast on the iron plate in the inner left-hand corner of the instrument:
"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the DECKER BROTHERS
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.

This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.

EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE is guaranteed for seven years.

The splendor of tone for which the
DECKER BROTHERS'
instruments are world-renowned is the same in each of the three varieties of PIANO-FORTE—

LONDON ARCHITECTURE.

In point of quantity of the buildings erected during the twelve months just past, the year 1873, A.D., might boast as largely as any of its predecessors. In quality, also, it no doubt could put forward a very respectable plea. No such self-complacent congratulations could be given for any particular works as we can well imagine were showered upon all concerned in the erection of many of the masterpieces of antiquity, and, what is more, none such have been deserved. We are, however, prone to underrate the works of our own time, and to be too hypercritical over small defects. Many a building of which the world is now justly proud would receive scant courtesy or justice if it dated but from yesterday. The effects of time alone are powerful agents for softening down crudities of design into harmony, and many charming accidents of colors and chiaroscuro so bestowed upon works of the past are wholly denied to those of the present. The scope of architectural thought is, at any rate, wider nowadays, if not so deep, and if variety be charming we are almost in danger of becoming clogged with its sweetness. Whether or no we approve of electicism, we must, it is certain, put up with it, and as the "heirs of all the ages" as to architectual precedent, our wisest task is to try to make the best of it. That we may do so, however, for the future, it is well occasionally to gauge what we have done with it in the past, and this seems a fitting opportunity for taking a general glance at the works of the year which has just closed, before we commence our chronicle afresh.

Of the vast mass of building which has sprung up in the short space of time we have mentioned, there is of course (and sad it is that it should be a matter of course) only a small proportion that has any pretension to be called architecture at all. We are still apparently as much under bondage to speculating buildings as ever, and the crop of ill-built, ugly, pretentious, unwholesome houses in which the public will be forced to dwell, has been as large as usual of late years; and without doubt the crop of victims to the premature inhabiting of such will not fall short this coming season. Passing over this sort, we find those which have some pretension to being architectural divisible into sundry classes, both as to purpose and character of style. There is so little unity in the profession that it is impossible there should be identity of aim or of style; but, as might be expected, a few master spirits rise above the rest, and each of these have their followers, so that the works of the day become grouped accordingly. Two main distinct streams of architectural thought may be detected as for long past in strong opposition, although branches of each appear to coalesce to a certain extent—those founded upon the revived Classic (modern Italian) and upon the Mediæval (Gothic) principles, which are as far as the poles asunder. At present it seems the aim of the more ambitious among the ranks of the adherants of each to effect a compromise. It has for some time past been the habit of those who practice Italian and seek originality, to treat their openings with chamfered and molded edges in the Mediæval manner, in place of the hackneyed orthodox architraves, and to introduce a Gothic character of carved foliage, &c., as if they were forced to confess that their only hope of reform was by lessons learned in the camp of the enemy. Now, however, a tide has set in from the opposite direction, and some of the leading men who have been brought up in the Mediæval school are making advances to their quondam foes, and keystones, trusses, ballusters, and other trappings formerly despised as monstrosities, are being imported wholesale into buildings the style of which seems a stranger hybrid than Elizabethean. This is electicism with a vengeance; but the mixture is like that between oil and water, which cannot be permanent. One good purpose it appears to have served, in displacing those coarse parodies of Gothic which five years since sadly disfigured our streets. Of course, many of our well known Classic and Gothic architects still adhere to the styles which they have made their language, and their rendering of them is purer than before.

In London, Renaissance, modified by modern Parisian feeling, still maintains its hold in the majority of cases; whereas, in the provinces, Gothic is having its free play. Sir Gilbert Scott, R.A., the President of the Institute for the time being, still has by far the greatest opportunities afforded to any individual in the profession, but it is hard to know to which camp he belongs. The completion of the exterior of his great block for the India, Foreign, and Colonial offices is the principal achievement of the year in Italian architecture; and the façade next Parliament street, which is in process of being revealed, is the best portion. It might have been hoped that in the hands of this architect an attempt would have been made to bring the style forced upon him in this instance into some relation with the principles of the style he professes to support. Such, however, has not been the case; applied orders have been the source of decoration relied upon independently of the construction, and some refinement of the detail by reference to pure Greek ornament is the greatest novelty in the treatment, and some sculpture has been happily introduced into the facade above mentioned In the equally enormous structure of the Midland Railway Hotel, at St. Pancras Station, he has sustained his more usual rôle. It is imposing from its mighty mass and rich ornamentation, but the composition of the former is straggling and the latter is overdone and wants concentration. The detail is of course correct, as Sir G. G. Scott's always is; but one tires of the most perfect work when it is made too common, and we have molded arcades with granite columns here as if ordered by the acre, and applied to the most menial as well as the more important offices. Would that our architects would learn that it is possible to have too much of a good thing, and that the contrast of wall space is requisite to give value to their elaborated features! Still, of course, we have to chronicle these later examples of the work of this veteran architect as highly characteristic of himself and of the age and noble additions to the architecture of the metropolis.—London (Eng.) Building News.

MR. RUSKIN ON ART.

The Duke of S. Albans lately presented the prizes to the successful students of the night art-class in connection with the Mechanics' Institute at the Mansfield Town-hall. In the course of his address to the students he referred to the origin of the class, and detailed its progress since 1870. The duke terminated his speech by reading a message addressed to them by Mr. Ruskin, in which he said: "It is to be remembered that the giving of prizes can only be justified on the ground of their being the reward of superior diligence and more obedient attention to the directions of the teacher. They must never be supposed, because practically they never can become, indications of superior genius unless in so far as genius is likely to be diligent and obedient beyond the strength and temper of the dull. But it so frequently happens that the stimulus of vanity, acting on minds of inferior calibre, produces for a time an industry surpassing the tranquil and self-possessed exertion of real power, that it may be questioned whether the custom of bestowing prizes at all may not ultimately cease in our higher schools of art unless in the form of substantial assistance given to deserving students who stand in need of it. But, without any reference to the opinions of others, and without any chance of partiality in your own, there is one test by which you can all determine the rate of your real progress. Examine, after every period of renewed industry, how far you have enlarged your faculty of admiration. Consider how much more you can see to reverence in the work of masters; and how much more to love in the work of nature. I fear that the tendency of modern thought is to reject the idea of that essential difference in rank between one intellect and another of which increasing reverence is the wise acknowledgment. The vulgar and incomparably false saying of Macaulay's that the intellectual giants of one age become the intellectual pigmies of the next, has been the text of too many sermons lately preached to you. You think you are going to do better things—each of you—than Titian and Phidias; write better than Virgil, think more wisely than Solomon. My good young people, this is the foolishest, quite pre-eminently—perhaps almost the harmfulest—notion that could possibly be put into your empty little egg-shells of heads. There is not one in a million of you who can ever be great in anything. To be greater than the greatest that have been is permitted, perhaps, to no man in Europe in the course of two or three centuries. But because you cannot be Handel or Mozart is it any reason why you should not learn to sing 'God save the Queen' properly? Because a girl cannot be prima donna in the Italian Opera is it any reason that she should not learn to play a jig for her brothers and sisters in good time, or a soft little tune for her tired mother, or that she should not sing to please herself, among the dew, on a May morning? Believe me, joy, humility, and usefulness always go together; as insolence with misery, and these both with destructiveness. You may learn with proud teachers how to throw down the Vendome Column and burn the Louvre, but never how to lay so much as one touch of safe color or one layer of steady stone; and if, indeed, there be among you a youth of true genius, be assured that he will distinguish himself first, not by petulance or by disdain, but by discerning firmly what to admire and whom to obey. But if you seek wisdom only that you may get money, believe me, you are exactly on the most foolish of all fool's errands. 'She is more precious than rubies;' but do you think that is only because she will help you to buy rubies? She is offered to you as a blessing in herself. She is the reward of kindness, of modesty, of industry. She is the prize of prizes, and—alike in poverty or in riches—the strength of your life now and the earnest of whatever life is to come.

LIGHTNING AND LIGHTNING-RODS.

The London Building News of December 12 concludes an interesting article upon "Lightning and Lightning-rods" with the following recapitulation of opinion:

1st. Lightning-rods, as usually erected, do not afford much protection.

2d. Insulators, glasses, at the points of support are of no use in any case; they destroy the most valuable influence of the rod, and may, under certain circumstances, be the cause of most terrific and destructive return strokes.

3d. The conducting power of lightning-rods is proportional to their solid contents or sectional area, with similar metals of equal lengths, and not to their surfaces.

4th. A lightning-rod should have the conducting power of a coppper rod one-half inch square, and perfect metallic union of all its parts. A rod made exclusively from copper wires, if of sufficient size, constitutes one which is perfect in theory.

5th. Sharp points for the upper termination of rods are necessary. Rods are of but little value without them. Points should be plated to prevent oxidation. They are also of value when used at the lower terminus of the rod.

6th. It is necessary to place a point at each gable, chimney, and ventilator; to connect all together; to connect the rod with metallic roofs, gutters, valleys, steam-pipes, gas-pipes, water-pipes, speaking-tubes, and other permanent metallic bodies about buildings, and the more numerous the connections with the earth the better.

7th. The rod must be attached directly to the building—the closer the better. It must not be insulated by being passed through or over rings of glass, horn, or other non-conducting substances, nor be placed at a distance from the object to be protected.

8th. Ground-rods must have two or more branches penetrating the earth to permanent moisture; must extend below the foundation walls or the bottom of the cellar. In some instances, where it is difficult to reach moist earth, they must be imbedded in charcoal.

9th. Lightning-rods, constructed and erected in accordance with the foregoing principles, will afford full protection in the hour of danger, and their use is strongly urged as a necessary means of safety.

DOMESTIC ITEMS.

A FIRE-PROOF STRONG ROOM. — Messrs. Chubb & Sons have just completed for the Credito Publico National of Buenos Ayres a fire-resisting strong room, fitted inside with a series of compartments to hold the Government Bonds. Within the last few years more than thirty rooms of a similar description have been manufactured by this firm for English and foreign banks, but none so large or so elaborate and perfect in execution as that now noticed. It stands eleven feet five inches high by fourteen feet three inches wide, and four feet six inches deep. The plates are ⅝ inch in thickness, rebated together, and fastened by the strongest angle iron screws and rivets. The total thickness of the sides is five inches, which includes a small air chamber and the cases of fire-proof material. This last is a new composition, known by the name of Infusoria, and comes to the Messrs. Chubb from Hartlepool. In the present instance it has been mixed with alum, but in the foreign workshops where it was first known it is used in a pure and unalloyed state. Whence it comes and what it really is is a secret known only, so far as England is concerned, at Hartlepool, and there very jealously preserved. This particular safe or strong room is fifteen tons in weight. Two doors, each one and a quarter inch thick, made of combined steel and iron, with fire-proof chambers, and fitted with two patent gunpowder-proof locks, throwing fourteen bolts all round, each lock differing, will guard the contents. There has been made a smaller room of similar construction for the National Bank of the same Republic, in every respect as strong and complete as the larger one we have described.

ASPHALTE PAVING FOR HORSE-ROADS.—At the Freemasons' Tavern on Friday last there was a crowded meeting chiefly of omnibus and cab proprietors to protest against the use of asphalte paving for horse-roads. Sir James Lawrence, M.P., was in the chair, and the meeting was addressed by Colonel Beresford, M.P., and many large horse owners. The Secretary to the London General Omnibus Company said they owned 8,000 horses. Their annual loss on the old roads was 114, but since the introduction of asphalte it has risen to 202. Mr. Colam, the Secretary to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was also present, and spoke strongly against the use of asphalte. Resolutions were unanimously adopted condemning asphalte, praying Parliament to order the removal of the present asphalte, and urging the Board of Trade not to lay any more. When is Mr. Haywood's promised report on asphalte to be issued? Surely, in the face of the facts elicited at this meeting, the city authorities will at once abandon the use of a road material whose slippery qualities are only exceeded by those of a certain roadway said to be paved with good intentions.

DWELLERS in towns and cities who are deterred from planting trees or shrubs in consequence of the prevalent notion that they will not thrive in cities are assured by the Garden that it is quite erroneous. Proof exists in abundance that many trees thrive in the smokiest parts of smoky London nearly or quite as well as anywhere else. There are many parts of the United Kingdom as free from smoke as could be desired, where you may look in vain for such stately and well-developed trees as we find in Brunswick, Mecklenburgh, and Berkeley squares in Lincoln's Inn Fields, or in many back gardens in London. In these and other London gardens there are many fine specimens not only of planes but of ashes (weeping and otherwise), thorns, poplars, and, in fact, of most of the kinds of trees which lose their leaves in winter. Intending planters may, therefore, rest assured that not only one kind or family of trees will thrive in cities, but that many will do so. Smoky as our cities are we may enjoy in them much of the glorious beauty of the deciduous trees of all northern countries. Evergreens we had better avoid until the smoke nuisance troubles us no more, if one may venture to speak of such a time.

REAL ESTATE—1873.

Extending our borders by the annexation of Westchester lands, let us, with the searching scrutiny of a prudent business man, look at the probabilities of the future. We have in favor of real estate the natural growth of our city. That, in the past, has made men wealthy, and its potency is still beyond question. The towers of the East River Bridge supply palpable evidence that in a brief period the cities of New York and Brooklyn are to be brought into closer contact, to the material advantage of both. And now the bridging of the Hudson River, the initial movement of which was made in laying the corner-stone at Poughkeepsie on the 16th inst., must be placed to the credit side of the opportunity for adding to our wealth, for when the enterprise is completed it will greatly shorten the distance between us and the West, and that naturally will increase the volume of business, rendering necessary increased facilities for trade transactions. The deduction is legitimate, therefore, that this will add to the value of our real estate, and it compels the conclusion that the outlook is exceedingly favorable for those who are fortunate enough to be its possessors, and have pluck and endurance sufficient to induce them to hold it. We think that when public confidence is re-established—and it is daily growing in stength—operations in real estate will become active, and we anticipate a thorough revival of this important interest—a revival that we hope and believe will occur in the coming spring. Those who invest in real estate as security for their money, with the certainty of profitable returns thereon, are not subject to the marked fluctuations that attend other values, such as bank and insurance stocks, railroad and mining securities, &c. Real estate passed through the recent panic scathless. It has not depreciated in value, in fact, as we have endeavored to show; and that it must increase is as clear as the noon-day's sun. Naturally, our prosperity is shared in by our neighbors, recent statistics showing that the real property in New Jersey enhanced in value in a single year—that between 1872 and the present year—over $9,000,000. This is pretty good for the little State, but it will do better hereafter even than that, for as we grow we naturally must take a good deal of its real estate for our business purposes, residences, &c., and the suburban sales that have occurred within its border were rendered mainly successful through the purchases of New Yorkers.—Extract from New York Express.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

There is continued activity in the general market as demonstrated by some inquiry, pending negotiations and occasional sales. The market is quite the same as for weeks past, little weakness as yet developing, while owners in chorus maintain a firm tone, no matter what their private opinions or future prospects. A sale of the house and lot located at the south-westerly corner of Fifth Avenue and Thirty-ninth Street has been effected for $110,000, a price, we conceive, to be rather moderate in point of general valuations for that class of property.

The new wards are bustling with anticipation of good results and special activity, and it will not be surprising if their inhabitants do not force this expectation to reality.

Mortgage investments are still sought, and money is in good demand. There is, however, great variance in views, and while in some instances loans are secured exceptionally cheap, in others they have been made extortionately high. Rates, however, will average from 8 to 10 per cent. per annum.

Business at the Exchange has been moderate, but served to attract a daily fair attendance of people interested in real estate. The transactions, however, have been unimportant.

GOSSIP.

MARKETS.

We have no changes to record in the condition of the markets, which is substantially the same as at our last report. Business is quiet all around, mason's materials having a very light outgo, with unaltered quotations, lumber dull, and the other lines of trade affording no opportunity for special remark. Hardware is apparently fullest of life, a circumstance due to necessary preparations for spring trade and the altered conditions of the market, occasioned by new and revised price lists. Nothing is yet doing to enable the formation of decided opinion as to future prospects, which are contingent upon easy money and its abundant circulation. The outlook in real estate is not yet assured, and building chances are still problematical. Notwithstanding all this, there is great expectancy, founded rather upon hope and the generally expressed idea that trade has reached its lowest ebb and must improve.

We append our regular detail of the markets:

BRICK.—We have nothing new to note. Arrivals continue, rather unfrequently and without varying prices. Buyers may, perhaps, secure the advantage in the present state of trade, as the outgo is so limited that offers meet with greater consideration. The market is decidedly dull, but nominally steady at previous prices, which we quote as follows: Pale, ℔ M, $4@4.50; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7.25@8.75; Croton Fronts—brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT.—Inactive and steady at $1.75 for Rosendale; and $5@5.75 for foreign; cost of delivery to be added.

FIRE BRICK—Are dull, with no reports of sales, and are nominally steady at $40@50 for American, and $50@55 for Red Welsh.

FOREIGN WOODS.—The market displays increasing activity, and more inquiry. The demand for all woods is fair, and we expect to include in our next report the result of sales to occur during the coming week. We advance our quotations one cent per foot on our highest range of prices for good to fine Rio and Bahia rosewood.

GLASS.—Prices are stronger, French window being held quite firmly, with advancing tendencies. The stock on hand and to arrive is limited, and assortments are quite broken up. These facts, with high cost and present selling prices, combine to harden the market. Discounts are unchanged.

HAIR.—Trade is so limited that we are compelled to quote a very dull market, nominally at 20@25 cents for cattle, and 24@30 cents for goat.

HARDWARE.—This is the only market which indicates much life. Trade seems to be improving, and foreign and domestic goods are in fair demand with strict adherence to prices. New price lists for locks are in preparation, with discounts at 50 and 2 ℔ cent. Boynton's cross cut saws, and his lightning saws, are steady at 30 and 5 ℔ cent. dis.; field hoes and cast-steel garden rakes are 30 ℔ cent. dis., before 25 off. H. Chapin's Sons have advanced their discounts on hand screws to 30 and 10 ℔ cent., before 20 and 10, and on level glasses to 60 and 10, before 50 and 10. Their other discounts continue: on boxwood rules, 60 and 10; ivory do., 50 and 10; gauges, 40 and 10; levels, and plumbs and levels, 60 and 10; bench screws, 20 and 10; try squares and bevels, 30 and 10; bench planes, 30 and 10 for common "Pearce," and 20 and 10 for extra.

LATH—Are in moderate request, and firm at old prices, viz., $2.00 per M.

LIME.—There is a limited trade, Rockland arriving in quantities to supply the demand of jobbers, yet not overstocking the market or causing any variation in prices. We quote: State—common, $1; finishing, $1.50; Rockland—common, $1.10; finishing, $1.75 per bbl.

LUMBER.—The yards are quite devoid of life, and trade is probably at its dullest for the short time intervening before active preparations for spring trade begins. Some little business has been done, but mostly in a small way. The export trade continues moderately, and we have reports of pine shipments to Cape Town, Africa. Hardwoods have been in better request, and we hear of sales of new black walnut at 11 cents per foot. Ash and oak are in indifferent request. Yellow pine is in limited demand, with a better market for timber. Spruce continues as heretofore reported, quotable at $16@19. Prices are firm at our quotations.

The charters comprise: a Br. ship, 892 tons (now at Savannah), from Doboy to Liverpool, yellow pine timber, 50s.; a spanish barque, 563 tons, to Cadiz, staves, basis $46 for light pipe; a Br. barque, 454 tons (at Tybee), from Darien to River Plate, lumber, $26.50 and primage; one, 267 tons, from Fernandina to River Plate, lumber, $27 and primage; one, 496 tons, from Portland to River Plate, lumber, $19 and primage; a schr., 130 tons, from Brashear, La., to Portsmouth Navy Yard, live oak, 25 cents ℔ cubic ft.; a schr. from Mosquito Inlet to Norfolk, live oak, 25 cents ℔ cubic ft.; two, 170 and 200 M resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to New York, $9, option New Haven $9.50; an Am. brig, 200 M lumber, from Apalachicola to Cardenas, $10 United States currency; a schr., 100 M resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to Bridgeport, $9.50; one, 170 M, from Jacksonville to New Haven, $9.50; one, 220 M cubic feet cedar, from West Coast Florida to New York, 18 cents; one, 266 tons, from Satilla River to Bath, lumber, private rate; one, 444 tons, from Brunswick to Fall River, lumber, $8.50.

	Feet.
Pitts & Cranage	2,920
Watrous & Son	2,880
G. Davenport & Co	141,510
A. Rust & Co	50,550
N. Peters	32,100
N. Barnard	87,553
J. H. Jerome	26,700
J. Wilkeson	71,990
J. F. Bundy	196,876
Balentine & Co	737,757
E. C. Litchfield	1,311,028
D. M. Cook	416,246
C. L. Lull	929,874
J. Shearer & Co	621,220
Total	4,620,214

These logs, it will be understood, were run out from below Flint City. Probably 70,000,000 were stopped at Flint, and were manufactured there.

AU SABLE.

The following is a summary report of the Au Sable Boom Company:

	Feet.
Long timber, towed to other places	56,930,000
Short logs, towed to other places	14,416,000
Long logs, delivered at Sable Mills	3,998,000
Short logs, delivered at Sable Mills	27,093,000
Total	102,437,000

The Michigan Lumberman, in reviewing the extent of lumbering operations in that State, for the past year, concludes by saying: We feel safe in asserting that there are 1,750,000,000 feet of lumber and logs at present in the State, to be counted in next season's work. Now, if but one-third the usual stock of logs be banked the present winter (and we are well satisfied there will be more than that), what will the result be? Simply that the year 1874 will witness a larger amount of pine lumber put upon the market from the State of Michigan than has ever before been done. We call attention to these facts not with a view of casting a depressing influence upon the trade or because we desire to show its most gloomy features but that the damage the market must receive from such an immense overstock following upon the wake of a great financial depression may be seen, and that such as choose may heed the warning.

GENERAL WESTERN NOTES.

From the correspondence of the Detroit Post of January 14:—

AU SABLE, Jan. 10, 1874.

The Au Sable River Boom Company report as rafted and towed to other places for manufacture: long timber, 56,930,000 feet; short logs, 14,416,000 feet.

Delivered to mills and manufactured at Au Sable, 3,998,000 feet long timber; 27,093,000 short logs. Total, 102,437,000 feet.

So far we have had but little snow, and at present there is none; but the time has been well improved in picking up the large amount of fallen timber prostrated by the gale in the early part of December. This picking up, however, is only in the vicinity of the camps. There will be left to finish not less than 50,000,000 feet, and probably twice that amount, as the high winds extended the whole length of the river. As the ground was not frozen, and had been well softened by Fall rains, the destruction was very great.

The writer saw tracts in town 27 north, 2 east, where nearly every tree was blown down of timber that would cut 1,000,000 feet to an eighty, and was informed that in the northwest part of town 27 north, 3 east, where there is a heavy body of pine facing on a plain, that a large proportion of it was blown down.

Loud, Gay & Co. have just taken the job of putting in the fallen timber on 160 acres in town 24 north, 8 east, belonging to John L. Woods, which is estimated at 500,000. We mention these items as indicating somewhat the extent of the damage done, and would suggest that it would be well for parties owning timber to look after the same, as most of it can be saved if attended to at once.

From the Minneapolis Tribune of January 11:—

There were, on the first of January, one hundred and four million feet of sawed lumber on hand in the lumber yards of the lumber dealers in this city.

There are also about 35,000,000 shingles in the various yards in this city.

On the first of January, 1874, there were one hundred and ten millions of feet of lumber in the various yards about town.

Of the present stock of 104,000,000, there is but 11,000,000 feet of fencing, an unusually small amount.

From the Dubuque (Iowa) Herald of January 14:—

The patronage dealers receive is small and is all they look for in mid-winter, this month particulary. A few more fortunate report trade fully up to what it was a year ago. Price lists are of little account, and as a rule are disregarded. On the upper grades there is more firmness. The impression prevails that clear, first-class lumber, ashore or afloat, will hold to values firmly all the season; therefore, on the lower qualities there is the most cutting.

Shipments last week fell off 21 cars compared with the week previous, and show a gain of 23 on the same week a year ago. Trade is not so dull after all; a gradual increase must be accepted as an improvement.

From the St. Louis Times, January 14:—

Nothing of importance transpired, either in white pine or depot and levee lumber, and prices are nominally unchanged. Trade at the yards was dull for all descriptions. We quote the range for depot and levee lots: Yellow pine flooring—third rate, at $13@16; green, second and clear do, at $24@25; dry do, $26@27; yellow pine, mill-run dimension, at $14@15; poplar, at $17@20 for mill-run boards and strips—second and clear do do, $21@23, third rate, $12@15; black walnut, $20@25 to $30 for inferior to fair, and $35@40 for good to prime—choice would command higher figures; oak, at $20@28; ash, at $23@27; hickory, at $25@35; sawed cedar timber, $27@30; cedar posts, at $25@30; walnut table legs sell at 16@20 cents per set. Special orders filled at higher rates.

EASTERN NOTES.

We have no change to report this week in quotations or the general condition of trade. Advices from the West, Canada, and the East, earlier than the middle of this week, report no snow, and small logging operations in consequence. The snow of this week will, in some localities, be of benefit, still, so much of the winter is now passed that, even with the best facilities, and a disposition on the part of lumbermen to do all in their power, but a small crop of logs could be got in. The effect of this lock of logs this season will be to make a better year for lumber in 1874, and use up the great surplus now existing everywhere.

METALS.—Copper.—Manufactured is steady and unchanged, it having been decided to make no alteration in price. Ingot is in improved demand at 24¼@25 cents for present, and 25½ for February and March deliveries.

Iron.—Trade has fallen off to almost nothing, and the market is quiet. Scotch pig is without movement, and American is in limited demand. New rails are slow in movement, and old are nominal. Scrap is quiet. Refined bar from store is in moderate demand at previous quotations.

Lead.—Pig is very quiet. Sales of foreign have occurred at $6.87½, and of domestic at $5.90@6.00. Bar is held at 9¼ cents; sheet and pipe, 10; and tin-lined pipe at 16½ cents, less 10 per cent. to the trade.

Tin.—Pig is dull at lower prices; Banca selling at 31¼@32 cents; straits, 27¾@28; English L. & F., 26; and refined English at 27@27¼ cents, gold. Plates are in fair demand, and are strong and firm at our quotations.

Zinc.—Sheet is quiet but steady at our quoted rates.

NAILS.—The market is dull, save in one particular. Cut are nominal and vary slightly in quotation. We are informed that shoe nails are in large demand for use in stretching hides, in Mexico and other countries which produce hides largely. Stocks are too light to fill this demand, production having diminished for want of call. We quote: 10d. to 60d. common fence and sheathing, ℔ keg, $4@4.25; 8d. and 9d. common do ℔ keg, $4.25@4.50; 6d. and 7d. common do ℔ keg, $4.50@4.75; 4d. and 5d. common do ℔ keg, $4.75@5; 3d. and 4d. light, ℔ keg, $5.50@5.75; 3d. fine, ℔ keg, $6.25@6.50; 2d. ℔ keg, $7@7.25; 2d. fine, ℔ keg, $8@8.25. Cut Spikes, all sizes, $4.25@4.50; Finishing, Floor, Box, Coopers, Slating, and Brad Heads: 3d. (Slating), ℔ keg, $6.50@6.75; 4d. and 5d. ℔ keg, $5.25@5.50; 6d. and 7d. ℔ keg, $5@5.25; 8d. ℔ keg, $4.75@5; 10d. to 60d. ℔ keg, $4.50@4.75.

CLINCH NAILS.

$6@6.25.	$5.75@6.	$5.50@5.75.	$5.75@6 ℔ keg.

OILS.—Linseed is firm and strong, and is variously quoted at 95@98 cents, with reports of small transactions at $1. We quote crushers in casks at 95 and in barrels at 96 cents; boiled and refined at $1 per gallon.

PAINTS.—The market for round lots has been somewhat quiet, with few transactions reported. Jobbing trade has been better, particularly in goods for immediate use, and business has, consequently, been fair. Prices are steady all around, without any weak indications. White lead is firm at our quotations, with fair jobbing trade. Red lead is firm at 9@9¼ cents, and in good inquiry. Vermilions are strong. English quicksilver is quoted at $1.50@1.60, gold, for jobbing lots. Venetian red is in fair request, at 2¼@2¾ cents, currency. American whiting is held at 80@$1.25, currency. China clay is firm, at 21½ cents, gold, for spot.

PITCH—Has been in fair demand, but has been generally quiet and, at times, dull. The market closed with a moderate amount of business, and steady at $3 per barrel for prime city, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market has been strong and advancing, with large sales, at 48 cents, holders now asking 49@50. The lowest sales of the week were at 43½ cents; and the result of the advance has been to create excitement and speculative action. This activity may subside as quickly as it has arisen, and prices may be much lower ere our report reaches our readers. Our closing quotations are as follows: Merchantable order, 47; shipping order, 47½; and from store, 47¾ cents.

TAR—Has been quiet, but, sharing in the movement of kindred markets, has advanced to $3 por barrel for Washington and Newbern, and $3.12½@3.25 for Wilmington.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.

Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

Decker Bros.'
Grand, Upright, and Square
PIANO-FORTES.

THE DECKER BROTHERS
are the owners of the only patents granted to any person of the name of DECKER for improvements in PIANO-FORTES.
All genuine
DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS
have the following line cast on the iron plate in the inner left-hand corner of the instrument:
"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the DECKER BROTHERS
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.
This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.
EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE is guaranteed for seven years.
The splendor of tone for which the
DECKER BROTHERS'
instruments are world-renowned is the same in each of the three varieties of PIANO-FORTE—

SPECIAL NOTICES.

We call attention to the card of J. F. Williams & Son in another column. This firm, originally established by Mr. Williams when he resigned his position as Secretary of the North River Savings Bank, occupies its own premises on the corner of Thirty-fourth Street and Eighth Avenue, built by Mr. Williams himself. Since he has taken his son into partnership, the business of selling and letting houses and the collection of rents has been greatly extended, as the confidence so long enjoyed by the father and the energy displayed by the younger member of the firm have made Mr. Williams' office a valuable real estate headquarters for that section of the city.

Mr. Robert Earl, who has taken charge of the Real Estate and Insurance Office at the corner of Seventy-first Street and Third Avenue, deserves the confidence of East Side landlords and tenants as well. No man is, perhaps, better posted in regard to East Side values than Mr. Earl, and his constant attention to business and fair dealing cannot fail to secure for him numerous friends in that part of the city.

NO DOUBLE TAXATION.

In November last, the REAL ESTATE RECORD urged upon the property owners and tax-payers of New York not to permit this year's Legislative Session to expire without seeing to it that the law taxing mortgages was repealed. At that time it was apparent that the West Side Association, which last year took very great interest in this movement, would this year be probably powerless in urging the matter upon the attention of Senators and Assemblymen for reasons which were but too palpable. At the time of writing the article we then urged upon individual members of the Legislature to introduce a measure repealing the obnoxious law, and agreeably to the suggestion an act repealing said law was introduced within a fortnight after this year's organization of the Legislature.

Thanks to the energy of a few uptown property owners, the movement, so long deferred, and now before the Legislature, to repeal a law that taxes not only the real estate, but the mortgage upon it, is being pushed with some energy; but not half enough to insure the unanimous attention of every member of the Senate and Assembly.

Down in Pine Street a few real estate speculators have signed petitions that will go to Albany; but outside of Pine Street we have met with hundreds of interested parties who did not even know that a repealing act had been introduced. What is wanted now above all in this matter is energy, activity and, above all, publicity. On the part of the few men who are taking charge of the petitions, let every man who owns a lot within the city limits be made aware that a movement to repeal the Tax on Mortgages is on foot, and such a tremendous pressure will be brought to bear upon our Albany Solons that the word "failure" will be unknown in connection with this all-important movement.

THE "TIMBER FAMINE" AGAIN.

We take from the Michigan Lumberman, and present herewith, Col. Wait's reply to Mr. William Little's recent letter to us upon the timber question. This reply also reviews Mr James Little's arguments upon the same matter. The controversy is emphatic on either side, and only those quite familiar with the field fought over, and the probable lumber product (which seems to us altogether estimated), can best judge of the relative merits of the opposing opinions.

The real issue in all this contest is the tariff, which is the bone of contention between the parties. Many suggestions occur in connection with the subject of future timber supply and reciprocity which we hope to present on some other occasion:

In the New York REAL ESTATE RECORD of January 10th, I notice a letter from a Mr. William Little, of New York, "fiercely" criticising my figures respecting the pine forests of the United States and the Dominion, given in an article written for the Michigan Lumberman and Boston Lumber Trade, and by the former published accurately, while the latter cut it down, very much to the injury of the writer's assertions. The article in question was written rather hastily in reply to the Chicago Inter-Ocean's epitome of a letter written by a Mr. James Little, of Montreal, some time before, respecting the pine forests of America and their rapid consumption. I had reason to suppose the Inter-Ocean's quotations were correct, consequently wrote what I did entirely from that stand-point, not having seen the letter in question (which I deeply regret) till some time after my article was in print. But now that I have what purports to be a true transcript of Mr. James Little's letter (I find it in the REAL ESTATE RECORD, Oct. 25th) on a careful comparison of what the Caicago paper gives as quotations from Mr. James Little's real letter I cannot for my life say it is anything else than a gist in brief, with but one exception, which will be fairly shown hereafter in this. Doubtless, had the Lumber Trade published fairly all I said in the article, Mr. Wm. Little would not have fallen into some of the gross inaccuracies he did, and may have been saved from ungentlemanly language and pointed charges, as I hold to the old-fashioned idea that a gentleman of honor will always, and readily, too, right an unwitting wrong, and if it is not done the world knows how to judge him; therefore leave him to act as his mind dictates.

As to Mr. Wm. Little's letter, we are at a loss to know which to give him the most credit for, credulity, or an ingenious attempt at corrupt logic. But as we have his letter before us at this writing we will try to deal fairly and honestly with it, a feature which his fancy, distorted by political bias, exhibited by his letter, cannot lay fair claim to.

He says: "A careful examination of the letter referred to (Mr. James Little's) and Mr Wait's remarks thereon compels me to assume that he has never read the letter he has undertaken to criticise, not a single statement that he is so almost fierce in challenging appearing therein."

Let us see where the TRUTH lies in his statement.

The Inter-Ocean, of Chicago, says in its issue of November 15, 1873, under the head of "Approaching Timber Famine:" "Our attention is called to this subject just now from reading some remarks by Mr James Little, of Montreal. He says that the people of the United States will, within the next ten years, use up all their pine, spruce, and hemlock timber east of the Rocky Mountains." * * * "Mr. Little avers that during the next twelve years, judging from the past, this country will require 70,000,000,000 feet of lumber and that we have not more than half that amount remaining in the woods. Canada is already supplying us with large quantities, but all she has east of the Rocky Mountains would not last us three years." The above I took just as I found it. How far out of the way it may be we will soon see.

In Mr. James Little's bona fide letter we find, speaking of Michigan: "The product of the present year amounts to two thousand million feet, last year it reached two thousand nine hundred and ten millions, an excess occasioned by the Chicago fire, which took about six hundred millions to replace the destruction and the necessity of making available the timber on the territory which was burnt over. We on this side, may be able to form some idea of that year's consumption when we reflect that it was about as much as all the pine square timber that reached Quebec in the last twenty years if sawn into boards. Taking the present year's supply as a basis and adding to it a yearly increasing production of twelve and a half per cent to cover the natural yearly increase of population, the yearly immigration and the yearly increasing means of the west to supply its wants, and twenty-five per cent. for the succeeding seven years when Michigan will be called on to supply to a great extent the deficiency arising from the falling off of the products of the timber sections east of it and in Pennsylvania, the whole will foot up about seventy thousand millions of feet. Enough to cover fourteen millions of acres at the average of five thousand to the acre, which is the amount estimated by parties who have spent from fifteen to twenty years hunting up timber lands on the peninsulars for their employers. [This is an inaccuracy and an unwarranted assumption that every timber hunter in Michigan will emphatically deny.—B. W.] But as the timber area uncut over will not now amount to over seven millions of acres, [not over four millions.—B. W.] double the average, or ten thousand feet to the acre may be given them to exhaust the supply in the short space of a dozen years. Railroad corporations and speculators who are not manufacturers, own the great bulk of the timber on the Northern Peninsula, and if they hold on to it but a few years it will be worth as much standing in the forests for the home market as it would if located in the neighborhood of Liverpool, London, or Glasgow, for their respective markets.

"Minnesota and Wisconsin have considerable pine timber on their northern or northwestern sections. The consumption there is yearly increasing to a vast extent, and will soon come up to that of Michigan; but, even at the present rate of consumption, without taking into account the large yearly increase in demand which must necessarily arise, their supply will be as short-lived as that of Michigan, and as it will all be required to supply the prairie States, the lower Mississippi, and Manitoba, none of it need ever be expected to reach Eastern markets. And now, so far as regards Canadian supply, which amounts yearly to about a thousand millions of feet of lumber and timber, or about a tenth of that consumed annually in the United States, were we called on to furnish enough for their present wants it would use up every stick of pine we have east of the Rocky Mountains in less than three years, and three months would suffice to strip Georgian Bay from Owen Sound to Sault St. Marie from the Watershed to the Bay.

"The enormous consumption of lumber, timber, and shingles, hard and soft, by the people of the United States is but very partially realized by them and others. It cannot be conceived by figures. No adequate idea can be formed of the quantity comprehended in ten thousand millions of feet, the amount of their annual consumption, so as to realize the work of destruction going on. But they may, in some measure, be able to understand their position when the fact is presented, that notwithstanding the vast extent of their forrests, ten to twelve years, at the outside, will leave them without a stick of pine, spruce, hemlock, and oak between the head waters of the Mississippi and the Eastern seaboard." So much for the original letter, and where the discrepancy comes in upon which Mr. Wm. Little hinges his "fierce" charges it is difficult to find.

And now in extenso let us see what I said "We are led to these thoughts by the inaccuracies of this Mr. Little in his dealings with the pine forests. His, however, is but a rehash of a Pennsylvania sensational document appearing six months ago, whose burden was (as is Mr. Little's) the emphatic promulgation of the idea that 'the pine crop east of the Rocky Mountains will be totally consumed in five short years, and that it will take but ten years to use up all the pine, spruce, and hemlock.' This is from the Pennsylvania document, and I included Mr. Little, on the ground that the spruce and hemlock would really more than halve the supply for his "ten or twelve years at the outside." Is that an unreasonable assertion? If it is then I fall back upon the "five years" as being a quotation from the Pennsylvania document. This is the only place in which I admit a variation from the strict wording of the letter as rendered by the Inter-Ocean. I further write: "He also avers that during the next twelve years, judging from the past, this country will require 70,000,000,000 feet of lumber, and that we have not more than one-half that amount remaining in the woods. Canada already is supplying the United States with large quantities, but all she has east of the Rocky Mountains would not last us three years." This is all verbatim of what the Inter-Ocean gave as Mr. Little's language, and in reality very little unlike Mr. Little's original, before quoted, except the assumption that we "had not the half" of seventy thousand millions, of that we had nothing to do in the make-up, only dealt with it as we found it. Yet we can easily see how the epitomist arrived at that conclusion, deducing it from the confused medly of reasoning in the extract given from his letter. But as it is not for us to apologize for the Chicago dereliction, if there is any, we leave that and go on to Mr. Wm. Little's other charges. He says virtually, that Mr. Jas. Little's prediction of twelve years exhausting every stick of pine, spruce hemlock, and oak in the eastern section of America is fully warranted by my figures presented here, which he professes to deem absurd, and as attaching no value to, though he very adroitly adduces them to show that his namesake (perchance paternal, if so I honor him; if not, vice versa) and myself had made the same outcome. Logic would teach me that if the one was worthless the other must also be baseless when both tended to the same conclusion. But in this point, as in others, the wish was father to the thought and he thus surpassed himself:

Michigan	50,000,000,000
Wisconsin	18,000,000,000
Minnesota	16,000,000,000
Pennsylvania	7,000,000,000
West Virginia	7,000,000,000
Maine	3,500,000,000
New York	900,000,000
Florida, yellow pine	1,700,000,000
N. Carolina "	1,600,000,000
Georgia "	1,500,000,000
Virginia "	150,000,000
S. Carolina "	90,000,000
Total	105,440,000,000
Dominion	70,000,000,000
Total east of Rocky Mts.	175,440,000,000
West of Rocky Mountains	70,000,000,000
Totol in North America	245,440,000,000

(Here it is well to explain that a typographical error left out three billions from the Dominion total, as I had in the original estimate seventy-three billions instead of seventy, also transposed Minnesota and Wisconsin.) But taking the figures as he found them, we will follow him and try and see if we cannot expose his false logic. He says: "Leaving out the seventy billions of feet west of the Rocky Mountains, since we can get timber from the north of Europe for less than the cost of freight alone, even if the Pacific side did not want it all, and discarding the small figures (here the reader will also take note that he leaves out the Dominion seventy billions), we have (105,000) one hundred and five thousand millions as the whole of the pine timber supply of the United States from the northern frontier to the Gulf of Mexico, and from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic Ocean, according to Mr. Wait.

"Allowing these figures to be correct, it would appear that if the consumption is anything like the amount claimed for it, viz: ten thousand millions of feet annually (here likewise is an assumption of pine consumption I do not admit; it is to be remembered we are talking about pine alone) it would take ten years and six months (to be exact) to use up all the pine timber in the United States east of the Rocky Mountains and down to the Gulf of Mexico, without any allowance for increase in the future of consumption. This certainly is a pitiful showing of the pine timber crop in the United States. Nothing in the tenor of Mr. Little's letter showing that even his view of the supply is not largely in excess of that presented.

"As to the stock of Canada, the gentleman, with a few strokes of the pen, magnanimously presents the Dominion with one hundred thousand millions of feet, or thereabouts, of pine, fir, and spruce, or, at least, says he believes there is this amount, but does not state any reasons for his faith. It is fully time to discard this method of treating the timber question, assuming any ridiculous amount when knowing nothing about it and parading it before the country as authority.

"Mr. Little (Jas.) appears to have dealt very liberally in regard to the supply of Michigan, and it would seem only fair to allow him to speak of his own country, with which he is no doubt conversant as any one, and when he computes the available white pine of Canada at thirty thousand millions of feet he probably knows what he is talking about.

"Adding the Canadian supply, equal to three years, to the United States, and assuming the foregoing figures as correct, we have thirteen years as the limit without anticipating any increase in the future rate of consumption; but allowing only five per cent. as the annual increase, it would take just ten years to use up every stick of pine, white or yellow, available for our use on the continent of America. Even admitting that the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota could furnish their present annual cutting for a period of twenty years, does not alter the case in the least, since these States, being the only (another baseless assumption) extensive pine territory now remaining, must in a few years turn out more than double their present production, or we will be compelled to look to Europe for the largest part of our requirements," etc., etc.

In the first place, without dissimulation, I admit I had not only not read Mr. James Little's letter before inditing my article, but also that I had not seen it, which I do not cease regretting, inasmuch as it contains other than lumber and timber matter that would have been more caustically commented upon, as its finale clearly defines the writer's motive, in placing the subject before the Convention in the light he did. The tenor indicates without a peradventure what interest it was intended to subserve, in the political contest just at that time exciting the Canadian mind, and doubtless the author would have been content to have it subside after being made to secure its designed purpose—of that point more anon. In relation to the timber phrase of it, which is what we are now dealing with, we assert, fearless of that, what Mr. Wm. L. says of us, that it is time to discard this kind of treatment of the timber question. In the first place, he assumes that we (that is, the United States) consume ten thousand millions feet of pine (for we are talking of no other than pine forests) annually in the United States, (that is from her own forests, for he says "they" and "their"), which is an exceedingly reckless assumption, for by the report, from closely-figured official sources, the pine, including the imports consumed, counted in round figures 8,800,000,000 for the year 1871 and the other timbers 4,200,000,000, and I do not conceive there has been as much used up in 1873, though I presume there may have been a trifle over that amount used in 1872, and these figures include the ten hundred millions imported annually from the Dominion. Thus, then, the United States pine forests are depleted only to the extent of seven thousand eight hundred millions feet all told. Then, again, as to Mr. Little's magnanimity in giving us poor Michiganders twenty thousand millions more than we deserve or claim, we certainly would thank him for the donation if it had any consistency, but, as the woodsman would say, "that is too thin." Again, no State estimate ever embraced fourteen millions acres of pine lands in Michigan, nor do they count more than four millions of well-timbered pine lands. Mr. Wm. L. conceives that, inasmuch as he (Mr. James Little) has been so liberal to our Michigan, we ought to concede to him the right of overriding our knowledge of his own country, etc. I am also a Canadian by birth, education, and training, up to mature manhood; have owned mills on her waters; have worked in her pineries; have explored her forests from the Three Rivers to the head of the Rocky, and perhaps my habits of observation may be as keen and memory as retentive as those of other common men; at all events, I will not permit another to judge my sight and detract from my memory the facts stored there, and most especially under an appeal like that above, for I take his reckless "liberality" toward Michigan to be a fair criterion by which to judge of his honesty in relation to his assertion about the Dominion pine. If he is absurdly incorrect in the one case, under a desire to be liberal, how much more accurate can we judge him to be in the other case, more especially when political bias or timber-land interest may lead altogether in that direction.

I am not thus caustic on Mr. Jas. L.'s credit, but charge it to the account of Mr. Wm. Little for two reasons: being an old man myself, I am bound to respect age in others, as the most potent one, while the other is, that in doing so I only pick up the gauntlet thrown down by Mr. Wm. and follow the path he points me to His attempts to make points in his own criticisms is a little puerile. Let us sift it a little. Allowing, as he says, the figures of 105,000,000,000 feet (of pine, remember), and divide that by 10,000,000,000, which he claims the whole United States consumes annually, and we have ten and a half years for the life of the pines. But now let the light of honest truth shine upon the picture, and it shows four thousand and two hundred millions of hard and other than pine wood, and an importation of one thousand millions from the Dominion forests, and we have 7,800,000,000 as a divisor; but remember, this is spread all over the United States, west as well as east of the great backbone, so we must add the 70,000,000 of the west to the 105,000,000,000 of the east side, and we have a total of one hundred and seventy-five thousand millions of feet (175,000,000,000), which, divided by 7,800,000,000, gives us a fraction over twenty-two and a third years. But Messrs. Little will say that I have not allowed for the increase in population and other etceteras. As to that, I admitted that I had underrated Wisconsin and Minnesota, as well as thrown in for shrinkage the no small amount to be found in Missouri, Alabama, and Texas. And here we will say that a voice from Alabama has already been raised against our leaving them "out in the cold," as they think that their pineries can come fully up to those of North Carolina, and to this last catalogue I now add the no small sprinkling from Mississippi and New Mexico. From these I feel perfectly safe in predicting enough to give a fair breathing spell of, say, ten or more years beyond the twenty-two for the pine, on the utilization of other woods, whose value in these Western States is yet scarcely recognized, and on the inventive genius of man, which will doubtless soon develop some other and cheaper material to take many places where better grades of lumber are alone used at this day.

Again, Mr. Wm. Little says that I "with a few strokes of my pen magnanimously present to the Dominion one hundred billions of feet or thereabouts, of pine, fir, and spruce, or, at least, believes there is that amount, but do not give reasons for my faith." Let us see what I did say. As the article is before me, I copy verbatim: "And now a word for our neighbors of the Dominion, whose interminable pineries are scarce opened, many of them as yet inaccessible, who certainly have had no adequate estimate of their timber or its value. I think, from what I have myself seen of the St. Johns, Ottawa, Gattenean, Readau, Trent, Lake Simcoe, Georgian Bay, Penatanguishine, Spanish, and French rivers, Fort Williams, Red River of the North, and the Sascatchawan Valley pineries, I can say, without fear of contradiction, that the enormous amount of 100,000,000,000 of feet would scarce cover the sum total of the different species of pine, fir, and spruce embraced within the Dominion forests." This alone refutes his fling at my know-nothing proclivities in that region. I will add a little more to the above and say the last-named valley has arable land enough in it to make thirteen States as large as New York, throughout which there are three species of pine growing in considerable abundance; and, likewise, that, notwithstanding the elder Mr. Little is ten years my senior, and one of the oldest timber men of Canada, I would dare affirm that my knowledge of Dominion forests, waters, land, and climate is more varied, extended, and precise than his, for partial proof of which I would call to the stand my old fellow-traveller Capt. Kennedy (if he is still living), who was noted in Canada for his over-land expedition in search of Capt. Sir John Franklin, a gentleman with whom I also had the honor of an acquaintance in the Southern Hemisphere.

Again, he stretches his fancy and looks across the ocean to old Europe for timber requirements in case Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota do not duplicate their products. Why not go south instead of north, as water navigation is equally good in that direction, and I can pilot him there through forests more dense, more varied in species, and far more valuable in rare woods on the deep clay banks of the Amazon and its tributaries than were ever dreamed of by European timber hunters. My recollections of these forests—seen in 1848—are as vivid to-day, and as real, as though but one year agone. I conceive that it would be but little more expensive bringing these timbers from the banks of the Rio Nigro to New York than floating the pine from the head-waters of the Mississippi to New Orleans, and I can safely aver that there is more valuable sawing timber, with no "Yankee" to utilize it, on those broad streams tributary to the Amazon than can be found in half the territory of the United States. MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

The market, as reported for the past week, has been more active, and quite a number of sales at private hands have occurred, giving encouragement, were it needed, to real estate owners. The auction room has not been the scene of much business, and the sales there have been of little account. Real estate is apparently looking up, and, if the opinions of many real estate men are not the expression of a too sanguine hope, an active trade may be expected during the coming season. Prices are still quite steadily maintained, and there is an evident disposition, on the part of the great mass of holders, to wait until the spring develops any latent features of the market. There seems to be a growing interest in real estate investments, coming, too, from people who have hitherto trusted their fortunes to readily convertible, but more transitory, securities. The market is therefore strong, and, it is possible, may acquire even more tone in the coming season. Of that, however, we do not care to hazard a positive opinion, believing that much must be left to the conditions of general trade and money.

Among the first sales which are expected to open the active season, is the sale of the Henry Leger estate, Joseph McGuire Auctioneer, which is to come off on Thursday, March 5th. The estate comprises valuable property on Sixty-first, Sixty second, Seventy-sixth, and One Hundred and Thirtieth streets, on Third, Lexington, and Twelfth avenues; and, in connection with it, will be sold property at Fort Hamilton, and at North Hoboken, N. J. Those who have been hoarding their money since the panic, and awaiting to put it in real estate, had better wait for this sale before they fritter away their cash in doubtful bargains.

MARKETS.

With some exception the markets evince no greater activity, nor improved feeling. In one or two lines of trade there is better business, counterbalanced by a falling off in other, leaving the general tone of the markets pretty much the same as at our last report.

The peculiarities of the weather have had much to do in affecting prices of certain goods, and markets usually strong at this season of the year have no advancing tendencies, but remain dull, with every disposition to favor buyers. For city trade there are no very promising indications. The markets which are less dependent upon local demand have fair prospects, and, if report fore-runs reality, are likely to make a good showing with the early spring. Trade in masons' materials is founded almost entirely on hope, which, in turn, rests upon a generally concieved idea that building interests have fallen to a point where improvement or total suspension must ensue. It is possible, in such cases, to conceive of lower prices, but hardly of duller trade. The building demands of the city, which must be met by a certain outgo of material, are imperative, and we can hardly expect them to fall beneath their present limit. There is, therefore, reasonable ground for hopes of better business. Such hopes, however, will meet their best realization in the volume of trade, and not in greatly advanced prices. With material at the lowest prices it has achieved for years, and no inordinate desire on the part of dealers to force values, much money that has been withdrawn from the vortex of Wall Street will be put into building improvements, and there seems to be a growing disposition for real estate investments, which, should it become strong and persistent, will reflect favorably upon building interests. At this point arises the question of cost, both of labor and material. It is reasonable to suppose that the dullness of the building markets has had its effect in repressing undue excitement, and that prices of material will be kept within bounds. The principal question of cost, therefore, arises in the labor market, and the contingency that we regard as most unfavorably affecting building operations is the action of the workingmen in respect to hours of labor and their demand for wages. Concession is possible, nay probable, in everything except this, and, for the good of the workingmen, as well as for the benefit of trade, we hope for moderation.

As becomes the season, and the character of trade, our review of the markets in detail is brief. We herewith append it:

BRICK.—Arrivals average about 500,000 weekly from Haverstraw, and this supply would ere this have been cut off, only for the open winter and unimpeded navigation. These arrivals, and the continued inactivity in building, prevent any strengthening in prices. Shipments are confined to a few manufacturers, and we are assured that many who have stopped sending forward have no stocks on hand. Should business prove active in the spring, and heavy call be made upon the stocks wintered over in the yards here, there will be higher prices from which many manufacturers will derive no advantage. The market continues dull, with tendencies in buyer's favor. Hard brick retain their place, but pale are weaker, and we quote them 25 cents ₱ M lower. Fronts are unaltered. Our quotations are: Pale, ₱ M, $3.75@4.25; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7.25@8.75; Croton Fronts—brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT.—The market is quiet at the usual rates. Reported sales are of 25 bbls. of Portland, at $5.50 from yard. We quote Rosendale at $1.75; and foreign at $5@5.75, delivery to be added.

FIRE BRICK—Are steady and quiet, at $40@50 for American; and $50@55 for red Welsh. Sales are 2,000 Welsh at $55, currency.

FOREIGN WOODS.—The market continues fairly active, with a good demand for all kinds of wood of a good quality, and a generally moderate demand for woods of ordinary grade. We have sales reported to us as follows: 77 logs Bahia rosewood, averaging 2 67-100 to 3 42-100 cents ₱ ℔; 525 logs cedar, at 10@14 cents ₱ foot; 53 logs mahogany, at 12@17¾ cents ₱ foot; 4 logs satinwood, at 25 cents ₱ foot; and 60 tons lignumvitæ, at $42.50@80 ₱ ton.

GLASS.—French window is firm and strong, importers expecting advanced prices. The market is not very active. Discounts, except for English, are unchanged.

HAIR.—Prices are almost nominal, yet we hear of sales of cattle at 21@24 cents. The market is dull, but we vary our list to suit its apparent conditions, and quote, therefore: cattle, at 21@24 cents; goat, 25@30 cents.

HARDWARE.—There is a fair trade in domestic and foreign goods. The revision of price lists continues. The manufacturers of porcelain and mineral door knobs have issued the following price list: Mineral, ₱ doz., $2.75; porcelain, Jap. trimmings, ₱ doz., $3.75; do porc. rose, silver plated mtg. ₱ doz., $9; do plated do, ₱ doz., $9; do do nickle do, ₱ doz., $8.50; do porc. do do, ₱ doz., $8.50. The discount regular is 50 and 2 ₱ cent., and to large jobbers 50 and 5 and 2.

LATH.—The market is dull, and prices are irregular. Sales have occurred at $1.85 ₱ M, while some dealers hold to $2. We vary our quotations to suit this condition of the market. There is a difference in prices between the lumber yards and the regular dealers in masons' materials. In the first instance, we quote at $2.35 for jobbing lots, and $2.12 for cargoes; in the latter, quotations are $1.85@2.10 for cargoes, and $2.25@2.50 for jobbing lots. Altogether, the market seems unsettled, with no great amount of business; not enough, perhaps, to be fairly indicative of prices, which are probably shaped to meet the demands of customers and the disposition of dealers.

LIME.—There is very little call, indoor work being well wound up, and outdoor work limited in extent, anyway, being much interfered with by the alternation of rainy and freezing weather. The market is consequently dull, prices being firm, at previous quotations, as follows: State—common, $1; finishing, $1.50; Rockland—common, $1.10; finishing, $1.75 ₱ bbl.

LUMBER.—Trade is varying; in some localities there is more activity than in others, and while we have reports of business at some yards, at others we hear complaint. Observation does not induce a belief in much activity, and we can say generally that business is rather dull, a light jobbing trade for almost all kinds of lumber being the best that can be said of it. Pine is unaltered in quotation, and is held firmly at our list prices. Yellow pine is in less request, second quality cargoes quoting at $23, and good flooring at about $30. Hardwoods are in better demand than at any time for several weeks past, and we hear of sales of oak at (said to be) good prices, on private terms. Spruce is unchanged. We note sales of 50,000 feet whitewood at $50, a good price in the present condition of trade.

The charters comprise: an Am. brig, 461 tons, to Malaga, staves, $52 on light, and $62 on heavy pipe, and primage; an Am. brig, 237 tons, to Barbadoes, hhd. shooks, at or about 37½ cents; a Tern. schr., 309 tons, from Brunswick to north side Cuba, lumber, $10.50; a Br. brig, 179 tons (now at Boston), from St. John, N. B., to Cape Haytien, lumber, $10; a schr., 250,000 lumber, from Satilla River to New York, $8; one, 150,000 lumber, from Jacksonville to Baltimore, $8; one, 170,000 lumber, from Jacksonville to New York, $9; one, 160,000 lumber, from Jacksonville to New Haven, $9.50; one, 200,000 lumber, from Savannah to the Sound, $8; an Am. barque, 637 tons, hence to Malaga, staves, $53, $63, and $73 for light and heavy pipe; a Br. barque, 327 tons, from Brunswick to River Plate, lumber, $27 and primage; a Br. ship, 399 tons, from Savannah to Rio Janerio, lumber, $24 and primage; a schr., 115,000 lumber, from Wilmington, N. C., to Port-Au-Prince, $10.50; a Tern. schr., 460 tons, to Matanzas, box shooks, 12 cents, and empty hhds., $1; a schr., 170,000 resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to New York, $9; a Tern. schr., 292 tons, from Pensacola to New York, lumber, $12; and a schr., from Charleston to New York, railroad ties, $7.

STATE NOTES.

From the Albany Argus, Jan. 27:—

The annual report of the lumber trade of Albany, published in the Argus of the 10th inst., we gave the stock of lumber, as estimated by some of the trade, at from 85,000,000 to 95,000,000 feet. An accurate count of the stock presents the following figures, compared with which are the figures giving the stock in January, 1873:

	1874.	1873.
Pine, feet	95,500,000	80,500,000
Hardwood, feet	5,500,000	4,500,000
Hemlock and Spruce, feet	13,000,000	25,000,000
Total	114,000,000	110,000,000

It is estimated that the stock in Troy is 54,000,000 feet; in Oswego, 22,000,000 feet.

MICHIGAN AND WISCONSIN NOTES.

From the correspondence of the Detroit Post, Jan. 23:—

MIDLAND CITY, Jan. 21.

A sale of $600,000 shingles, No. 1, 18 inch, was made in this city last week by John Larkins to Toledo parties for $3.40 per 1,000. This was a cash sale, and the shingles to be delivered on board the cars next summer.

The lumbermen of this section are turning their attention considerably to the subject of square timber this season, yet it is impossible to get hold of any definite figures relative to the matter. From all appearances, however, there will be nearly 500,000 cubic feet put up before spring in this immediate vicinity. This square timber business, to a certain extent, is compulsory on our lumbermen from the fact that much of the lumber that is being thus utilized is what was burned during the terrible fires of 1871, and if not used in this way soon will become worm-eaten and rotten, whereas at present it is perfectly sound, being only slightly charred, and requiring merely hewing and butting to be ready for market. It, in reality, displays a spirit of economy seldom seen in Michigan lumbermen.

GENERAL WESTERN NOTES.

ST. LOUIS LUMBER MARKET.—Trade is rather light at the present season, operators being governed somewhat by climate conditions. They do not want to make extensive plans for building unless assured of favorable weather, therefore they are waiting for the developments of the season. There is some demand for common lumber, mostly dimension, for the country trade. This comes principally from men of small means who intend to draw out their bank savings and build houses for themselves. City trade has increased slightly. Plans have already been made for a large amount of building in the city, which will be executed as soon as the weather permits. There are occasional arrivals of yellow pine lumber by rail from the South, but sales are limited. Walnut and all kinds of hard wood are dull; furniture makers are working only on three-fourths time, and using up old stocks, instead of putting their money into new supplies when bargains are offered. Prices show but few changes.

The St. Paul Pioneer gives the following resume of the Minnesota lumber trade for 1873:

Logs received from the St. Croix Boom Corporation, 732,619, measuring 166,163,628 feet; decrease, as compared with 1872, 162,966 logs, and 37,218,684 feet. The average prices received were $9 per 1,000 feet; the highest $13, the lowest $7. The lumber manufactured in St. Croix aggregates 22,477,000 pieces of lath; 20,200,000 shingles, and 88,063,976 feet of lumber. Total valuation, $2,031,996.11, a decrease, as compared with 1872, of $167,603.89. Lumber produced on the Mississippi River, above Minneapolis, including logs on hand in the spring of 1873, 225,000,000 feet. Total product of Minnesota pineries, including the Mississippi, St. Croix, Chippewa, Black, and Wisconsin rivers, 1,032,163,628 feet. Estimated logs on hand for the season of 1874, 315,000,000 feet. Estimating from data received, the winter cutting of logs on the St. Croix is good, but not to exceed 10,000,000 feet, against 165,000,000 for the past year.

From the St. Louis Times, Jan. 21:—

We have no new features to note in any description of lumber. Transactions are light, both on the levee and at the depot and yards, but prices are essentially unchanged. We quote the range for depot and levee lots: Yellow pine flooring—third rate at $14@16; green second and clear do at $21@25; dry do $26@27.50; yellow pine mill-run dimension at $14@15; poplar at $17@20 for mill-run boards and strips—second and clear do do $21@23; third rate $12@15; black walnut $20@25 to $30 for inferior to fair, and $35@40 for good to prime—choice would command higher figures; oak at $20@28; ash at $23@27; hickory at $25@35; sawed cedar timber $30@32; cedar posts at $25@30; walnut table legs sell at 16@20 cents ₱ set. Special orders filled at higher rates.

From the Dubuque (Iowa) Herald, Jan. 20:—

The market pulsates enough to give it a healthy tone and inspire dealers with hope in the future. Trade is admitted on all sides to be even better than it was a year ago, and during last week was extra good on rail and retail orders; farmers took advantage of the improved sleighing and hauled home large supplies. Orders are already in hand to make business lively all the week. Loggers are doing fair work in the pineries, but the bottom is soft and hauling none of the best.

As a rule, prices are well maintained; favoritism, when allowed, is generally in discounts from the sum total, making the purchaser satisfied when departing.

Shipments show the gratifying exhibit of an increase of 28 cars over the same week last year, demonstrating all that has been reported relative to the increase in trade.

PENNSYLVANIA NOTES.

The Raftsman's Journal presents the following estimate of logs which are being put in on the West Branch of the Susquehanna and its tributaries: On Chest, Clearfield, Anderson, Moshannon, and Deer Creeks, Lick Run and other small streams in the county, about 83,000,000 feet; on the Sinnemahoning and its branches, about 75,000,000; other streams tributary to the West Branch above Williamsport, 100,000,000; making a total of 258,000,000 feet of logs, board measure, that will seek a market at Lock Haven and Williamspoat next spring. Last year the whole amount of logs, old and new, run into the various booms on the river was about 400,000,000 feet. Notwithstanding there will be from 125,000,000 to 150,000,000 less logs on hand this year than last, yet, we presume, the amount being put in this season is 100,000,000 in excess of what it really should have been, considering the condition of the finances of the country. Our statement being based upon statistical returns, we have little doubt that the actual "run" of logs the ensuing spring will approximate the figures above given, at least should the season for hauling prove a little more propitions.

SOUTHERN NOTES.

PENSACOLA, Jan. 17.—The rivers are still very low, and it will require heavy rains to unlock the large quantities of hewn and sawn timber held back by the low rivers. Rates on the few lots sold have been very full, yet our merchants are not disposed to advance prices much, relying on the stock on hand and the prospect of the new arrivals which must come forward soon. Sales of sawn timber have been made at full prices; mills on the bay and those not depending on rafting of their timber can now get fair prices; rates are firm at 12@17 cents ℔ cubic foot. A few sales have been made of West India and South American assorted lumber at full quotations. We quote Stowage Deals $12.50, and Prime $14@14.50 ℔ M, and Standard Deals to South America $18@$20.

FOREIGN NOTES.

From the Liverpool (England) Shipping and Commercial Express, of Jan. 8:—

(From Messrs. Farnworth & Jardine's Circular.)

The arrivals of mahogany during the past month have been 381 logs from St. Domingo, 595 logs from Honduras, and 251 logs from Mexico. During the past month the sales have been well attended, and a large quantity of mahogany has been sold at advanced prices; the stocks now held over for the new year are moderate. For Tabasco there was a brisk demand, and the whole of the stock was readily sold at advanced rates, so that the next arrivals here will come to an excellent market. From Minatitland we have had one arrival here, which consists, unfortunately, chiefly of old wood; fresh wood, of large average, is wanted, and will command full prices. From Honduras we have had more liberal supplies of late, but they have all contained a large proportion of small wood, which has been difficult to sell; good machine wood, on the contrary, is in excellent demand, and sold at full prices at the last auction. Of St. Domingo mahogany there are two cargoes in stock, both of which will most probably bring a full price, especially the veneer logs and lengthy curls, as these are much wanted. Cuba wood is inquired for, and regular supplies would sell here readily. Cedar: The late decline in value has not been recovered, but the stocks now here are moderate; pencil wood continues neglected, and unless of extra good quality, is most difficult to sell. Satinwood rules high, but the demand is not so brisk. Walnut from America has declined in value in consequence of the late arrivals and the heavy stocks held on the Continent. Italian and Circassian wood are in moderate request, and the present stocks are not heavy; burrs of good quality command high prices, but common qualities are unsaleable. Rosewood: The demand is for prime wood only, and it is almost impossible to sell parcels of medium quality at anything like relative prices. Zebrawood is seldom inquired for. Bird-eye maple is wanted, but it must be fresh and well figured; old wood is unsaleable. Lignumvitæ: There is a fair inquiry for 7 to 10-inch wood, but of smaller sizes the stock is sufficient. Lancewood spars have not been so saleable of late, but they are still held for full prices. Cocuswood of large size is wanted.

METALS.—Copper.—Manufactured is steady at previous quotations. Ingot is dull at reduced prices; sales of Lake for February delivery occurred at 21¼ cents and for March delivery at 25 cents. Cash lots have been offering at 24½ cents, without buyers.

Iron.—Trade in Scotch pig is more active and holders are more confident. The market has gained strength, and we vary our quotations accordingly. In American pig there is but little trade, but better and more hopeful feeling. New and old rails are quiet, the latter nominal. Scrap has little movement. Refined bar from store is in limited demand at previous prices.

Lead.—Domestic pig is active and is held at 6⅝ gold. Foreign is firm at 7@7¼ cents. Manufactured is steady as follows: Bar 9¼ cents, sheet and pipe 10, and tin-lined pipe 16½, less 10 ℔ cent. to the trade.

Tin.—Pig is in limited request and quiet. Plates are very firm with advancing tendencies, and we revise our quotations for the week in that direction. Considerable business has been done quietly, and more goods have changed hands than some dealers care to acknowledge. For good to best quality plates the market is strong at higher figures. Zinc sheet is irregular, with a fair degree of activity. We quote at 8¼@8¾ cents.

NAILS.—The market is irregular, but cut are nominally steady at previous quotations. We quote: 10d. to 60d. common fence and sheathing, ℔ keg, $4@4.25; 8d. and 9d. common do ℔ keg, $4.25@4.50; 6d. and 7d. common do ℔ keg, $4.50@4.75; 4d. and 5d. common do ℔ keg, $4.75@5; 3d. and 4d. light, ℔ keg, $5.50@5.75; 3d. fine, ℔ keg, $6.25@6.50; 2d. ℔ keg, $7@7.25; 2d. fine, ℔ keg, $8@8.25. Cut Spikes, all sizes, $4.25@4.50; Finishing, Floor, Box, Coopers, Slating, and Brad Heads: 3d. (Slating), ℔ keg, $6.50@6.75; 4d. and 5d. ℔ keg, $5.25@5.50; 6d. and 7d. ℔ keg, $5@5.25; 8d. ℔ keg, $4.75@5; 10d. to 60d. ℔ keg, $4.50@4.75.

OILS.—Linseed has been irregular in price and the market has been excited throughout the week, quotations ranging from 96 cents to $1. We quote linseed crushers, in casks, at 97 cents; in barrels, 98@99. Linseed boiled and refined at $1.03@1.04.

PAINTS.—The market has been generally quiet, white lead only proving the exception. The advance in linseed oil has occasioned an upward movement of white lead in oil to 11½ cents, and many jobbing sales have occurred at that price. Forestalling the movement of the market, several large orders for future delivery were placed at the old price. Red lead is firmly held at 9@9¼ cents. Vermilions are steady, but rather inactive at the recent advance. China clay is quiet with unaltered quotations, and other goods are firm with an apparently strong market.

PITCH—Is quiet at $3 for city.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE—Have been generally quiet, with fair movement at the close of our report. We quote: Merchantable order, 48@49 cents ℔ gallon; shipping order, 49@50; and from store at 50 cents.

TAR—Has been generally quiet, but firm, closing dull, but stood at $2.[illegible]3 for Newbern, $3 for Washington, and $3@3.1[illegible] cash Wilmington.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.

Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

Decker Bros.'
Grand, Upright, and Square
PIANO-FORTES.

THE DECKER BROTHERS
are the owners of the only patents granted to any person of the name of DECKER for improvements in
PIANO-FORTES.
All genuine
DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS
have the following line cast on the iron plate in the inner left-hand corner of the instrument:
"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.

This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.
EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE is guaranteed for seven years.
The splendor of tone for which the
DECKER BROTHERS'
instruments are world-renowned is the same in each of the three varieties of PIANO-FORTE—

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

We call the attention of all of our readers to an advertisement which appears in another column, requesting all to interest themselves now in the passage of the act pending before the Legislature, providing for the exemption of mortgages from taxation.

Senators and Representatives in Assembly must be made aware that the property-owners and taxpayers of New York are a unit on this question.

Sign and circulate, one and all of you, the petitions that can be had in any quantity either at Mr. Raynor's or at this office.

Delays are dangerous. This is to be a short legislative session, and the work that is to be done must be done at once.

If each capitalist would only devote one-half hour each day and get signatures to these petitions, the effect upon the Legislature would be so great as to remove at once all further doubt as to the success of the measure, this very session.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

We have fewer reports of sales at private hands than for the preceding week, yet enough business has been doing to indicate a fair market. Inquiry is plentiful, and the disposition to invest in real estate is quite apparent. This was very perceptible in sales occurring at the Exchange. The Ireland estate excited active competition, and all of the property offered in that connection was sold at fair prices. We have no reason, as yet, to disfavor belief in an active spring trade. The indications, so far, are favorable. The future course of the market, in regard to prices, is still a matter of some doubt. We fancy that weaker tendencies are perceptible in some quarters, while the general tone is strong, and opposed to concession. The market has not yet fully developed, and there is room for a great deal of surmise; but in the absence of any positive showing to the contrary, and in view of success at the auction room, we must call it firm and good.

We invite attention to the advertisement in this issue of the sale by Joseph McGuire, auctioneer, of property belonging to the LEGER ESTATE. This sale will occur on the 5th of March, and presents chances for investment which we commend to the attention of persons seeking such opportunities.

GOSSIP.

The Commissioner of Public Works reports the following contract as completed: Regulating, grading, curbing, guttering, and flagging Lexington Avenue, from Sixty-sixth to Ninety-sixth street.....The Department of Public Works has transmitted to the Board of Assessors the following certificates of cost of improvements: Sewer in Broome Street, between Mulberry and Mott streets, $901; outlet sewer in Ninety-sixth Street, between Tenth Avenue and Hudson River, $62,380.62; paving Sixty-third Street, from Second Avenue to East River, $15,651.22; total, $78,932.84.....The Park Commissioners received at their meeting yesterday the communication from the Board of Health concerning drainage in the new wards, and agreed to give that Board all possible facilities for securing proper drainage. Ordinances of the Common Council were also received, authorizing the continuance without contracts of certain works now in progress. The bronze statue of Elias Howe was reported ready for the inspection which must precede its erection in Central Park. A communication from Alderman Van Schaick offered to place a male and female elk in the Park. Upon presentation of a plan by the landscape architect, a resolution was adopted establishing the general features of a plan for Riverside Park and avenue, requiring that on the wheelway no grade shall be admitted steeper than one foot in twenty-seven; that the principal walk shall be on the level of the roadway, and that both shall be so shaded as not to interfere with the view of the Hudson River.....The case of A. D. Mellick, Jr., and Bro. agt. B. Dearing, tried a few days ago, in the Marine Court, before Judge McAdam, has decided a question of importance, in regard to the purchase of lots at auction. The plaintiffs, in May, 1871, held a sale of suburban lots at Rutherford Park. The defendant attended the sale, and bid on a lot, which was knocked down to him. The privilege being given, he took five lots adjoining—six, in all. According to the terms, the auction fee was $10 on each lot, but the defendant declined to pay more than $10 for all, claiming that one fee only was due. This action was brought in the Marine Court to recover $60. The defendant proved, on the trial, that the day following the sale he called on the owner of the property, paid for the six lots, and compromised the fee question by paying $30, and taking the owner's receipt in full for auction fees, which receipt was produced. The defence further claimed, that, as the auctioneers were employed by the owners of the property, they were acting as agents; consequently, that their principal had the power to settle with the defendant. The Court ruled that the owner, as principal, had not the power to settle for the fees of the auctioneers. Judgment for the plaintiffs.

MARKETS.

The market for masons' materials, during the week just closed, was one of the dullest, perhaps, ever known to the trade. The slight amount of work in progress was nearly if not quite suspended in deference to the weather, and goods moved very slowly, so much so, indeed, that trade consisted of negotiation rather than sale. Notwithstanding this condition of things, the markets have a strengthening tendency which, should it continue, will induce an early change in some of our quotations.

We have spoken on several occasions of the bearing of the labor question upon the building markets, and have hoped for moderation on the part of the workingmen. We are forced reluctantly to conclude that such hopes will not be realized. The spirit of strikes is still rife, and notwithstanding the numbers of workingmen (to take their own story) idle and destitute, a leading branch of manufacture in this city has been suspended, and the roll of the unemployed has been enlarged by a strike. The tenor of the resolutions and expressions at various meetings of the workingmen is in opposition to concessions of any kind, and the fact is quite patent that many of the workingmen would rather remain idle than yield to the necessities of trade, and that the good among them are overawed and repressed by fellows of a lawless sort who, if the truth be told, are averse to work and are indisposed to let others reap the fruits of that labor which they do not care to perform.

Unless some unexpected change should occur, builders must expect, with the first indications of spring trade, to meet with obstacles in the labor market. The highest wages and minimum working hours are likely to be insisted on, and in such case the amount of business for the coming year will be very much restricted.

The markets, generally, present no new features; while some are dull, others display life, and trade seems to balance about the same as we have lately reported it.

Our report, in detail, is as follows:

BRICK.—A few arrivals from Haverstraw, some inquiry, and a disposition to harden on prices is the apparent sum of this market. Trade has been very dull with no sales of any moment. Some dealers are offering goods at present quotations, while others are asking 25 cents ℔ M more, in no case, we are assured, making concessions. The market is only waiting until further supplies are cut off to advance, and dealers are longing for a spell of cold weather. We quote: Pale, ℔ M, $3.75 @4.25; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7.25@8.75; Croton Fronts—brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT.—The market is generally quiet. Sales of 1,000 lbs. Portland, to arrive, at $5, currency, are reported. We quote as usual: Rosendale, $1.75; foreign, $5@5.75; delivery to be added.

FIRE BRICK—Are dull, with reported sales of English in small quantities from store at $60, currency. We quote: American at $40@50, and red Welsh at $50 @55.

FOREIGN WOODS.—The market is moderately active, with less business doing than at our last report. We have no reports of sales.

GLASS.—The trade had a meeting on Wednesday, at which matters of interest were discussed. No change in prices was made, and discounts remain unaltered. There has been a moderate trade during the week, not enough, however, to make a very active market.

HAIR—Is quite dull, and we quote nominally at 21@24 cents for cattle, and 25@30 cents for goat.

HARDWARE.—Trade is very active, and domestic goods are in demand. Foreign goods are firmly held, and prices, generally, are well maintained. The demand for tin goods has greatly improved. Horse shoes have declined $1.25 per keg, "Burden's" and "Perkins'" being now quoted at $5 for horse and $6 for mule at the factory, with an advance of 12½ cents here.

LATH—Shares equally in the dullness pervading all branches of the building markets, and we quote at $1.85 @2 ℔ M.

LIME—Has very little movement, and is consequently dull. Prices are firmly maintained, however, and we quote: State—common, $1; finishing, $1.50; Rockland—common, $1.10; finishing, $1.75 per barrel.

LUMBER.—Trade has been rather better for the past week, and the yards display more activity. Prices are steady as we quote. Pine is in fair demand, and we note shipment of 100,000 feet for Cape Town, Africa. We also note sale 12,000 feet of Cypress (recently added to our list) at our quotation. Hardwoods are in fair request. Yellow pine is in moderate demand and spruce is quiet, quoting at $16@19.

The charters comprise: a Br. barque, 421 tons (at Tybee), from Brunswick to Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, lumber, $26 and primage; an Am. barque, 338 tons, and an Am. schr., 349 tons, to Cardenas or Matanzas, box shooks, 12 cents, and empty hogsheads, $1; a brig, 271 tons, from Pensacola to New York or a Sound port, lumber, $12; a schr., 242 tons, hence to Savannah, fish guano, $1.70, and back to Providence, lumber, $8.75; one, 160 M resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to New York, $9, option New Haven, $9.50; one, 150 M dry boards, from Jacksonville to New York, $8.25; one, 250 M lumber, from Satilla to New York, $3; and one, 180 M lumber, from Savannah to New York, $8; an Am. brig, 453 tons, hence to Tarragona, extra heavy pipe staves at or about $75; a new Tern. schr., 350 tons, from Wiscasset, Me., to Cardenas, box shooks, 14 cents; an Am. barque, 362 tons, hence to Cardenas or Matanzas, empty hogsheads, $1, and box shooks, 12 cents; two schrs., hence to Boston, black walnut, $6; one, 257 tons, to Savannah, fish guano, $1.75, thence to Bath, resawed lumber, $10; one, 124 tons, to Jacksonville, and back with lumber, $12 for the round.

MICHIGAN AND WISCONSIN NOTES.

From the Saginaw Courier, Jan. 29:—

That the incoming season will be a good one for lumber sales need not be doubted, as everything indicates that large sales will be frequent as the spring opens. Yesterday our reporter was shown a letter received by one of our river inspectors in Saginaw City from a large manufacturing establishment in this State, requesting him to buy an unlimited amount of common lumber, dry, at $14 per M. The firm wants as soon as possible not less than 1,500,000 feet.

From the Bay City Weekly Tribune, Jan. 31:—

The lumber market has materially improved within the past few weeks, and the prospects for an excellent season are decidedly flattering for our manufacturers. Several sales have been reported lately at $6, $12 and $35, but many dealers do not care to sell at that figure, so confident are they that better prices will be realized.

Speaking of the state of the market the Enterprise says: "The lumbermen have pinched through the hardest part of the season, and they were never in a better condition financially than at present. Lumber buyers from abroad who come here expecting to buy lumber at their own figures will be disappointed, as lumber will not go below the rates at which it opened the season of 1873."

The Courier, of Wednesday, contained the following:

In conversation with a prominent lumber dealer, who shipped from the river last season over 60,000,000 feet of lumber, our informant gave us to understand that the prospects for lumber were never brighter than at the present time. Even at this early date the market is fairly active, and sales range from $6, $12 and $35 to $6.50, $13, and $36 and $40. There is an active demand for uppers and selects, and an effort to buy along the line of the railroads discloses the fact that buyers have been along the line of most of the roads, and a very large proportion of the best qualities of lumber has already been disposed of. This fact is certainly very gratifying to the trade. Our informant states that a number of sales have been made, of his knowledge, without contract, further than specifying that the purchaser shall pay market rates. These must, from the endeavor of the market, favor the seller.

It has often been said that the financial troubles of the fall would prove beneficial to all kinds of business when once the country recovered from the first shock. That no business would be benefited to a greater extent than the lumber trade was generally conceded. The market was overstocked, both with logs and lumber. The panic fairly drove buyers from the market; manufacturers could get no accommodations at the banks, and as a result they were compelled in all cases to curtail, and in many instances to entirely suspend, operations in the woods. From the limited amount of logs that will be put in this winter, together with those hung up on the various streams can be manufactured sufficient (but no more) lumber with which (together with the stock now on hand) to supply the market for the coming season.

There has in years heretofore been such an over-stock of lumber that buyers came when they chose and paid such prices as they dictated. The coming season matters will be materially changed, as the supply is only sufficient to stock the market, and manufacturers can therefore secure good prices. This is one good result of the panic.

A gentleman who has just returned from a trip to the principal markets of the West and South, reports the stock of lumber on hand extremely light, and confirms all we have previously said of the market, viz.: That the prospects for a good season, both as to quick sales and good prices, were never better. The yards must be supplied, and dealers, being aware of the fact that there will be no surplus of lumber for the coming season, expect to pay good prices.

Sales, as heretofore stated, are being made here at $6, $12 and $35, but many are holding for an advance, which will inevitably occur.

PENNSYLVANIA NOTES.

From the Williamsport Weekly Register, Jan. 28:—

We intended, immediately after the close of 1873, to give a report of the lumbering operations for the pas year, with the amount of stock on hand at the beginning of the new year, but deferred it in order that we might be able to give the figures officially. The following shows the operations of the different booms for the past year:

	Logs.	Feet.
Main boom	1,481,168	297,289,982
Lower boom	101,292	21,052,730
Total	1,582,460	318 342,712
Rafted in 1872	1,484,103	297,185,652
Increase for 1873	98,357	21,157,060

A coincidence is noticeable in the above. It will be seen that the amount rafted out of the main boom in 1873 varies but a trifle from the total amount rafted out in the previous year, the number of million feet being precisely the same each year.

Rafting out of the boom closed Nov. 21, 1873, the whole stock having been taken out by that date. At the close of the rafting out for the year 1872 over 50,000,000 feet remained in the boom.

The amount of lumber in logs which came down the canal during the season is estimated at from 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 feet, which, added to the amount rafted out of the boom, will give the total amount cut about 338,000,000 feet.

The total stock to be put in for 1874, it is thought, will be about 250,000,000 feet.

The following comparison between the amounts rafted out in 1873 and 1863 is an interesting exhibit:

	Logs.	Feet.
Rafted in 1873	1,582,460	318,342,712
Rafted in 1863	405,175	70,475,826
Increase over 1863	1,177,285	247,866,886

The following amount was rafted out from 1863 to 1873, inclusive: Logs, 9,657,429; feet, 1,873,450,193.

By the official statement furnished the West Branch Lumberman's Exchange, the stock on hand at the beginning of 1874 is given as follows:

	Pine.	Hemlock.
Jan. 1, 1874	220,961,922	19,872,444
Jan. 1, 1873	137,949,907	8,807,440
Excess of 1873	83,012,015	11,065,004

There remains in the basins about the same number of logs as in 1873.

On account of the large stock on hand at the beginning of 1873, and the unusually large stock put in during the season, the lumbermen had designed putting in a much less stock for 1874. Owing to the unfavorable winter thus far, it is now thought that a still less amount than was contemplated will be put in. It is estimated that the aggregate stock on hand and to be cut in 1874 will be less by April 1 1874, than at the same time in 1873 by at least 100,000,000 feet.

The shipments for the year 1873 were as follows:

	Feet.
By P. and E. Railroad	70,304,760
By Catawissa Railroad	107,023,460
By Canal	66,124,329
Total for year	243,462,489
Total shipments for 1872	198,506,702
Increase in 1873	44,956,787

In addition to the amount of lumber manufactured in this city, the following amounts, belonging to members of the Exchange, were handled below this city:

Rafted out of Muncy Boom, 3,283,198 feet; rafted out of Northumberland Boom, and sold by the Committee of the Lumberman's Exchange from Northumberland Boom and other points, 14,165,904 feet, making a total of 17,449,102 feet. This, added to amount cut in Williamsport, gives the operations for the year at 355,791,814 feet.

A considerable number of logs in the Northumberland Boom, not included in the figures given, were cut for the parties owning them.

Lock Haven, during 1873, shipped 47,322,900 feet. Her stock on hand Jan. 1, 1874, was 38,380,096 feet, which, added to the shipments, aggregates 85,702,996 feet. From this deduct amount of her stock on hand Jan. 1, 1873—34,568,741 feet, which leaves 51,134,255 feet as the amount cut in Lock Haven during the season of 1873. About 10,000,000 feet should be added to this as the amount cut in Flemington.

We may now summarize as follows for 1873:

	Feet.
Production at Williamsport	338,342,712
Disposed of at points below	17,449,102
Lock Haven and vicinity, say	61,134,255
Aggregate	416,926,069

It will thus be seen that the lumber production for 1873 in the valley of the Susquehanna swells up to the formidable total of 416,926,069 feet. The lumber interests of our State may certainly be said to be of considerable importance, and are worthy the respectful consideration of the outside world.

SOUTHERN LUMBER REGIONS.

We have private advices from Galveston, New Orleans, Pascagoula, Mobile, and Pensacola. The market prices have ruled steady during the season. The demand has been fully equal to the production. The trouble the lumber trade meets with is lack of tonnage, ship masters preferring cargoes of cotton to cargoes of lumber. The majority of the shipments made are in vessels chartered at the point of destination; the vessels going to the mills are with balast, consequently the freights are very high. While the majority of the English vessels in the lumber trade prefer to make trips to Quebec in the summer time, and in winter make one or two trips from southern United States ports, the consequence is there is great want of tonnage in the summer time, and plenty in the winter. The writer noticed in May last, at the mill of Denny & Co., Pascagoula, Miss., a bill of 500,000 feet of lumber (cut to order, to build a dock at a town on the Amazon River, South America,) had been laying there already thirty days. A vessel was then on the way there, in ballast, chartered at Boston to take the lumber to its destination. We have thought that our lake vessels could make a very profitable business during the winter months to run in the coastwise trade from Pensacola, Mobile, or Pascagoula, carrying lumber to Texas, or from the mills to Cuba or Mexico.

The Texas and Mexican trade has become very active, especially the Texan. No portion of the United States has made greater strides toward improvement within the last four years, than the great "Lone Star" State. The vessels running in the trade are generally of about the carrying capacity of our lake vessels. There are several mills on the Sabine Bay, at the mouth of the Neches River, and on the Trinity River, to the west, that ship all their lumber to Galveston and Houston in small schooners. While the mills on Lake Calcasie, Louisiana, supply the majority of the coarse lumber used in the above markets, the upper grades and the finishing lumber comes from Pascagoula or Pensacola. We saw stocks of yellow pine logs at the mills on the coast of Mississippi and Florida that will run fifty per cent. uppers, Michigan inspection.

Freights to Texas ports from Pensacola ruled at from $12@15 ℔ M; to Atlantic ports, $15@17 ℔ M. The price of lumber ruled in the Galveston and Houston market, the past season, steady at an average price: Louisiana, $26 ℔ M, rough, to $35 ℔ M, dressed; Pensacola and Pascagoula at from $3@6 higher. Quite a demand for lumber has sprung up at Indianola, Brownville, Powder Horn, and Corpus Christie, Texas, and the supply of the interior prairie country. There is a large amount of lumber manufactured on the railroads in the eastern portion of Texas, that goes to the central and western portion of the State. We were surprised to know that within a radius of twenty miles from Houston, Texas, there are fifty saw mills in operation, principally portables built in the Eastern States, that saw from 2,000 to 5,000 feet per day. We also noticed, during our tour through Texas, in May last, going from Shreveport to Houston, via the Texas Pacific and the H. & Gt. W. R. R., that the road passes the full distance, over 200 miles, through a well timbered country of yellow pine, cypress, ash, elm, and magnola. Mills every few miles line the road to its full length. They generally are small affairs, sawing from 100,000 to 500,000 per annum each. They get from $15@$25 ℔ M at the mills for their production.

Taking our latest advices from the Southern lumber fields, and our observations among the lumbermen in the Northern white pine districts, and the present condition of the trade, our predictions are that 1874 will prove a very satisfactory one for the lumbermen.

EASTERN NOTES.

From the Boston Lumber Trade, Feb. 2:—

We have nothing new to report this week. Quotations remain unchanged. There have been no Eastern arrivals, and we note but one arrival of yellow pine. We have also to note the arrival, on the 30th ult., of the schr. Matilda Kranz from New Orleans with 18 M feet black walnut for E. D. Peters & Co. We quote:

Eastern—Spruce, scantling and plank, $16@16.50; boards, $15@17; laths, spruce, $2@2.25; Hemlock, $1.75.

Shingles—Spruce, extra, $2@2.25; No. 1, $1.50@1.75.

Clapboards—Spruce, extra dressed, 4 feet, $34@35; clear, $24@26; No. 1, $15@20; dressed, extra, 6 feet 6 inches, $42@48; clear, $37@40; No. 1, $30@35.

GENERAL WESTERN NOTES.

From the St. Louis Times, Jan. 28:

We note an improved demand for depot and levee lumber, with fair sales at quotations. At the yards the city and country trade continues light, and business is consequently dull. No movement in white pine in first hands. Shingles and laths quiet, but firm.

SOUTHERN NOTES.

PENSACOLA, Jan. 24.—Sales of hewn timber at full prices, and we do not anticipate any low prices this season. Sawn timber is quite active, and prices are nearly up to the outside quotations of last season; there is no stock on hand; rates rule at from 12@17 cents ℔ cubic foot. The continued want of facilities to handle oak timber has checked operations; large quantities are in the interior. Assorted Lumber—Outside the demand for sawn timber and deals, our mills have few orders; with the departure of our timber ships, our mill-owners will realize the fact that the Eastern mills, with Pascagoula, have absorbed the regular lumber trade; we annex last week's quotations, but they are mostly nominal. Cuba lumber nominal. We quote stowage deals $12.50, and prime $14@14.50 ℔ M. South America—Rates are still the same for standard deals, viz., $18@20.

METALS.—Copper.—New sheathing is steady at 33 cents, and bolts and braziers 35; bronze and yellow metal sheathing 24, and yellow metal bolts 30, net cash. In ingot there has been a large business, chiefly speculative, and prices became a little higher, but later in the week the movement fell off and the advance was hardly sustained.

Iron.—Trade is very dull, Scotch pig being almost without movement and no inclination to purchase at present prices; American pig is said to be selling below cost of production. Rails have met with some business, new being in most demand. We lower our quotation on new English to $58. There has been more inquiry for scrap. Refined bar and manufactured, generally, is steady and rather firm, with an advancing tendency. Wetmore & Co., agents for Burden, notify that "H. B. & S." bar, &c., has advanced as follows: Ordinary sizes, round and square, ¾ to 2 inch, and flats, 1x¾ to 6x1, per ton, $85; extra sizes, round and square, $90@115; flats, $90@105; ovals and half-round, ½ and 9-16 to ⅞ and over, $102.50@117.50; half-ovals, same sizes, $107.50@122.50.

Lead.—Pig is firm with prices in sellers' favor, domestic quoting at 6¼@6¾ cents, gold; foreign, 6⅞; bar, 9¼ cents; sheet and pipe, 10, and tin-lined pipe 16½, less 10 per cent. to the trade.

Tin.—Pig is very quiet, and prices are nominally easier. Plates are strong and active, and the market closes very firm at our best quotations. Western orders are coming in, and small consumers are buying quite fully. The better grade of plates are in good demand, and the market is not well stocked.

Zinc.—Sheet is steady and quiet at our quotations.

NAILS.—Cut are unchanged, but are weak and irregular, sales occurring chiefly at lowest rates. We quote: 10d. to 60d. common fence and sheathing, ℔ keg, $4@4.25; 8d. and 9d. common do ℔ keg, $4.25@4.50; 6d. and 7d. common do ℔ keg, $4.50@4.75; 4d. and 5d. common do ℔ keg, $4.75@5; 3d. and 4d. light, ℔ keg, $5.50@5.75; 3d. fine, ℔ keg, $6.25@6.50; 2d. ℔ keg, $7@7.25; 2d. fine, ℔ keg, $8@8.25. Cut Spikes, all sizes, $4.25@4.50; Finishing, Floor, Box, Coopers, Slating, and Brad Heads: 3d. (Slating), ℔ keg, $6.50@6.75; 4d. and 5d. ℔ keg, $5.25@5.50; 6d. and 7d. ℔ keg, $5@5.25; 8d. ℔ keg, $4.75@5; 10d. to 60d. ℔ keg, $4.50@4.75.

OILS.—The market for linseed is less active, but there is a fair demand, and lots offered a little under quotations are quickly taken. We quote: Linseed, crushers in cask at 96@97 cents; do., in barrel, 97@98; boiled and refined, $1.03@1.04.

PAINTS.—Business has been confined to a moderate jobbing trade. Prices are well maintained, with no prospect of a decline. Vermilion is strong and firm with a fair jobbing business. White lead is held at the advance lately reported.

PITCH—Has had some movement, but has been generally quiet and steady at $3 for prime, city delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market has been quiet and steady with some inquiry, and we quote at 47½@48 cents for merchantable order; 49@50 cents for shipping order, and 50 cents from store.

TAR—Is quiet but firm at the following quotations Newbern, $2.87@3; Washington, $3, and Wilmington $3@3.25 per barrel.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.
Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.
Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the DECKER BROTHERS
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.

This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.
EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE is guaranteed for seven years.
The splendor of tone for which the

SAFETY OF RECORDS.

The hall now occupied for the registration and preservation of the records of deeds, mortgages, and other valuable evidences of rights should be replaced by a building better suited to the purposes of its use. New provision must, from time to time, be made for the perfection and safe-keeping of records, and the present building admits of no improvement either in increased accommodation or safety. It is old, of restricted limits, and unreliable as a fire-proof depository. It is warmed with hot air, and the wood work of the interior has dried to tinder, and should a fire occur within its limits there would be little chance to rescue the valuable records from destruction. The present Register has utilized to the utmost the room allotted to him, and has made many improvements which aid to expedite business and to protect his trust. The fact is patent, nevertheless, that other and safer accommodations are required, and if the new Court House is not to furnish the relief required it becomes the city to take cognizance of the facts and to provide a new and fire-proof building as a place of deposit for records.

THE TAX ON MORTGAGES.

The Mortgage Relief bill is again before the Legislature. It is to be hoped that it will meet with better success than at former sessions. It is a question in what form the measure can command the most votes, whether it be applied to the whole State or be confined to a district, such as New York and a few neighboring counties.

It is urged that if the law is only of a local character it will be special legislation. But the advocates of the measure propose to pay the State tax, which amounts to about one-half per cent. This, therefore, will do away with that objection. It simply relieves mortgages from local taxation. All the interest the rural districts can have in the matter is that the exempted districts shall pay the tax due the State. We can see no objection to the proposed law if a community think their prosperity will be greater if a tax be removed from one species of property and put upon another—provided they pay their portion of the State tax. It is entirely a local matter, yet the question will arise, if it is a relief and benefit to a portion of the State to make such a change in its methods of taxation, why not apply it to the whole? It undoubtedly will be so applied at some time.

A considerable part of the capital of the State for many years has been sent to the cities of the Western States to be lent upon mortgage, and thereby to escape taxation. If the proposed law be adopted, this flow of capital westward will almost cease. There is not a place in the State but what would have more available capital to lend on mortgage—manufactures and all building enterprises would prosper—capital would stay at home, where it belongs, if this bill should become a law. Thus, our own State will be built up by the capital of its citizens.

Much has been said this winter about giving employment to the poor, but a law of this character would reduce the number of these complaints. During the late panic as high as 10 to 15 per cent. bonus was paid to carry mortgages one year. Such exactions as this on the part of capitalists cripple all kinds of enterprise. Our builders will not resume their labors with the experience of the past few months staring them in the face. The result will be that the honest mechanic must go without work or flee to New Jersey, where his labor is wanted and where mortgages are not taxed.

Cannot our legislators see that for every man thus driven away a greater burden is put upon those who remain?—Evening Post.

The Commissioners of Estimate and Assessment, in the matter of the new Parade Ground, intend to push the work right along to acquire title to the property for the city. The opinion given by Judge Lawrence leaves them free to act in the matter according to their judgment.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

The week has not been specially prolific of results in the general market, although several sales have been reported. The chief interest has centered in transactions at the Exchange, where the sale of property belonging to the estate of S. S. Ward occasioned active competition, and accomplished good results. The effect is not overestimated when we say that, in connection with the successful issue of the Ireland sale last week, the market has gained an impetus which bids fair to culminate in enlarged business and active transactions during the season just opening. The natural effect is to inspire holders with confidence, and real estate is as strong, nominally at least, as at any time for a year past. If there is to be any weakness in the market, it will arise from inability to carry, and the consequent forcing of property upon the market.

Inquiry is freely made, and a general feeling of encouragement permeates the resorts of real estate dealers.

With renewed life, we may expect to see development of districts now awaiting improvement, and the city stretching out her arms to those who have left her to seek homes and investments in other localities, will present opportunities as good as can be presented elsewhere.

MARKETS.

All of the markets under review have been even-tempered throughout the week, marked by no fluctuations, but steady as we report them. There has not been a surfeit of trade, but, with some, business has been fair, while others have kept inactive. As the season advances, the disposition to harden on prices increases, and holders feel better satisfied with their chances for making money. Masons' materials have the least movement, but dealers in them are expectant, and have better feeling than they have hitherto avowed. We find our views as to the bearing of the labor question upon trade confirmed by many who have considered the subject, and we are assured that the chief obstacle to activity in building arises in the labor market. It is unfortunate that workingmen should keep unemployed and destitute to subserve the selfish purposes of men who seek prominence at their expense. They will find too late and to their cost that they have not fairly considered the relations of labor to trade, and that cheaper labor will be sought in foreign markets. This is now mooted in the building trades, and although an apparent necessity, is unhappy to contemplate in its results upon our working classes.

Our review of the markets in detail is appended:

BRICK.—Arrivals from Haverstraw have suspended, the river having closed so as to cut off further shipments hither. We hear of a few cargoes of Long Island bricks coming in, and restore them to our list. Jerseys are also quoted for the first time in many weeks. The market has been inactive but strong, with no reports of sales but abundance of inquiry, and dealers are holding out for good prices within the range of our quotations, without any inclination to make concessions. There is a feeling that it will pay to hold on to goods, and unless the prices demanded are conceded, few sales are likely to occur. It is possible that before our report reaches our readers, Up-rivers and Haverstraw Bays will be advanced. We quote: Pale, ℔ M, $3.75@4.25; Jersey, $6; Long Island, $6.50; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7.25@8.75; Croton Fronts—brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT.—The market is quiet, with no reports of sales. Quotations are retained as follows: Rosendale, $1.75; foreign, $5@5.75, cost of delivery to be added.

FIRE BRICK—Have not met with much activity. We note sales of 4,000 Scotch at $30@40, cash. We quote American $40@50, and Red Welsh $50@55.

FOREIGN WOODS.—The demand has seemingly fallen off, and the market is quiet with no sales.

GLASS.—French window is steady and firm at previous quotations. Dealers are waiting fair opportunity to advance prices, but no action of this kind is probable until trade develops more actively. Our list of discounts is retained all around.

HAIR.—The market is dull, and without sufficient business to make prices more than nominal. We quote cattle at 21@24 cents, and goat at 25@30 cents.

HARDWARE.—The demand has been active and quite general, domestic goods having increased in request, and buyers coming in freely. Prices are well maintained, and trade seems quite brisk. Foreign advices indicate a strong and advancing market. New quotations are as follows: Iron and brass screw eyes and hooks, and gate hooks and eyes, bright cornice hooks and eyes, and bright wire screw meat hooks, all 70; brass hooks and eyes, 50; bright wire goods, 50 and 10; Frary's patent petroleum faucets, 10 and 10; Fenn's faucets, and loose key do., 50; patent improved measuring do., 20; casters, all kinds, 30; drawer pulls, 50; call bells, 15; spring tape measures, 25; Enterprise Mfg. Co.'s goods, 20; and Roger's silver plated goods (list Sept. last), 30, under $200, and 30 and 5 on orders for $200 and over, and an additional 5 ℔ cent. for cash within 30 days. Strap and Thinges have advanced; the Stanley Works quote 25 and 7½ off; wrought butts, narrow fast, table and back flaps, 30, and loose and fast board, 35. Wrought iron pipe is steady at 72½ ℔ cent. discount from old list.

LATH.—The market has been sensibly weaker for some time, although dealers have tried to withstand pressure and to sustain prices. Little has been done since our last report, and we quote the market quiet and dull at $1.80@1.85.

LIME—Is quiet, but firm at old rates, State quoting at $1 per bbl. for common, and $1.50 for finishing; Rockland at $1.10 for common, and finishing $1.75.

LUMBER—We have no reports of, and so far as we can gather, there have been no sales for shipment. Retail trade has been fair, and the yards are kept busy enough to present an air of activity, although trade is not heavy. Pine is in ordinary request. Spruce is inactive, Eastern quoting at $16@19. Yellow pine is rather dull, and hard woods meet with a fair share of trade, although with perhaps less business than of late. The market generally is not provocative of comment, although it is not dull, and is far removed from depression. Dealers are cheerful, and seem to expect good times. Business must therefore be encouraging, even if done in a small way. The charters comprise: an Am. barque, 476 tons, hence to Cadiz, staves, $45, on light pipe; a schr., 100 M resawed lumber, from Brunswick to Milbridge, Me., $13; a tern schr., 301 tons, part of derelict timber cargo of ship Elizabeth Hamilton, from Bermuda to New York, lump sum; one, 337 tons, from Pensacola to Boston, resawed lumber, $12; and a schr., 175 M resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to New York, $9.

MICHIGAN AND WISCONSIN NOTES.

From the Saginaw Courier, Feb. 5:—

The Farwell Register gives some facts concerning the square timber business, gleaned from a visit to Midland County, which are of interest, in view of the importance the business is attaining. The information gleaned, and given below, was mainly furnished by Mr. J. Simpson, one of the firms largely engaged in the business.

The firms now operating in Midland County are, Petrie & Co., who indend to get out during the present season about 1,200 pieces, averaging 60 cubic feet each, which is the lowest average allowed, making a sum total of 72,000 cubic feet; McArther & Brothers, 75,000 cubic feet; Coburn & Murray, 65,000 cubic feet; J. Simpson, 25,000 cubic feet; J. Kelsie, 45,000 cubic feet; Mosher & Murry, 70,000 cubic feet.

What attracted our attention most was the general extent of this business, which we learn is owing mostly to the increased demand for oak timber in the Quebec market. Persons having but a few trees find ready sale for the same, while larger lots are bought up at prices not to be resisted in these close times when money is so scarce; so that after the present winter the available oak timber left in Midland County will be but little.

Instead of hauling to the streams, to be rafted and run by water, as heretofore, the timber got out the present winter is being hauled to the railroad track, in some places a distance of ten miles, to be shipped part way to its final destination by rail, which has been found preferable to shipping entirely by water.

Getting out square oak timber is quite different business from ordinary lumbering, generally requiring more skillful labor, and workmen commanding higher wages. Hewers not unfrequently receive from $3 to $5 per day and board, and on their skill depends not a little the market value of the timber, which is worth here, delivered on the railroad track, from $45 to $50 per 1,000 cubic feet.

The firms herein mentioned are mostly from Canada, who are here in the interests of Quebec dealers. This timber is to be shipped by rail to Bay City, there transferred to vessels, which in their turn unload the same at Garden Island, where it is rafted and run down the St. Lawrence River, taken out at Quebec, counter-hewn and re-shipped to Europe, where it sells for about $80 per 1,000.

From the Chicago Inter Ocean, Feb. 6:—

In Oshkosh, Wis., the lumber market has materially improved during the past ten days, and better prices have been obtained than for the past six months. Reports from the lumber camps in the vicinity of Shawano state that up to Feb. 1 the number of logs put in was greater than at the corresponding period last year, with a good prospect of a continuance for several weeks.

The Saginaw Courier of Feb 4 gives the following comparative statement of the product of lumber on the Saginaw River for the years named: 1863, 133,500,000 feet; 1864, 215,000,000; 1865, 350,639,340; 1866, 349,767,884; 1867, 423,963,190; 1868, 457,396,225; 1869, 523,500,830; 1870, 576,726,606; 1871, 529,682,878; 1872, 602,118,980; 1873, 619,867,021. These figures, it will be understood, are for the Saginaw River only, and do not include contiguous territory.

GENERAL WESTERN NOTES.

From the Dubuque, Iowa, Herald, Feb. 3:—

All that was said last week regarding trade can be verified this week with a further increase. Merchants find by comparing books that sales for January doubled on what they were a year ago. The demand is equally divided between retail and jobbing orders, and has kept dealers actively engaged in attending to customers.

Knapp, Stout & Co. sent out 28 cars alone last week, and have orders booked to keep them employed half of the present week.

Farmers have been liberal purchasers, taking advantage of the good sleighing to haul home heavy loads of lumber.

Pinery news continues on in the same tenor; snow sufficient for all purposes, and the estimated amount being got out.

A sale of logs was effected last week to arrive on the opening of navigation. Clarke & Co. purchased of Spaulding 300 M No. 1 Black River logs at $10.50 per M; this is $2 below what the same quality sold for last season, and is accounted for by the difference between cash and time sales: the purchaser paid cash in advance. Spaulding has disposed of 3,000,000 feet below on the same basis of value, with additional cost for running.

Country dealers are in the market prospecting, and have made purchases of the first run to arrive. We notice dealers from Independence, Ackley, and Fort Dodge, canvassing the situation and negotiating for supplies.

There appears to be no understanding regarding yard prices; each dealer is for himself, and makes his own figures regardless of what others pay, claiming that when an agreement is made some will be found cutting under to secure custom. Price lists serve as a basis of value, but are seldom adhered to when orders arrive from competing points along the line of railroad.

Shipments show an increase of four cars, comparing as follows:

Shipped west last week	68 cars.
Previous week	64 cars.
Increase	4 cars.
Same week in 1873	24 cars.
Increase in 1874	44 cars.

From the St. Louis Times, Feb. 4:—

We note a fair business doing at the depots and on the levee, at quotably unchanged rates. Yellow pine flooring in good demand and firm. Poplar quiet; good to choice black walnut and ash in fair request—inferior and common not wanted. Oak dull; cedar timber and posts active; hickory slow—in limited demand only; nothing done in other descriptions of lumber. Trade at the yards quiet—prices unchanged. Shingles sell in car lots at $3.90@4.10 del. for best grades.

We quote the range for depot and levee lots: Yellow pine flooring, 3d rate, at $14@16; green 2d and clear do. $24@25; dry do. $26@27.50; yellow pine mill-run dimension at $14@15; poplar at $18@20 for mill-run boards and strips—2d and clear do. do. at $21.50@22.50, 3d rate $13@14; black walnut $20@25 for inferior, $30@35 for common to fair, $38@40 for good, and $42.50@45 for choice; oak at $16@25; ash at $22@25; hickory at $20 to $30@35; sawed cedar timber at $32.50@35—hewn sold at $26; cedar posts at $30; walnut table legs sell at 16@20 cents ₱ set. Special orders filed at higher rates.

Sales on the levee and at the depot: 2 cars (third rate) yellow pine flooring at $16; 2 do. at $23.50 and $24; 4,000 feet do. at $23; 4 cars do. at $24 and $14; 7 do. at $27 and $16; 6,000 feet refuse poplar at $12; 75,000 feet common do. at $14; 100,000 feet second and clear do. at $22; 20,000 feet poplar at $22.50 and $14; 1 car oak at $25; 4,000 feet hickory at $20; 1 do. at $30; 3 hewn cedar at $26.

PENNSYLVANIA NOTES.

The Clinton Republican publishes a detailed statement of lumber shipments from Lock Haven. The report of water shipments comes from the Canal Company, of the rail shipments from the books of the Philadelphia & Erie R. R. This statement is recapitulated as follows:

	Feet.
Rough lumber by canal	33,952,900
" " railroad	12,280,000
Planed " "	1,090,000
Total for the year	47,322,900

In addition to the above, the firm of S. Christ & Co., of Lock Haven, shipped from their mill at Chathom's Run about 3,000,000 feet, and from Williamsport about 1,500,000 feet.

EASTERN NOTES.

From the Boston Lumber Trade, Feb. 9:—

There is no change in the condition of the trade or in quotations to be noted this week. Reports from the East indicate that as large an amount of lumber will be got out this year as has been usual in the past. There is now an abundance of snow in the forests of Maine and the Eastern British Provinces. No arrivals are reported from the Eastward, and none may be expected for some weeks to come. We note but one arrival from the South during the week, but several vessels may be expected within a day or two.

SOUTHERN PINE ARRIVAL.

Feb. 2—Schr. C. H. Dow, Darien, 192,991 feet, to William Haskins & Son.

The following have been the total surveys of foreign and domestic lumber in this district for the past two weeks, ending February 6, 1874, as compiled by the Surveyor-General:—

	Feet.
Pine lumber	258,759
Spruce lumber	541,115
Southern pine plank and timber	905,379
Southern pine flooring	272,875
Black walnut	61,012
Hardwood lumber	103,033
Total	2,142,173

[Special Report by James A. Wood.]

The receipts of hard wood in this market for the last two or three weeks have been very light indeed, so much so that some manufacturers and dealers have been obliged to order certain kinds, which, as a general thing, could always be found in the market in the hands of some of the commission merchants. The demand for ash lumber from 1 inch to 5 inches is very good indeed, as there is a great deal required for finishing in the burnt district. The demand for good dry walnut is better than it was a few weeks ago, and although there have been some arrivals of late, yet consignments of first-class lots are readily sold. Our city has been visited during the last week or two by some of the largest dealers in hard wood in the West, who, although having made some sales for future delivery, are still indisposed toward crowding their stock on the market at anything below their regular price. The writer, having visited several of the most extensive manufacturers and dealers in Indiana, found the stock of dry lumber on hand very small indeed, and, as a general thing, held by men who are able to hold their stock, and not forced to sell. The hard wood trade in Indiana is gradually finding its way into the hands of a few men who, knowing that it can not exist much longer, are investing their capital in it as far as possible, feeling assured of reaping a large and lucrative profit as the supply gradually falls off. As our money market begins to grow easy, the signs for a good trade this year in hard wood looks better, and as manufacturing of black walnut in Indiana will not be as large as last year, we predict a ready and profitable sale for whatever is sent to our market this season. We quote the following prices, all to be under Boston Survey: ⅝ white wood, $33@35, for Nos. 1 and 2; 1 inch and upward white wood, $42½@45, for Nos. 1 and 2; 1 inch ash, $48, thicker sizes same price; 1 inch walnut, $78@82 for Nos. 1 and 2; 1¼ and upward, $80@85 for Nos. 1 and 2; ⅝ walnut, $62½@67 for Nos. 1 and 2.

From the same:—

[Report of Edward D. Peters & Co.]

As usual at this season of the year our lumber market is quiet, with little demand and no material change in prices. Considerable lumber has been sold during the past month owing to the unusually "open winter," which has encouraged building operations, and much "finish stock" has been used in completing stores erected in the late burnt district. It is somewhat early to predict the condition of the market in the spring, but from present appearances we anticipate a fair demand, and with the prospect of a continued ease in the money market, more building will be prosecuted than was supposed in the fall.

In the upper grades of Western there will be a comparatively short stock this year, and prices will be likely to continue firm. The supply of low grades will be equal to any probable demand, as there is an accumulation of these. For Eastern lumber the stocks promise to be fair, and if the New York and Philadelphia markets are at all active prices will advance rather than decline. For Southern lumber the demand is very light, except for ship stock, which is in fair request.

From the same:—

ST. JOHN, N. B., Feb. 3, 1873.

Our lumber trade continues dull, without much prospect of improvement until Spring.

The last advices from Cuba do not show any improvement in lumber, and we can not look for much advance in the prices of shooks and boards until the money market on that island becomes more settled.

The latest advices from Great Britain were favorable for our deals, and for shipments to this market the coming season we look for a good demand, with good prices.

The winter so far has been very good for our lumbermen, and a large stock of logs will be got out; we have had a heavy fall of snow, so that the prospect of getting the lumber to market seems to be good.

We continue our quotations, which are nominal in absence of any sales; Aroostook pine boards and planks, Nos. 1 and 2, $45@50; No. 3, $35; No. 4, $25; shippers, $20; poor 4's and scoots, $8; sapling shippers, $12@16; spruce deals, $11; spruce boards, $10@12; do. scantling, $10@12; do. laths, 75@90 cents; pine do. $1.50; sugar box shooks, 60@65 cents.

From the same:—

We extract the following items of interest from the first annual report of the State Statistician of Maine:

Returns from 329 saw mills give a total capital of $4,055,000; steam power, 2,192 horse; water power, 15,724 horse; production of long lumber, 344,406,000 feet; production of short lumber, 60,961,000 feet; value of production, $5,184,445; hands employed, 4,579; wages, $1,663,556. An estimate is made of the total number of saw-mills in the State, and their aggregate results for the year, which is as follows: Total number of saw-mills, 1,109; capital, $7,029,442; steam power, 4,403 horse; water power, 41,383 horse; long lumber manufactured, 667,420,000 feet; short lumber, 72,405,000 feet; value of production, including shooks, staves, headings, etc., $9,672,235; hands employed, 7,844; wages, $2,851,000. In Penobscot County the capital invested in the manufacture of lumber amounts to $2,000,000; in Washington County, $1,500,000; in Hancock, $700,000; in Kennebec, $600,000; Piscataquis is the smallest—$50,000. Even with the present rapid rate of depletion, our lumber districts are good for at least half a century.

From the Bangor (Maine) Courier:—

By decision 1,311 of the Treasury Department, dated Nov. 19th, 1872, it was decided that lumber subject to duty at $1 per 1,000 feet board measure, less than 1 inch thick should be considered as 1 inch thick for the purpose of assessing duty. By a decision of the department dated January 21st, 1874, this decision of November 29th, 1872, is reversed, and the duty on lumber will be assessed by the standard of board measure, or inch thickness, and the dutiable quantity will be increased, or reduced, in proportion as the lumber varies from that thickness.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.

Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

PIANO-FORTES.

THE DECKER BROTHERS
are the owners of the only patents granted to any person of the name of DECKER for improvements in PIANO-FORTES.
All genuine
DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS
have the following line cast on the iron plate in the inner left-hand corner of the instrument:
"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the DECKER BROTHERS
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.

This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.
EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE is guaranteed for seven years.
The splendor of tone for which the
DECKER BROTHERS'
instruments are world-renowned is the same in each of the three varieties of PIANO-FORTE—

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The new firm of Livingston & Co., Real Estate Brokers, who have just opened a new office at 92 East Fourteenth Street, German Savings Bank Building, advertise in another column that they are prepared to manage estates and sell or exchange property. There are certainly very few firms recently established in New York that have started under such excellent auspices as this firm of Livingston & Co., who count among their references such names as that of Ex-Gov. John T. Hoffman and of Mr. S. E. Belcher. It only needed an introduction by these gentlemen to give the new firm a fair start among the real estate dealers of Union Square and vicinity. This they now enjoy, and when we add that Mr. Livingston and Mr. Newburn have both immense facilities for negotiating loans, and transact all business intrusted to them, we do but simple justice to a firm already noted for its energy and fair-dealing.

THE TAX ON MORTGAGES.

It is expected that strong opposition will develop, in the Legislature, to exempting mortgages from taxation. This obstacle will be interposed by members representing constituencies in the interior of the State. Without impugning the honesty of those members, we cannot but believe that their action is very much influenced by that political sentiment which now-a-days impels every legislator to defer to the will of a constituency, however illy expressed or mistakenly created. Farming communities have inconsiderately jumped to the conclusion that to relieve mortgages from taxation is to impose an additional burden upon the land, which must assume the proportion of taxes thus remitted. Their argument stops here, and we admit its truth, if we are thus to halt on the threshold of the question. It does not seem to enter the minds of these opponents of this measure that taxation upon mortgages and real estate, without proportionate adjustment, is a double taxation far more onerous in its results than the plan now under consideration. To tax the land and to impose an additional levy upon a mortgage which quite frequently overruns the assessed valuation, adds to the burden which property is called upon to bear. It depreciates its value for the owner who wants to sell, and makes it much more difficult to raise money upon its security. We have full faith that the abolition of the tax on mortgages would lighten the cost of borrowing and advance the value of property. Much money has been withdrawn from stock speculations and Western Railroad bond investments, and is seeking its legitimate security upon the faith of real estate. If we would secure this flow of money we must remove the barriers which restrain its influx, otherwise it will be diverted to other States which, alive to the advantages arising from the abolition of this taxation, have already benefited by the experience.

NATIONAL LUMBER ASSOCIATION.

The Boston Lumber Trade prints several letters in response to inquiry addressed by it to lumbermen in different parts of the country. The object of the inquiry was to secure opinion as to the advantage and propriety of forming a National Lumber Association. The idea appears to be very favorably received, and we have no doubt that the proposed organization would not only benefit the trade but would disseminate valuable information and provide a plan for the prevention of the indiscriminate destruction and waste of our forests.

We commend this project to the attention of lumbermen and urge speedy action, hoping that the Lumber Trade will press it vigorously, gladly, for our part, lending it all the co-operation and support in our power.

RIVERSIDE PARK.

The Department of Parks has adopted the following resolution in relation to the Riverside Park improvement:

Resolved, That the following elements of the general plan of Riverside Park and avenue proposed by the landscape architect on 30th October, 1873, and since more distinctly presented and considered in detail, are hereby adopted:

First—A main highway shall be formed, extending from Seventy-second Street on the south to One Hundred and Twenty-third Street, and as much farther to the north as practicable, the grades of which shall not be steeper than one foot in twenty-seven, and where the grades of the avenue, as originally planned, exceed the above rate, the course of said highway shall deviate from that of the avenue, as originally planned, as much as may be necessary to the convenient accomplishment of this purpose.

Second—Wherever such deviation from the original course of the avenue is made, a branch road, not exceeding thirty feet in width, shall be formed, the eastern line of which shall follow that of the avenue, and the grades of which shall nowhere vary materially from those originally established for the avenue.

Third—That part of the main highway between One Hundred and Fourth and One Hundred and Twentieth streets shall be arranged as a public promenade to command views over the Hudson River, and to be shaded in all its parts.

Fourth—North of One Hundred and Twentieth Street the park and highway shall be so arranged as to supply a resting and turning place from which the view up the river shall be kept open as much as practicable.

Fifth—A connection shall be provided for between the main highway and a future public landing place on the river at or near Ninety-sixth Street, and highways crossing the park, with as easy grades as may be practicable, shall be provided for in the valleys near Ninety-sixth and Seventy-ninth streets, such crossing highways being designed to supersede those at present in use.

Sixth—So much of the park as is not covered by the highways above described shall be treated simply and in such a manner that the whole cost of its improvement, not including what the grading of the Twelfth Avenue may hereafter involve, shall not exceed $100,000.

STREET PAVEMENTS.

Mr. William Haywood, Engineer and Surveyor to the City of London, England, has made an examination into the relative merits for locomotive purposes of three leading descriptions of pavement. His report is limited to accidents to horses, and we take from the London Building News the following abstract:

For the purposes of this inquiry, 43 policemen were employed in taking the observations of traffic and accidents. The observations were two-fold—first, relating to the number of horses and vehicles which passed through the streets, and, in the second place, comprehending the accidents which occurred to the horses. The observations were taken from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M., without cessation, the men relieving each other at intervals of three hours, and each man being on duty for six hours daily, and there were 50 working days on which observations were made. Out of these there were only seventeen days on which rain fell, which is seemingly below the usual proportion in London, the average being 150 days in the year in which rain falls in London at some period during the 24 hours. The general state of the weather during the 50 days "was very much in favor of the asphalte, generally favorable to the wood, and very unfavorable to the granite."

Mr. Haywood selected the compressed asphalte of the Val de Travers Company, a granite pavement of 3-inch Aberdeen cubes, the Improved Wood Pavement, and a specimen of the Ligno-Mineral Pavement. Mr. Haywood found that there was a marked difference between the Lingo-Mineral and Improved Wood Pavement, there being a great excess of falls on the former as compared with the latter.

The pavements during the 50 days were kept in their ordinary state of cleanliness. "It was frequently noticed that accidents occurred on the asphalte when it was dry, owing to the horses putting their feet on fresh droppings; but scarcely any appear to have taken place from this cause either on the granite or the wood. The asphalte was not watered to lay the dust, it not being customary to water that material. But the granite and the wood were watered the same as the other thoroughfares of the city. The report says "Some of the accidents on the wood were undoubtedly attributable to the moisture caused by this surface watering." The like effect was not observable on granite, that being most slippery when dry. The asphalte when the surface was damp or slippery was occasionally strewn with fine sand by the street orderlies, but this sand was used sparingly, and owing to the state of the weather, the necessity for using it was small. On four occasions, the Improved Wood paving was slightly strewn with fine gravel, but the object was to indurate the surface, and only on one occasion was the pavement in such a state that strewing gravel was likely to prevent accidents. Nothing was at any time strewn on the surface of the Ligno-Mineral.

The distance traveled by horses over the three pavements under observation was 478,523 miles, and the accidents amounted to 2,327. Hence, on the average, a horse would travel along the three pavements—in the proportions due to their lengths—a distance of 205 miles before meeting with an accident. But the mileage per accident varies on the different pavements. On the asphalte the distance traveled was 191 miles before meeting with an accident, on granite 132 miles, and on wood 330 miles. On the Improved Wood Pavement, despite its heavy gradients, some of them transverse, a horse would go 446 miles without meeting with an accident, whereas the average from the Ligno-Mineral was only 58 miles.

The accidents to horses are divided into three classes—falls on the knees, falls on the haunches, and complete falls. But these distinctions only apply to 32 days out of the fifty. On the asphalte, 32 per cent. of the accidents were of the first class, 25 per cent. of the second, and 43 per cent. of the third. On the granite these proportions became 46, 8, and 46; and on the wood, 85, 3, and 12. On the Improved Wood the first class were 84 per cent., the second 4 per cent., and the third 12 per cent., while on the Ligno-Mineral the ratios were 88, 1, and 11. Whatever was the nature of the accident, the horses recovered their feet more easily on wood than they did either on asphalte or granite. The weather had a marked effect. Thus, when the asphalte was merely damp, a horse would fall once in 125 miles; when it was wet, the horse would go 192 miles, and if the pavement was dry, the distance would be 223 miles. Dry granite was very slippery, a horse falling once in 78 miles. When the granite was damp, the distance became 168, and when wet 537 miles. On wood, when damp, the accidents were one in 193 miles; when wet, one in 433; and when dry, one in 646. Of those accidents which are most destructive to horses, asphalte had the greatest proportion, granite the next, and wood the least.

THE STYLE OF QUEEN ANNE.

The Globe, in an article on the style of Queen Anne, affects to look on the recent isolated efforts to revive the domestic architecture of the early part of the last century as a "protest against the Gothic movement," and the forerunners of a new architectural creed to be "enthusiastically advocated." The writer thinks, however, that in itself this return to the style of Queen Anne cannot be reckoned a very important thing either for architecture or the public. The characteristics of the style do not go very deep, and the new affection for it at this time represents rather an increased cultivation of the picturesque than any original convictions concerning constructive excellence. But if the ideal is not very profound, it is at any rate sufficiently modest. There is no fault of florid or over-ambitious ornament, nothing, in truth, which can possibly raise a very violent opposition. Although in itself comparatively unimportant, this movement in architecture is, nevertheless, interesting in relation to that which it succeeds. In certain aspects the Gothic revival may be aply compared with the pre-Raphaelite movement in painting. Both were profoundly in earnest, and in both the rejection of certain qualities of artistic attractiveness ultimately led to a protest from within their own body. The dominant motive in the Gothic revival was constructive. It sought eagerly for the rudimentary impulses in building, and devoted its energies to carrying into view the structural facts which are actually important. The pre-Raphaelite movement in painting showed an equal worship of Naturalism. Everything was to be true and natural, and nothing was to be composed. Indeed, it may be said that the revolution in both arts involved a neglect of composition, and, as a consequence, both revolutions failed in giving to their less imaginative efforts those lighter graces which only composition can supply. It is a desire for the lighter graces of composition that lies at the root of the new love for the style of Queen Anne. The bondage of strict Gothicism was becoming intolerable, the unfailing accuracy of its movements seemed oppressive on occasions not the most serious. For the highest efforts the new movement has no pretensions. It can only affect an aptitude for those occasions when the most serious imagination is not required. In its essence it is purely domestic, but for domestic purposes it affords opportunities of picturesque effect to which Gothic could not conveniently descend.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

Although there is an apparent good feeling in the market, we are not assured that the volume of trade for the present season equals that for the corresponding period last year. There is much more inquiry, perhaps, than might have been expected after the occurrences of last fall, but, while there is an apparent disposition to buy, we think that would-be investors are tentative, and are awaiting the future of the market, with a hope of securing greater bargains. Sales occur in the general market, but there is a falling off in reports, and we do not see that the records of conveyances are much increased in number. If business is to be active, as we have had some reason to suppose, it will probably develop with a rush, and private sales will occur in rapid succession. There seems to be a good chance for money making in general trade, which only needs a settlement of the vexed questions of finance and taxation to develop. Congressional action—or inaction—restrains everything looking to brighter and more active business, and as real estate is so largely dependent upon the general conditions of trade and money, it must needs wait an opportunity. The feeling in real estate circles is good, and there is a dominant faith among dealers in the future of their specialty. The market shows no signs of weakness, for values are quite firmly sustained, and sacrifices forced at the Exchange, under legal proceedings, have no just bearing upon the market.

MARKETS.

There is very little chance for review, as markets which for some time we have quoted dull have become more inactive and nominal. Some lines of trade are active, but the course of the building market tends chiefly to quietude. Money is abundant, but general trade is backward owing to the uncertainty of Congressional action upon measures of finance and taxation. So long as this suspense endures, business will be unfavorably affected, although it is apparent that money is seeking an outlet sufficiently large to make trade of all kinds active. Building operations are largely dependent upon the movement of real estate, which is in turn subject to the influences of general trade, and is usually the last to experience its benefits. The panic has made real estate to a certain extent more independent of trade, as we find that people who have invested in railway bonds and stocks of uncertain character, are turning their attention to land securities, but the financial issue restricts movement here, and the relations of trade are so interwoven that we can expect nothing better for the markets coming within our review until there is an easy flow of money through every channel which will admit of its unrestrained action.

With plenty of money and active trade, the cost of labor might even be passed by, and the building markets might regain that tone to which their prominence entitles them.

We append our report as usual:—

BRICK.—Notwithstanding the open weather of the week, there have been no arrivals, and the market has experienced just so much depletion as resulted from a very limited and unimportant jobbing demand. The volume of trade has not been such as to affect the market. We have reports of sales of two cargoes (300,000 fair quality) of Haverstraw Bay brick at $7.50, a better price for the same class of goods than our quotation last fall. This sale, it is understood, disposes of all the brick afloat here, and all future drafts, until open navigation permits shipments, will be made upon the stocks in yard. No other sales are reported. We are informed that brickmakers are in need of money, and that with the first chances in spring they will rush stocks which they are now engaged in manufacturing down the river. Should this result, the market will be glutted, and prices will go considerably lower than we have quoted for months. In the absence of business our quotations are nominal. There is no market, otherwise our prices would probably be strictly correct. We quote: Pale, ₱ M, $3.75@4.25; Jersey, $6; Long Island, $6.50; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7.25@8.75; Croton Fronts —brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT—Has a quiet market, with reports of jobbing sales of Portland at $5.10@5.20 ex vessel, and at $5.40@5.50 from yard. We quote generally as follows: Rosendale, $1.75; foreign, $5@5.75, cost of delivery to be added.

FIRE BRICK—Inactive, with no sales of any account. We quote American $40@50; Red Welsh, $50@55.

FOREIGN WOODS.—The market is inactive, and no sales are reported. Quotations are nominally unchanged.

GLASS.—The market does not experience a full degree of activity, and dealers do not always get the best prices. The feeling, however, is strong, and although our list of discounts is retained, French window has an upward tendency, and may be called strong at our highest prices. Assortments are uneven, as some sizes are wanting.

HAIR.—There is apparently less to be gleaned from this market than from any other, and dealers seem to be rather at sea on quotations. Prices are at best but nominal, and there is not enough call to make it anybody's business to fix them. We retain, in default of anything better—or worse—our previous quotation of 21@24 cents for cattle, and 25@30 cents for goat.

HARDWARE.—Domestic goods are in active demand at fair prices, and foreign are in improved feeling, and quite firmly held. There is an apparent lively competition in the trade, and prices seem to be constantly undergoing revision. The Stanley Works quote: Wrought barrel bolts, B. K., T. K., and P. K., wrought square spring, and store door, 50, and 10 off; wrought hasps and staples, and hasps, hooks, and staples, 20 ₱ cent. off, and hand forged staples, 10 off. The Douglas Mfg. Company quote their handled auger and Dowel bits, and Cook's bits, 40 ₱ cent. discount; Cook's augers, 50; Douglas gimlets and gimlet bits, and expanding hollow augers, 10.

LATH—Are quiet, with no reports of sales, although we hear of three cargoes to arrive offering at $1.85. There has been an attempt to harden on prices, but no advance could be secured, the present demand being too inconsiderable to back up the views of dealers. Quotations are therefore unchanged. We quote at $1.80 @1.85.

LIME—Is without movement of note. The demand is limited, and the supply sufficient to meet almost any emergency. A light jobbing trade is doing altogether for inside work, and quotations are unchanged. We quote: State—common, $1 ₱ bbl; finishing, $1.50; Rockland—common, $1.10; finishing, $1.75 ₱ bbl.

LUMBER.—There has been a fair showing of retail trade at the yards, which have displayed a moderate degree of activity, and in some instances have seemed quite busy. Pine has been in good request, chiefly for middle grades, and there has been a marked call for dressed lumber. Yellow pine is in fair business for flooring and wainscotting, but timber seems to be without a market. Hard woods are not generally in as good demand as of late, but the best black walnut finds a ready market at good prices. Spruce is steady, with a possibly better demand. Eastern quoting at $16@19. We note sales of 120,000 feet timber, mostly 28 and 29 feet long, at $25.50 net cash, April delivery. The charters comprise: two Am. brigs, 452 and 340 tons, to Matanzas, a brig, 392 tons, and a Tern. schr., 438 tons, to Cardenas, empty hhds, $1, and shooks proportionate rate; two schrs., from Bucksville, S. C., to Searsport, lumber, $14; one, from Chesapeake Bay to Maine, ship timber, 6; one, hence to Jacksonville and back, 140 M resawed lumber, $12.50 for the round, option Sound port, $12.75; an Am. brig, 408 tons, to Matanzas, empty hhds., $1.15. and shooks 15 cents, part currency; an Am. barque, 496 tons, to Matanzas, box shooks, 10 cents, and empty hhds., $1; a schr.; 200 M lumber, from Pensacola to Cienfuegos and back to a port north of Hatteras, sugar, 60 cents, and port charges for the round; one, 126 tons, to Key West, $500, and back from Cedar Keys, wood, 16 cents ₱ cubic foot; a schr., 200 M resawed lumber and hewn timber, from Savannah to New York, $8 and $9.50; two, 150 and 170 M resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to New York, $12, option Sound port $12.50, cargo out free; and one, 140 M, from Jacksonville to New York, $9.50, optional Sound, $10.

MICHIGAN AND WISCONSIN NOTES.

From the Saginaw Courier, Feb. 12:—

The amount of shingles manufactured in the Saginaw valley during the year just closed shows an increase over the preceding year. The increase on the Saginaw River alone is 28,382,000 shingles, notwithstanding there are four mills less than in 1872. The shingle cut of the past seven years would show as follows; 1867, 90,983,000; 1868, 104,104,500; 1869, 119,843,500; 1870, 178,570,000; 1871, 187,691,000; 1872, 159,001,750; 1873, 218,394,550.

About 2,000,000 shaved shingles were manufactured in Midland County during 1873, and about 1,000,000 in Saginaw County, which embraces the total product of this class of shingles.

The oak timber trade of the Saginaw district, already large, is growing rapidly, and within a few years will be scarcely less important than pine. The timber got out here is of very superior quality, and is now being sought after by Canadian and European ship-builders. Since 1869 the following amounts have been got out and shipped from the Saginaw River: 1869, 765,000 cubic feet; 1870, 1,105,000; 1871, 1,982,000; 1872, 2,560,000; 1873, 4,234,920.

Square oak timber, delivered on the track of any railroad in the valley, readily commands from $140 to $160 per 1,000 cubic feet. Delivered to the vessel in the Saginaw River, this timber is worth from $200 to $250 per 1,000 cubic feet. The oak is got out mainly in the tributaries of the Saginaw River, the Flint, Swan Creek, Sheboyganing, Bad River, and the shore. Very extensive operations are being carried on in Midland County the present winter. About 250,000 cubic feet, aside from the amount enumerated in the above table, were got out on the Bay shore. There was also a large amount of spar timber (pine) gotten out, the exact figures for which have not been obtained,

The amount of staves got out in the Saginaw Valley and district previous to 1865 is estimated at 3,000,000. Since then the product, as shown by the shipments from the river, have been as follows; 1860 to 1865 inclusive, 3,000,000; 1866, 3,500,000; 1867, 4,919,000; 1868, 5,804,958; 1869, 3,720,000; 1870, 5,698,000; 1871, 3,820,000; 1872, 8,663,200; 1873, 9,568,898.

There was shipped by water during the past season, 13,379,600 hoops; by rail, 5,280,000; and there was manufactured into barrels on the river (including amount on hand) 8,946,250, making a total of 27,605,850 hoops against 25,110,225 the previous year.

THE SHORE.

The lumber manufactured on the "Shore" during 1873 shows a material increase over the product of 1872, and in view of the fact that the shore business is comparatively new, a further increase may be expected during years to come. The slaughter of pine has not been near as great along the shore as on the streams tributary to the Saginaw, and, as a consequence, the pine is more accessible. The principal lumbering manufacturing points are Cheboygan, Alpena, Au Sable, and Tawas, chief of which is Alpena. Following is a comparative statement of lumber manufactured on the shore during the past eight years: 1866, 70,000,000 feet; 1867, 84,995,772; 1868, 94,887,313; 1869, 116,815,333; 1870, 127,728,555; 1871, 124,400,000; 1872, 182,700,000; 1873, 213,490,265.

The increase is larger in Cheboygan than any other point, owing to the fact that two mills that have been idle for a year or two operated last year.

The amount of lumber now on dock is 54,913,337 feet; and of logs held over, 61,617,870 feet.

The amount of shingles manufactured in 1873 on the shore, and lath cut, was as follows: shingles, 99,450,000; lath, 22,634,000.

JACKSON, LANSING & SAGINAW RAILROAD MILLS.

Following is a summary of operation along the northern extension of the J. L. & S. Railroad (exclusive of O. A. Ballou's mill, and those in Saginaw and Bay counties): Lumber cut, 50,300,000; on hand, 30,350,000; lath cut, 8,850,000. The shingles cut were, 15,100,000

FLINT & P. M. RAILWAY MILLS.

The amount of lumber and shingles manufactured last year is as follows: Lumber cut, 55,303,000 feet; on hand, 27,734,000 feet; shingles cut, 142,976,000.

SAGINAW VALLEY & ST. LOUIS R. R.

The following is a statement of operations of the mills along the line of the S. V. & St. L. R. R., and tributary to the road: Lumber cut in 1873, 37,600,000 feet; on hand, 18,800,000 feet; logs on hand, 8,650,000 feet.

Aside from the above there were 2,000,000 pieces of lath cut, and 21,000,000 shingles. Of the shingles 9,500,000 were cut at St. Louis and 6,000,000 at Hemlock City. Breckenridge's mill is cutting on a contract of 1,500,000 oil barrel staves, and McRae's mill is cutting the same amount.

There was shipped over the road during 1873 about 9,000,000 hoops, 1,500,000 split staves, and 750,000 cubic feet of hewn timber.

GENEESE COUNTY.

Genesse County lies immediately south of Saginaw County, with lumber interests identical. Some portions of the lumber cut finds its way to the Saginaw River, where it is shipped by water, but the largest portion is shipped by rail south, west, and east. Not having water, and consequently cheaper facilities for transportation, the lumber, as a rule, is seasoned at the yard, in consequence of which large stocks are carried on hand. Much of the lumber is dressed at Flint and other points, previous to shipping, thus realizing the highest price that can be obtained.

Following is a statement of the cut of the mills located at Flint during 1873: Feet cut, 62,763,707; on hand, 39,500,000; logs over, 31,500,000.

There are also seven planing mills at Flint, which dressed last year 30,000,000 feet of lumber.

Aside from the mills at Flint, the next in importance are at Otter Lake and at Otisville. These have a joint capacity of 25,000,000 feet of lumber. Scattered around through the country are a number of circular and portable mills, the aggregate number of mills, including those which cut shingles, being 56. The capacity of these mills for a season is 180,000 feet. We have returns from about two-thirds of all the mills in the county, representing seven-eighths of the cut, from which, with a careful estimate for the balance, the cut of the county last year would appear to be about 127,000,000, being an increase of 13,000,000 over the previous year.

From the same:—

Gates & Fay sold on yesterday to Buffalo parties, 1,100,000 feet of lumber at $6.50, $13, and $35.

Shaw & Williams made a sale a day or two since of 700,000 feet of Rifle River lumber to Ransom & Empy, of Cleveland, at $6.50, $12.50, and $35.

In its review of the lumber trade for 1873, the Saginaw Courier says:—

The depression which marked the season of 1873 had, as was to be expected, the effect to restrain many large operators during the present winter, while the still-continued stringency of the money market compelled a large majority of smaller operators to refrain from production. The effect of this will be to compel the clearing out from the booms and streams the large quantities of logs which have in ever-increasing quantities been held over from one season to another, of which it is thought the amount will be nearly if not quite equal to the capacity of the mills during the year to come, the quantity being estimated at not far from 500,000,000 feet. The production of the present winter will probably not exceed 200,000,000. so that little doubt exists that, with the natural demands of the country, prices for the coming season will be as good as those of previous years, and with no prospect of large stocks, either of logs or lumber, to be carried over the winter of 1874-5, the future prospects of the trade are looked upon as healthy in the extreme.

Our statements give the following record of stocks on hand at the close of the year: On dock, 222,071,665 feet; on dock sold, 30,893;000 feet; balance unsold, 191,178,665 feet.

From the amount shown on hand unsold on January 1st, should be deducted 50,000,000 feet sold up to February 1st, and 60,000,000 feet held by manufacturers who do not sell a foot of lumber on the river, but ship to their own yards, located at the principal lake ports. This would bring the available stock in the market at about 81,000,000 feet, or less than last year.

As showing the lumbering operations on various streams, we give the following statement of logs rafted on the several streams whose logs mainly come to the Saginaw market:

	1873.—Feet.
Tittabawasse	269,508,740
Cass River	100,458,140
Bad River	37,137,384
Rifle River	80,872,607
Au Gres	63,281,236
Kawkawlin	33,673,354
Au Sable	95,148,000
Total	680,979,461

And to the figures of 1873 may be added at least 10,000,000 feet of logs run out of smaller streams, and brought to the mills by log trains. There was left over on the above stream in the booms and tributary streams logs cut during the winter of 1872-3, which could not be got out last season, the following amounts of logs:

Tittabawassee	250,000,000
Cass	50,000,000
Rifle	18,250,000
Au Gres	24,000,000
Bad	50,000,000
Kawkawlin	25,000,000
Au Sable	20,000,000
Total	437,250,000
Estimated cut 1873-74	250,000,000
Total	687,250,000
Add logs in mill booms	62,628,078
Total	749,878,068

This, as will be seen, would give us a supply for 1874 of near 950,000,000 feet of logs, providing they all come out. But as from 100,000,000 to 300,000,000 feet are hung up every season, and as during the past winter a large amount of snow has not accumulated, we shall doubtless leave as many logs back as in ordinary seasons. The operations of the past season have been very limited, far below the first estimates, which were certainly low enough. In the above figures no computation is made for the Thunder Bay (Alpena) and Cheboygan district, and a large proportion of the logs run out of the Rifle, Au Gres, and Au Sable rivers, are manufactured on the shore, or rafted in long timber over the lake.

GENERAL WESTERN NOTES.

From the Chicago Tribune, Feb. 10:—

Since our last weekly review there has been no abatement in the activity which has characterized this market for several weeks past. The shipments of lumber since January 1, 1874, are 23,154,580 feet, against 9,520,000 feet for same time in 1873; of shingles, 19,529,734, against 8,621,000 for same time last year. A heavy, firm feeling obtains for common lumber, especially fencing, dimension lumber, and small timber, the stock of which is daily being reduced under a steady interior demand, and prices are tending upward. Shingles are very active, and have advanced within this week 12½@25 cents on track. First clear lumber rules at $50@55; common siding at $19@20, and A shingles, on track, at $3.37½ @3.50.

From the Dubuque, Iowa, Herald, Feb. 10:—

The most favorable reports continue to be made regarding trade; sales on shipping and retail account are large, in fact never were as good during February. The demand due during the panic was staved off till now, and is coming freely. Out of the 110 cars shipped last week, one firm furnished 38 of them. Good sleighing is bringing a lively trade to this market, making up for past dull times.

Price lists are irregular, unsettled, and as usual disregarded, serving no other purpose than to base values upon, and argue from that standpoint. Each dealer has price lists of his own, and "goes" for all the trade he can get.

Shipments show a large increase, comparing as follows:—

Previous week	68 cars.
Increase	42 cars.
Same week in 1873	19 cars.
Increase in 1874	91 cars.

From the St. Louis Times, Feb. 11:—

We have no new feature to note. There is a fair demand of all kinds of unchanged rates; inferior and common qualities not wanted. Yard business only moderate. Shingles are quoted firm at $4 del. for best grades, and lath at $3 del.

EASTERN NOTES.

From the Boston Journal of Commerce, Feb. 14:—

The call for lumber continues confined to small quantities, though now and then a large sale is affected; still there is not much demand, nor is there likely to be until after the close of the winter season. There appears to be some prospect of a good spring trade, as building is likely to be brisk as soon as the weather assumes a more favorable condition. Stocks for the most part are small, but as dealers are indisposed to purchase, they are sufficient for the wants of the trade. Western lumber continues light in demand, with no very large supplies in holders' hands. Eastern and Southern are both quiet, and sales are of little consequence.

From the Boston Lumber Trade, Feb. 16:—

As for several weeks, we have nothing of special interest to report, and no changes in quotations. The trade are looking to an early prosperous trade the ensuing season. We have no arrivals from the East, but several of Southern pine.

METALS.—Copper.—New sheathing is steady at 33 cents, and bolts and braziers, 35; bronze and yellow metal sheathing, 24; and yellow metal bolts, 30, net cash. Ingot is rather firm at 24¼@25 cents.

Iron.—Business in Scotch pig is restricted, there being no disposition to buy save to meet present wants. American pig is dull, and can not be said to be as strong as it has been previously. New rails are quiet, and old have been selling at $40. Scrap has but little movement. Manufactured from store is unchanged, selling, however, lower than the asking prices at the mills.

Lead.—Foreign pig is quiet at 6⅞ cents, gold, and nothing doing. Domestic is in some inquiry, selling at $6.25@6.30, gold, although held in some quarters at 6.37½@6.50, gold; bar, 9¼ cents; sheet and pipe, 10; and tin-lined pipe, 16½—all less 10 ℔ cent. to the trade.

Tin.—Pig is dull, with prices in buyers' favor. English quoted nominally at 24¼ for L. & F. for refined, gold. Plates have some movement. Stocks are light and prices are quite steady and firm as we quote.

ZINC.—Sheet is steady at 8¼@8½ cents, gold, from store.

NAILS.—Cut are unsteady. A nominal reduction of card rates for 10d. was made at a meeting of the trade last week, but as it was an actual advance on the market, it was of no effect. We quote: 10d. to 60d. common fence and sheathing, ℔ keg, $4; 8d. and 9d. common do ℔ keg, $4.25@4.50; 6d. and 7d. common do ℔ keg, $4.50@4.75; 4d. and 5d. common do ℔ keg, $4.75@5; 3d. and 4d. light, ℔ keg, $5.50@5.75; 3d. fine, ℔ keg, $6.25@6.50; 2d. ℔ keg, $7@7.25; 2d. fine, ℔ keg, $8@8.50. Cut Spikes, all sizes, $4.25@4.50; Finishing, Floor, Box, Coopers, Slating, and Brad Heads: 3d. (Slating), ℔ keg, $6@6.25; 4d. and 5d. ℔ keg, $5.25@5.50; 6d. and 7d. ℔ keg, $5@5.25; 8d. ℔ keg, $4.75@5; 10d. to 60d. ℔ keg, $4.50@4.75.

OILS.—Linseed has been weaker in price with a light jobbing demand. We quote crushers in casks at 95, and in bbls. at 96 cents; linseed, boiled and refined, $1.02@1.03.

PAINTS.—The market has been quiet for large transactions, but a fair jobbing trade has been doing, enough to keep up prices. Inquiry has been plentiful. China clay is quiet at 21@21½ cents, gold. Vermilions are firm, with limited sales. Paris white is quiet and steady.

PITCH—Has been dull and nominal, with a few small sales at $3 for prime city, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market has been variable, but generally dull, with weak tendencies. Sales were made at 50 cents, but fell off to 49 cents. We quote: Merchantable order, at 47½@48; shipping order, at 49@50; and from store, at 50 cents per gallon.

TAR—Has been dull and inactive, quoting nominally at $3 for Washington, $2.87@3 for Newbern, and $3@3.25 for Wilmington.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.

Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the DECKER BROTHERS
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.

This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.

C. W. SWEET,

WHITING BUILDING, 345 AND 347 BROADWAY.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Our subscribers, many of whom are continually building, have in the past frequently expressed their endorsement of the excellent Buena Vista Stone, which gives a more ornamental look to the fronts of buildings, and is decidedly more durable than the ordinary stone, which can stand neither the test of time nor fire. A visit to the yard of the concern, at Sixtieth Street and Eleventh Avenue, readily shows an immense activity there prevailing; and that this Ohio freestone is now more than ever in great demand.

REVIVAL OF THE BUILDING TRADE.

It is with great satisfaction that we to-day point our numerous patrons and subscribers to the report of new buildings about to be erected in New York.

It is the first tangible sign we have had since the panic of a revival of business in our midst. The building trade, including the altering of old buildings as well as the erection of new ones, has greatly increased during the past week.

On Wednesday alone new plans representing over $1,000,000 were submitted for approval to the Superintendent of Public Buildings. It was one of the heaviest days ever known at the department. Besides this, one architect informed the clerk of the department that he had about $1,000,000 more to send in.

All this shows that what the RECORD has stated all along to its readers (and especially to builders) is becoming true, even sooner than anticipated. Our advertisers especially should bear this in mind. The coming season will be one of unusual activity in the building trade, and those who do not make themselves known to capitalists and architects through our advertising columns will only have themselves to blame if they do not share the benefits of this revival in trade.

THE WORLD'S TIMBER RESOURCES.

It is impossible, after a glance at the recorded prices of timber and deals, not to be struck by the fact that however these prices vary in some few instances, the tendency is to advance. We have not to look long for the cause. Continental governments have almost willfully overlooked the fact—obvious to all—that unless means are taken to replace felled timber, by planting in due proportion, so certainly will the cost of the wood rise. Fell all you can near to the most convenient port and neglect to plant, and what is the result? In course of time the cost of carriage to the sea increases every year, and an extra price is asked and given, simply because we do not know how to set about finding new markets, of which there are plenty.

There is not so much enterprise in the timber trade which is developed in other quarters. Some can ransack the world in search of articles for home consumption which would leave a profit, but somehow or other, the timber trade seems indifferent to this sort of speculation, although it has the whole world to select from. We draw our principal supplies from Finland, Sweden, and Canada. Are there no other sources from whence we can bring wood—that great staple of building materials?

Europe itself is not yet exhausted. There are immense forests hardly yet touched. Africa is rich in all kinds of timber, and yet how seldom we hear of her wood in the market! Australia presents us with a long catalogue of her timber trees, and New Zealand abounds in the very wood we want. But we go on in our old way, importing from Sweden, Finland, Russia, and Canada, just because our predecessors did so. The magnificent trees of Vancouver's Island and British Columbia are sadly wanted here, and it is to be deplored that some efforts to bring them within our reach are not made. In course of time we shall be wiser, and not allow such rich gifts to be wasted as they now are.

Much would be done toward the reduction in the price of timber, if our consuls abroad were instructed to give a description of the forests in the neighborhood of seaports, and state the facilities for carriage, the depth of water at the port of loading, and other particulars which will readily suggest themselves. Until some such step is taken, it may, perhaps, be too much to expect private enterprise to speculate in the dark, and perhaps buy a forest one or two hundred miles from the coast, and with no means of communication.

But at any rate the fact remains, that many of the great forests of the world are yet almost untouched, and it should be the business of men who are paying the present price for wood to get at them and work them profitably.

In order that some idea may be formed as to the enormous extent of land required to grow trees for building and other purposes, in Europe alone, it may be stated that no less than 500,000,000 of acres are at this moment estimated to be in cultivation as woodlands, which is a very large per centage on the whole area. It is not our intention to give any description of the trees of a country from whence we could draw no supply—such, for instance, as France, where every inch of wood is required for home purposes; but take Norway and Sweden to begin with, which countries have about 80,000,000 acres covered with trees. Indigenous to the country are the Norway spruce, fir, Norway maple, Scotch pine, elm, beech, &c. It is gratifying to know that young wood is springing up to replace the fellings around the ports, but it must take some time to reach maturity, and there is always the risk of premature use, in order to meet the requirements, however temporary, of this market. There have been attempts at the introduction of foreign trees, and not without some prospect of success. Foreign oaks, poplars, pines, walnuts, &c., are reported as growing to very fair dimensions.

From Spain and Portugal not much wood is derived for building purposes, although about 6,000,000 acres are occupied in these countries by Scotch pine, oak, and cork trees. Sycamore and larch are the principal products. If ever the Spaniards settle down to develop the immense resources of their country, they will find that a timber trade with England will be a profitable one.

Germany has taken better care of her forests than other nations, and her extensive woodlands have been replenished by fresh stock. In the 50,000,000 acres she possesses of timber-bearing lands, she owns fir, oak, larch, beech, pine, chestnut, elm, birch, and poplar, and although the price is at present very high for square timber, still no one disputes the sterling qualities it is known to develop.

To Italy we are much indebted for very excellent walnut, but her 5,000,000 acres also produce fir, pine, oak, and poplar. As in Spain, nearly all the ligneous trees of the world might be grown in such a climate as this.

Turkey is not of much importance, as furnishing timber trees; nor is Greece; but that they might be, is gathered from the fact that they have about 10,000,000 acres under forest cultivation.

Denmark, with its 500,000 acres of woodlands, is of more importance to England than the above countries, the woods being principally of Norway spruce, fir, Scotch pine, oak, &c. Passing over Belgium as almost unimporant, we come to Russia, with about 300,000,000 acres of land, devoted to timber cultivation. Here we find the Scotch pine and Norway spruce in plenty, besides beech, elm, oak, &c., and foreign trees have been successfully treated.

But no sound system of forestry has yet obtained in Russia. With such a gigantic area of forest lands, and a good system of administration, we should see lower quotations in these pages, did such a system exist. The ice-bound ports of Russia are certainly against her, but in the open months there is no reason why her position may not be immensely improved as a timber-exporting country.—London Building News.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

The market has fared well at private hands, but has amounted to nothing at the Exchange. Sales at auction were principally under foreclosure, and such took the customary course. Those that were not of that character failed in bringing prices at all commensurate with values. This was especially noticeable in the case of Brooklyn Prospect Park lots. The general market has been more active than during the preceding week, and several sales have been accomplished upon fair, and, in some cases, exceptionally good terms. In fact, for some classes of property in the vicinity of Central Park, prices have been remarkably strong. The tone of the market seems constantly improving, despite some unfavorable prognostications, and we cannot say, from the proofs that are given us, that it has such weakness as will force a decline. If values are not advanced, they certainly do not seem to be forced, and hold their own with remarkable steadiness. Inquiry is ample, and, before we reach the end of the season, it may result in abundant transactions.

We call attention to the advertisement in another column of the sale by R. V. Hartnett, Auctioneer, of the twelve valuable lots of ground located on the easterly side of Fifth Avenue, between Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth streets, and fronting on the Grand Plaza. The sale is under direction of an Assignee in Bankruptcy, and is announced as imperative for the 11th of March. The lots are covered by large buildings, in an advanced stage of construction, intended, originally, upon completion, for a hotel. The terms are very easy, and a favorable opportunity is thus offered to invest in valuable property, which is to be sold under the exigencies of legal proceedings.

MARKETS.

A little more life is apparent in those markets which have, of late, been most quiet; and as no less activity has ensued in others, we find a general showing of better trade than has prevailed for several weeks preceding the week under review. The renewed life is, nevertheless, rather spasmodic, and is only remarkable for its contrast with the inactivity so long enduring. We fail to see any indications of driving trade, for which indeed, as matters now stand and in the suspense under which all business halts, there is but little anticipation. The brick market has taken on more life, and the lumber trade has better indications. Change in the weather will probably reverse these conditions and return the markets to their previous state.

Builders and dealers are looking to the course of the real estate market, hoping in that direction to gleam some comfortable hope for the future. It is evident that the speculating mania in building has been pretty well stamped out. The events of the past two years have brought at least that much wisdom, and builders are now looking for the natural demand from investors for improvement. While we look upon the future as sufficiently prolific of promise, we cannot conceive of extravagant building operations—certainly not until the latest lessons have been forgotten in increasing prosperity. There is, however, likely to be a steady demand for building to supply, and not to create wants. But this is dependent upon movements in real estate, which just now is awaiting its time, which follows upon the results of good trade.

Our review of the markets follows:

BRICK.—The peculiar weather—warm and gentle—of the earlier part of the week gave an impetus to trade, which only relaxed with the return of wintry winds and snow. Out-door work was taken in hand, builders pushing all they could while the favorable days lasted. The call secured the disposal of several cargoes from Haverstraw Bay which were run down at the first opportunity given by the opening of the river. Arrivals were, in all, about 1,200,000 brick, which sold, according to quality, at $7@7.50 per M. The demand is, for the season, moderate; and although the market is more active than for two weeks past, there is not much promise. Should the river continue clear, further arrivals can be expected, and prices, although fairly sustained up to the present, may weaken in the presence of goods which will be worked off to afford room and to supply the demand of manufacturers for money. The sales of the week have compelled a change in our lowest quotation for Haverstraw Bay brick, which are off 25 cents per M. We quote: Pale, ℔ M, $3.75@4.25; Jersey, $6.50@7; Long Island, $6.50@7; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7@8.75; Croton Fronts—brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT—Is quiet; sales have been made of 500 barrels Portland to arrive, at $5.25, cash. We quote: Rosendale, $1.75; and foreign, $5@5.75; delivery to be added.

FIRE BRICK.—The jobbing demand is light, and the market is inactive; sales reported are of 20,000 Scotch and English at $50. We quote: American at $40@50; red Welsh, $50@55.

GLASS.—The market is not very active, trade jogging along in a quiet way. Dealers in French window have hardened a little on prices since our last, and we now quote discount without any range at 50 and 10 per cent.

HAIR.—The market is irregular, without activity; cattle is quoted as low as 18 cents, and goat at our lowest range, but we have no reports of sales and retain our quotations.

HARDWARE.—Foreign and domestic goods are firm with continued activity. New price lists are plentiful, and we only give a brief of such goods as call for special mention. The Davis Level and Tool Company quote their iron and wood-centre levels 40 per cent. discount from list No. 1; their first quality ordinary levels 60 off from list No. 2; their iron pocket levels 25 off list No. 3; their level and plumb glasses 60 off list No. 4; their iron pocket levels for square and straight-edge 50 off list No. 5, and their improved iron bench planes 20 off list No. 6. The manufacturers of plumbers' goods and earthen ware have had a meeting, and have their list as follows:

Copper bath tubs, 6 feet or 5 feet 6 inches long, 10 oz., $13.75; 12 oz., $15.75; 14 oz., $17.75; 16 oz., $19.75; 18 oz., $21.75; 20 oz., $23.75. French, 4 feet 6 inches long, 10 oz., $15; 12 oz., $17; 14 oz., $19; 16 oz., $21; 18 oz., $23; 20 oz., $25. Zinc bath tubs, 6 feet or 5 feet 6 inches long, $8.

Oval bottoms, 12x18, $5; 12x20, $5.50; 14x16, $5; 14x20, $6.50; 14x24, $8; 16x24, $9; 16x30, $11; 18x30, $12. Copper showers, per doz., No. 1, plain, $12; No. 2, fancy, $15; No. 3, fancy flange and thimble, $17.50; No. 4, tubular, $27: No. 5, fancy tubular, $30; No. 6, do, flange and thimble, $32. Copper bidets, with supply, overflow, and waste, $7, and swing urinals, $12 each. Copper air chambers, No. 1, $4.50, and No. 2, $5.50. Copper plug basins, 12 inches inside, $4.50, and 14 inches, $5, all net prices.

The Union Manufacturing Company have changed their discounts as follows: Figured enameled loose joint butts 40 per cent.; plain do, with acorns, japanned do, with acorns, and do with silver acorns, 45 per cent.; Boston finish, plain, without acorns, 70 per cent.; do, with iron acorns, 65 per cent.; do, with silvered acorns, 55 per cent. Narrow and broad cast loose joint butts 50 per cent.; cast parliament do and Mayer's hinges 40 per cent. Burden's horse shoes have been again advanced, and are now quoted: Horse, $5.62½, and mule, $6.62½, delivered here. Other quotations are: Patent steel toe calks, 13 cents per lb.; Au-Sable horse nails, 24 cents for No. 8, and pointed and finished, 25 for No. 8; Canton hammered Norway iron horse nails, 18 cents for No. 8; and Union Horse Shoe Co.'s mule shoes, $5.75 for Nos. 1, 2, and 3, assorted, and $4.75 for No. 3, alone.

LATH.—There is very little doing, and prices seem to be irregular, as we notice that in some quarters the range is lower than our quotations, which we retain. The market, probably, has its weak tendencies, but we do not feel called upon, as yet, to vary our quotations from $1.80@1.85.

LIME.—The market is steady and quiet, with some inquiry for Rockland common, which is limited in stock, and on which there is a disposition on the part of some dealers, pending arrivals, to harden in price. Some are asking $1.15@1.20, but we have no sales reported at those figures. Our quotations are retained, as follows: State—common, $1; finishing, $1.50. Rockland—common, $1.10; finishing, $1.75.

LUMBER.—Business at the yards has been quite fair, during the few days of good moving weather, and dealers were not slow to take advantage of all the opportunities that presented for trade. The result was that, for the greater part of the week, trade was active, and at some yards was called rushing. We have no reports of sales for shipment, and business seems to have been chiefly of a retail character. Pine has moved pretty freely, and the usual kinds of spring and dressed lumber have been selling well. Whitewood is not in as good demand as usual at this season, Cuban orders for wide not coming in. Yellow pine 1 and 1¼ inch is in request, but meets with little other business. Spruce continues unchanged, random cargoes selling at $16@17, and ordered schedules at $18@19, with few reports. Hardwoods are doing a fair share of the trade that is running. Wholesale reports are limited to one sale of black walnut, green, amounting to 25,000 feet, at $82.50 ℔ M.

Charters comprise: An Am. brig, 353 tons, to Cadiz, staves, rate reserved, light pipe, quotable about $45; a Tern. schr., 185 tons, hence to Galveston, $1,300, and back from Brashear to Portsmouth, live oak, about 40 cents ℔ cubic foot; a schr., 150,000 resawed lumber, from Jacksonville to Albany, $11.50; one, 160,000, from Jacksonville to New York, $10; one, 253 tons, hence to Savannah, fish guano, $1.75, and back with resawed lumber, $8; one, 154 tons, to Jacksonville, and back to Boston, lumber, $14 for the round; a Tern. schr., from Norfolk to north side Cuba, Railroad ties, 30 cents; a schr., 150,000 resawed lumber, from Apalachicola to Machias, $14; one, 150,000 resawed lumber and boards, from Newberne to Amboy, $8.50; one, from Norfolk to New York, spiles, $7 ℔ lineal foot; one, from Chesapeake to Thomaston, live oak, $6.50.

The figures in most cases are official, and in instances where we have been compelled to make our own estimates, generally based on knowledge of the surroundings, we have been careful that the figures shall be low, rather than too high:

GENERAL WESTERN NOTES.

From the Dubuque (Iowa) Herald, Feb. 17:—

The condition of trade is satisfactory in the highest degree, and one or more dealers are crowded with orders, to keep up with which an increased force of men are employed. All the yards report favorably. Sales are trebbled and in some instances quadrupled on what they were a year ago. As the result of this heavy drain stocks are reduced and in some yards broken, but a neighborly feeling admits of all bills being filled as usual. Stocks are low all over the country and in all leading markets, and ere another supply is received many of the yards will be bare. Rail shipments will hold out large for some time to come, but with the wearing away of the sleighing the retail trade is likely to diminish.

It appears that lumber dealers all over the country are having an enormous trade this winter. Minneapolis reports in this manner:

It is said that sales of lumber for the past month have been ten times greater than during the same period in any previous year since the city had an existence.

Competent judges estimate that on the first of May, 1874, the stock of logs and lumber in this city will be from eighty to one hundred millions of feet less than at the same time last year.

The Iowa Lumber Company is making repairs to its mills preparatory to starting up in the spring. Indications point to an early opening of navigation.

Price lists are easy all round, each dealer having one of his own.

Shipped west last week	126 cars.
Previous week	110 cars.
Increase	16 cars.
Same week in 1873	56 cars.
Increase in 1874	70 cars.

The Chicago Tribune of February 18 says:—

The past week's trade has been very active, and the constant drain on the yards for common lumber has led to an advance of 50 cents ℔ M., some parties holding firmly at $13. Other grades are firm, but without quotable change. The demand for shingles is unabated, and many dealers are somewhat behind in filling their orders, owing to a scarcity of cars.

From the St. Louis Times, Feb. 18:—

Depot and levee lumber firm, with a steady demand for all descriptions. Trade at yard only fair, at unchanged rates. Shingles steady at $4 del. for best grades, and lath at $3 del.

EASTERN NOTES.

From the Boston Lumber Trade, Feb. 24:—

Business continues to be quiet, and at this season of the year, dealers expect nothing else. There have been no arrivals from the east, but it is said there are indications of an early spring, and we may soon look for arrivals, and the beginning of a large trade. We report a larger number, than for several weeks, of cargoes of yellow pine. The revival of ship-building, and the assurance of a great increase of this business during the coming season at all points along the coast, where it has hitherto been carried on, will create a large demand for this kind of lumber.

SOUTHERN NOTES.

From the Savannah Advertiser and Republican, Feb. 20:—

A brief telegram from Atlanta yesterday announced that a bill introduced by Representative McArthur, providing for the appointment of an Inspector-General of timber and lumber, had passed the House. It is not known where this bill originated, but the opposition to it is so great that as we understand, a protest against its passage, signed by the Mayor and Aldermen and leading dealers, was sent to the Capital nearly two weeks ago. The bill provides for the election of a General Inspector, to have supervision over all the other inspectors, who shall be elected by the city, as usual. Instead of the 25 cents per thousand on timber now paid, the act imposes a tax or fee of 25 cents per thousand feet on lumber, which at present is untaxed, dealers paying their inspectors so much per day for inspecting. Of this fee the Inspector-General is to receive 5 cents per thousand, and the balance goes to his subordinates. The imposition of this fee on lumber is seriously opposed in Savannah, as it involves the payment of a large extra amount for the support of an unnecessary official, and which will be keenly felt by the dealers who have had the most unfavorable circumstances to contend against for several years past. The mill business here has been by no means a lucrative one. In this part of the country, a few years ago, there were five mills to every one that is now running. Manufacturers have found their business so hedged by disastrous contingencies and discouragements that one by one they have dropped out and left the field to their competitors. It should, therefore, be the duty of the State and city to blot out all arbitrary enactments affecting this trade, and take care that no new ones are framed. The office of Inspector-General seems to be a sinecure for the benefit of the lucky individual who secures the position; and it is to be hoped that the Senate will oppose the act. We heard that several mill men have gone to Atlanta to endeavor to prevent, if possible, the passage of the bill.

FOREIGN NOTES.

From the Liverpool (England) Shipping and Commercial Express, of Feb. 5:—

(From Messrs. Farnworth & Jardine's Circular.)

LIVERPOOL, January 30, 1874.

The business of the past year, as shown by our tables of import, has been on a scale far beyond that of any previous year, and prices on the whole have ruled unusually high though, in too many instances, through the excessively high rates of freight that have been current, shippers have derived very little benefit; the consumption, though it has not kept pace with the import, has been very large and shows no signs of diminution—we therefore look forward to an active business during the spring. Operations, however, for the ensuing season are entered into with a good deal of hesitation, the chief element of danger being the continued high rates of freight, which in many instances form from one-half to two-thirds the value of the article imported. Prospects, however, on the whole, are fair, and there is little doubt that the demand for all kinds of wood will be large; still we commence the year with full stocks at high prices, and as rates abroad rule high, and ship-owners demand a further advance in freights, the coming import will be very costly, therefore extra caution on the part of importers will be required, for, should there be any fall in freights or any check to trade, a considerable decline in value might follow.

The aggregate import of wood into Liverpool during the past year shows a large increase, the tonnage employed having been 584,277 tons, as against 509,842 tons during 1872; the consumption has also been large, the excess in both cases having been almost entirely in spruce deals. The stock, which appears large, is no more than likely to be required for the increased demand, our area of consumption being considerably extended.

The causes for the large increase in the wood trade of this port, above alluded to, may be looked for, in a great measure, no doubt, to the general activity of trade throughout the country and to the comparatively low price of spruce deals, which has enabled them to compete more favorably with European deals in the inland markets than they have done for years past; but among local causes no little may be attributed to the change that took place early in the year in the mode of selling deals in this port, when, at a general meeting of the trade, it was resolved that, with the view of lessening the charges on wood as much as possible in its transit from the importer to the consumer, that the costly and unsatisfactory process of measuring deals previously existing here should be abolished, and that in future they should be sold by the foreign or intake measure. This change has, no doubt, had its inconveniences, as all changes have, and may still be said to be on its trial; the chief complaints hitherto have been the want of care on the part of shippers in rendering their specifications, which in many cases are very incorrect, and we cannot too strongly urge upon them the necessity of exercising greater care in furnishing correct amounts of their shipments, as is done at the Baltic ports; otherwise buyers will lose all confidence, and insist upon the deals being measured when landed here.

Canadian Woods.—The import of Quebec yellow pine has been rather less than in the previous year. There has been a good demand for square pine, and the stock is now in a sufficiently moderate compass to give hope of a healthy and profitable business during the spring. There has been little fluctuation in prices, which have ruled high throughout the year. Waney board pine has been difficult to sell at prices that would cover cost of importation, and we are consequently left with a large stock on hand. Red pine is now imported to a very limited extent, being chiefly required for spar purposes. Oak has continued in good demand, and a higher range of prices has been current; the stock is moderate for the probable requirements, and there is little prospect of prices being lower. There has been a large supply of elm and an active demand; the stock is much in excess of last year's, but it will most probably be all required. Ash is very little inquired for, and the stock is sufficient; only good quality should be imported. Birch has been in very good demand, and the stock is moderate. Walnut from Quebec has come forwarded very sparingly, and prices have ruled high. Hickory has maintained its value, but the demand is only limited. Whitewood has been more inquired for, and the real article commands high prices; but much of what has been imported under this name is really poplar, and, though not equal in value, has been frequently taken in substitution. Pine Deals.—The import has been nearly the same as last year, but the high cost of importation appears to have reduced the consumption; the demand has run rather more on third quality than seconds, owing, no doubt, to the extreme rates at which the latter have been selling; higher prices are demanded for next season's shipments, and therefore, present holders will no doubt be firm. Staves.—Pipe have been in fair demand, and prices have been fairly maintained; but Puncheon staves, owing to the excessive supplies from the United States, have been declining in value throughout the year.

New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, &c., Timber.—St. John's pine has been imported to a very limited extent, and has generally been of small sizes. Of Lower Port there has been a moderate import, the quality of which generally has not been very good. For Birch there has been a good demand throughout the year, and, although the import has been heavy, prices have been well sustained, and the stock now remaining over is moderate; the last sales have been at advanced prices; we would, however, recommend caution in the production this year, as it can hardly be expected that the present high prices will be sustained during the present year. Spruce spars, although inquired for, have been imported to a limited extent only in consequence of the difficulty of obtaining freight on such terms as would enable them to be sold on the same basis as Baltic spars.

Spruce and Pine Deals.—The consumption has increased very much during the past year, and this is likely to be still further stimulated through the advanced prices again demanded for Baltic deals. The stocks now held over look heavy, but the consumption is likely to be large during the next few months, as no other deals can be purchased at our present quotations for spruce, consequently, our area for sale is much greater than heretofore.

Shipbuilding Woods.—Oregon masts and spars, although of splendid sizes, are too costly for this market, as iron masts are much preferred.

Pitch Pine.—This article is now used for almost all purposes, on account of its fine sizes and excellent quality, and the shipments this season promise to be on even a larger scale than during the past two years, many cargoes having been sold to the continent, while almost every port in the United Kingdom will have its direct importations. Of late, sales have been difficult to effect at prices to cover the present high cost of import. Sawn timber of extra sizes, has commanded full prices, but ordinary averages have been more difficult to place. Deals move off very slowly, and can only be imported with profit when sent at stowage rate of freight.

United States Staves.—There has been a very large supply, and the stocks remaining over here of most kinds, but especially New York puncheon, are very heavy and unsaleable.

Furniture Woods.—Walnut—American and Canadian wood has commanded full prices throughout the season, although of late it has been difficult to sell, in consequence of the heavy shipments from the United States and the heavy stocks held on the continent. Italian and Circassian wood have ruled at low prices, and sales are difficult to effect; burrs from Circassia, if of good quality, demand extreme prices, but ordinary qualities are unsaleable. Bird-eyed maple of good quality is wanted, but to command a fair price must it must be fresh, old wood being quite unsaleable. Satinwood has sold readily at full prices—any logs of veneer quality being eagerly secured. Lignumvitæ has been imported to a fair extent, and, having generally been of good quality, has sold readily at full prices—the most favorite sizes now being from six to nine inches. Lancewood spars have ruled steadily at remunerative prices, and they have generally been sold on arrival. Letterwood realizes high prices, but it only comes forward in small quantities. Partridgewood is but seldom inquired for; the same as regards tulip and zericote woods. Cocuswood of large size is wanted.

METALS.—Copper.—New sheathing is steady, at 33 cents; and bolts, and braziers, 35; bronze, and yellow metal, 24: and yellow metal bolts, 30, net cash. Ingot is somewhat quiet, with sales of Lake at 24½@24¾ cents, and small sales at 25 cents, which is the asking price.

Iron.—Scotch pig is without movement, and American is in similar condition. No sales for future delivery are made, as the danger of strikes among the workingmen requires the exercise of prudence in making contracts. Rails and scrap are quiet, and manufactured from store is dull, at previous quotations

Lead.—Pig is very quiet, ordinary foreign being quoted at 6¾@6⅞ cents; domestic, 6⅞@6¾, gold. There is a decline in manufactured, bar, pipe, and sheet having been reduced to 9 cents, all less 10 ℔ cent. to the trade.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.

Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

Decker Bros.'
Grand, Upright, and Square
PIANO-FORTES.

THE DECKER BROTHERS
are the owners of the only patents granted to any person of the name of DECKER for improvements in
PIANO-FORTES.
All genuine
DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS
have the following line cast on the iron plate in the inner left-hand corner of the instrument:
"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.

This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.
EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE is guaranteed for seven years.
The splendor of tone for which the
DECKER BROTHERS'
instruments are world-renowned is the same in each of the three varieties of PIANO-FORTE—
GRAND, UPRIGHT, AND SQUARE.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We call the attention of builders and architects to the card of Messrs. Noyes & Wines in another column. Their establishment—44 Centre Street—has a front of extraordinary architectural merit—entirely of corrugated iron. The roof and the ceilings are also made of the same material, and the various buildings erected by these gentlemen prove that the corrugated iron roofs are superior to any other. Dr. Hepworth's church shows what a remarkable improvement there has been made in these sort of ceilings, the designs for which can be made exceedingly ornamental.

A very commendable method for relieving the poor and for providing honest but destitute women with the means for acquiring support has been devised by the Women's Educational and Industrial Society, which has lately established itself at No. 47 East Tenth Street. This society is under the control of a number of earnest and brave-hearted women, among them Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, Mrs. Hodges, and Mrs. Corson, who, while perfecting plans for relief, give the deserving an opportunity to help themselves. At the room of the society women are taught all the duties of expert and accomplished servants. A waitress can learn perfection of style, and a cook the detail and triumph of culinary skill. Seamstresses find, in practical lessons, instruction for earning a livelihood. All that is required of applicants for the aid of the society is industry and respectability. Through this school we shall gain many valuable accessions to the ranks of training and trustworthy servants. The society is supported by voluntary contributions, and we commend it to the favor of the charitably-disposed.

STATEN ISLAND—LINOLEUMVILLE.

The introduction of Staten Island into the realms of enterprise and wealth seems imminent. Foreign capital is at work establishing useful industries all over the island, and what is now being done is but a prelude of what is to follow. The developement of her iron and other minerals, and the beginning of work upon the new railroad from West Brighton to Tottenville, and the numerous purchases by foreign companies at different points, show that important action has commenced. For great profit out of small capital her torpidity of fifty years has prepared a magnificent field.

Most of the villages on Staten Island have taken fifty years to attain their present growth; but its inhabitants are now being shown how to build better villages in a year or two and make lots of money in the operation.

The "American Linoleum Company" is a duplicate of the "English Linoleum Company." They have mainly the same stockholders and officers. They manufacture from ground cork and other ingredients a substitute for oil cloth, well known and extensively sold.

This company last summer bought 300 acres near Chelsea, on the west shore of Staten Island, about sixteen miles from New York; have laid it out as a village for their manufacturing buildings and residences for their workmen, have made thorough drainage, constructed wharves, and are now erecting numerous buildings. This is the village of Linoleumville. We know none of the officers of this company and no person connected with it, and understand they offer no stock or land for sale. It is easy, however, for any one to calculate what is made by buying farming land at moderate prices and converting it by suitable arrangements into village or city lots desirable for residence. We have frequently pointed out the great conveniences for manufacturing purposes which Staten Island, along the Sound, presents. The intelligent directors of this company evidently concur in this opinion, and have, undoubtedly by all their arrangements, secured a splendid prize. We also hope the Staten Islanders will appreciate and encourage the influx of capital and enterprise now flowing toward them. It is to them a golden tide which will rapidly secure free and prompt communications, and double, aye treble, in a comparatively short time, the wealth and population of the island.

CEMENT MIXTURES.

That cement and lime mortar may be used together with perfect safety and with great advantage in point of strength over ordinary mortar, notwithstanding all that has been written to the contrary, there can be no manner of doubt. Indeed, this mixture is so well known to London bricklayers that it goes by the name of "billy," and is constantly employed when work has to be run up in a hurry. We have seen it used upon a large scale with excellent results, where the following proportions were adopted: One part of gray lime (Burham), one part of Portland cement, and six parts of clean pit-sand. The mixture was made in a mortar mill; the lime, after having been carefully slaked, was first ground for ten minutes with the sand, and the cement was then gradually added and ground only for a minute or so, in order to make a homogeneous compound with the rest of the mortar. This mixture was then taken out and used at once, and care was taken to prevent the men from beating it up again and using it after it had once begun to set. The chief danger of thus employing Portland cement is, that in the absence of a mortar mill, a very imperfect mixture only is usually obtained, and even with a mill, a careless workman will often put in the cement before the sand, in which case the action of the cement seems to be deadened, and a comparatively poor result is attained. This is, perhaps, owing to the extra grinding the Portland thus obtains, for it has been frequently observed that Portland cement ground in a mill together with the sand, is greatly inferior to that mixed up by hand.

But the best way of using Portland cement is to employ it in much smaller quantities along with Selenitic cement. This latter material does not slake as lime would, but expands slightly in setting, and from a series of experiments, made on behalf of the patentees, it appears that a mixture of one part of Portland, four parts of Selenitic cement, and twenty-five parts of sand, was, if anything, superior to the same Portland used with four parts of sand. It has been pointed out by several correspondents, that the employment of neat Portland in occasional courses in a brick structure, has much the same effect as applying ashlar-facing to a brick building; adding it course for course as the building proceeds.

It has been stated that Portland cement does not expand in the act of setting, but this is contrary to our experience; it is true that in molding briquettes for the testing machine there is apparently a slight contraction, but this is mainly due to the fact, that it is almost impossible to hit off exactly the quantity of water required, and that in the act of hydration, the superabundant water is thrown off. This water being lighter than the cement, floats on the surface of the mold; but we believe that it is expelled from the mass of the cement, owing to a slight expansion of the particles—the total bulk after the expulsion of this water will frequently appear less than at first; some samples of Portland expand very perceptibly, and will easily break a glass bottle, and such samples are by no means in all cases light and hot cement, which expands through quite another cause, viz., the hydration of the particles of free lime, as we have pointed out in a former article; the set of Portland being quite another kind of action, namely, according to the best authorities, the formation of a hydrous compound silicate.

While speaking of mixtures of lime and cement, we must not forget that we have an important class of lime bordering on the cements, some of them being, in fact, natural cements. These limes have been termed by an eminent French writer upon this subject, "intermediate limes." The judicious admixture of such limes with the common fat limes, will lead very often to the most surprisingly good results; the difficulties and danger, however, of the use of these limes, being even greater than the joint use of Portland and other cements. Many of the best of them do not go abroad when wetted, but behave more like a mass of cement clinker, and only fall into powder after long exposure to moisture or a damp atmosphere. To use these limes to good purpose, they must be reduced mechanically to a very fine powder, and they may then be employed by the architect either alone or in a combination with richer limes without danger.

On the same principle, but with a different object, we employ the substance known as puzzolano. These natural silicates of alumnia greatly improve fat limes, imparting to them even in some cases marked hydraulic properties. Here we have a cement action set up by the juxtaposition in the presence of moisture of a pure lime, and the ingredients requisite for the formation of silicates—the formation of a cement, in fact—without calcination of the mixture. We have just used the term cement rather at random, namely, to denote a material having the power of induration under water. Though this property is common to all the true cements, it does not necessarily constitute the difference between a lime and a cement. No one would term a careful mixture of lime and trass a cement; but a properly prepared sample will become very hard in water if protected for a time from the wash, and by selecting a limey clay and burning it to incipient vitrification we can produce a substance which will give the most perfect hydraulicity to white chalk lime.

The foregoing observations are set down in order that we may draw attention to the fact that it is not essential to the production of a cement, or, at any rate, to the production of a substance possessed of many of the qualities of a cement, that the materials of which it is composed should be in contact when burned. This fact comes out much clearer when we come to deal with Roman cement, an article which we are sorry to see is fast going out of fashion. Roman cement is a most excellent puzzolano, and a very small quantity of this cement goes a long way with a feebly hydraulic lime, such as that made from the gray chalk. Twenty per cent. of good freshly-burned Roman cement will not only cause the lime to carry more sand with advantage, but it gives it a quicker set than the same quantity of Portland, and seems to accord better with the mortar than the more expensive cement. But, except for small and carefully-watched works, the use of Roman cement in this way is out of the question—the set is so rapid, and the mixture cannot be made in a mill.

Among the numerous experiments we possess relating to the tensile strength of neat Portland and even Portland with one, two, and three parts of sand, it is singular in how few it has been thought worth while to inquire into the beneficial action of this cement upon ordinary mortar, and the behavior of the mortar when so treated. Some experiments have recently been published showing how rapidly the strength of Portland cement is diminished by the addition of sand. In one week cement with four parts of sand was only one-tenth of the strength of neat cement, and after complete induration the mixture was little better than one-fifth of the neat strength. Roman cement, with more than three parts of sand, is valueless; Portland, with more than five, is as bad. Many limes will, however, when treated selenitically, carry eight parts of sand, and produce good results. From our own observation, mixtures of lime and Portland carry sand much better than when the cement is used alone, but this only holds good for quantities of sand above 2½ to 1.

The advantage, chemically, as far as we can judge of mixtures of lime and cement, is, that chemical action of any kind stimulates a further chemical action, and that the hydration of the Portland scattered through the compound causes the lime to form silicates, which otherwise it would not do at all, or would only do very gradually. Our object, in these remarks, is mainly to encourage inquiry upon a subject which has been hitherto very little studied, and concerning which we have yet much to learn; and we would gladly hear the results of any independent investigation bearing upon these points. Over a large part of this country we find pure limes very ill-fitted for building and engineering purposes, and a cheap mode of improving these limes is worth seeking after. The production of Portland, moreover, is enormously on the increase, and the price is ever rising. Our own observations point to the use of cements for many purposes, in what will seem to some as a new way, namely, by well regulated admixture with lime.—London Building News.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

It cannot be denied that the market is too inactive for the season, and, while open to comment, it is hardly a fair subject for criticism. Sales occur at auction and in the general market, and present conflicting aspects. In some instances, property fares notably good, and in other falls into an apathy which seems born of beggary. We have nothing particularly momentous to record for the week. Sales at auction have been frequent, and seem to presage plentiful offerings later in the season. Business at private hands is limited, although there is still prevalent that great amount of inquiry which must mean something, however remote in fruition. We cannot call the market weak, since values are well sustained, and in some instances have enhanced. Owners are indifferent to selling at loss, and we commend their resolution. Everything is in suspense and depending upon the results of many other things, not the least of which is the determination of the financial method of the country. Old heads in real estate anticipate livelier times, and there is reason to believe that the later season will be full of business. In summary, while the market is not remarkable for its life, it is yet peculiar in its tenacity, and holds its own quite firmly, despite all the adversities of the past and the uncertainties of the future.

A sale of Riverside Park property is announced for next week, by Messrs. A. H. Muller & Son. One cannot help admiring the courage of the Executors of an estate who are willing to put this particular class of property in the market at a time when there is so much doubt and uncertainty regarding the immediate improvements likely to be carried out in connection with the Riverside Parks, but, as a small sale is just as good an index of the value of property as a large one, the result of this offering will be anxiously watched for by a large number of operators, who, at present, are feeling a little blue, for fear that the Controller of the City, who sets his face emphatically against spending any more money on up-town parks until rapid transit is assured, may control the policy of the Department of Parks in this respect, in opposition to the Department of Public Works. Mr. Green thinks that before laying out more money on up-town boulevards and parks, we should be able to make some use of them.

MARKETS.

The markets have the same general character that we have reported of late. Building interests, naturally large at this season of the year, have not developed sufficiently to forecast the character of spring trade. It is enough to say, that most of the markets coming within our review keep steady; some with better trade, and others with no weakness, although inactive. In one or two cases the trade is depressed, but general life is dependent upon circumstances, to which we have often adverted, and need not now recur. There is abundant room for activity, for which builders and dealers alike are waiting, and of which they are ready to take the earliest advantage.

We append our customary report:

BRICK.—Arrivals from Haverstraw Bay have been nearly, if not quite, 3,000,000 of bricks, which have sold at $7@7.75 ℔ M, thus sustaining our quotations of last week, and, at the same time, showing a strong market. That the influx of goods has not weakened prices is due to the fact that no one is inclined to bear the market, and because builders are willing to admit that brick are cheap at present prices. The demand, nevertheless, is inconsiderable, taking into account the capacity for supply, and the character of the season. We quote: Pale, ℔ M, $3.75@4.25; Jersey, $6.50@7; Long Island, $6.50@7; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7@8.75; Croton Fronts—brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT.—Is in limited jobbing request. The market, however, is generally quiet, and with reported sales of 600 bbls. Portland, ex vessel, at $5.25. Quotations are retained.

FIRE BRICK.—The market is steady, but dull, at our quotations. We note sales of 22,000 Welsh, at $50. We quote American at $40@50.

GLASS.—French window is active, and in good demand, and is held firmly at previous quotations. The assortments are broken up, and some sizes are out of the market. English sheet and polished plate are quiet and nominal. Some of the Pennsylvania factories are resuming work, and, it is said, are to be run upon a co-operative principle, with a guarantee to the owners of capital invested. Discounts, generally, remain the same.

FOREIGN WOODS.—There have been numerous and important sales of rosewood recently, which induce changes in some of our quotations. The market has displayed a great amount of life, and we are told that the sales at auction and at private hands have been heavy, but we are precluded from giving any information as to their character, because of the refusal of dealers to impart particulars.

HAIR—Dull and nominal. We retain our quotations.

HARDWARE.—Reports of trade are conflicting, but we believe business, generally, to be good, although it is probable that many buyers are holding back to derive all the advantage possible from prices, which are now in their favor. Competition is rife between dealers, and, as the principle seems to be that trade must be done any how, there is considerable cutting under in prices. Quotations for plumbers' brass goods are 20 on plug, and 35 on compression work. For plumbers' earthenware the list of August, 1872, has been adopted, and prices are accordingly as follows: Marble plug basins, without overflow, 9 inches to 20 inches, $1.15@8; do. with india rubber plugs, 12 to 16 inches, $1.90@3.50; marble plug basins, with patent over-flow, 12 to 16 inches, $1.75@3.25; white plug basins, with india rubber plug, 12 to 16 inches, $1.75@3.25; do, with patent overflow, $1.45@2.85; white plug basins, $1.20@2.60; fancy basins, $5.25@8.75; fancy closets, $8.75; water closet basins, French, oval, white, and marbled, and blue, $2.20@3.75; ship closet basins, $2; urinals, $4@7.75, as to style, &c.; slabs and basins combined, Nos. 6 and 7, white and marbled, $4.50@5.50; No. 1, marbled, with sides, and No. 3, with sides and back, $9.25; No. 4, $17.50; and No. 5, $13.75, india rubber plug and patent overflow, $1 extra; all net for less than a crate, 5 ℔ cent. disc. for assorted crates, and 10 ℔ cent. on original packages.

Wrought brass butts are held at 30 ℔ cent. dis. The New England Butt Co. quote as follows: Wire narrow and broad fast joint butts, 40 ℔ cent.; common do, 50; narrow and broad loose joint butts, 60; Parliament butts and Mayer's hinges, 50; No. 1 Butterworth's window springs, $16, and No. 3, $24 ℔ gross, all net. On $250 or more of butts alone, for the six months, a discount of 5 ℔ cent. is allowed. Burden's horse shoes have advanced in price, and are now quoted at $5.87½; and mule, $6.87½ ℔ keg.

LATH—Are without special movement, and are quoted at $1.80@1.85 ℔ M.

LIME.—There is no more Fort Ann lime in market and the manufacture is suspended, the company having failed during the past year. We revise our quotations on Glens Falls and Bald Mountain, believing that our previous quotations have been too low to do justice to the manufacturers who have, for some little time, been demanding higher prices for their production, and are now selling at and sometimes better than our quotations, which are as follows: Glens Falls and Bald Mountain (Jointa Lime Co.)—common, $1.05; finishing, $1.60; Rockland—common, $1.10; finishing, $1.75.

LUMBER.—Business has been generally good, confined chiefly to trade out of yard. Cargo sales have been few, and we have no reports for shipment. We revise our quotations in a few particulars, and better prices are secured in others which remain unaltered, and are within the highest range of previous figures. The market is strong, with holders quite firm in their views, and getting on an average very fair and remunerative prices. Pine is in good demand, and 1¼ and 1½ inch box is getting to be scarce, and has advanced fully $2 ℔ M. Of inch box there is probably enough in market to supply the demand. Yellow pine has not advanced but is selling well. Cargo rates may be quoted at $30@32. Yellow pine timber is in fair supply and in moderate demand at previous prices. Spruce is in ordinary request, quotable at $16@19. Hardwoods are in very fair demand, and there is a scarcity of dry 1¼@1½ inch black walnut.

The charters comprise: a brig, 421 tons (now here), from Norfolk to north side Cuba, railroad ties, 30 cents; one, 396 tons, hence to Matanzas, and one, 367 tons, to Cardenas, empty hhds., $1, and shooks, 20 cents; a brig and a schr., to Jacksonville, and back with lumber, at or about $13 for the round; a schr., 174 tons, from Jacksonville to Matanzas, railroad ties, 40 cents; a Tern. schr., 351 tons (now at Providence), to Aspinwall, coal, $5, and lumber on deck, $12; one, 258 tons, to Tuspan, in ballast and back with wood, $11; two schrs., 128 and 284 tons, to Matanzas or Cardenas, cooperage stock, current rates; a Tern. schr., 353 tons, from Baltimore to Vera Cruz, coal, $5.50, gold, and back to New York from a mahogany port, private rate; a schr., to Savannah, fish guano, $2, and back with resawed lumber, $8; two, to St. Mary's and back, resawed lumber, $9.25; one, to Jacksonville and back, resawed lumber, $12.25 for the round; two, from Jacksonville to New York, resawed lumber, $9.50, option Sound, $10; one, from Pocoson River, Va., to Boston, ship timber, $6.50 per 40 cubic feet; a schr., 200,000 resawed lumber, from Savannah to New York, $8; one, 136 tons, from Brashear to Portsmouth Navy Yard, live oak, 40 cents per cubic foot.

MICHIGAN AND WISCONSIN NOTES.

From the Saginaw Courier, Feb. 22:—

From a gentleman from St. Charles, we learn that there have already been banked on the Red River and its tributaries, this winter, the following amount of logs, which will nearly cover the cut for the season: Eli Martin, 1,500,000; Jared Freeman, 1,700,000; L. Penoyer & Co., 1,000,000; C. H. Parks, for Bradley & Co., 700,000; and H. Davis, for C. S. Kimberly, 1,700,000.

From the Mason Co. (Mich.) News:—

Of course no other branch of industry is of so much interest to this locality as that upon which it, at present, chiefly depends, viz: the lumbering business. Not only our lumbermen but all in the community watch with interest the state of the lumber market. The exceedingly low prices of last year, accompanied by the financial panic, caused the lumber trade to present a decidedly discouraging aspect. The sale of farmers' products throughout the West has brought money into their hands, which is now producing its effect, to some extent, upon the lumber trade. The shipments from Chicago, as reported for the past month, are more than double those for the past month last year, averaging about 1,000,000 daily. Loggers are particularly active just now, improving all the time in putting up logs, apprehending an early break up of winter. Should the demand for lumber continue to be active, there is a prospect of a steady advance in prices. An East Saginaw lumberman gives as his opinion, which he claims to be founded upon good authority, that lumber will be $5 ℔ M higher than it has ever been, heretofore, in this State. This, he thinks, will be largely brought about by the shortage of the supply. What is true in the Saginaw Valley will be found equally so in most other lumbering districts.

GENERAL WESTERN NOTES.

From the St. Louis Times, Feb. 25:—

The market continues to rule firm for depot and levee lumber, with a demand for all descriptions of good lumber; inferior slow, and less saleable. Prices, however, are quotably unchanged. At the yards a fair business was done, at previous rates. Shingles firm, at $4, del., for best grades in car loads; and lath at $3, del.

From the Dubuque (Iowa) Herald, Feb. 24:—

The general report among dealers is favorable, the volume of trade holding its own the past week, as, also, on previous ones. Rail shipments are heavy, but, with poor sleighing, there is a falling off in the retail demand. One feature merchants, generally, concur in, and that is a firmer feeling, with less desire to "cut under" on bills. This feeling is prevalent all over the country, and results from reduced stocks and heavy sales. One thing is certain, stocks in this market will be run down lower than ever, before another supply arrives, which is not probable before the middle of May. Already some yards are out of sorts, and resort to borrowing. Fencing and stock boards constitute the bulk of sales to the retail trade, and enter largely into rail shipments.

A prominent dealer, just down from Minneapolis, reports unusually large sales in that market, amounting, since January 1st, to 35,000,000 feet.

Clark & Co. start up their saw mill next week, Monday, manufacturing timber and lumber from logs held over from last season. Other firms in the city are preparing their mills for operations when logs are loosened in the sloughs.

Shipments by rail show the following gratifying increase on last week's, also last year's business same time:

Shipped West last week	140 cars.
Previous week	126 cars.
Increase	14 cars.
Same week in 1873	48 cars.
Increase in 1874	92 cars.

EASTERN NOTES.

From the Boston Journal of Commerce, Feb. 28:—

Trade continues quiet, though there is a better inquiry reported from dealers. Stocks display no sign of accumulation, but are amply sufficient for present requirements. Out of town dealers are purchasing sparingly, but they report a more encouraging aspect as to future prospects, and are looking forward to an active inquiry after spring makes its appearance. Western lumber comes to hand slowly, and Eastern lumber is not very heavy in receipts. Southern does not appear abundant, though the call is not of much importance. Other articles, such as clapboards, shingles, &c., are taken in moderate quantities at quoted prices.

From the Boston Lumber Trade, March 2:—

Trade continues quiet, and our quotations are unchanged. This is only a repetition of our record for several weeks, but, at this season, the members of the trade have nothing else to say for their own business, and will expect nothing else from ourselves. Spring, however, is at hand, and, with the considerably less amount of lumber than has been usual in former seasons, manufactured in all the lumber regions, we may expect that prices will rule firm, and that our dealers will enter on an early trade with good heart and indications of better results than of those the last year.

PENNSYLVANIA NOTES.

From the Williamsport (Pa.) Gazette and Bulletin, Feb. 26:—

The shipments of lumber the past week show a large and increasing trade, while there has been considerable activity in the woods; many of our lumbermen now have their logs banked and waiting for the spring freshet.

During the week ending Feb. 21, 1874, the shipments from Williamsport were as follows: Catawissa Railroad, 2,957,680 feet; Philadelphia and Erie, 2,118,280 feet; making a total of 5,075,960 feet, an increase of 1,574,080 feet over last week.

For the week ending Feb. 22, 1873, the Catawissa shipped 1,757,000 feet; the Philadelphia and Erie, 1,134,640 feet; a total, of 2,891,640 feet, being 2,184,320 feet less than for the corresponding week in 1874.

Lock Haven shipped 34 cars for the week ending Feb. 21, 1874, containing 333,760 feet, which is 19,760 feet less than the previous week. For the year there have been 168 cars forwarded, containing 1,618,180 feet.

From points east of Renovo there were 23 cars last week, containing 223,720 feet, being 169,640 feet in excess of last week. For the year there have been 92 cars forwarded, containing 866,480 feet lumber.

From points south of Troy, over the Northern Central, there have been 28 cars forwarded, containing 266,520 feet, an excess of 32,520 feet over last week. For the year 1874 there have been 110 cars, with 1,032,200 feet lumber.

METALS.—Copper.—We quote manufactured as follows: New sheathing, 33 cents, and bolts and braziers 35; bronze and yellow metal sheathing 24, and yellow metal bolts 30, net cash. Ingot is quiet at 24¾@25 cents, cash, and short time.

Iron.—Scotch pig is almost without a market, and prices are nominal. Some of the trade are looking for lower prices, while others seem to consider that the lowest point has been attained. Our quotations show the shading in price. American pig is unchanged, and the demand and supply are about balanced. Rails are without movement, old being quiet. Scrap is steady with higher prices asked. Manufactured from store is unchanged and devoid of activity.

Lead.—Foreign pig is dull and domestic is weaker. Foreign (ordinary) is offered at 6¾@6⅞ cents; refined at 7¼@7½; domestic at 6¼@6½ cents, all gold; bar, pipe, and sheet are steady at 9 cents, less the usual discount to the trade; tin-lined pipe, 16½, similar terms.

Tin.—Pig is dull. Straits on the spot is scarce, and prices are quite firm at 26¾@27 cents, but for April delivery are 25½ cents. Charcoal plates are very firm; are fully up to our quotations. Cokes are somewhat dull and shaded a little from our quotations, but may fully equal them before our next report. The demand for charcoals is increasing as the season advances.

Zinc.—Sheet is quiet and nominal. We quote at 8¼@8 cents, net, gold.

NAILS.—Cut are quiet and nominal. We quote: 10d. to 60d. common fence and sheathing, ₱ keg, $4; 8d. and 9d. common do ₱ keg, $4.25@4.50; 6d. and 7d. common do ₱ keg, $4.50@4.75; 4d. and 5d. common do ₱ keg, $4.75@5; 3d. and 4d. light, ₱ keg, $5.50@5.75; 3d. fine, ₱ keg, $6.25@6.55; 2d. ₱ keg, $7@7.20. Cut Spikes, all sizes, $4.25@4.50; Finishing, Floor, Box, Coopers, Slating, and Brad Heads: 3d. (Slating), ₱ keg, $6@6.25; 4d. and 5d. ₱ keg, $5.25@5.50; 6d. and 7d. ₱ keg, $5@5.25; 8d. ₱ keg, $4.75@5; 10d. to 60d. ₱ keg, $4.50@4.75.

OILS.—Linseed is in moderate jobbing demand. We quote: Linseed crushers in casks at 96 cents, and in bbls. at 97 cents; boiled and refined, at $1.03.

PAINTS.—There has been considerable inquiry, and the market has shown more activity. Trade in large lots has been restricted, but the jobbing demand is good, and jobbers have had considerable business. The market is generally strong with some advancing indications. China clay is scarce for spot, and is quoted firm at $27@28, currency. White lead is steady with fair jobbing trade, and an increasing demand. Vermilion is in good demand at the advance. Chalk is quiet and nominal. Venetian red is in good demand, and firm at 2¾ cents. Paris white is more active and quite firm. Red lead is firm at previous quotations.

PITCH—Has been quiet but generally firm at $3 for jobbing lots. Large buyers have been able to fill orders on slightly better terms.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market has been quiet, closing dull at 48@48½ cents. We quote merchantable order at 47½@48 cents; shipping order at 49 @50 cents, and from store at 50 cents.

TAR—Has ruled quiet but firm at $3 for Washington, $2.87½@3 for Newbern, and $3@3.25 for Wilmington.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.

Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

Decker Bros.'
Grand, Upright, and Square
PIANO-FORTES.

THE DECKER BROTHERS
are the owners of the only patents granted to any person of the name of DECKER for improvements in
PIANO-FORTES.
All genuine
DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS
have the following line cast on the iron plate in the inner left-hand corner of the instrument:
"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.

This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.
EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE is guaranteed for seven years.
The splendor of tone for which the
DECKER BROTHERS'
instruments are world-renowned is the same in each of the three varieties of PIANO-FORTE—
GRAND, UPRIGHT, AND SQUARE.

REAL ESTATE RECORD

AND BUILDERS' GUIDE.

VOL. XIII. NEW YORK, SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1874. No. 313

Published Weekly by

TERMS.

One year, in advance.....$8 00

All communications should be addressed to

C. W. SWEET,

WHITING BUILDING, 345 AND 347 BROADWAY.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

With this number of the RECORD we begin a new feature in its publication. Anxious to extend its sphere of usefulness and to furnish our subscribers with the greatest amount of information attainable, consistently with cost to us and expense to them, we have consolidated The Mortgage Circular with the REAL ESTATE RECORD, which latter will, hereafter, contain all the distinctive features of the former, with additional records from Brooklyn and Jersey City. We purpose further to print the records of Conveyances in Hudson and Essex counties, New Jersey, and to afford in our columns such a variety of reliable information as will conduce to the benefit of our readers and to the end we have in view—of presenting an accurate record of events interesting alike to real estate operators and the business community.

Announcement to this effect has been already made in the columns of The Mortgage Circular, and we reproduce from that publication the following resume which we trust will be perfectly explanatory and satisfactory to our subscribers:

The REAL ESTATE RECORD will contain the records of Chattel Mortgages for the cities of New York, Brooklyn, and Jersey City; Real Estate Mortgages for New York and Kings Conveyances for New York, Kings, and Westchester counties, and Hudson and Essex counties, N. J.; Mechanics' Liens and Judgments for New York and Kings; Projected Buildings, Partitions in Bankruptcy and Assignments, and the Foreclosure Suits and Advertised Legal Sales for New York. The weekly review of the Real Estate Market will be continued, as well as the column of Gossip, containing briefs of the operations of public departments as affecting the interests of tax-payers. All proceedings for opening new streets or avenues, or for laying out drives or parks will be seasonably noticed, and due information will be furnished of assessments to be confirmed or laid, and the time for payment of assessments and taxes, and the property affected thereby. Reports of all other official proceedings affecting Real Estate and of interest to tax-payers will be carefully collated as they occur, and full and reliable notes of the Building Markets, with carefully revised prices current, will be included in each issue of the RECORD On the editorial pages will be found a variety of general information, with comments and suggestions which we shall endeavor to make conducive to the benefit of our readers.

We believe that our subscribers will readily realize the nature and value of our new undertaking, and will render us all the support and encouragement in their power.

The subscription price to the REAL ESTATE RECORD, containing the new features, will be $10, the same as heretofore charged for The Mortgage Circular, and payable always strictly in advance. Such of our old subscribers as have not yet settled their current subscriptions can have them receipted until April 1st at the old rates upon application at the Publication Office.

HEALING CHARITY—THE HOMŒOPATHIC DISPENSARY.

Our dispensaries, where gratuitous advice and professional skill are freely rendered in behalf of the destitute and suffering, are especially deserving of aid and sympathy at this time—when greater calls than ever are made upon their limited and more frequently insufficient resources. Foremost among these in dispensing those healing helps to the sick and sorrowing is the Homœopathic Dispensary, located at No. 59 Bond Street, with a branch at Tompkins Square. This institution was organized and founded nineteen years ago by Dr. Otto Fullgraff, who still remains at its head. During the fiscal year 1873 there have been 38,830 cases treated, including 98,602 prescriptions and 5,589 out-door visits, which fully illustrate the great extent of this charity. Diseases of the throat, nasal catarrah, and uterine diseases receive at this dispensary special attention from Dr. Fullgraff and his large and earnest corps of assistants. The scientific treatment of the throat by means of the Laryngoscope (a remarkable instrument remarkably perfected by Dr. Fullgraff, who disdains to patent an instrument capable of affording relief to the suffering), is one of the perfections of the healing art. It will not, perhaps, be surprising to know that this dispensary, wholly dependent upon private aid for support and with no endowment, should find itself restrained and straitened in its gratuitous work. The expenditures last year exceeded the receipts by over $4,000, and we ask the charitably disposed to encourage this undertaking, which fully merits a share of attention.

We have received the "Annual Statement of the business of the Saginaw Valley," issued by the Saginaw (Mich.) Courier, a journal which is evidently alive to the important section of the country and the interests which it represents. A great portion of the statement is devoted to lumbering details and statistics, and it is generally interesting and valuable.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REVIEW OF THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

The chief features of the week have been two sales at auction. One was the sale under direction of an Assignee in Bankruptcy, of the Knickerbocker Hotel property, fronting on Fifth Avenue, between Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth streets, and including twelve lots of ground. Under the peremptory action of the law many terests were sacrificed, but the loss chiefly accrued to the builders and mechanics, whose rights were summarily disposed of, by the failure to realize a sufficient sum on the sale to reimburse the liens and claims in excess of the mortgages, taxes, and assessments. The lots embraced in this sale, and covering an area of 200 feet ten inches frontage on Fifth Avenue, by 150 feet in depth, were sold for $660,000 four years ago; since which time, at least $225,000 have been expended in buildings, which are but little advanced towards completion. The property was sold subject to a mortgage, amounting with interest to $777,034.29, and to unpaid taxes and assessments amounting to $18,104.34, the aggregate of secured incumbrances being $795,138.63. The property was sold on a bid of $500 over and above the amount last mentioned, realizing therefore $795,638.63, or $89,361.37 less than the reputed cost of the lots and improvements.

We can hardly accept the results of this sale as a criterion for the value of the property concerned. Under ordinarily favorable circumstances the lots alone, with their advantage of location, would command a higher price than that attained at the sale mentioned, and it must be considered that it is a matter of some magnitude to effect the purchase of a large plot of this character.

The other event of the week was the auction sale of lots on Riverside Avenue, the Grand Boulevard, and intersecting streets. The property was sold laboriously, and bids were secured only by much patience and exertion on the part of the auctioneer. The general results, in our opinion, were unfavorable to this class of real estate, and seemed to indicate either that fancy prices for West side lots have for the present seen their day, or that there was a very strong and preponderating bear element present, which dominated over the sale for speculative purposes. Certain it is that the prices obtained are inferior to those which ruled a year ago, and will probably determine for the present, and, perhaps, for some time to come, the status of this kind of property. It is likely that the feeling which we indicated in our review of last week also had an effect in restraining purchases, and that too much doubt existed as to the immediate future of improvements in this locality.

Independently of these transactions the market has been quiet, the few sales occurring suggesting no weaker feeling, but not prolific of superior results.

We are loth to forecast the market at this time, and, while awaiting the developments of later trade, continue of assured feeling in regard to city real estate, in which, despite all disasters or temporary depressions, we have great faith and hope of recovery.

MARKETS.

The markets are now more a subject of discussion than of action, and are far behind the results which, for the season, would ordinarily be expected. The character of trade, even where most prosperous, is not likely to be steady and enduring, but is of that spasmodic nature which indicates that it is only excited by demands which are forced and not voluntary. The worst reflections of general trade seem to fall upon the building markets, where production finds for the present a very limited outgo with little probability of extension. In some of the branches of our report this will not be so apparent, while in others it will be only too plain that there is a repetition of the story we tire of telling, of dull trade and nominal quotations. Taken together, the markets are about as usual, and we might repeat our review from week to week with slight variation in reports of receipts and sales, and be accurate. The importance of settling the currency question cannot be overestimated, and we heartily concur with those journals which urge upon Congress final and definite action, whether for or in opposition to inflation. This matter once settled, there is a settlement for trade, and we should very speedily know what to expect and what to safely assume in our estimate for the markets which we endeavor to represent.

Our review, in detail, is appended:

BRICK.—We have reports of the arrival of several cargoes, embracing an aggregate of about 3,000,000 from Haverstraw Bay, and of 1,250,000 of Jerseys. Most of these have been disposed of, the latter, in fact, having been all taken up, while about one-third of the quantity reported from Haverstraw Bay remain in consignors' hands. The amount received would have probably been much greater only for the high winds prevalent the greater part of the week, which have detained the boats and restrained shipments. The prices obtained were the same as at our last report, and there is consequently no change in our quotations, at which the market remains firm. We quote: Pale, ℔ M, $3.75@4.25; Jersey, $6.50@7; Long Island, $6.50@7; Up-river, $6.25@7.25; Haverstraw Bay, $7@8.75; Croton Fronts—brown, $14@15; darks, $15@16; reds, $16@17; Philadelphias, $28.50@30.50; Baltimores, $50@58.

CEMENT.—The jobbing trade is light, and business is very indifferent. Sales are of 100@200 bbls. lots Portland at $5.10, ex vessel, and $5.50 from yard. We have also reported sale of 500 bbls. to arrive, at $5.25, cash.

FIRE BRICK.—The market is dull and without movement. We have no reports of sales, and quote red Welsh at $50@55; American at $40@50

FOREIGN WOODS.—The market continues fairly active. Sales of rosewood of good quality without any falling off in the demand. At the last auction sale choice Bahia brought 7@10 cents ℔ lb, and the invoice offered averaged over 4 cents. The market for cedar is firm, and for large mahogany there is an improving demand. Sales of good satinwood have occurred at 31 cents. San Domingo lignum vitæ, about 8 inches, is in great request.

GLASS.—French window is in fair demand; and as stocks are quite limited, prices are very firm. Our quotation as to discounts is unchanged.

HAIR.—The market is rather irregular, and we have no satisfactory reports of business. We revise our quotations, and accordingly quote cattle at 18 and goat at 25 cents per bushel.

HARDWARE.—Domestic goods are in fair and improving demand, and foreign goods are in request, making the market quite active. The manufacturers of butts are all united in price, and quotations are accordingly the same all around, as reported in our last issue. The lock manufacturers have advanced their price from 50 and 2 to 45 and 2 ℔ cent. discount. A new list has been issued on door knobs, which reduces the price, and they are now quoted at 45 and 2 ℔ cent. discount. Axes are quoted at $11@16 per dozen.

LATH—Are quiet, with light jobbing trade. We have no reports of large sales, but are assured that the market is steady at $1.85.

LIME.—There is a moderate trade doing at our revised quotations, but the market cannot be called active. We quote Glens Falls, &c., at $1.05 for common and $1.60 for finishing; Rockland common, $1.10, finishing $1.75.

LUMBER.—The wholesale trade is suffering, as there is less doing in large lots and for export than has been customary at this season. Indeed, we have no reports of sales for shipment, the export demand having largely fallen off. In a jobbing way business at the yards is quite good, and there seems to be considerable activity. This shape of trade, however, is due to the imperative demands of the season and the necessity for preparation for spring trade among manufacturers and merchants. The sales of wood indicate this, and prove further that no steady, full call exists for building purposes, the demand for building lumber being chiefly confined to such goods as are required for finishing purposes. When this call is exhausted, and the needs of spring trade are supplied, the market will lapse into a dull and unsettled condition unless the conditions of trade are so much altered as to admit of more movement in the building trades than now seems probable. More business has been done in the common grades of pine than during last week, box lumber being in special demand. Yellow pine flooring has been selling well, both for first and second qualities. In spruce there is an evident intention to "bull" the market, and we notice an attempt to advance quotations. This is done in the interest of Eastern dealers, who are dissatisfied with ruling prices. The movement has the effect of unsettling quotations, although we believe that purchases can be made at old figures, $16@19. There is no doubt, however, but that prices are firm and strong, with advancing prospects. Spruce flooring is in good request, and is selling fairly. Hard woods are in fair demand without special features of activity to note, and are selling at the best prices.

The charters comprise: an American brig, 362 tons, to Cadiz, staves, $32 on light hhd. and heavy bbl., and $57.50 on heavy pipe culls, and back to Portland, salt, 15 cts; one, 287 tons, from a Gulf port in Mexico to New York, cedar, private rate; a schr., 200 M resawed lumber, from St. Mary's to New York, $9.25; one, 140 M

MICHIGAN AND WISCONSIN NOTES.

From the Saginaw Weekly Courier, March 5:—

Last winter there was put into the Muskegon over 350,000,000 feet, while this winter it will not run but a trifle, if any, over 100,000,000. Some difference. We have had just snow enough all winter to keep the sleighing good, and the contracts taken will all be filled in a short time, and some will put in more than they intended to. Mr. A. H. Brandow has got in about 6,500,000, with 500,000 more skidded at his camp six miles west of the village, while at two other camps his contracts have been completed and the camps are breaking up. The McFarlane Brothers have their jobs nearly completed and will soon break up; and from other men that are lumbering we learn that their jobs are about complete, and will finish in a short time.

From the same:—

The lumber market at Grand Rapids is reported active, and a good many sales are being made. Over 75 car loads goes over the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad daily from Grand Rapids.

Mr. Thomas Packard will ship by the F. and P. M. Railway over 5,000,000 of logs, lumbered on the Tobacco River, from Clare and Loomis stations. The logs will be shipped to this city.

From the Green Bay Advocate, March 5:—

Lumbermen estimate there will be put in on the Black River and its tributaries the present winter 125,000,000 feet of logs, and that the cost of putting in will be $1 per thousand less than last winter. The loggers have effected a very efficient combination for river driving, keeping the channel clear and preventing trespasses.

From the Saginaw Courier, March 5:—

As has heretofore been stated in the columns of the Courier, the prospects for the lumber trade were never better than at the present time. Within the past few days a number of sales at $6, $12, and $35, to be sawed, have been reported. The ruling price just now for dry lumber is $6.50. $13, and $35; and desirable lots at these figures are scarce.

It is estimated that nearly 25,000,000 feet of logs were banked on the Muskegon last week—the best week's work of the season.

The lumber product of the Black River, Wisconsin district, is estimated at one-third of the cut of the most prosperous seasons.

Among the "leviathans" is the saw-mill of the Union Lumbering Company, of Chippewa Falls, Wis. It is 180x200 feet in size, and the capital stock of the company is $1,500,000. There are 90 saws in the different gangs. There are over 500 men on the pay-roll of the company. The cutting, sawing, and rafting is all let by contract. Last year the company cut 42,000,000 feet of lumber, and 15,000,000 shingles, and 12,000,000 lath.

The condition of the trade in Dubuque, Iowa, is satisfactory in the highest degree, the dealers being crowded with orders. All the yards report favorably. Sales are trebled, and in some instances quadrupled, on what they were a year ago. As the result of this heavy drain, stocks are reduced, and in some yards broken; but a neighborly feeling admits of all bills being filled as usual.

Minneapolis reports that sales of lumber during February have been ten times greater than during the same period in any previous year since the city had an existence. Competent judges estimate that on the first of May, 1874, the stock of logs and lumber in that city will be from eighty to one hundred millions of feet less than at the same time last year.

From the Saginaw Courier, March 6:—

Indications multiply that the new cut of logs are to add much less to the lumber product of 1874 than had been expected earlier in the season. The early breakup of the season, which now seems to be a finale to operations in the woods, has come at least a month sooner than was hoped for. Very little hauling was accomplished until after the middle of January, and at that time there was so little frost in the ground that good roads were almost out of the question. With scarce a month of indifferent hauling, the roads have, for the past two weeks, been failing to such extent that many camps were abandoned before the recent thaw, which has broken up the camps, and in a majority of cases fully destroyed the roads, leaving vast quantities of logs on the skids in the woods. We hear of one instance where, our of 4,000,000 feet skidded, but 1,000,000 has been banked; of another, where barely one hundred thousand has been put in out of a million on the skids These cases may be set down as samples of a rule which has numerous confirmations.

The prospects for running are scarcely more favorable. The snow has gone off so gradually as to have but comparatively little effect on the streams, and unless copious rains shall improve matters, a large proportion of the timber banked might as well be on the skids, so far as running is concerned. The recent action of the Boom Company in resolving to throw no booms across the streams above Midland, will have the effect to prevent the logs in the tributaries from reaching the main river, until the high water having passed will have left them on the bottom. The old stock which reached the main rivers last year will largely come down, but this will prove utterly inadequate to supply the mills. Meantime holders of stock which is "sure," are jubilant at stiffening rates indicative of advancing prices.

From the Saginaw Courier, March 7:—

In view of the conflicting claims of the owners of logs in the several streams above Midland, and the utter impossibility of adopting any plan of action on the part of the Boom Company that will meet the views of those owning logs thus situated, the Tittabawasse Boom Company, at a meeting of its directors, instructed its President, by resolution, not to swing any booms in the streams above Midland, but that as soon as the water will permit, all logs now within the boom limits as established last year, be run and driven.

Notwithstanding this action of the Boom Company, we understand that private individuals are now putting in booms on the Pine, Chippewa, and Tittabawassee, above Midland, at the points where the Boom Company instructed its President not to place booms. These booms are put in by parties interested in logs. This fact should be understood by all who have logs on these streams.

We understand that the Boom Company have already sent out a large gang of men on the Pine, Chippewa, and Tittabawassee rivers, to drive in the rear, and that log running has already commenced on the Pine. The indications are that we shall not have much of a freshet this spring, and that rafting will commence early.

So far this year the condition of the lumber market has been very satisfactory for sellers. True, there has been but little improvement in prices, the quotations current being about the same as at the time of the panic, but the prospects are highly encouraging, and dealers are looking forward to an increased trade and better prices with the opening of navigation. It is generally expected that lumber-laden vessels will begin to arrive about the 1st of next month. One or two boats are about to leave for the east shore, but the season will not be fairly under way for fully a month, if not longer. Reports from various sections of Michigan state that in some places only half the usual amount of logs have been cut, while at other points the supply will be one-quarter less. In the Saginaw district about the usual amount of lumber will be made, as a large quantity of logs were held over from last year. Taking altogether, dealers are inclined to the opinion that the supply will hardly be equal to the demand, and consequently they anticipate better prices. The receipts since the 1st of January were only about one-half as large as for the same time last year, while the shipments have been nearly double. The stock in is estimated at 275,000,000 feet. The demand on interior account has been unusually active for this season of the year, as will be seen by reference to the shipments published above. The inquiry is mainly for common grades of lumber—joist, scantling, and fencing—with a fair demand for the upper qualities. Shingles and lath continue to sell quite freely, and at full prices. Reports from other markets note a good demand and firm prices. Hardwood lumber quiet and steady.

From the Dubuque (Iowa) Herald, March 3:—

The demand for lumber is still active, but not up to what was experienced a week ago. The retail inquiry has fallen off with the departure of sleighing, but is nevertheless fair, all things considered.

Parties down from the Pineries give a favorable report of operations, which still continue, with plenty of snow to work upon. Stocks are being reduced in the lumber districts as rapidly as they are at other distributing points; railroads leading from the mills are crowded with business, transporting lumber to all points.

The Chicago market holds firmly to price lists, and with the same feeling here, no decline is at all probable for months to come; on the contrary, buyers have found an advance charged on some varieties of lumber ordered in car-load lots. There is more adherence to card rates than formerly, as there is usually when the demand is large enough to give all dealers plenty to do.

Shipments show a falling off on the previous week, but are still far ahead of what they were a year ago. A comparative statement exhibits as follows:

Shipped West last week	115 cars.
Previous week	140 cars.
Decrease	25 cars.
Same week in 1873	50 cars.
Increase in 1874	65 cars.

From the St. Louis Times, March 4:—

We have no new features to note in depot and levee lumber; receipts were only moderate, and prices were firm on all descriptions with a steady demand. Business at the yards quiet. Shingles in fair demand at $3.90 for best grades on East track, and lath at $3.

From the Chicago Inter-Ocean, March 4:—

The lumber market is very active and firm, and the prospects of an advance in values are quite favorable. Stocks light, and shipments to the interior heavy.

PENNSYLVANIA NOTES.

From the Williamsport (Pa.) Weekly Gazette and Bulletin:—

At Lockhaven everything now indicates a vigorous and prosperous lumber campaign this spring. Lumbermen are taking advantage of the recent fall of snow, and are actively engaged in getting their logs on the banks of the streams.

The shipments for the past week show a decrease of 126,000 feet in rough lumber, as compared with the previous week, the causes of which are doubtless understood by all engaged in the business, and the decrease does not indicate any falling off in the demand.

From the Williamsport (Pa.) Weekly Register, March 11:—

There appears to be a constant increase in shipments of lumber from this city. The total shipments for the week ending February 28, were 4,173,840 feet, an increase over the preceding week of 1,097,880 feet. The total shipments for the month of February were 16,402,760 feet, an increase of 3,972,360 feet over the January shipments.

From the Clinton Republican, March 4:—

The season thus far shows considerable activity in the lumber business, with prospects of increased trade. Many of our lumbermen are ready and waiting the spring freshet, their logs banked and men anxious to engage in "the drive."

EASTERN NOTES.

From the Boston Lumber Trade, March 9:—

Trade continues very much depressed, but dealers are hopeful as to the future, and the trade is, on the whole, in a condition of substantial strength. A larger amount of capital, it is true, is temporarily locked up in mortgages than is desirable or will probably be in accordance with future practice, as dealers have learned wisdom by their experience in the past; but the testimony of those best qualified to judge is, as we have heretofore stated, that in comparison with other extensive lines of business the lumber trade has been heretofore very profitable, and its members, at the present time, are financially strong.

We have but three arrivals of Southern pine during the past week, cargoes being all consigned to the same house. Our reports from week to week, embracing only the actual arrivals at this port, represent but a very small portion of the business done by our houses engaged in the Southern pine trade, as all of them sell largely for ship-building, and yellow pine is delivered for this, as well as other purposes, on account of Boston houses at the various seaports of Maine and other ports of New England. As an example of this, we are informed by a single firm that they now have more than a dozen vessels on the way to different ports in Maine.

CANADIAN NOTES.

From the Quebec Morning Chronicle of March 5:—

The present has been one of the most unfavorable winters possible for logging in many sections of Canada.

Last fall, when the cold weather set in early and sharp, lumberers were jubilant at the prospects of a fair winter's work done to advantage, and cheaply. About the beginning or middle of December, however, the weather became very mild, spring-like, in fact, and, with the exception of a few weeks of very cold weather in January, it has continued unusually mild all through. In fact, it is said the "oldest inhabitant" does not recall to memory so mild a winter. There has been scarcely more than one-fourth the usual winter's snowfall, and in many parts of southern and western Canada there has been little, if any, snow at all.

Matters are even worse in the Michigan peninsula. In the latter district, owing chiefly to the money crisis, manufacturers were unable to make preparations for more than one-half of their usual get-out, and it is feared that that half will now be diminished by fully one-third to one-half, owing to the want of snow and frost.

We understand that, as a consequence, the lumber market of the United States are appreciating the state of affairs, and we hear that lumber has gone up fully $1 the Mille feet in Chicago.

We learn that many of our Canadian friends, who have been as usual going into Michigan, to get out oak and elm square timber and oak staves, have been very unfortunate, owing to the difficulties they had to contend with; most of them have reduced the number of their hands many weeks ago, as there was no advantage in chopping down what it was almost certain could not be hauled to the banks.

Turning again to Canada, we learn that in western Ontario matters have been fully as bad, if not worse than in Michigan. In eastern Ontario the get-out will be very much short, and in this province (Quebec) the get-out will also be very much curtailed, more especially on the St. Francis, Nicolet, Becancour, Chaudiere, and Echemin rivers.

The indications everywhere are to the effect that we will have an earlier spring (by fully one month) than usual.

Owing to the light snow-fall this winter, many predict low waters and, consequently, "bad drives." We sincerely hope this prediction will not be realized, as it would crown the misfortunes of our lumberers, and have a most disastrous effect on the general business of the coming season, lumber being our chief article of export.

METALS.—Copper.—New sheathing is steady at 33 cents, and bolts and braziers, 35; bronze and yellow metal sheathing 24, and Y. M. bolts 30, net cash. Ingot is dull and irregular; sales of lake at 23 15-16 cents, prompt cash, and at 24¼@24½, usual terms.

Iron.—The market for Scotch pig is very quiet, the demand being without improvement, and quotations in the absence of sales quite nominal. American pig is unchanged. Rails are quiet, with somewhat better inquiry for new. Scrap has had some movement on private terms. Refined bar from store is dull, and common sheet is in limited demand at our quotations.

Lead.—Foreign and domestic pig are without business. Bar, sheet, and pipe steady at 9 cents. Tin-lined pipe 16½ cents, all less 10 ℘ cent. to the trade.

Tin.—Pig is light in stock with limited demand. Straits is nominal, and English has been selling at 21¼ cents, gold, for L. and F., and 23¾ for refined. Later sales were made at 21¼@22 cents for L. and F., and 24½ for refined. Plates are quiet, with firm prices abroad, which keep the market firm here. We retain our quotations generally unchanged. There is a shading on coke plates, sales of which have occurred at $8.12½.

Zinc.—Sheet is quiet with light sales reported at 8¼ for American and Silesian from store, and 8½@8¾ cents for Mosselmann, all gold.

Magrath's Copper Sash-Chain.

Patented 21st March, 1871.

Is adapted to ordinary round pulley, and strong enough to suspend weights of any size required.

Being intended as a substitute for sash-cord, it can be put into sashes now provided with cord without any change of pulleys. The inventor feels confident that experience will prove his chain to be both economical and durable, besides doing away with the constant annoyance and expense attending the use of sash-cord.

For terms and further information apply to

Decker Bros.'
Grand, Upright, and Square
PIANO-FORTES.

THE DECKER BROTHERS
are the owners of the only patents granted to any person of the name of DECKER for improvements in PIANO-FORTES.
All genuine
DECKER BROTHERS' PIANOS
have the following line cast on the iron plate in the inner left-hand corner of the instrument:
"DECKER BROS.' PATENT, JUNE 2, 1863."
To guard against imposition, purchasers should see that this line is cast in the plate as described.

The reputation acquired for their manufacture by the DECKER BROTHERS
is the result of years of unremitting effort to develop the power and correspondingly to improve the quality of tone in the PIANO-FORTE.
This endeavor has been rewarded to an extent deemed at the outset almost unattainable, and the absolute success of the method of manufacture originated and patented by them is now conclusively established by the unanimous testimony of the most eminent musical authorities and scientific experts, who unite in pronouncing the
instruments the most perfect of their class yet produced.
EVERY DECKER BROTHERS' PIANO-FORTE is guaranteed for seven years.
The splendor of tone for which the
DECKER BROTHERS'
instruments are world-renowned is the same in each of the three varieties of PIANO-FORTE—
GRAND, UPRIGHT, AND SQUARE.

VOL. XIII. NEW YORK, SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1874. No. 314

Published Weekly by

TERMS.

One year, in advance.....$10 00

All communications should be addressed to

C. W. SWEET,

WHITING BUILDING, 345 AND 347 BROADWAY.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

Anxious to extend its sphere of usefulness and to furnish our subscribers with the greatest amount of information attainable, consistently with cost to us and expense to them, we have consolidated The Mortgage Circular with the REAL ESTATE RECORD, which latter will, hereafter, contain all the distinctive features of the former, with additional records from Brooklyn and Jersey City. We purpose further to print the records of conveyances for Hudson and Essex counties, New Jersey, and to afford in our columns such a variety of reliable information as will conduce to the benefit of our readers and to the end we have in view—of presenting an accurate record of events interesting alike to real estate operators and the business community.

Announcement to this effect has been already made in the columns of The Mortgage Circular, and we reproduce from that publication the following resume which we trust will be perfectly explanatory and satisfactory to our subscribers:

The REAL ESTATE RECORD will contain the weekly record of the Judgments docketted and the list of Chattel Mortgages filed in the cities of New York, Brooklyn, and Jersey City; Real Estate Mortgages for New York and Kings; Conveyances for New York, Kings, and Westchester counties, and Hudson and Essex counties, New Jersey; Mechanics' Liens for New York and Kings; Projected Buildings; Petitions in Bankruptcy and Assignments, and the foreclosure suits and advertised legal sales for New York. The weekly review of the real estate market will be continued, as well as the column of Gossip, containing briefs of the operations of public departments as affecting the interests of taxpayers. All proceedings for opening new streets or avenues, or for laying out drives or parks will be seasonably noticed, and due information will be furnished of assessments to be confirmed or laid, and the time for payment of assessments and taxes, and the property affected thereby. Reports of all other official proceedings affecting real estate and of interest to tax-payers will be carefully collated as they occur, and full and reliable notes of the building markets, with carefully revised prices current, will be included in each issue of the RECORD. We will also, in a special column, under the supervision of a competent lawyer, print notes of legal opinions or decisions affecting real estate, and of interest to lawyers and to real estate brokers. This column will also be devoted to answering ordinary questions of law. On the editorial pages will be found a variety of general information, with comments and suggestions which we shall endeavor to make conducive to the benefit of our readers.

We believe that our subscribers will readily realize the nature and value of our new undertaking, and will render us all the support and encouragement in their power.

The subscription price to the REAL ESTATE RECORD, containing the new features, will be $10, the same as heretofore charged for The Mortgage Circular, and payable always strictly in advance.
