BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—No change of a decided character has taken place on the market for Common Hards, values holding their own very well, and the advantage slightly favoring the selling interest. The unsettled condition of the weather, and the rather early portion of the season tend to retard consumption somewhat, but still there is considerable stock wanted for the ordinary run of building operations, and this, with the deliveries making for the elevated railroads afford a fair outlet for the offering and prevent the accumulation of any great surplus afloat. By cargo Haverstraw range at $5.12½@5.50 and "Up-river" $4.75@5 per M. Pale Brick are if anything a shade easier. At the best the demand is moderate, and with the quality of the offering lacking attractions the rates current do not, as a rule, average above $2.25@2.50 per M. The combination of manufacturers is understood to be working well together and pretty generally satisfied with the results of their efforts. Indeed we find even among dealers here a disposition to admit that the market has received no injury as yet, but, on the contrary, has probably to some extent been benefited by the uniform tone preserved. The object of the combination, as stated from the outset, is not to extort an extreme price, but simply to so regulate the supply to the demand as to permit a fair margin for profit and hold the position steady, and this is the policy carried out thus far. Fronts are in fairly active demand and steady, with the better grades commanding extreme rates readily. There does not appear to be many expectations of an export trade this season, but occasional orders are likely to come in, and we learn this week of a charter of a schooner from Layerville to St. John, N. B., brick, at $1.50 per M. We quote Pale, per M, $2.25@2.50; Hards, Up-Rivers, $4.50@5; Haverstraw bay, $5.12½@5.50; favorite brands, $6.00; Fronts, Croton—Brown, $7.00@8.00; dark, $8.00@9.00; red, $9.00@9.50; Philadelphia, $26@28; Trenton, $24@29; Baltimore, $34@38. Yard prices, delivery included, $2.00@3.00 higher on ordinary and $5.00@6.00 on fronts.

GLASS.—There has been one of the flurries of animation within a week or two, followed by quite a light demand again, and the market as yet fails to show satisfactory conditions. Dealers, however, seem to be hopeful, and predict a good market to come. In a jobbing way, and especially on local account, there is a very good general business, and some of the dealers are distributing comparatively full amounts. Prices are steady on all the regular sizes, and departures from the trade discounts are seldom heard of at present.

HARDWARE.—Demand continues very good, and the general tendency of business is toward an increase. Local wants are quite fair, while from the interior the orders received, and those promised, afford basis for a movement fully equal to last season. Facilities and cost of transportation are now more favorable to the buyer, and this unquestionably tends to increase the demand to some extent. On prices there is a steady tone, with no important changes since our last. All the principal manufacturing companies have adopted lists to conform to the revised figures on horse and mule shoes noted in our last. The general export movement of hardware is pretty full, and appears to be maintained without much difficulty.

LATH.—There is no change of importance to advise on the general situation of this market. About former rates have been asked and obtained, so far as known, with the business fair, and most of the offer ing disposed of. Demand, however, is not sharp from any quarter at the moment, and with pretty full amounts in dealers hands since the opening of the season, there does not appear to be a basis for much buoyancy.

LIME.—Supplies not very large, and this keeps the market about steady, and enables sellers to mark off stock and prevent an accummulation. Demand, however, can scarcely be called quick or anxious and buyers rarely handle anything in excess of known early wants. Much the same features are noticeable on both Eastern and State.

LUMBER.—It is difficult to stir up any excitement upon our lumber market, and business generally appears to be moving along in much the old monotonous form. We understand that some of the larger producers and holders of supplies in the interior, through their agents, have been making strong efforts to induce dealers to contract for lumber at once in order to be well prepared for the rise to come. With no very certain date fixed and guaranteed for the predicted rise, and a pretty fair accumulation on hand most of our buyers seem to think they can afford to be generous and will, therefore, allow the stock to remain in first hands and owners obtain the benefit of any enhancement of values secured. Of course, some goods have been bought and a few contracts made but only as a matter of the most positive necessity, and it looks very much like a hand-to-mouth policy ahead for some weeks. On the export demand, business is fair. A great many of the local agents secure orders for direct shipment from primary points and the demand for parcels here is very good. Sellers, however, say that shippers are becoming very "sharp" in their negotiations and this with competition strong, tends to keep values down to an easy basis.

Eastern Spruce continues in much the same general condition for some time noted. There is not an open or free demand from any source, and buyers show a very decided determination to refrain from handling stock except under the force of actual necessity. Business in consequence, is quite uncertain and values have no solid basis. If a dealer happens to be found who has immediate use for a cargo and an attractive offering can at the same time be made, a reasonably full rate may be obtained, but the market is not in a position where even an extra schedule can be taken out and disposed of without considerable trouble and generally a little shading from currently quoted rates. The supply has been quite as full as receivers desired. We quote at $11.00@12.00 for random, possibly $12.25@12.50 for choice lenghts in small cargoes and $12.50@13.50 for specials, the extreme for extra difficult.

White Pine has found an irregular sale, but has probably reached a fuller aggregate movement. Local consumers have contributed to the demand to a material extent owing to the unexpected exhaustion of the stocks they had calculated upon to last them until new supplies commenced to move. There has also been some fair orders for exports, although this latter trade evidently does not give full satisfaction. Some fractional variations on value are spoken of, but nothing to effect the general range. We quote at $14.50@15.00 per M. for West India shipping boards; $19.50@21 for South American do.; $14@15 for box boards; $16@17 for do. wide and sound; and timber to order at $38@50 per M.

Yellow Pine has not found a very active or general demand, and the market presents few really new features of interest. On contracts for export from the South, and cargoes under special schedules for delivery here and Eastward, about former rates are ruling, but randoms and offerings from accumulated stocks awaiting a market are unsettled. We quote random cargoes at about $18@22 per M.; ordered cargoes $22@24 do.; green flooring boards, $20@21 do., and dry do. do. $20@23. Cargoes at the South, $13@14.50 per M.; hewed timber $7.50@14.

Shingles are not finding a market altogether satisfactory to dealers. A few shipping orders on foreign account can occasionally be obtained and intimations of interior wants are also received, but the movement is not full and free and prices have to be figured down to an almost absolute absence of margin. Cypress are selling at about $6 for saps and $8.50@9.00 for hearts; pine shipping stocks, $1 for 18-inch, and Eastern saw grades at $2.50@4.50 for 16-inch, as to quality and quantity. Machine dressed cedar shingles quoted as follows: For 30-inch, $16@22.25 for A and $28.75@33.25 for No. 1; for 24-inch, $6.50@16 for A. and $16.75@23 for No. 1; for 20-inch, $5@10.50 for A. and $11.25@15.75 for No. 1.

Hardwoods continue to be spoken of in a cheerful and encouraging manner by most dealers. The volume of business has been somewhat irregular, but apparently only through natural influences of a temporary character, and holders have full confidence in their stocks. All kinds come under this influence, but the finer grades of cabinet and trimming woods are propably most in favor. Exports have continued quite full, largely on through shipments. We understand that an effort will be made to so arrange assortments and prices as to secure a larger proportion of the foreign call at this port. We quote at wholesale rates by car load about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do; oak, $35@40 do; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do., culls, $18@20 do; cherry, $45@75 do; white wood, ¼ and ⅝ inch, $25@27.50, and do. inch $32@35 do; hickory, $35@45 do. for Western, and $65@75 for good near by stock.

Yard dealers are doing a somewhat irregular business, but of gradually increasing proportions, and as a whole, the retail trade is fairly active. About the ordinary assortment is called for and the average cost does not change, but nearly every dealer makes some small fractional difference, according to size of invoice, terms, etc., etc.

From among the lumber charters recently reported we select the following:

A Br. barque, 270 M lumber, from Brunswick to Rio Janeiro, $20 net; a schr., 281 tons, from Bucksville to Martinique, lumber, $9.50; a schr., 365 tons, hence to Trinidad, Cuba, W. STATE.

ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

The Argus reports for the week ending April 15, 1879:

If anything there is a shading on last fall's prices of pine, excepting 10-inch boards and wide lots, the dry stocks of which are light. Spruce and hemlock are firmly held at outside quotations. There have been active sales the past week and some large transactions in common grades of pine; also in spruce and hemlock. Stocks on the opening of river navigation were ample and fairly assorted; but should a demand like the present continue they will be largely reduced before supplies reach us by canal which it is not probable will be much before 15th of May.

The extensive operations last winter in logging have a tendency to weaken prices. The contingency as to log driving causes Michigan mills to hold up prices of dry lots. It is thought concessions will have to be made on the new sawing, in expectation of large supplies. An active demand is looked for this season, especially from New York city, owing to the impetus rapid transit railroads have given to building.

Prices in the Saginaw valley have been well maintained; this is ascribed to low stocks at the East and increased consumption there. The log question is not settled; it is supposed that half the winter's cut will be hung up; in any event the cut will be less than last year, the season for sawing being much shorter. Sales 400,000 1¼ and 1½ inch stuff and $6, $12 and $28 to Tonnawanda.

THE WEST.

SAGINAW VALLEY.

Lumberman's Gazette Office.

BAY CITY, April 15, 1879.

In the absence of transactions there is but little to be said about the market this week. There has been considerable inquiry, but we can learn of no sales on the river. A few buyers put in appearance, but they appear to have come to spy out the situation, rather than to make purchases. The lake below is closed by ice at Buffalo and vicinity, and shipments could not be made for ten days at the best, and this fact, with the disposition of buyers to wait and see how the log crop comes out, deprives the market of any animation. The impression is gaining ground here that prices will drop a little below those of last year, but this is the result of fear rather than of reason. Advices from all parts of the country represent stocks in the yards and at supply points as very low, and it is probable that when the market fairly opens it will be found that the active demand will fairly maintain prices. This view is sustained by the state of the trade throughout the country. Quotations are nominally as below:

Three upper qualities	$25 00@27 00
Common	10 00@11 00
Shipping culls	5 00@ 6 00
Lath	1 25@ 1 30

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., April 10, 1879.

The Lumberman's Gazette says:

The condition of the lumber business in the West hardly warrants the prediction that the year will bring forth any wonderful demand or improvement in prices. The stocks of dry stuffs are being rapidly reduced under the stimulus of greatly reduced prices in many localities reaching actual cost, or below. Exactly why these reductions have been made is hard to guess, but there is evidently an intent to get rid of the lumber, making the prices low enough to induce consumption.

Chicago is excited and nervous over the freight discrimination (?) against her, and the lumbermen are moving in a body to break down the rates so as to control the western trade. Indignation meetings have been held, and a large committee of prominent dealers was appointed to carry out the programme. Notwithstanding this, shipments are reported fair but prices weak.

At St. Louis the trade exceeds that of 1878 by a large per cent., as will be seen by the daily shipments and receipts given below. Some reduction, or rather, concessions are made on list figures, to meet competition, but prices are more steady there than in any western market.

News from the pineries reaches us to the effect that driving is in progress on some of the smaller tributaries of the Wisconsin River, where they had a six inch fall of snow last week, which contributed water, but unless heavy rains come the prospect for securing the bulk of logs is by no means bright.

The upper Mississippi "wears the belt" as the Cryest river in the West, but it is to be presumed that the loggers stand ready to drive until next winter, if necessary, to secure the crop. The actual scale of the crop on Rum River this year is 58,600,000, a very much larger cut than has been made for years on this stream. Our returns are not so complete as to enable us this week to give the total cut of the river.

The only log sales reported are the few already given, on the Chippewa.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Despatches to city journals early in the week, from Milford, Penn., were as follows:

There is now a rafting freshet in the Delaware River, and lumbermen at the head waters are taking advantage of it, and are floating their lumber to the markets of Trenton and Philadelphia as fast as it can be converted into rafts. The present freshet bids fair to continue for some time, as there is at many points along the river in the lumbering districts from one to two feet of snow, which will continue to melt gradually as the warm weather advances. The amount of sawed lumber and logs now lying upon the banks of the river between Lackawaxen and Cochecton, awaiting shipment, is said to be the greatest since the panic of 1873, when such a depreciation in the prices occurred. At this time the prices are only moderate, but slightly in advance of that year. A greater portion of the lumber that is yearly floated to Trenton and Philadelphia comes from the counties of Sullivan and Delaware, in New York State, and Wayne and Pike counties, Pennsylvania. In the former three counties the forests are about or nearly stripped of the choicest timber, and, with the present freshet, the more extensive lumbermen will abandon the business, and give their entire attention to farming. In Wayne and Pike counties there is yet a very large supply, and those owning timber land will continue the lumbering business more earnestly than they have followed it in past years.

THE EAST.

The Boston Journal of Commerce reports on last weeks' market as follows:

The market this week preserves the features distinguishing it for some time past. Considerable lumber is changing hands, principally to jobbers for general uses. Southern pine lumber stocks have received considerable accessions this week. Messrs. Lewis & Hall have received two cargoes, one by the Etta M. Barter, from Wilmington, N. C., 233,000 feet; and one by the Loretto Fish, from Beaufort, S. C., 267,000 feet. The result of the cuts in the various sections is now being calculated, and the following is given as showing the outcome of operations on the west branch of the Penobscot the past season: M. G. Shaw, 1,850,000; John Ross, 200,000; Ira Weymouth, 500,000; Rodney Southerland, 1,375,000; G. Davis and C. Murphy, 2,400,000; Eben Tissel, 950,000; Jesse Murphy, 500,000; White & Hodgdon, 3,500,000; J. Paterson, 1,100,000; Morrison & Hunting, 4,000,000; and James Smart, 1,400,000. These figures include some old logs that did not come down last spring. There are also from 3,000,000 to 4,000,000 at the lower lakes, and 2,000,000 more old logs. There will be this spring to come into the main Penobscot about 25,000,000 from the west branch.

The cut of logs in the Mattawankeag and its tributaries was about 20,000,000. There are nine million five hundred thousand old logs in the Mattewankeag. There will, therefore, be about thirty millions of logs to come out of the Mattawankeag this spring.

THE SOUTH.

The Savannah Morning News as follows:

Lumber by sail—Tonnage in demand. There are a number of vessels in during the week, but ready business is offering for all, and at rates tending upward. Several vessels are wanted for Mediterranean ports. We quote, to Baltimore and Chesapeake ports, $5.00@5.50; to Philadelphia, $5.25@——; to New York and Sound ports, $5.50@6.00; to Boston and eastward, $6.25@7.00; to St. John, N. B., $8.00; [Timber from $1.00 to $1.50 higher than lumber rates]; to West Indies and windward, $7.00@8.00, gold; to South America, $18.00@20.00, gold; to Spanish ports, $14.00@15.00, gold; to United Kingdom, timber, 31s., lumber, 25@5 10s. From 25 to 50 cents additional is paid for change of loading port.

FOREIGN.

The following from the Timber Trades Journal:

LIVERPOOL, March 27th.

The market here continues in the same dull and lifeless condition that characterized it for so long a period. Sales are made only in small lines, which have little effect upon the stocks on hand, and prices continue to rule very low.

Liverpool Timber Sales.—On the 14th instant Messrs. Farnworth and Jardine offered about 45,000 spruce deals; and, without reserve, about 2,400 pieces of fourth quality Quebec pine deals to clear up accounts. Although there was a fair attendance of buyers, very little animation was shown at the sale, and only a few lots changed hands, excepting the unreserved goods.

Spruce deals, St. John, N. B., 12 to 15 ft., 3x11, £6, 2s. 6d. per std.; do 16 to 26 ft., 3x9, £7 7s. 6d. do.; do 16 to 26 ft., 3x7, £6 do.; do. Buctouche, 12 to 15 ft., 3x9, £6 2s. 6d. do.; do., 12 to 15 ft., 3x7, £5 10s. do; do., 9 and up., ft., 2½x7, £4 5s. do.; do., 16 and up. ft., 3x8, £5 15s. do.; do., 12 to 15 ft., 3x8, £5 12s. 6d do.; pine deals, Quebec, 4th quality, 10 and 11 ft., 3x11, £5 do.; do., 10 to 15 ft., 3x7 to 10, £4 15s. do.; do., 9 to 15 ft., 3x7 to 11, £4 15s. do.; do., 10 to 15 ft., 3x7 to 12, £4 12s. 6d. do.; and on the 21st instant they again offered about 45,000 spruce deals, 5,500 Quebec pine deals, and a cargo of Kotka red and white deals and boards; there was, however, no bid for the latter, and it was withdrawn entire. A few lots of spruce deals were sold, and also the pine deals; but on the whole the bidding was very languid.

Spruce deals, St. John, N. B., 10 ft. and up., 3x7, £6, per std.; do., 12 to 15, 3x7, £5 17s. 6d. do.; pine deals Quebec, 2d quality, 9 to 11, 3x12 to 20, £16 15d do.; do., 9 to 11, 3x11, £11 15s do.; do., 10 to 15, 3x7 to 10, £11 5s do.; do., 9 to 15, 3x8 and 10, £12 12s 6d do.; do., 9 to 15, 3x7, 9, and 11, £12 15s do.; 3d quality, 13 to 15, 3x11, £8 10s do.; do., 10 to 12, 3x7 to 10, £8 5s do.; do., 9 to 12, 2x5 and 6, £6 12s 6d do.

NAILS.—Operations keep up to about the ordinary average, and the market preserves a fairly active and uniform tone. There is not, however, anything in the form of speculative call, even to the extent of anticipating regular trade wants for more than a few weeks, and the production is ample. The export movement has been rather moderate this spring, and does not appear to be spreading. We quote: 10d. to 60d., common fence and sheathing per keg, $2.15; 8d. and 9d., common do. per keg, $2.40; 6d. and 7d., common per keg, $2.65; 4d. and 5d., common do. per keg, $2.90; 3d. and 4d., light, per keg, $3.65; 3d., fine, per keg, $4.40; 2d., per keg, $4.40.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $2.30. Floor casing and box, 75c. above the same sizes of common. Finishing, $1 above and fine finishing $1.25 above.

CLINCH NAILS.

1¾ to 1¼in.	2 & 2¼in.	2½ & 2¾ in.	3 in. & longer
$5.00	$4.50	$4.25	$4.00 per keg.

OILS.—About the same average jobbing call is advised on pretty much all illuminating and lubricating oils, and a fair proportion taken for paint stock. Prices rule steady, and owners of the supply refrain from urging business. We quote linseed oil, 59@62c. ₰ gallon; lard, 50@52c. for winter; 45@48c. for No. 1, and 42@44c. for No. 2; crude cotton seed, 33@35c., and refined summer yellow, do., 40@44c.

PAINTS.—Demand has been very good in the regular form of jobbing orders and dealers continue to speak cheerfully of the general condition of trade. Local consumption tends to an increase, if anything, and a great many interior points heretofore somewhat backward in sending in their orders are now being heard from more frequently and to a larger extent. Standard goods are most in favor but orders for more or less of all kinds of stock come to hand. On White Lead there is some irregularity and card rates are not in all cases adhered to. China Clay is pretty firm, and Paris White moves with some freedom at extreme figures. Whiting has been more active and the combination rates generally obtained. On Litharge and Red Lead the buyer has recently gained some little advantage. Choice grades of Vermilion have found a pretty good market.

PITCH.—About the former line of cost remains current and the market may still be written steady. Demand fluctuates to a considerable extent and buyers rarely handle supplies, except upon a basis of actual necessity. We quote at $1.75@2.00 for city delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The very limited stock offering enabled holders to infuse quite a buoyant tone into the market and materially higher rates were reached. The addition to cost, however, checked demand and business proved quite dull, with cost of late shading off somewhat. As this report is closed the quotations stand at about 31@35c. per gallon, according to quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—The market without much change. A fair sort of jobbing demand prevails, which is met with a sufficient stock and at about former cost, and the average tone of the position is steady. Sellers, however, gain no advantage. We quote at $1.50@1.87 per bbl. for Newberne and Washington, and $1.62@2.00 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date

TAX REFORMS.

In the natural order of events the agitation for a reform of State and municipal taxation now presents itself. In the last Legislature there was an imperfect and unsuccessful presentation of the subject, while during the present session no less than six important bills have been introduced and progressed. This agitation has culminated not a moment too soon. However successfully the operation of the present tax system has been concealed from the public, and however indifferent the press and citizens generally may be to this topic, the system or its administration has reached a point of development which threatens to throw the finances of the city into hopeless disorder and to involve real estate interests in serious embarrassment.

As the present laws have lately been administered, we have in effect an almost exclusive real estate tax system. This has been brought about by partly natural and partly fortuitous circumstances. First. The readiness with which real estate may be levied upon and the facility of reaching its owners render it an acceptable resource to supine and ease-loving officials. Second. During nearly a decade, the tax office of this city was principally administered by an officer who was pre-possessed in favor of exclusive real estate taxation, and openly and energetically opposed to the taxation of personal estate. What wonder then, for years and years the valuation of personal estate for taxation have shown a woeful disproportion to the valuations of real estate, and since the panic the paradox has appeared of a decline of 50 per cent. in personal valuations, while real estate valuations have steadily increased. In prosperous times high taxes are easily born, because lightly felt, but in times of disorder, like the present, even a largely diminished taxation would seem like a grievous and intolerable burden. Real estate now is made to bear an almost undiminished budget with scarcely any assistance, at a time when owners are demoralized and weakened by depreciation, rental reductions and untold hardships.

Exclusive real estate taxation has been fully and fairly tried, and under the supervision and management of its leading champion, it may be said to have completely broken down and demonstrated itself to be a total and deplorable failure as a permanent or acceptable system. Vacant lots are burdened with assessments for local improvements, the aggregate of which amounts in many cases to more than can be realized from a sale of the property. Besides assessments there is an annually increasing taxation assessed upon the full value of the property, and in some cases or more than its full value, insomuch that many owners would be glad to sink the principal and interest of investments if they could recover the amounts paid for assessments and taxes. Eligible and improvable vacant land, such as is usually in active demand, has already borne such excessive loads of taxes and assessments that owners are compelled in sheer self-defence to ask next to impossible prices for it, and, consequently, house building goes on slowly and yields meagre and inadequate returns.

Builders also find that, when their houses are completed and offered for sale, house-buyers have gotten into the habit of visiting the tax office and inquiring about assessed valuations. Finding, as they generally do, that properties are assessed for nearly full value, they refuse to become purchasers unless builders will make a large reduction in price to overcome the dead weight of taxation. If builders happen to be caught, as is sometimes the case, with two annual tax levies, the amount which the city exacts constitutes a serious deduction from their legitimate profits, and often goes to swell their losses. Landlords and tenants find increasing difficulty in agreeing upon the rents of properties, and the difference between their views is just about the amount which the city exacts for taxes.

Although we are told that taxation readily diffuses itself, if it diffuses itself at all, through real estate, it must be by repayment of the same by the tenant, who in turn is expected to collect it from his customers. This happy hypothesis may be said to totally fail in the present exigency of affairs; and, indeed, if landlords are entitled to receive as much as 6 per cent. interest on fair valuations of their property, we can see no possibility at present of diffusing taxation through tenants. For the best properties tenants reluctantly pay more than 6 per cent. upon present fair valuations, and, for the average property, it is useless to expect to realize this rate. Consequently the taxation of improved property is diffused or repercussed straight into the bank account of the landlord. Where property is lightly encumbered, interest, taxes and repairs absorb the entire income from it, and of this income the taxes amount to between 40 and 50 per cent.

The time, therefore, is ripe for a thorough reconstruction of our present tax system. To real estate owners it is a cheering and happy omen that none of the bills introduced into the Legislature during the present session enact or contemplate the perpetuation of an exclusive real estate taxation. On the contrary, in each of these bills the desire and the aims manifestly are to remove the burden from real estate and distribute it among other interests better capable of bearing and diffusing it. We shall await with anxious interest the issue of the present attempt to reform our tax system. It is given out with some air of authority that there is no serious intention on the part of the Legislature to enact any new law on this subject. That the bills which are now being considered were intended merely to draw attention to the subject, to test public sentiment and to elicit expressions of opinion upon them. We trust some practical relief may be afforded to our oppressed constituents during the present session. However small or temporary, any relief will be accepted as a boon to owners of real estate.

Arrears of taxes and assessments have accumulated in the Comptroller's office to an incredible amount, and constitutes no trifling mortgage on a large area of property. A well-meant but mistaken effort has been made to postpone the exaction of these liens to a future day. Sooner or later property covered by these liens must be sold and then the full extent of the oppression of real estate will be realized.

COSTS OF LOTS.

The two tables which accompany this article have been carefully prepared with a view of indicating the costs of lots, when carried through terms of years, of various gradations of value from $500 and upwards. One of these tables presents the costs computed at 6 per cent. simple interest, and the other at 6 per cent. compound interest, some investors preferring the first form of calculation, while others prefer the second. In the first table we have made an allowance for taxation at the rate of 2½ per cent. on one-half the capital value; in the other we have made the calculation at the same tax rate, but upon the full capital value. Either of these allowances is more favorable than can be realized in practice, inasmuch as vacant property is apt to be assessed at progressive values and is now assessed at what is believed to be the present full market value. We have made no allowance for assessments for local improvements. We may regard the assumed capital price as inclusive of these assessments, although they amount in the aggregate to more than the lower range of prices, or else we may consider the calculation of 6 per cent. interest for a term of years to be sufficiently liberal to include the charges for assessments.

The value of these tables, we think, will be self-demonstrative. They will furnish an insight into the benefits or drawbacks of investments in vacant lots, and will afford a prospective or retrospective view of their costs. An investor purchasing lots for any of the capital sums contemplated can estimate the chances of realizing a satisfactory return, or rather can determine what increase in value will be necessary to enable him to realize the results indicated. Retrospectively, a lot owner selling lots at present prices can, with the aid of these tables, estimate what the original cost of the lots should have been in order to produce the given result. In any given transaction the profit or loss, above or below the elements of these calculations, can be determined by a glance at the tables. Lots, whether bought for investment or for speculation, are liable to be held for a greater or less time, except in periods of great activity, and it is just as well to become acquainted with their powers of absorption. At the same time, when capitalized at reasonable low prices, they are capable of performing the functions of a savings bank. The only antidote to absorption is building improvement, particularly in the case of lots which have already attained the higher values. Many shrewd real estate operators are wedded to the belief that values of vacant land in this city will always show a progressive increment. The natural limits of this supposition may be demonstrated in any one of the results obtained by extending an interest calculation on the higher priced lots through terms as short as say ten, fifteen or twenty years. The mere momentum of interest and tax expenses alone, it will be seen, carries the price of such land above any conceivable resources of the average wealth and business capabilities of the metropolis. A careful examination of these tables will serve to expose and effectually explode the delusive theory, now so zealously inculcated, that real estate is the best and the only reliable medium for the diffusion of local taxation. It will be seen that taxation, if levied exclusively on real estate, will certainly produce one of two results: the bankruptcy of property-holders, or the expulsion of large classes of population.

THE WELLINGTON.

On the south side of West Twenty-third street, only a few doors west of Sixth avenue, there has just been completed an apartment house which will be known as The Wellington.

The building, of brown stone, is upon a lot, 25x100, and the structure contains five roomy flats, each having nine rooms. The front entrance is ornamented with pillars of Aberdeen granite, specially imported from Scotland, and in accordance with the specifications carefully drawn before the contract was given out. Every door has been made to order specially for this house, and made well. The vestibule, tiled as it is with some of Anderson Merchant's best specimens, and trimmed with walnut, at once furnishes a cheerful aspect to the visitor of The Wellington.

There is a fire-proof partition in the house of Lyon & Bunn's material, which separates the kitchen from other parts of the house and includes also the private stairway for the servants, and there is special communication between the janitor's apartments in the basement and the various upstair kitchens by bells and gongs, so as to keep the family proper occupying the flat free from all annoyance respecting the delivery of fuel, provisions, etc.

Every room in the building is light and airy, a very convenient court yard adding, in addition to the Hayes' skylight, all the air and light required in the various apartments. Of these apartments, those behind the dining room are grained in oak, the dining rooms are in ash, while the various parlors are finished in walnut and the bed rooms are painted in two tints. Every floor has two waterclosets and bath-rooms, constructed upon the most novel and scientific principles and amply providing for the proper escape of all foul gases. The bath-rooms are also in ash and trimmed with walnut.

There is no lack of mirrors and fine grates in the various rooms which already possess quite a cheerful appearance. Throughout great care has been taken in giving the various floors that style of elegance and comfort which have made the New York apartment houses of recent construction so exceedingly popular.

Of course there are the usual supply of letter-boxes, tubes, bells in the vestibule and connecting with the janitor's rooms in the basement. There is also a Rider pumping engine in the cellar, which carries water to the top stories.

The late Griffith Thomas designed the plan for this beautiful house, which is owned by Mr. Benjamin F. Spink. Mr. Jas. Elgar, the builder, of Twenty-fourth street, has had the contract for the same, and must be virtually regarded as the architect since Mr. Thomas' death. He has had many subcontractors attending to the respective work. The painting, which has been carefully finished, was contracted for by Mr. Murray, of Sixth avenue and Twenty first street, and he is just now about concluding a very conscientious job. Both the plumbing and gasfitting were attended to by Ennever & Son, though chandeliers and other fixtures have been supplied by Kitchen & Co. The grates and mantels, which are of excellent and unique design, are from W. D. & A. S Nichols, in Hudson street, and the pier and mantel mirrors and cornices from the well-known house of B. W. Merriam & Co. Abbott, of 137 Eighth avenue, has supplied the ranges—which are of the latest design. Murtaugh's dumb-waiter, of course, is on hand to do the useful work in carrying provisions from one floor to another, and all the bronze-work, bell-hanging, etc., has been supplied by Mr. Newman, late Newman & Capron.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—Common Hards remain in about the same general situation noted for two or three weeks past. The supply is fairly adjusted to the outlet offered, and with the exception of the small and natural fluctuations to cover delivery, etc., there has been no variations on the general range of values. Sellers do not appear to be very buoyant in their views, but as a rule are confident that with the more favorable weather for consumption, which may now in the ordinary course of events be expected, and the careful control of supplies, the market may be fairly maintained. There is a slight shipping call, but most of the distribution is to and through the usual local outlets. Pale Brick appears to have a somewhat better demand, and the market has stiffened up a trifle, but only on really fine stock, and while the best would probably sell at $8.00 per M., ordinary quality would not command better than last named figures. Fronts find a good fair average demand, and are steady throughout with the favorite brands of Croton Points, and most of the fine pressed stock commanding extreme figures without much difficulty.

We quote Pale, per M, $2.25@3.00; Hards, Up-Rivers, $4.50@5; Haverstraw bay, $5.12½@5.50; favorite brands, $6.00; Fronts, Croton—Brown, $7.00@8.00; dark, $8.00@9.00; red, $9.00@9.50; Philadelphia, $26@28; Trenton, $24@29; Baltimore, $31@38. Yard prices, delivery included, $2.00@3.00 higher on ordinary and $5.00@6.00 on fronts.

CEMENT.—The market for Rosendale shows no unusual features. A very good demand prevails on local account with a tendency to increase if anything and there is a fair number of shipping orders coming in from the South and East. All calls are met however, and sellers as a rule were quite willing to accept former rates, viz: 80c. per bbl. at "Creek," and 90c., do. delivered here. Foreign generally is reported at former rates, with a pretty good business doing, and stock as it comes to hand finds an early outlet, either on sales "ex-ship" or on delivery to meet previous contract. Agents of all the leading brands advise a cheerful and encouraging market.

HARDWARE—Some irregularity has been reported in the demand, with a reduction of volume admitted by a portion of the trade. This however does not cover the entire market, and a great many dealers continue quite busy in getting up their invoices. Advices from the interior are encouraging, the exhaustion of demand at one point being compensated by a gain at others, and travelers report that their trips must be lengthened to secure the orders awaiting them. Prices in most cases rule pretty steady, the exceptions covering the styles so long in an unsettled condition, and upon which manufacturers find it difficult to agree. Not many new lists are demanded, but among the few pulished since our last we note that the manufacturers of Iron Rivets have advanced the price of Hulk Rivets 5 per cent, the new discount standing at 35 per cent. They also agree to the following revised list for Burrs: Swede's Iron Burrs, in bulk or pound papers, No. 6 or larger, 25c. per lb; Nos. 7, 8, and 9, 30c. do; Nos. 10 and 11, 35c. do; Nos. 12 and 13, 40c. do, and No. 14, 45c. do—all black; Tinned Burrs 6c. advance on above rates. Trade discount, 35c. per cent.

LIME.—In most general particulars we find the market without change. The demand tends to improve somewhat, and is very likely to reach good proportions as soon as the weather promises to remain settled. Supplies available or near at hand fair, but not excessive, and former rates are maintained on both grades without much difficulty. State stock not over abundant, but enough of it for all calls, and former rates accepted.

LATH.—Since the writing of our last report there has been a gain made by the buying interest, and no indications of positive recovery on the break. The declining tendency carried the cost down to $1.30, and while one or two subsequent small sales under special delivery were made at a fraction above this, the rate named is about all that can fairly be quoted for cargoes at the moment. As noted in our last, most dealers are now pretty well stocked, and additional arrivals of any magnitude are naturally difficult to place, unless terms are made attractive. Yard distribution tends to increase somewhat.

LUMBER.—The condition of business in all kinds of lumber continues somewhat unsatisfactory, and it is seldom that a dealer can be found speaking in a cheerful, contented tone. There has been a considerable amount of stock placed this spring, but almost the entire burden of negotiation was upon the seller, and rates have shaded materially from early expectations. It is, however, a healthy feature of the operations that supplies have been kept in motion, and instead of holding back offerings on an attempt to force the payment of figures at original limits, receivers have accepted all bids which were evidently the best to be obtained and let their stock go. In a few cases extreme prices might possibly have been realized, but the average buyer of wholesale parcels is in very independent mood and inclines to dictate rather than accept terms. Consumption promises to be very good, but there is much competition to furnish the supplies to meet it, and if dealers cannot stock up law, they appear to think it will be more profitable to refrain from fresh purchases at present.

Eastern Spruce still fails to find much decided inquiry, and the market is unsettled. Most of the cargoes coming to hand are disposed of, but it is a sort of "by hook or by crook" way of doing business, and sellers are compelled to watch all chances closely. Occasionally a customer may be found from whom a fair sort of price is obtained, but probably on the very next offering of quite as good a bill, it will be necessary to shade materially or lose the opportunity for closing a sale. Our figures cover about a fair valuation on good merchantable stock, but some very poor undesirable cargoes have sold much lower. We quote at $11.00@12.00 for random, possibly $12.25@12.50 for choice lenghts in small cargoes and $12.50@13.50 for specials, the extreme for extra difficult.

White Pine is not very firm in price, and only fairly active in a general way. There is a continuation of local demand but of reduced volume and of uncertain form, and while more or less stock is under treaty for export, it is rather below the average, if anything. About former rates are asked, but there is no close limit on actual sales, and the variations are mainly in buyers' favor. Holders at the close talk steadier on reports of probable delay in the Canadian product, but fail to stimulate interest among buyers. We quote at $14.25@15.00 per M. for West India shipping boards; $19.50@21 for South American do.; $14@15 for box boards; $16@17 for do. wide and sound; and timber to order at $38@50 per M.

Yellow Pine continues to be sold to a fair extent on the ordinary run of orders for shipment Eastward, and there is an increase of call from points along the "river," with a few wants by exporters, the latter filled on shipments direct from the South. About former rates ruling and the tone steady. The local demand, however, is slow, and open offerings, unless very attractive, would be difficult to place. We quote random cargoes at about $18@22 per M.; ordered cargoes $22@24 do.; green flooring boards, $20@21 do., and dry do. do, $20@23. Cargoes at the South, $13@14.50 per M.; hewed timber $7.50@14.

Hardwoods retain a pretty firm position on the general market, and dealers seldom find much fault with the manner in which their stock is handled. Values incline to no direct buoyancy, but are sustained without difficulty, and any desirable offering receives positive and direct attention. We quote at wholesale rates by car load about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do; oak, $35@40 do; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do., culls, $18@20 do; cherry, $45@75 do; white wood, ¼ and ⅝ inch, $25@27.50, and do. inch $33@35 do; hickory, $35@45 do. for Western, and $65@75 for good near by stock.

Among the yards there is a fair seasonable business doing both in the way of quantity and assortment, and the situation about steady for all really desirable stock.

From among the lumber charters recently reported we select the following:

A barque, 650 tons, hence to Buenos Ayres, general cargo 15c. per foot, and lumber $15 ℔ M and primage; a brig, 458 tons, from Brunswick to Rio Janerio, lum ber, $20 net; a barque, 668 tons, same voyage, $19 net; a Br. brig, 522 tons, from Portland to Glasgow, deals, 7/8 ; a Br. barque, 403 tons, from Pensacola to Fayal, lumber $12; an Am. barque, 956 tons, to Buenos Ayres, lumber $14; a schr., 137 tons, from Wilmington, N. ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

The Argus reports for the week ending April 22, 1879:

Considering the stormy and disagreeable weather until with the last day or two, we have had about our usual spring trade. A large quantity of lumber has been sold at about last fall's prices with the exception of Michigan uppers which are "off" a little. There is a very fair demand for 11-in. box, the stock of which is light.

The stocks of dry lumber to come forward to this market on the opening of navigation are not large either from Michigan or Canada, and owing to the very late spring the mills will not be able to start up for some time; this will curtail the season of sawing full one month.

Reports reach us from Michigan and Canada of large sales having been made to first-class firms; several lots of about 10,000,000 feet have been sold, which looks as if some firms were of the opinion that prices are not likely to be much lower.

In consequence of the small quantity of dry lumber to come forward early in the season from Canada freights are likely to open low—say Oswego to Albany, $1.00@1.50; to New York, $2.20@2.30; Ottawa to Albany, $2.75; to New York, $3.00; with very few engagements made, and no boats at Ottawa.

Late Saginaw lumber sales were 1,500,000 feet to go East at $5.50, $11.00 and $26.00; 200,000 feet at $5.75, $11.25 and $26.00, and 700,000 feet at $5.50, $11.00 and $26.00.

The Tonawanda Herald remarks as follows on lumber freights:

The Buffalo papers are predicting a lively Spring trade in lumber freights from the West, and are representing that the opening rates will be $2.00 to Buffalo, and $2.25 to Tonawanda. Now such an assertion is entirely groundless, as all Western shippers know full well by this time that they can do better by shipping to Tonawanda at $2 per thousand feet than to Buffalo at the same figure. Notwithstanding the extra distance of twelve miles to this port, they are better accommodated here than in the Queen City, for the facilities for prompt discharge are very much superior to those in Buffalo. They have no such docks in the latter place as are to be found in Tonawanda, and the ease with which they are approached renders the task of unloading very much easier than at almost any other point on this side of the Lakes. If the Buffalo papers think that such statements, unwarranted as they are by the facts, are going to help their declining lumber interests they are mistaken. Tonawanda has been gaining ground rapidly for several years, and will continue to attract the bulk of the trade for some time to come.

THE WEST.

SAGINAW VALLEY.

Lumberman's Gazette Office,

BAY CITY, April 22, 1879.

No great degree of animation is noticeable in the market, although the inquiry for stocks is increasing and a number of sales have been made. Navigation having fairly opened, buyers begin to make their appearance, and, if the condition of stocks at Eastern supply points are not misrepresented, buyers may be expected in larger force soon. There is but little room for doubt that the stocks of dry lumber now on hand will be disposed of at prices quite as good as those ruling last year, although the disposition is plainly manifested to force a concession on account of the abundance of the log crop and its reduced cost. This is what's the matter in Chicago. The bears are striving to establish lower prices. For new stock and partially dry lumber lower prices must be expected, for dealers will insist upon sharing the advantages of the favorable logging season just passed. Cutting has been kept back by the delay of the shipping season and the tardy operation of the drives, but the mills will probably all be in full operation before another week closes. The drives are progressing fairly but not rapidly, and a full supply of logs is likely to arrive before the sea on closes. The stocks of dry lumber on the river are large, but it is believed not larger than necessary to meet the demand

Among the sales we note the following: T. Nester, 1,500,000 feet at $5.50, $11 and $26, and 200,000 feet at $5.75, $11.50 and $26, to go east; Jerome & Co., 700,000 feet at $5 50, $11 and $26, to Ohio parties. A sale of 400,000 feet at $5.25, $10.50 and $25 is reported, and a number of small lots have been sold at $5, $10 and $25. Other sales have taken place, but terms are not made known. The above will indicate the range of prices.

Sales of 2,000,000 at a range of $5.25, $5.50, $10.50 and $11 are reported, to Cleveland parties.

Large sales of shingles have been made during the past week, and the inquiry is quite active, but the improvement in prices has not been material.

We quote cargo rates:

Three upper qualities	$25 00@27 60
Common	10 00@11 00
Shipping culls	5 00@6 00
Lath	1 25@1 30

The following from the Lumberman and Manufacturer:

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., April 17, 1879.

All reports agree that the stock of lumber on hand in the West both in the wholesale and retail yards, are as low as they have been at any time in ten years. Many of the heaviest dealers on the river cannot fill an ordinary country yard with an assortment, and very few yards, if any, can be found with unbroken stocks. The extreme drought renders it almost certain that a large part of the logs must remain in the streams during the year. Under such circumstances the prices of lumber should be stiffening up instead of dropping, yet we regret to say that the market is being forced, and prices are rather on the decline. The apprehended overstock undoubtedly has made holders nervous. Wisdom, however, would dictate that the chickens should not be counted before they are hatched. The chances taken ought to be on the right side. No rains have fallen to raise the streams in the Northwest, but Michigan advices indicate that in the Green Bay District, as well as the Lower Peninsula, the crops are all likely to be secured. Some complaint of low water comes from the Saginaw region.

Heavy sales are reported in all the markets. The trade at St. Louis, Minneapolis and Dubuque was an improvement on several preceding weeks, as will be seen by the report.

THE EAST.

Telegraphic advices during the week reported as follows:

Owing to the heavy rise in the Connecticut River several hundred thousand feet of lumber was washed over the boom of Blood Pond. None was marked in any way, and it will be a complete loss of $50,000 to $75,000 to the owners, Messrs. Fry & Perry, of Maine.

FOREIGN.

The London Timber Trades Journal furnishes the following under date of April 11, speaking without much encouragement of the London market it further remarks:

Shippers must take things as they are, and if values will not reach the standard at which they can profitably work the deal trade, the only way to mend matters is by a general reduction in the cost of producing. The stocks here continue ample for all wants, and though the frequency of the public sales in London helps in reducing it, the article of wood is still too much at a discount among consumers to warrant any hope that it can command better values for some time to come.

At the last few public auctions 1st Petersburg brought £12 15s., though exhibiting no advance on past sales, shows no further decline, and it is something to note even that; but considering that, while the stocks here are diminishing, the arrivals are as yet very few, it is disappointing that some improvement just at this time was not more marked. The mere fact of prices not declining is a solution of too negative a kind for the shippers abroad to build any hopes upon.

GLASGOW, April, 8th.

The market here is still without much animation. Usually at this time of the year first quality timber moves off quite readily, but housebuilding operations being for the present almost at a standstill, finishing wood requirements are extremely limited.

At Messrs. Wright and Breakenridge's public sale of timber at Greenock, on the 1st inst., the following prices were obtained.

Quebec waney boardwood, 55 and 60 ft., per log. 21d. to 21¾d., per cubic ft.; do. yellow pine best quality, 50 and 60 ft, do , 12d., do.; do., 40 ft , do., 13¾d, do.; do. common quality, 50 and 55 ft., do 11d. do.; hewn pitch pine, 25 ft., do. 12d. do.; do., 20 ft., 11¾d. do.; sawn pitch pine, 35 and 40 ft., do. 14¾d. do.

LIVERPOOL, April 8th.

The arrivals of several cargoes during the past fortnight has given the docks a more lively appearance than they have borne for some time. These importations consists principally of pitch pine timber and Norwegian flooring, and almost without an exception have been made upon contract for arrival, the exceptien being two cargoes of spruce deals and birch timber from St. John, N B., both of which come upon the open market. The favorable state of the weather has had some small influence in bettering the condition of the building trade, and has induced an increased consumption, without however making any improvement in prices, and some goods, especially prepared flooring from Norway are selling at prices almost unprecedented.

Latest mail advices from Havana (Cuba) report:

White Pine.—Neither sale nor arrival to report. Prices nominal at from $31@32 gold per mille feet.

Pitch Pine.—As the above at $28@30 do. do.

Cooperage Stock—Box Shooks—Small sales at 8½ rs. gold, and holders ask to-day 9@9½ rs. do.

Hogshead Shooks.—Small sales of sugar shooks at 19 rs and molasses do. dull and nominal.

Empty Casks.—Nominal at $3.50@3.75 gold.

Hoops.—Continue plentiful and neglected. We quote $45 gold, as the highest obtainable price for long shaved.

METALS.—COPPER—Ingot continues to be held pretty steady at former rates and is neither offered with freedom or with any showing of anxiety to realize. Buyers, however, are also in a somewhat indifferent mood and demand is confined in the main to small jobbing parcels required on immediate consumptive necessities. We quote at 15¾@16c. for Lake. Manufactured Copper is held steadily at combination rates, with a fair average trade doing. We quote about as follows: Brazier's Copper, ordinary size over 16 oz. per sq. foot, 24c. per lb.; do. do. do., 16 oz. and over 12 oz., per sq. foot, 26c. per lb.; do. do., 10 and 12 oz. per sq. foot, 28c. per lb.; do., do., lighter than 10 oz. per sq. foot, 30c. per lb.; circles, less than 84 inches in diameter, 27c. per lb.; do. 84 inches in diameter and over, 30c. per lb.; segment and pattern sheets, 27c. per lb.; locomotive fire box sheets, 24c. per lb.; Sheathing Copper, over 12 oz. per sq. foot, 22c. per lb., and Bolt Copper 24c. per lb. IRON—Scotch Pig appears to be selling a little more freely but only in small lots and bids at full former rates are very generally accepted. We quote at $19.00@22.50, according to brand and quantity handled. American Pig in lots of 100 tons or thereabouts has found a very good market, and sellers, in all cases, refused to negotiate except upon a basis of full former rates, the tone ruling firm. The amount of stock available is full, but not urged to a sale We quote at $18.00@19.00 for No. 1 per ton, $16.50@17.50 for No. 2, and $15.50@16.00 for Forge. Rails have shown a rather quiet market for iron, but steel sold fairly and commanded a steady line of values. We quote at $32.00@35.00 for new iron, and $42 00@45.00 for steel, according to delivery. Old Rails $21.00@21.50 per ton; scrap, $24.00@25.00. Manufactured iron without much change, about the ordinary run of jobbing orders coming to hand and holders meeting the call at former rates. Common merchant bar quoted in round lots at 1.7c., and Refined at 1.9c., but for ten-ton lots from store, 1.8c and 2c. are respectively asked. Common sheet, 2⅞@3c., and best R. G. American, 3⅞@ 4c. from store. LEAD—Domestic Pig has been very dull with prices showing great irregularity and uncertainty and figures as named having a nominal basis only. The offering, as a rule, has been very fair. We quote at 2⅞@3⅛c. The manufactures of lead are steady and quoted: Bar 5½c., Pipe 5½c. and Sheet 6c.—less the usual discount to the trade; and Tin-lined Pipe 12c., Block Tin Pipe 30c., on same terms. TIN—Pig has not found a very active or general demand, and with the supplies not quite so well concentrated as heretofore, advantage was less easily retained by holders. We quote at 17¾@17⅝c. for Banca, 14⅞@15c. for Straits, 15@15½c. for English refined, and 14⅞@15c. for do. common. Tin plates without much demand and the advices from abroad proving unfavorable, the market has a tame tone. Spelter has been dull and not very firm, but a proposed reduction in the product induces some confidence among holders. Quoted 4¼@4¾c., according to quality. Sheet Zinc has been fairly active in the ordinary jobbing way and continues to be quoted at 6¼@6⅜c. from store.

NAILS.—Demand has been somewhat irregular and not in all cases as full as hoped for and calculated upon. The aggregate movement of supplies however, does very well, and the general tendency of sellers is to insist upon pretty full rates. We quote on a basis of $2.15@2.20 for 10d. to 60d. and 5@10c. per keg added for small invoices.

OILS.—The market in a wholesale way has been somewhat unsettled and without much strength

Jobbers, however, preserve a pretty steady market, and work off a fair amount of stock in small lots. We quote at 59@62c. for linseed oil from crushers' hands.

PAINTS.—About an average distribution of stock is making, both as to form and assortment, and there is not much of interest on the general market. Supplies balance the call and holders are in most cases willing to negotiate on a basis of former valuations the position as a rule standing about steady.

PITCH.—The business doing is moderate with buyers careful and stocks only taken through the necessity of absolute wants. Supplies fair and within easy reach at about former cost. We quote at $1.75@2.00 for city, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—Arrivals have increased to a considerable extent, and finding no corresponding addition to demand holders gradually shaded on cost, the tone of the market ruling rather heavy. In a jobbing way trade has also been rather slow with some irregularity on price. As this report is closed the quotations stand at about 30@32c. per gallon, according to quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—A fair sort of demand has prevailed for jobbing parcels and this was met by a pretty good assortment at about former cost. The wholesale market has been dull with the feeling somewhat heavy. We quote at $1.50@1.87 per bbl. for Newberne and Washington, and $1.62@2.00 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date

TENEMENT HOUSE REFORM.

The prevailing fancy of fashionable philanthropy is tenement house reform. No nobler theme could engage the thoughts of those possessed of wealth and actuated by benevolence. No larger or more inviting field for humanitarian research and exertion can be desired than in the by-ways of our own city. This subject has been almost constantly agitated for the past ten years and the discussion is only now beginning to bear practical fruit. During these many years the devotees of social science have lost no opportunity of exposing the evils and defects of common tenement houses.

Sanitarians have inveighed against the system as a whole, deprecated any attempt at its improvement and recommended its total abolishment. On the other hand, more practical philanthropists have explored the inmost recesses of tenement houses and have sought to introduce beneficial reforms in their construction and management. Of late the subject has been taken up with renewed zeal and vigor. Meetings have been held, public and private, large and small, and there are notices passing through the daily press of the organization of initial efforts to accomplish practical and lasting good in this direction. No well wisher of the metropolis can be indifferent to these movements or refuse a sympathetic interest in their prospective results. The conclusions which seem to have been finally adopted by the most thoughtful investigators into this subject are two-fold:

First. That there is no solution of the problem outside of the tenement house system; and Second. That amelioration of the present system is largely, if not exclusively, dependent upon philanthropic enterprise.

1. Tenement house reform, meaning improved dwellings for the poor, is closely allied, if not really a part of the general question of providing suitable homes for the great body of the industrial and artisan classes and for those who rise to a higher social grade and aspire, as they deserve to occupy, separate homes. The conclusion which we have specified as controlling these questions is derived mainly from reflections upon two substantial and verifiable facts: That land is too dear and taxes are too high in this city to admit of separate homes for those who are not able to pay more than three or five hundred dollars a year rent. In what is called the better class of tenement houses, the highest rent exacted is twenty-five dollars a month for the best suit of rooms. Supposing a lot of land could be bought anywhere within corporate limits as low as five hundred dollars, the cost of erecting a house which would be a more comfortable habitation than such a suite of rooms, would bring the entire investment in excess of three thousand dollars, and the interest and taxes on this sum, supposing the person could command sufficient capital for the outlay, would considerably exceed the expense of tenement house rent. For those who are not able to pay three hundred dollars rent, the alternatives of living out of the city or of living in a tenement house in the city are unavoidable and conclusive. No likelihood is afforded in the present condition or future prospects of the metropolis of an ability to dispense with the tenement house system. On the contrary, this very system has been expanded, elaborated and equipped expressly to adapt it to the uses of every conceivable gradation of tenants in what is now so well and popularly known as apartment houses and hotels. Hence, the most humane, praiseworthy, practical treatment of the subject is to devise ways and means whereby community houses may be rendered safe, healthy and attractive at minimum rates of rent.

2. The example of improved tenements must be set in schemes of philanthropic enterprise. Owing to the enormous incubus of taxation which is slowly grinding the life out of real property in this city, it is idle to expect any widespread projection of improved tenements through private enterprise. Mr. James, Mr. Clarke, Mr. Matthews, General Butterfield, Captain Tinker and other wealthy citizens may choose to employ their surplus time and means in the elaboration of their special ideas of the French apartment system, but after they have begun to realize that the investment after all is a four per cent. one, and that this rate can be easily obtained with less trouble and as good security from Government bonds, it is not likely that they will be tempted to repeat their experiments. In the case of commoner apartment houses and tenement houses, the strife to afford cheap and at the same time remunerative habitations necessarily places severe restrictions upon the owner. Any attempt at elaboration, even of the most conservative kind, in tenement house construction is attended with increased outlay. The prize plan of a tenement house, devised by Mr. James E. Ware, the well-known and skilful architect, affords no more comfort and convenience than is absolutely necessary in a tenement house intended to accommodate four families on a floor; and yet the bare expense of construction exceeds twelve thousand dollars. The only way that tenement houses can be built at all and the owner saved from bankruptcy is by keeping the expense down to a well defined minimum. The effort to accomplish this result has produced a standard of building which abounds throughout this city. It may be possessed of every defect and open to every criticism which has been proclaimed to its disparagement, but still it is the only model which private enterprise has been thus far able to discover in which capital might be safely invested. At the present time the business of renting dwellings, whether single houses, apartment houses or tenement houses, partakes largely of a work of benevolence. What with the high cost at which these buildings are capitalized, the expense of interest on the debt incurred in construction, with cruelly oppressive taxation, unavoidable repairs, vacancies and defaults in rents, there is little likelihood even the best of such property yields to-day more than four or five per cent. net on a fairly appraised equity. Probably few owners of such property would object to exchange their equities for four per cent. bonds, while many owners of unencumbered property would cheerfully sell at the present tax valuation.

The true solution of this important social question lies in the restriction of land values and in the removal of the excess of local taxation from real estate.

REAL ESTATE TAXATION.

Men of intelligence, of wide experience and of commanding influence, have sought to instruct the New York public in the true science of taxation, and, as an epitome of all their wisdom and research, have declared exclusive real estate taxation to be the right and best method.

Citizens at large, unconscious of the exactions of the tax gatherer, wonder when taxes are levied, how they are collected, who pay them. Little thought is ever given to the fact that only twenty-five or thirty thousand out of the million inhabitants of this greatly misgoverned city, are called upon to respond to the stupendous annual budget of municipal expenses, and this privilege is accorded to them because they are real estate owners.

In order that our readers may have a correct and clear idea of the extent to which real estate is hampered by taxation, we have procured from official sources a statement of the taxes annually levied upon real estate during each of the last ten years, and also a statement of the assessments levied during each of the same years for street openings and improvements. The enormous aggregate thus levied in each year, and the grand totals which will show the yearly averages, are presented in the tables given below. It must be borne in mind that these amounts do not embrace the taxation of mortgages which is assessed under the head of Personal Estate, and according to the best data at our command, the yield of which has amounted in past years to from one to three millions per annum. These estimated sums are placed parenthetically in the tables.

There will also be found under a separate heading the growing total of water taxes, the larger share of which is a lien upon real estate and must be defrayed by land owners, albeit some landlords seek to collect this tax again from tenants.

Having now afforded our readers some idea of the aggregate of the city's demand upon property owners, we expect at an early day to be able to furnish them with an insight into the unequal and unjust manner in which this enormous aggregate of tax is distributed among individual property owners.

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.

The large hall which has been fitted up in the Old Postoffice Building, Nassau street, for the purposes of a Real Estate Exchange, was opened on Thursday afternoon last for inspection. There have been fifteen sales stands erected, and broad galleries placed around three sides of the hall, accessible either from the street or from the floor. There is plenty of light, and the ventilation is good. Many eminent gentlemen were present at the opening, some of whom made pleasant addresses[] pertinent to the occasion. Mr. John B. Haskin criticised the present system of foreclosure sales as conducted at the Trinity Building Salesroom, declaring that the sales should be made public by the referees in the action and not by auctioneers.

The officers of the Exchange are Thomas H. Braisted, President; John T. Banker, Secretary, and Thomas H. Thorp, Treasurer. There are seven trustees. The stands will be sold at auction at noon to-day, and sales will be made from them on Monday. The hall will be open for members daily from 9 until 5 o'clock and for the public from 11 until 3 o'clock.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

At the Exchange Salesroom numerous sales were effected during the past week. Some of the auctioneers announced from the stands on Friday, prior to sales, that the auctioneers' fees were fifteen dollars. Heretofore twenty-five dollars was the unalterable fee for such service. On Tuesday, E. H. Ludlow & Co., sold, by order of the Supreme Court, in partition, the following improved property belonging to the estate of the late George Johnson: The five story stone front store (25x100), No. 44 Walker street, for $32,600; five-story brick store and factory (51.7x100), on the southeast corner of Sixth avenue and Sixteenth street, for $50,500; and one three-story and two four-story brick dwellings, Nos. 48, 50 and 52 West Sixteenth street, for $14,100; the same auctioneer sold, by order of Wm. F. Russell, receiver of the Sixpenny Savings Bank, five houses and lots situated on Forty-ninth, One Hundred and Fourth, One Hundred and Eleventh and One Hundred and Nineteenth streets and Third avenue, for $22,800. The New York Elevated Railroad Company have purchased the block of land bounded by Third and Fourth avenues, Ninety-eighth and Ninety-ninth streets, the consideration being $140,000. Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt, for $175,000, has conveyed to the New York Loan and Improvement Co. the buildings with lots Nos. 5, 7, 9 and 11 Broadway and Nos. 5, 7, 9 and 11 Greenwich street. Mr. Vanderbilt has purchased for $50,000 the plot (75x100.5) on the northeast corner of Madison avenue and Fifty-second street.

A large number of foreclosure sales will be held at the Exchange Salesroom during the coming week, the block (201.10x420) bounded by Fifth and Madison avenues, One Hundred and Sixth and One Hundred and Seventh streets, will be sold to satisfy mortgages amounting to about $134,000, held by the Equitable Life Assurance Society, and the five-story brick (stone front) store (45x200), Nos. 657 and 659 Broadway and extending to Mercer street, will be sold to satisfy a mortgage for about $216,000, held by the Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Plans, embracing seventy-one buildings, have been filed during the week, the following are worthy of note: Four four-story brown-stone dwellings will be erected on the southwest corner of Sixty-seventh street and Madison avenue, cost, $90,000; three similar dwellings on the north side of Sixty-fourth street, west of Madison avenue, cost, $69,000; and eight three-story stone front dwellings on the northwest corner of Sixth avenue and One Hundred and Thirty-second street, cost, $50,000. Messrs. Harris & Russak (furriers) will erect ten four-story brick flats and two three-story stone front dwellings on the northwest corner of One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Lexington avenue, cost, $120,000; one six-story brick tenement, 50x100, cost, $59,000, will be erected on the south side of Fifty-ninth street, west of Seventh avenue, and nine five-story stone front dwellings, cost, $90,000, on the north side of Thirty-fourth street, about 180 feet west of Broadway.

The following are the sales at the Exchange Salesroom for the week ending May 2:

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

NOTE.—The Mechanics' and Traders' Exchange have removed from their old location, corner of Church and Murray streets, to No. 198 Broadway, opposite the Western Union Telegraph building.

BRICKS.—There is little or nothing of interest on the general market for Common Hards, simply because the position is still without change. In fact, the latter feature is the prominent one of the market, and dealers are remarking upon the unusal degree of uniformity preserved since the season opened, the actual fluctuation on value not amounting to more than 12½c. per M. Quite powerful efforts have at times been made by both buyers and sellers to force matters a little more in favor of their respective interests, but with no success, and business simply moved along on the old basis after undergoing momentary irregularity of tone. Supplies have always proven equal to the call with frequently a few to spare, but never so great a surplus as to compel a forcing of cargoes upon the market, and a little patience generally found its reward in securing a place for the offering. Some of the Trade claim that this comparatively nice adjustment of affairs is due to the influence of the combination. On Pale Brick there is much irregularity and the promises of greater strength are not realized. It is possible that something extra fine in quality would command former extreme figures, but wholesale dealers tell us they have pretty hard work to obtain $2.50 on the average offering and 25@50c. less cover the more general bid. Fronts are selling very fairly and commanding good full rates on the more desirable grades.

We quote Pale, per M, $2.25@2.75; Hards, Up-Rivers, $4.50@5; Haverstraw bay, $5.12½@5.50; favorite brands, $6.00; Fronts, Croton—Brown, $7.00@8.00; dark, $8.00@9.00; red, $9.00@9.50; Philadelphia, $26@28; Trenton, $24@29; Baltimore, $31@35. Yard prices, delivery included, $2.00@3.00 higher on ordinary and $5.00@6.00 on fronts.

GLASS.—We do not find many dealers who are willing to speak in unqualified praise of the condition of the market. Some few of the jobbers are distributing a fair amount of the regular standard sizes, but there is an absence of vitality to the market and the condition of business is below most expectations and calculations. Supplies have accumulated to quite as full an extent as holders desire, but still it is claimed that at present no surplus exists and the stock is not pressed. Prices quoted as steady and on the average run of sales the list is no doubt pretty closely adhered to, but rumors are current that some "cutting" on rates has taken place in order to secure a desirable customer.

HARDWARE.—Business has continued unsettled and not altogether satisfactory to a portion of the Trade. Several points in the interior have developed much smaller wants than could have been expected, while many of the principal customers figure very limited orders and make no promises for the future. On the other hand, however, we find a number of dealers who still keep matters moving to a very fair extent and contribute quite liberally to the aggregate business of the market. Local demand is very good and the prospects for a continuation considered favorable. Among recent changes on price we note the following: By E. M. Boynton on patent "Lightning" cross cut saws, per foot, 60 cents, formerly $1; "Lightning" one-man cross cuts 75 cents, formerly $1 per foot; "Lightning" wood saws, with patent cross bar frame, $12, formerly $15 per dozen; "Lightning" wood saw blades, 30-inch, $8; 32-inch $8.50, formerly $10 and $10 50 per dozen, respectively. An additional 10 per cent. is allowed on the "Mechanics'" wrench to the trade, discount 60 and 10 and 10 per cent. The American Screw Company have issued a revised price list of Burrs, black and tinned, and Rivets in bulk, showing an advance on the latter. The discounts are 50 per cent. on iron black and iron tinned rivets in papers of M. 50 per cent. on black and carriage rivets in papers of C. and 35 per cent. on iron rivets in bulk, cash 30 days from date of invoice. Mallory, Wheeler & Co. have issued an appendix to their catalogue illustrating new patterns, &c., including bell-pulls, door-knobs, locks, padlocks, keys, &c. The National Tube Works Company have withdrawn from all associations of manufacturers. The manufacturers of Blind hinges and Fasts from a new price list issued, quote 5 per cent. discount on 500 sets, 7½ on 1,000 sets, and 10 on 2,000 sets, with an additional 2 per cent. for cash.

LATH.—Not much change on values since our last, and up to the present writing the cost appears to be $1.30 per M. At this the selling interest endeavor to make a stand, and have to some extent infused a slight show of steadiness, but the market is not a very solid one. All classes of buyers are moving slowly, and carefully, and while a few bid within 5c. of the asking figure there seems to be no special anxiety to take in supplies with freedom.

LIME.—The market does not show quite so much strength, and buyers have gained a slight advantage on Common Rockland, the cost of which is reduced to 75c. per bbl. Demand has been fair but scarcely had the spirit and vigor to rapidly exhaust the offerings, and easier terms became necessary in order to prevent an accummulation in first hands. Finishing has undergone no change so far as reported up to the present writing. State Common is also off with sales down to 60., though as a rule the asking figure remains at 65c. per bbl. The upper grade nominally unchanged.

LUMBER.—Some of our dealers have been doing rather more business on both local and shipping account, and also including a few contracts for special cuts on delivery during the summer months. The market, however, fails to develop features of a character to stimulate hope of the animation for which many have been looking, and the competition among holders to secure the opportunities to effect sales, indicate that buyers still retain a considerable advantage. The prospects for consumption of lumber in the city and vicinity may be considered quite as good as ever, but it also becomes evident that supplies will be available to the full extent of the wants, and with natural exceptions of securing parcels peculiarly adapted to certain special uses, no buying is likely to take place in anticipation of the future, unless cost is so low as to pretty much remove all risk. Occasional reports from primary points speak of the increase of interest shown by agents from this and other seaboard cities, and also report an actual sale now and then. These movements, however, are quite natural for the season, but are much smaller than usual, and some of our principal dealers still refuse to place any large quantity of stock in yard except on commission. Arrivals from the interior are increasing somewhat, but a great many parcels are deliveries in completion of last season's contracts.

Eastern Spruce has been nominally steady, but rather through the comparatively low line of valuation reached than through any actual support given the market by the form or volume of demand. About all the arrivals have been placed, but as before noted buyers are not standing ready to take cargoes as they come to hand, and receivers frequently have to do a considerable amount of "hunting around" before they can find a customer for their offering. There is also said to be a great deal of "cutting and slashing" competition among some of the dealers again this season, and the wholesale market feels the influence. Supplies from the provinces have been comparatively full this week. We quote at $11.00@12.00 for random, possibly $12.25@12.50 for choice lengths in small cargoes and $12.50@13.50 for specials, the extreme for extra difficult.

White Pine continues to be held on about the former line of quotations, and while showing no inclination to buoyancy, or even more than ordinary steadiness, some holders of the present accumulations are inclined to be a little stiffer in their views. The reports from Canada indicate comparatively small stocks available, and every prospect that the mills will not get fairly to work until well into June, and this naturally induces a better opinion of anything desirable in hand. The inquiry, however, is no way stimulated, and buyers have not been found who are willing to pay an advance. We quote at $14.25@15.00 per M. for West India shipping boards; $19.50@21 for South American do.; $14@15 for box boards; $16@17 for do. wide and sound; and timber to order at $38@50 per M.

Yellow Pine has found a moderately active market on most outlets, with no great change in the general tone of the position. Cost at the South remains about as before, and freight charges are steady, keeping prices to about the former average, and sellers claim the advantage Eastern and river orders continue to come to hand to a moderate extent. The arrivals since our last have been quite full. We quote random cargoes at about $18@22 per M.; ordered cargoes $22@24 do.; green flooring boards, $20@21 do., and dry do. do, $20@23. Cargoes at the South $13@14.50 per M.; hewed timber $7.50@14.

Shingles in one or two cases are spoken of somewhat cheerfully by dealers, but principally where a special make or style is on the market or a regular outlet is controlled. The general offering of stock receives only moderate and uncertain attention, and values are irregular on home account. About the usual sales are made for export. Cypress are selling at about $6 for saps and $8.50@9.00 for hearts; pine shipping stocks, $4 for 18 inch, and Eastern saw grades at $2.50@4.50 for 16-inch, and as to quality and quantity. Machine dressed cedar shingles quoted as follows: For 30 inch, $16@22.25 for A and $28.75@33.25 for No. 1; for 24-inch, $6.50@16 for A and $16.75@23 for No. 1; for 20-inch, $5@10.50 for A, and $11.25@15.75 for No. 1.

Hardwoods have not been quite so active of late. Some of the Trade attribute this to a reduced and broken assortment which prevents making up of the invoices desired, and this, in a measure holds good, but there is also a temporary lull in the consumption, tending to reduce demand somewhat. The general conditions of the market, however, are strong and promising and no contracts can be made on desirable grades for either immediate or future delivery except at extreme rates. Many of the Trade have great confidence in the export outlet, and we undersand that some parties have strong ideas of establishing a depot here to cover full quantities and assortments adapted to foreign wants and offered on such terms as to secure the support of shippers who are now compelled to go to the interior in search of supplies to fill their orders. We quote at wholesale rates by car load about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do; oak, $35@40 do; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do., culls, $18@20 do; cherry, $45@75 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch, $25@27.50, and do. inch $33@35 do; hickory, $35@45 do. for Western, and $65@75 for good near by stock.

Yard trade is very good and gradually increasing both on sales for immediate delivery and contracts for the future. Assortments in some cases are poor, but will, as a rule, answer for any ordinary order and about the former general line of cost remains current.

From among the lumber charters recently reported we select the following:

A barque, 374 tons, from Brunswick to a Spanish port in the Mediterranean, lumber, owner's account; a Br. brig, 186 tons, from Bridgewater, N. S., to Demerara, lumber, $6; a schr., 189 tons, from Wilmington, N. C., to St. Johns, P. STATE.

ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

The Argus reports for the week ending April 29, 1879:

We have had a fair trade in the district since our last report with a good attendance of buyers. Sales, however, have been somewhat interferred with by the freshet. Prices are reported as without change, though it is pretty well understood that some purchasers can command prices below our quotations.

The Detroit Tribune says the log crop of Thunder Bay is estimated at 142,000,000 feet.

Among the recent sales in Saginaw Valley are 1,500,000 feet at $5.50, $11 and $26; 200,000 feet at $5 75, $11 and $26 to go East; 750,000 feet to Ohio parties at $5.50, $11 and $26. A Tonawanda firm picked up 1,000,000 feet at $5.25, $5.50, $10.50 and $11.

The receipts at Buffalo for the week ending April 28th were 61 car loads.

The Albany Journal remarks: "The unusually late opening of river navigation has restricted the time for spring sales, and has caused more life and stir to the trade. There has not been many large sales, as buyers have been only replenishing their stocks for present wants, leaving large purchases till a larger supply is in the market. Still the district has presented a lively appearance, and a good trade has been realized. Prices have not differed materially from those at the close of last year, but have been more firm, and dealers are expecting a better trade for the coming season."

THE WEST.

SAGINAW VALLEY.

Lumberman's Gazette Office,

BAY CITY, April 29, 1879.

The general condition of the market has not greatly changed from last week, there being a want of sufficient activity to make things interesting to sellers. It is evident that buyers have expectations which are not likely to be realized. There has been more inquiry for stock, and a fair number of sales, but they are not equal to what was expected from the low condition of the Eastern supply. Buyers are waiting to see what the log supply will be, and have been expecting lower prices on account of the supposed excess, but it is apparent from the state of the drives that their anticipations will not be realized. The northwestern mills are going to be short of logs, and if not idle the cost of their activity will prevent unfavorable competition. It seems likely, therefore, that prices for Michigan lumber will be fairly maintained.

Among the sales reported are 2,250,000 feet by Rust, Eaton & Co., Milwaukee, to Ohio and New York parties, most of which brought $5.50, $11 and $26; Rust & Hay, of Bay City, 1,000,000 feet at $5.50, $11 and $26, to New York parties; T. Jerome & Co., Saginaw, 200,000 feet to New Jersey parties at $5.75, $11.75 and $26; Gates & Fay, Bay City, 300,000 at $5.50, $11.50 and $26; same firm a lot at $6, $11.50 and $26, and a lot of narrow stuff at $5.50, $10.50 and $25; 1,000,000 feet to Tonawanda parties at $5.25, $10.50 and $11. One or two choice lots have been sold at $6 and $12. Several other sales have been made, but these will serve to show the drift of the market.

Shipments.—The backwardness of the season of navigation has had its influence on the market. A comparison of the shipments with those of last year will show how tardy the shipping season has been:

A serious calamity, a repetition of the forest fires of 1871, threatened Northern Michigan last week. Fire was communicated to the pine woods north of Farwell, Clare county, and for a time it looked as though a wide-spread conflagration would result. The woods being full of pine brush and tree tops, the fire gained great force, the flames leaping above the tree tops. Four lumber camps were burned and some logs scattered through the woods were destroyed, but no large amount. A large tract was burnt over and a good deal of standing timber damaged. Fortunately a shower of rain interfered Thursday night and the destruction was stopped and further danger prevented.

The following from the Lumberman and Manufacturer:

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., April 24, 1879.

Clear dry weather is bringing the bottoms of our Western rivers nearer the top, day by day, and lessening the prospect of securing the log crop. In a few favored localities, in Central Wisconsin, a little log driving was done on the smaller streams, but the great bulk of the logs are on the landings on all of the streams, and will remain there until there is a rise in the rivers.

The weather, which has been so unfavorable for loggers, has been the reverse for lumber dealers, the trade indicating that building operations have fairly commenced. Shipments at reported points are considerably in advance of last year's trade. Prices on lower grades of lumber are weak at about the figures of a year ago. The upper grades are scarce, and many dealers are ransacking the country to find uppers to "sort up" their stocks with, in order to hold the trade. This has cut off all disposition to shade prices on these goods. We hear of several large purchases of uppers, by leading wholesale houses from railway mills. The larger number of the mills in the Northwest are now running on old logs, but must shut down soon, unless there is a change in the situation.

The great railway fight in progress, doubtless, has much to do with the low prices of lumber, and will operate to keep them down, but no concessions possible on the part of the lumbermen will enable anyone outside of Chicago, Toledo and St. Louis to reach the Kansas and Nebraska business.

The trade of Chicago, up to May 1st, will reach in sales about 135,000,000 feet, while the receipts will foot up 65,048,000 feet. Cargo lumber is reported at $6.00@6.50 for green piece stuff. In the yards there is no price on lumber, which everyone is selling at whatever prices he can get offered. The stocks carried over are certainly not bringing the Chicago operators more than a new dollar for an old one, and it is doubtful if they secure that much. Give the West plenty of water, and they will not do it, sure.

The Lumberman and Manufacturer has the following in regard to the drives:

The drives noted in our last on the Black and Wisconsin Rivers have not resulted in getting any new logs into the booms anywhere. About half a million of old logs have been worked out of the Black River booms, and the mill men at Eau Claire have gathered up logs enough to commence sawing, but there is no prospect of anything more being done until after serious and continued rains come. Nothing is being done at Beef Slough, and but little at Stillwater. We do not hear of any attempts at driving on the St. Croix or Upper Mississippi Rivers, although on the latter there are several lots of logs landed on the main river, where they can be driven almost certainly. No log sales are reported during the week, both buyers and sellers perferring to wait.

THE PROVINCES.

OTTAWA LUMBER TRADE.

A despatch from Ottawa says that lumber freights will open up at the following rates for the ensuing year: To Montreal, 90 cents per 1,000 feet; to Quebec, $1.60 do.; to Burlington, $1.60 do.; to Whitehall, $1.75 do.; to Albany, $2.75 do.; to New York, $3.00 do. This shows a reduction of about 25 per cent. between Ottawa and Quebec, Burlington and Whitehall. The through rates to New York are the same as last year. The trade to Quebec does not look very promising for the coming year; Burlington is more hopeful. There is a better demand, but without any advance in prices. Whitehall prospects are much encouraged by the chances of a new railway outlet to the Eastern market, which will be opened in June. This will place that city on as good a basis as Burlington, as a distributing point for dressed lumber. The New York and Albany trade is in a fair condition, although very few buyers have been here from that section lately; they are holding off for the present to see what Michigan does. The bulk of the Ottawa lumber for the New York trade passed into second hands last Fall, and to this, in a measure, may be attributed the lack of enquiries for lumber. The stock of shipping lumber wintered in Ottawa has been purchased principally by the Export Lumber Company of New York, and Messrs. Watrous & Willson of the same place. It is expected that some contracts will be made for this year's cut at last year's price. A large amount of the lumber hertofore carried by American boats from Ottawa will be this year freighted by Canadian barges to Whitehall and reshipped there for New York in American boats. These barges purpose taking return freight in coal.

FOREIGN.

Mail advices from Rio Janeiro (A. C. Nathan & Co.) at hand this week report:

Pitch Pine Deals.—As anticipated in our last our dealers have taken advantage of the considerable shipments and each arriving cargo had to be sold at a lower price than the preceding one.

The arrivals have been 286,293 feet per E. M. Gregory, sold at 39$000; 247,243 feet per Tarpeian, sold at 37$500; 381,000 feet per Belle, on order; 209,552 feet per Jessica, sold at 37$000; 369,993 feet per Mendota, not yet sold. There are three more cargoes daily expected, and after they are disposed of some recovery in prices may set in, provided no fresh advices of heavy shipments reach us.

White Pine Lumber.—The arrivals during the month consist of 89,797 feet per A. J. Bonner, sold at 90 rs.; 87,291 feet per Shetland, sold at 92 rs.; 171,927 feet per John Sherwood, sold at 100 rs., the market closing firm at 100 reis, and if shipments remain moderate a further advance may be looked for, though we do not think that the high prices which ruled a few months ago will be reached again for some time.

NAILS.—There is no increase of demand from any source at the moment, and in some cases there appears to be a falling off, business having quite an irregular tone. On prices theformer rates are quoted, ut figures should be accepted as more or less nominal, in view of recent developements, which tend to show that list rates are constantly undergoing a "cut" when any large quantity of stock can be moved. We quote, 10d. to 60d., common fence and sheathing per keg, $2.25; 8d. and 9d., common do. per keg, $2.40, 6d. and 7d., common per keg, $2.65; 4d. and 5d., common do. per keg, $2.90; 3d. and 4d., light, per keg, $3.65; 3d., fine, per keg, $4.40; 2d., per keg, $4.40.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $2.30. Floor casing and box, 75c. above the same sizes of common. Finishing, $1 above and fine finishing $1.25 above.

CLINCH NAILS.

1¾ to 1¼in.	2 & 2¼in.	2½ & 2¾ in.	3 in. & longer
$5.00	$4.50	$4.25	$4.00 per keg.

OILS.—Demand has at times been very good, but seldom if ever in excess of the supply, and holders have made no great effort to force fuller rates on large parcels. In a jobbing way the ordinary call prevails with a fair disposition to steadiness on values. We quote linseed oil, 59@62c. ₰ gallon; lard, 49@51c. for winter; 45@48c. for No. 1, and 42@44c. for No. 2; crude cotton seed, 35@37c., and refined summer yellow, do., 42@44c.

PAINTS.—In common with all other markets there is a portion of the dealers who are by no means satisfied with the condition of business. Either their expectations were too extravagant respecting the amount of goods to be called for this spring, or they have attempted a little too much on prices, and disappointment induces grumbling. A great many jobbers however seem to feel that matters are in as good shape as could be expected, and by following the policy of giving heed to all bids showing a full limit manage to work out quite a good aggregate of stock. In nearly all cases assortments are fair, and a selection can be made without much difficulty, but importers have manage stocks with some caution, it is said, and escaped the burden of a heavy surplus accummulation. There is little or no speculative feeling on any grade.

PITCH.—Only about the ordinary trade doing, the movement being confined in the main to small and unimportant jobbing orders. There is stock enough to meet all calls, and prices rule easy. We quote at $1.75@2.00 per bbl. for City, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—The market has continued somewhat unsettled, but on the whole without much strength, and further slight concessions were made before sales could be consummated. Buyers very generally refused to operate except on the compulsion of actual necessity. As this report is closed the quotations stand at about 30@32c. per gallon, according to quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—Business has been moderately active and uncertain, with buyers seldom handling any large quantity. Offerings quite fair as compared with the outlet, and available at about former rates, or a shade easier. We quote at $1.40@1.75 per bbl. for Newberne and Washington, and $1.60@1.87 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.

CONVEYANCES.

GENTS—The Perforated Opera Chairs put in my Brooklyn Music Hall have proved a great success. They not only furnish the hall in a very attractive style, but for comfort and convenience they are far superior to any upholstered seat I have ever seen. We have the best audiences that Brooklyn can produce, and as yet I have heard nothing but the highest commendation of our seat. Yours very truly,

THE ONE PRICE SYSTEM IN REAL ESTATE.

The late A. T. Stewart is entitled to the credit of having instituted a practical and lasting reform in the retail dry goods business, in making the asking and taking prices exactly coincide.

The question is frequently agitated and is a fairly debatable one, whether the one price system can be applied to transactions in real estate. If there is one reproach which sits more heavily upon the neck of real estate interests than another, it is the wide divergence which often exists between the asking and taking prices together with the looseness and uncertainty which, in consequence, are apt to characterize real estate transactions. These features and others which we will not now allude to, have imparted to the real estate market a character and reputation which are fitly defined in the term "jockeying." If any business admits of being conducted on a fair and square, open and above board basis, it would seem that real estate was the one most naturally and pre-eminently fitted for it. The absence of exact standards of valuation, however, causes the comparison to be instituted between the real estate market and the horse market. To the minds of many jockeying or trading in horses is supposed to possess many striking analogies to transactions in real estate.

These aspersions upon the real estate market, we regret to say, are not wholly unfounded. We wish it could be truthfully averred that no provocation exists for them. The truth of the matter is, in reference to some species of real estate, fixed and reliable scales of values do exist; while with reference to others, no such invariable standards may be claimed; this difference and distinction may be founded in the nature of things, or may be under the easy control of individual dealers. We prefer to take the latter view, and under this impression are prepared to urge the adoption by builders particularly, and by dealers generally, of the one price system, meaning thereby an honest and fair price. We have no expectation of being able to effect any vital reforms in real estate practice without long and patient effort. Among the many wholesome and beneficial measures which we have had occasion to recommend, we believe the one we are now suggesting to be the most comprehensive and far reaching; capable of conferring incalculable benefit upon buyers and sellers alike.

Eligible and improvable vacant lots are and have been from time immemorial the solitary one price article in the market. In respect to these, there is little or no room for bargaining. So deeply imprinted upon the minds of the real estate public is the doctrine of the progressive value of choice vacant property that owners have always been remarkable for holding it with uncompromising firmness. In bargaining with them the proposed purchaser often finds to his chagrin that while they rarely lower, they may sometimes advance their asking prices. It is considered a safe rule, and one generally observed, to accept the first terms offered by lot owners as likely to be the most favorable that negotiation will develop, provided, of course, they are reasonable and fair. The business of selling choice vacant lots, in ordinary times, resolves itself merely into asking fixed and current prices for them. If exorbitant and unwarranted prices are asked they are simply allowed to remain in the hands of the holders. Fortunately, or unfortunately for the city, there are many holders who are able to carry their properties indefinitely without any likelihood of incurring serious embarrassment.

Speculative vacant lots are commonly disposed of at auction, so that no criticism need be passed upon the methods of dealing in such property; although as between the views of speculators themselves there is often a wide margin for the display of jockeying tactics.

In the department of improved property we would naturally look for illustrations of consistency in valuations. Of all owners of real estate the builder should be able most easily to define the cost and value of his productions, as he is in practice the one most ready to sell at fair prices. In this department, however, the one price system prevails only as an exception, the universal rule being to ask one price and accept a much lower one when it is offered. The house-buying public have been trained to expect such substantial reductions as to interfere with the free and ready marketing of property. It is a frequent criticism upon this subject that it is impossible to deal in real estate at fixed prices; that a margin must be allowed in transactions for the play of negotiation; that to establish an arbitrary and inflexible price would repel negotiations and defeat the sale of property.

We are unwilling to believe that the machinery of real estate negotiation is so sensitive or so easily clogged.

The recognition of two prices is a tacit admission of unfairness, duplicity or actual dishonesty. We believe that the time is fast approaching when our leading builders will find little difficulty in establishing list prices for their properties, little if anything in excess of the prices which they are prepared to accept. Such action on their part will tend to re-establish and confirm the confidence of the public in the building business, will impart a much needed stability to the views of buyers and will infuse a degree of wholesome moral courage into negotiations. The upward tendency in prices, which has been developed by the activity of the present season, offers a fitting opportunity for builders to inaugurate this desirable reform in their business. Instead of jumping wildly at and asking unattainable prices, let them follow the advance cautiously and discreetly, and let the merit of the property they offer agree so precisely with the price asked as to leave no room for uncertainty in the mind of the buyer. Many transactions which were impossible on a fluctuating and shifting basis might be easily and satisfactorily negotiated when prices are firmly and fairly established.

THE TYRANNY OF TENANTS.

From time without date we have been accustomed to hear of the enormities and extortions of landlords. But as in every question or controversy there are two sides, so there are in this case. Few landlords in this city there are but have been made to feel and to wince under the peculiar tyranny of tenants. For five years last past the ownership of real estate has been anything but a boon. With excessive and increasing taxes, absorbing as they now do, 40 to 50 per cent. of rental income, with only a faint prospect of any amelioration of this condition, the landlord has become an object of real commiseration. If he meets what is termed a first-class tenant for his property, he is confronted at the outset by a claim for a large reduction of rent on account of superior solvency. After this important element has been properly allowed for, the wealthy or careful or highly respectable tenant, as he may call himself, proceeds to require the entire surplus of rent above interest and tax charges to be expended for embellishments of the property. In addition to these extremely reasonable demands, whether granted or not, and after a lease has been entered upon, the landlord may expect an exhaustless and unremitting stream of fault-finding criticism and abuse, enough at all events to try the patience and forbearance of the best constituted nature. On the other hand, if the landlord is tempted, for the sake of a larger rent, to take up with a less solvent, careful or respectable tenant, then his troubles are of a more complex character. Solicitude about his income is supplemented and sometimes overborne by a continual worry and apprehension about the preservation and maintenance of his property. Wilful or accidental injury to the fixtures and appointment of the premises must be promptly and uncomplainingly repaired. It is no uncommon circumstance for rented premises to bring the landlord seriously in debt, especially where there is continued default in the payment of rent and where the exactions for repairs are imperative and incessant. A class of fashionable tenants is going about looking for private residences who eclipse all predecessors in the novelty and extent of their demands. Because their wealthy friends are able to purchase elaborately finished mansions and fit them up to suit their taste, these upstart tenants aspire to the enjoyment of similar elegances but at some otherbody's expense. They expect and require, as the condition precedent to letting, that the landlord shall furnish massive and expensive gas fixtures and a full complement of consoles, pier mirrors, mantel and hall mirrors. It is a ground of serious objection with such parties if houses are not artistically frescoed; and not few, but many applying tenants, are persistent in their demand that houses shall be elaborately papered and otherwise highly embellished. Then, when the time for the expiration of the lease draws near, a new class of annoyances is apt to beset the owner of the property. Although the lease may stipulate that the tenant is to grant admission to new applicants to examine the premises, it is almost the invariable rule, when tenants in possession desire to effect a new lease that they will seek to damn the property with faint praise, to point out objections, and to pass unfriendly criticisms upon the landlord, and also to depreciate the value of the property and suggest that less than the asking price will be cheerfully taken. In these ways the effort is made to defeat the purpose of the landlord to secure a new tenant, and thus leave him completely at the mercy of the old one. As a partial remedy for all these evils, and as a corrective for the over-bearing tyranny of tenants, we offer these few simple suggestions:

In the first place, the landlord should be willing and ready to put his house in good, tenantable order. He should then offer it to let at a reasonable rent, and adhere to it with unswerving firmness. After securing a tenant to his mind, he should see that the articles of agreement entered into between them should fully cover all his rights in the premises. Leading experts in the business of renting houses have realized by costly experience the importance of properly framing the articles of lease. The usual printed forms such as are sold at the law stationers are apt to be fast and loose documents which resemble a sieve in its capacity for holding water. The renting of property is not a charitable or philanthropic business; it is strictly a matter of bargain in which the rights of either party should be plainly recognized. With a lease intelligently and carefully prepared, the landlord's office and rights and the tenant's duties and obligations, should be as well defined as those of vendor and vendee usually are in a contract of sale.

LEGAL DECISIONS.

The case of Van Amburgh vs. Kramer, lately decided by the Supreme Court, is one of importance to real estate dealers. The facts are, that one Richards and wife executed and delivered to one Lobenstein a bond and mortgage; a day or two thereafter Lobenstein duly re-assigned the mortgage to Mrs. Richards. Richards and wife then sold the property to one Pleuss, subject only to a mortgage other and different from the one above mentioned, and in and by the deed of conveyance, the said Richards (husband and wife), the grantors, conveyed all their estate, right, title, interest, dower and right of dower, property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, as well in law as in equity.

Notwithstanding this conveyance, Mrs. Richards subsequently assigned the mortgage first above mentioned to the plaintiff, who commenced an action to foreclose the same.

The Court hold that Mrs. Richards, by joining with her husband in the deed, did not release the land and premises from the lien of the mortgage owned by her, and that she had full power and authority in law, notwithstanding the deed in question, to sell and assign the mortgage to the plaintiff.

The same court hold, in the case of Wade vs. Malloy, that a life tenant of an estate in lands is bound to pay the interest on any incumbrance on the land, and to keep down the charges thereon, and to preserve the estate from loss and forfeiture, and in case such life tenant fails so to do, and permits a mortgage on the land to be foreclosed for non-payment of interest, and the property sold, the remainder—man or owner of the fee, can maintain an action against the life tenant to recover the damages sustained by such neglect.

In Loomis vs. Balheimer the same court decides that where a grantee in a deed as part consideration money assumes and agrees to pay a pre-existing mortgage on the land conveyed to him, the grantor or original mortgagor has the right, when the mortgage becomes due by its terms, through the default of such grantee to pay taxes, interest or an installment of the principal sum, as well as in the case where the whole of the principal sum is due, to request and demand of the holder of the mortgage that he foreclose the same. In case the holder refuses or neglects to do so the mortgagor is not liable for any deficiency judgment where the property, which is the primary fund for the payment of the mortgage, has depreciated in value, or the covenantee or grantee of the premises, since the notification or request to foreclose, has become pecuniarily embarrassed.

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—The market for Common Hards continues without changes of a radical character, though the tendency is toward greater strength. Supplies have been fair, rather larger if anything, but with the more favorable weather there is a corresponding increase of consumption and the offering sells out pretty rapidly, leaving little or nothing afloat to carry over. There is yet no addition to cargo rates, which, on top figures, may still be placed at $5 per M. for "Up-Rivers," and $5.50 do Haverstraws, but sellers seem to feel hopeful that the market may work a little higher. Old stocks at primary points have sold down fairly, the "combination," as before noted, has thus far proven harmonious and managed to regulate the supply, the outlet and the new crop is likely to be backward. With very few exceptions, the production only commences this week, at every yard there was a short gang, owing to the scarcity of laborers, and already rumors are current of an impending strike. As an offset, however, it may be noted that in view of competition among contractors and the very close figuring on estimates, there is only a bare margin at ruling prices, and even a fractional addition to cost may have an influence to check demand. Pale Brick continue unsettled and without the showing of much tone. About $2@2.50 per M. continue to be quoted, but only the best quality would command the outside figure. Fronts of all kinds are in about the average demand and ruling steady with indications of a good full consumption of fine stock during the season.

We quote Pale, per M, $2.00@2.50; Hards, Up-Rivers, $4.50@5; Haverstraw bay, $5.12½@5.50; favorite brands, $6.00; Fronts, Croton—Brown, $7.00@8.00; dark, $8.00@9.00; red, $9.00@9.50; Philadelphia, $26@28; Trenton, $24@29; Baltimore, $34@38. Yard prices, delivery included, $2.00@3.00 higher on ordinary and $5.00@6.00 on fronts.

HARDWARE.—Taken in the aggregate, the movement has been very fair. A considerable amount of the stock going out is to fill orders on foreign account, but there is a good fair proportion on the regular run of home orders, with incidental sales on travelers' memorandums, and direct to buyers who are becoming somewhat more plenty on the market. Nearby interior points are calling for a larger amount of stock, including a goodly proportion of builders' hardware and with the local consumption full, the regular outlets are now all very well represented. Since our last, we learn of no new hardware lists worthy of note. Prices in pretty much all cases appear to be very well sustained and as a whole the market rules steady and uniform. Supplies of all kinds are ample. The manufacturers of cordage have issued a new list, showing an advance of ½c. The following are the revised figures: Manila cordage, sizes above 12 thread and hay and hide rope, 11¾c.; do do, 12 thread (⅝ in. diam.), 12½c.; do do, 6 thread and 9 thread (¼ in. and 5-16 in. diam.), 12¾c.; Manila cordage, bolt rope yarns, 13¼c.; do do, do 6 thread and 9 thread, 14¼c.; Manila whale lines, 13¼c.; tarred Manila, 11¼c.; fine tarred Manila lath yarn, 12¾c.; Sisal rope, sizes above 12 thread and hay and hide rope, 9¾c.; do 12 thread (⅝ in. diam.), 10¼c.; do 6 thread and 9 thread (¼ in. and 5-16 in. diam.), 10¾c.; tarred Sisal lath yarn, 9¼c.; navy oakum, 7¼c.; U. S. navy oakum, 8¼c.; best oakum, 9¼c.

LATH.—There has been no decided increase of the demand, and the average buyer continues in a more or less cautious mood, but through lighter offerings the market gained strength. Receivers found fewer cargoes pressing upon them and were enabled to hold the offering in check, and the buyers who looked for stock found that bids at last week's figures did not meet with a response. As a rule the inclination is still against paying above $1.30, but most of the limits are at $1.35 per M. for the best cargoes, with no special effort made to realize.

LIME.—The general market continues somewhat unsettled, but on the whole rather in buyers' favor. The arrivals from the Eastward were not unusually large, and no serious accumulation took place, but receivers found the demand slow and unsatisfactory and were compelled to shade somewhat further on Common in order to make sales, the rate dropping to 70c. per bbl. Finishing without reported change, but the market to some extent nominal. State Lime is also dragging and 60c. about all that can be depended upon for common. Supplies ample.

LUMBER.—Operations upon our lumber market do not vary much in volume or form, and we are at a loss for any positively new features Stock is moving, and the volume tends to increase somewhat, with the indications still pointing to a comparatively liberal consumption and shipment as the season progresses, but business lacks snap and spirit to accord with the ideas of many of the Trade. The slow, methodical basis upon which the great majority of buyers now conduct operations, is of itself sufficient to prevent advantage being taken of even large wants, while the quiet but none the less strong competition on nearly all the leading grades acts as a still further influence against sudden or important addition to values. There appears to be a feeling that the market will remain in much the same position all summer unless some unforeseen and unusual disturbing element should be introduced. Several agents from the mills and other primary points who have been here endeavoring to place stock at figures, gauged upon the assumption that the prospect of an increased out-go would stimulate dealers ideas, seem to have discovered their error, so far as the present is concerned at least, and have either withdrawn to await developments or granted concessions in order to close contracts. A few of our dealers expect a fair call from domestic shipping orders, and the export trade promises very well.

Eastern Spruce finds sale with greater or less ease, according to the size and quality of cargo. For a moderate sized load of good attractive lengths we think there is a somewhat better chance on the general market than heretofore, but only a few dealers are willing to handle large cargoes even when containing a liberal proportion of desirable stuff, while poor and inferior loads are neglected. Some of the latter under forced sales went as low as $8.00 per M this spring, and it required a considerable effort to find customers even at that. Good fair randoms are not now worth above $10.00, fine about $11.00, and it would be a very difficult special to command above $12.00 per M. We quote at $10.00@11.00 for random, possibly $11.25@11.50 for choice lengths in small car goes and $12.00@13.00 for specials, the extreme for extra difficult.

White Pine remains about steady, and especially so on shipping grades. The demand for export has probably not increased to any extent, but the accumulation of stock suited to the foreign outlet is small, and as this class of lumber is likely to feel the influence of any delay in the shipment from the interior holders are encouraged to insist upon pretty full figures. About the ordinary home call prevails, and mostly based on the immediate wants of buyers. We quote at $14.25@15.00 per M. for West India shipping boards; $19.50@21 for South American do.; $14@15 for box boards; $16@17 for do. wide and sound; and timber to order at $38@50 per M.

Yellow Pine is meeting with about the ordinary demand on local account, and there seems to be enough stock available to satisfy all calls at the moment. Agents also continue to secure a fair number of orders for shipment direct from primary points, and on about a basis of former cost. Generally, the tone is steady, and the talk of sellers is of higher prices. We quote random cargoes at about $18@22 per M.; ordered cargoes $22@24 do.; green flooring boards, $20@21 do., and dry do. do. $20@23. Cargoes at the South $13@14.50 per M.; hewed timber $7.50@14.

Hardwoods have found a fairly active demand and nearly or quite all sellers seem well satisfied with the condition of the market. Supplies here are small and well in hand, no heavy additions may be expected from the interior, and the demand for both consumption and shipment promises to keep up to a good average. We quote at wholesale rates by car load about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do; oak, $35@40 do; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do., culls, $18@20 do; cherry, $45@75 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch, $25@27.50, and do. inch $32@35 do; hickory, $35@45 do. for Western, and $65@75 for good nearby stock.

At the yards, business is fair to good, according to assortments offering, and in a general way prices remain steady. Dealers, however, vary their cost to suit circumstances and there also seems to be a wider discrepancy than usual in the manner of grading stock.

From among the lumber charters recently reported we select the following:

A brig, 341 tons, hence to Matanzas, empty hogsheads, 70c.; a barque, 550 tons, same voyage, shooks and heads, 16c., and empty hogsheads 70c.; a brig, 392 tons, from north side Cuba to port north of Hatteras, sugar, $3.50; a Br. brig, 341 tons, from Bridgewater to Barbadoes and a market, lumber, $6; a Br. brig, 193 tons, from Bridgewater, N. GENERAL LUMBER NOTES.

STATE.

ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

The Argus reports for the week ending May 6, 1879:

Trade in the district which has been hindered by the freshet is again resumed. This morning several barges were taking on cargoes, and the presence of local buyers since the subsidence of the water and near approach of canal navigation has imparted considerable activity to the trade. Though no change is to be noted in the value of pine lumber the knowledge that stocks at New York and the East are light has kept prices firm. The backwardness of the season, full one month later than last year, has to that extent shortened up the season's sawing and new stock. Some receivers look for no change in prices of pine lumber until after July, when a steady advance is calculated on.

Coarse lumber has been freely shipped since the opening of river navigation and for this product, the trade, thus early in the season, has never been so good. Stocks of both spruce and hemlock of the better kinds are fair. At the Northern mills the stock of dry lumber is nominal; the mills will not commence sawing until to-day or to-morrow. Prices are unchanged and steadily held.

The receipts at Buffalo for the week ending May 5th were 58 car loads.

A Saginaw paper reports a sale of 600,000 shingles at $2.50.

A sale at Muskegon of 550,000 feet of dry selected strips at $19.50, to arrive.

Freights from Bay City to Tonawanda are placed at $1.50 ℔ M feet; from Buffalo to Albany they will probably open at $2.00; from Oswego to Albany, $1.60. Lake Ontario freights to Oswego, 60c.

The Tonawanda Herald reports the following:

THE WEST.

Special correspondence of the REAL ESTATE RECORD.

CHICAGO, May 7, 1879.

Our market for lumber afloat opened exceedingly weak this season, and its condition has not since improved. The demand all along has been anything but active, and though, of course, all the lumber has been sold it has not been placed upon terms which give much satisfaction to consignors. To-day, piece stuff is selling at $6.00@$6.25 for standard green, the latter figure being realized only for the best Manistee stock. Green boards and strips range from $7.50 to $9 and dry from $8 to $12 per thousand. Standard shingles are worth $1.50@1.60. Lath are quoted at $1.15@1 20. Prices are firmest on the better grades of dry boards and strips; choice cargoes of this sort of stock are very readily sold and command relatively better figures than anything else offered. Dimension lumber in fair demand but can only be disposed of at very low prices. Shingles are dull and weak, their market value having declined ten per cent. or more since the opening.

For a week or more past the offerings at the cargo docks have been very light. Many holders across the Lake refuse outright to sell at the figures now current, and others are holding off hoping for a favorable turn in the market in the course of a few weeks, which makes the receipts just at present smaller than usual. This will not last, however, as the mills will soon begin shipping lumber of this season's cut which will give our commission men all the business they want—and perhaps more. There are no buyers in from the country yet, to speak of, the business transacted up to this date having been done mainly with the city dealers, who, at present, are buying only what they need for the immediate requirements of their trade. The fleet expected in next week, it is thought, will not prove a very large one, so that it is safe to say that no material change will occur in prices. The supply will probably be less than the demand, If anything, but buyers are not certain enough as to the value of lumber to pay even the slightest advance.

At the yards business is only fair. Fresh orders from the country come in very slowly, and the present shipmen's are chiefly made on bills received some time ago. For some reason it has been very difficult to obtain cars during the past few weeks, and, in consequence, the movement of lumber to the country has been very much delayed. Freight accommodations are to be had in abundance now, however, and doubtless in a week or two all the back business will be cleared up.

The present dulness is easily accounted for; for besides the fact that farmers in the country are busy with their spring work, the operations of our dealers are hindered by a competition between the western railroads which cuts off all trade from beyond the Mississippi. The tariff from Chicago to the Missouri River now is 15 cents per hundred pounds, against a 5 cent rate from St. Louis and Hannibal; the result is the Kansas and Missouri buyers send their orders to Mississippi points. As many of these bills would otherwise have come here, this causes a marked deduction in the volume of trade in this market. That the difference of 10 cents in the rates from Chicago and the Mississippi is practically prohibitory to our dealers, is evidenced by the fact that a number of Chicago concerns that have branch yards at western points are compelled to buy lumber, to stock them, of their river competitors, because they cannot afford to send it from here.

This interference with the natural course of trade, coupled with the weakness at the cargo docks, as might be expected, produces the extreme of demoralization in prices. They are very much unsettled, and it is in fact impossible to quote them with any sort of accuracy. Common stuff is held at $10@10.50 and dry dimension at $8.50@9; but it is altogether likely that variations from these figures are frequently made.

There is no pretense made to uniformity, each one fixing prices to suit himself—or more often, perhaps his customer, at all events the latter is the one most generally suited in a bargain.

SAGINAW VALLEY.

Lumberman's Gazette Office,

BAY CITY, May 6, 1879.

The market is in a decidedly backward condition, not only on account of the lateness of the opening of navigation, but because sellers are coy and buyers bashful. They do not seem to get together with any degree of warmth, and the nuptials tarry. At this time last year, nearly all the desirable stocks on the river had been disposed of, now they have hardly been touched. And this in spite of the well known fact that Eastern stocks are low. There is no doubt that stocks in the Eastern yards are greatly broken and need assorting badly. All accounts agree that building operations in all parts of the country have received a grand impetus from the general tone of improvement in business. Just why the market is in the present condition is difficult to determine, but it is probably owing to the desire of dealers to work off their old stock, which they deem important in view of an expected decline in prices. They are waiting to see what the effect of the large log crop is to be, and until the market settles into something definite. The mills have not all started yet, but the logs are beginning to come, and they will be at it soon. Then they will be more desirous of selling in order to get piling room, and buyers hope to do better. Although there is a paucity in the number of sales reported, lumber is continually going forward, which leads to the conclusion that sellers are not willing to report prices. Sales are reported at $5.50, $11 and $25; $6, $11.50 and $26, and $5, $10.50 and $26, which shows the range of the market. Shingles have been in active request. Sales have been made at prices ranging from $2.20 to $2.50 for XXX and $1.35 to $1.50 for clear buts.

The movement of forest products from the river in the month of April in the years named shows as follows:

	1878.	1879.
Lumber, feet	49,308,000	18,115,447
Lath, pieces	3,445,000	375,000
Shingles	15,050,000	8,573,000

Lake freight remain unchanged.

We quote cargoes rates:

Three upper qualities	$25 00@27 00
Common	10 00@11 00
Shipping culls	5 00@ 6 00
Lath	1 25@ 1 30
Shingles	1 40@ 2 40

The following from the Lumberman and Manufacturer:

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., May 1, 1879.

THE WATERS.—The Chippewa river is so low that no lumber can be run from the Eau Claire. The dams are all closed down, and what little water would naturally flow is shut off

The St. Croix had a little rise of eight inches during the week, but nothing to help out any logs. Reports show that, while there is a fair head of water on some of the many dams on the streams, there is a very poor prospect for driving out any logs until after heavy rains have fallen.

From the Wisconsin we learn that the water is still very low, but many of the mills have got started, and the loggers at work with a will to secure the crops.

A rumer prevails that the drivers at work last week on the Black have suspended operations until they can have more water.

From the Wolf we hear that driving matters are about at a stand still. The cold weather and lack of rain is the cause of it. The early part of the week the upper river and the smaller tributaries were still ice bound. Some of the dams have a good head of water, but in the present state of things it would not bring down the logs. Men up river are at work repairing dams.

The Menominee drive is claimed to be certain, with the immense improvements made on the river, especially on the Brule and Paint branches.

Unfortunately all reports concur in showing that the bulk of all the logs on the lower peninsular of Michigan are sure to come out this season.

For the upper Mississippi, some of the boys are insisting that several of the logging dams have been buried, down to the foundation, and while we cannot vouch for such a fact, we believe that they could come as near it at this time as any period within the memory of the oldest logger. Still many are hopeful, but none confident, that the drives will come in.

The Au Gres drive is at the booms and a large share of all the mills in the State are at word.

THE MARKETS.—There is good demand for lumber at all the markets in the valley, and sales at all reported points are in excess of the business of 1878 at the present very low figures. The cut rates on freights have stimulated trade at the lower markets, and cut off all shipments on the north and south lines below central Ohio. Such points as Minneapolis cannot now reach the Missouri valley trade, nor can the mills of central Wisconsin, by any concessions they are able to make on prices.

As a singular item in the trade we note that a large sale of lumber was made last week at Ashland, to be shipped to Grand Rapids, Mich., from which the Chicago market is being in part supplied. The terms were private.

The immense emigration to the West is taking off lumber as fast as Minneapolis and Stillwater, and other northern points, can get cars to ship it. Great complaints are made of a want of cars, particularly on the St. Paul & Pacific line.

METALS.—COPPER—Ingot meets with about the usual demand on home account, and buyers will not allow themselves to be in any way hurried into operating beyond early wants. There has, however, been some movement on export account and with the reduced stock holders are firm with 16c. an inside figure on Lake. Manufactured Copper remains steady at former prices and finds a pretty good sale, as a rule. We quote about as follows: Brazier's Copper, ordinary size over 16 oz. per sq. foot, 24c. per lb.; do. do. do., 16 oz. and over 12 oz., per sq. foot, 26c. per lb.; do. do., 10 and 12 oz. per sq. foot, 28c. per lb.; do., do., lighter than 10 oz. per sq. foot, 30c. per lb.; circles, less than 84 inches in diameter, 27c. per lb.; do. 84 inches in diameter and over, 30c. per lb.; segment and pattern sheets, 27c. per lb.; locomotive fire box sheets, 24c. per lb.; Sheathing Copper, over 12 oz. per sq. foot, 22c. per lb., and Bolt Copper 24c. per lb. IRON—Scotch Pig in small invoices continues to find a very fair sale and commands former figures on all grades, the tone ruling steady. We quote at $19.00@22.50 according to brand and quantity handled. American Pig has also been doing very well and at times was active on sales of small parcels, and this, with deliveries on previous contracts, keeps most of the furnaces busy. We quote at $17.50@19.00 for No. 1 per ton, $16.50@17.50 for No. 2, and $15.50@16.00 for Forge. Rails remain firm in price and are in very fair demand, a larger proportion of which is for iron rails than heretofore. Supplies available are not abundant. We quote at $33.00@36.00 for new iron, and $42 00@45.00 for steel, according to delivery. Old Rails $21.00@21.50 per ton; scrap, $23.50@24.50. Manufactured iron has found a very good sale of both sheet and bar and at about former rates, but the amount offering was quite liberal and the position entirely without buoyancy. Common merchant bar quoted in round lots at 1.7c., and Refined at 1.9c., but for ten-ton lots from store, 1.8c and 2c. are respectively asked. Common sheet, 2¾@2¾c., and best R. G. American, 3¾@4c. from store. LEAD—Domestic Pig has been selling very slowly notwithstanding a still further reduction in cost, and under continued full offerings prices remain weak and nominal. We quote at 2¾@3c. The manufactures of lead are lower and quoted : Bar 4¼c., Pipe 4½c. and Sheet 5½c.—less the usual discount to the trade; and Tin-lined Pipe 12c., Block Tin Pipe 30c., on same terms. TIN—Pig meets with quite a limited and uncertain demand, as a rule, and with some pressure to realize on large lots prices are weak at our figures. We quote at 17¾@17¾c. for Banca, 14½@14¾c. for Straits, 15@15½c. for English refined, and 14¾@15c. for do. common. Tin Plates have ruled easy in tone and shown no great amount of animation, the demand being confined in the main to the ordinary run of trade orders. Spelter has found a moderately active sale and only a barely steady market but, on the general range, quotations remain at about 4½@4¾c., according to quality. Sheet Zinc was in fair average demand and has ruled quite steady at 6¼@6½c. from store.

NAILS.—The inquiry continues rather moderate and buyers seldom show an inclination to handle anything likely to exceed their early wants. Stocks are ample and can be reached without much difficulty. The effort to give prices a showing of strength is repeated, but, on wholesale parcels it is conceded that buyers have the advantage. We quote at $2.25 per keg for 10 to 60d.

OILS.—An irregular market continues on the stocks in first hands and values are open to frequent fluctuations. Slight variations also occur in a jobbing way, but within the general range of former quotations. Supplies fair. We quote linseed oil at 58@61c. ₱ gallon from crushers' hands.

PAINTS.—Some expressions of dissatisfaction may still be heard on the general market, but as a rule, the standard grades and attractive qualities find a fair distributive outlet and are commanding former rates in a steady manner. A considerable amount of competition is current for whatever demand of magnitude there may be developed, and this prevents the development of any buoyancy.

PITCH.—Supplies have continued equal to every call made, and as a rule holders appeared well disposed to operate. There was not, however, any special effort to realize, and former rates were quite generally asked. We quote at $1.75@1.87½ per bbl. for city delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—A further reduction on cost was made, following our last report, and the market has since been quite unsettled. Holders endeavor to secure a reaction, but do not find a supporting demand, and it is difficult to infuse any positive strength into the market. As this report is closed the quotations stand at about 30@31½c. per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—Demand does not show much animation and is confined in the main to the ordinary run of orders from the regular trade. The stocks are full, offered with freedom, and values gain no strength on either the wholesale or jobbing market. We quote at $1.40@1.75 per bbl. for Newberne and Washington, and $1.60@1.87 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice. A new law (North Carolina) fixes the weight of Tar at 280 lb. to the barrel.

CONVEYANCES.

Wherever the letters Q. C. and C. a. G. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows: 1st—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed in which all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants or warranty.

2d—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed may be impeached, charged or incumbered.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BROWN STONE.—Messrs. Fitzgerald & Smith have just removed their Brown Stone Yard to commodious premises, running from Fifty-fourth street to Fifty-fifth street and between Avenue A and First avenue, where they will have far better facilities for accommodating their increasing business.

Leonard J. Carpenter, who, for the past eighteen years, has had his office at No. 26 Third avenue, Bible House, has removed to the Young Men's Christian Association Building, Nos. 56 and 58 East Twenty-third street. In addition to the sales department of his business, Mr. Carpenter makes a specialty of the renting and collecting of property belonging to estates and individuals, taking entire charge of the property, thus saving owners all the annoyances inseparable from a personal contact with tenants.

TAXATION OF MORTGAGES.

There is reason to apprehend that some owners of property and many non-owners friendly, however, to real estate interests, are laboring under a strange misconception with reference to the subject of the taxation of mortgages. Briefly stated, the view entertained by these persons is, that the holder of a mortgage should be taxed in order that the burden of taxation may be proportionately shared between him and the owner of the fee. This conception of the subject has found expression in the State Legislature, and has been embodied in bills which have been presented at various times notably during the present session, and the same thought crops out frequently in the daily papers and in private conversation.

It is especially desirable for property owners to acquire and cultivate clear and correct notions with regard to this subject of taxation. Legislative action upon it may be delayed, but is none the less certain in time to be taken. The property owner must first know his rights, and then seek to maintain them, and, above all, he should try to avoid confusing a subject that is naturally complicated and which has been more or less muddled—partly by intention, partly by mistakes of ignorance. The view which we are about to criticise comes in the latter category. Like most erroneous conceptions it admits of a plausible presentation, but, if enacted into a law, could not fail to injuriously affect the true interests of real estate. The objections to, as well as the injustice of, this proposition may be summarized in a single sentence, to wit: Taxation of mortgages is a tax upon the borrower, and as such, when real estate is taxed at all, becomes a double tax.

1st. It taxes the borrower.—A moment's reflection will satisfy persons least versed in matters of this kind of the truth of this proposition. Money is the highest expression of material wealth, and its possession the world over is recognized as a power. The possessor of it may allow it to lie idle in his vaults or in the bank, or may invest it according to the various opportunities which present themselves. Capital craves the twin conditions of security and income. As highly as sound real estate mortgages are esteemed in the community, it is obvious that if lenders upon this security are liable to the imposition of an uncertain tax rate, to be deducted from the rate of interest specified in the mortgage, they will either refuse entirely to invest their money in mortgage loans, or they will exact such an additional rate of interest as will cover their liability for the tax. If a mortgage loan is made at the prevailing rate of six per cent. liable to the payment of the present rate of taxation, to wit: two-and-one-half per cent., the lender would realize only three-and-a-half per cent. for his money with no certainty as to the permanence of this net result. As compared with governments at four per cent., bank, insurance and other corporation stocks paying from six to eight per cent. and sometimes ten, in every case free of tax, it will be seen how the real estate mortgage is made to suffer by comparison. Mortgages under specific taxation would cease to be sought after, or else capitalists accepting them would require a discount or bonus in order to indemnify them for this taxation, and thus the borrower would be involved at the start in a larger outlay than would be necessary if he had undertaken to pay the tax himself. At the present time the taxation of mortgages is nominal and exceptional, although obligatory upon the assessors under our present law. The hardship and injustice of this tax, however, have always restrained the assessors from ferretting out the holders of mortgages, although such information is the most accessible of any usually sought after by the tax department. Notwithstanding the practical and tacit exemption of mortgages, the mere dread of being sometimes caught deters the majority of capitalists from freely investing their funds in such securities, and the lending upon mortgage is monopolized to a great extent by institutions such as life insurance companies and savings banks, which are by law exempt from tax on their mortgages, and by non-residents who are not amenable to the tax laws of this State.

The suggestion of mortgage taxation usually comes from those who are struggling with heavy encumbrances upon their property. By such a method, however, relief is purely illusory. Such parties should stop to consider that if a specific tax is levied upon mortgages and determined steps taken to collect the tax, these mortgages will be called in immediately if past due, or certainly at their maturity, and the negotiation of new loans will involve the owner in heavy disbursements, and the once prevalent practices of discounts, bonuses, excessive fees, etc., would be immediately revived with all their viciousness and oppression. The lists of current mortgage loans illustrate the force of this argument. Though unknown to many and a surprise to a few, mortgage loans in considerable amounts have appeared upon record during the present season at a rate as low as five per cent., and for terms of three to five years. In nearly every case these loans were made by parties residing out of the State. What thus occurs exceptionally and for the benefit of a few, would be the universal rule in mortgage loans if the present vexatious and nugatory tax were actually repealed. The relief which mortgagors seek by the taxation of mortgages can only be obtained by the unqualified exemption of mortgage loans from any taxation. In that event resident capitalists would occupy an equal footing with monied institutions and non-resident lenders, and the competition between them to secure mortgage investments would establish the rate permanently at five or even four per cent. for the best loans.

2d. It is double taxation.—If the previous statement and reasoning are accepted, the conclusion is irresistible that the owner of mortgaged property is compelled to pay a double tax: First, the taxation upon his real estate, which is always assessed for a greater amount than can be borrowed on it and now generally for its full value; second, a tax levied upon the borrower by the lender to cover the liability of the latter for tax on the mortgage. This indirect taxation discriminates clearly against borrowers and in favor of the wealthy owner who is able to possess property free of any encumbrance. The latter enjoys the benefit of the full rental of his property with no deduction except for city taxes and repairs, while the owner of mortgaged property is obliged to pay out of his income, besides taxes and repairs, an excessive charge for interest, always more than is exacted from other borrowers and which includes a sufficient sum to cover a possible tax upon the mortgage. The proposition to permit the owner of mortgaged property to deduct the amount of the encumbrance from the assessed valuation is an injustice of a similar kind. In this case, however, the discrimination is against the owner of free and clear property and in favor of the owner of mortgaged property, thus offering a premium for property owners to encumber their estates and opening the door for schemes of improvidence and flagrant dishonesty.

The abolishment of the tax on mortgages will facilitate the negotiation of mortgage loans, a class of obligation principally incurred by builders. In fact, it may be said that builders are the only ones who are ever justified in accepting mortgage loans upon property. All citizens outside of the building trade should aim to possess their properties unencumbered, and should limit their investments in real estate to such amounts as they are able to pay for in cash. The much applauded but often fatal heroism of builders is largely displayed in the readiness with which they assume enormous obligations for the sake of building up the city and reaping the rewards of their calling. To be sure, these obligations grow out of the magnitude and unwieldiness of their undertakings, and are usually contracted for a period of one year only, and under the expectation that upon the sale of property a future purchaser will assume and will sooner or later pay off the encumbrance, and thus relieve the builder from his liability. Facility in incurring mortgage loans will largely promote activity in building, and be the means of furnishing cheap homes for citizens at large. The best interests of property owners and the true interests of city real estate lie together in the enactment of a law abolishing the taxation of mortgages.

BACK BUILDINGS.

Almost every city possesses its typical style or model of dwelling house. For instance, Boston is noted for its low fronts, Philadelphia for its back buildings, Baltimore for its angular and august piles of brick, and Washington for its cheap and dowdy palaces. New York is so thoroughly cosmopolitan that its architecture presents embodiments of mingled styles and isolated expressions of nearly every type of dwelling under the sun. The new residence of Mr. Mosle, on Fifty-first street, is said to furnish a perfect type of the Bremen mansion, while the massive house, just erected by Mr. Braem, on Thirty-sixth street, is a specimen of the pure Norseman style. In each of these cases the style no doubt was suggested by cherished associations of the gentlemen for whose comfort these houses are being erected. Messrs. Bronson & Winthrope, at the corner of Thirty-third street and Madison avenue, are producing, under the superintendence of Mr. Richard Hunt, a quaint specimen of the old English dwelling, originals of which these owners have doubtless studied in England. The residence of Mr. George Kemp, at Fifty sixth street and Fifth avenue, presents features of massiveness and solidity, highly suggestive of the north of Ireland type of character.

Importations of domestic styles and features in so great a variety gives to New York architecture a Mosaic or composite complexion. Much has been said of the uniformity and monotony of our residence quarters, and yet the scrutiny of skilled persons will detect not only a wonderful variety, but a bewildering exuberance of styles and models.

The particular feature which we purpose to criticise at present is the Philadelphia back building. In the translation of distinctive types difficulties are apt to arise from lack of adaptation. When we remember that Philadelphia squares are four hundred feet deep, with private lanes bisecting the blocks in their length, we will understand how conveniently a standard building lot in that city can accommodate a residence whose full depth, including the back building, varies from seventy-five to one hundred feet. The back building is the distinctive feature of Philadelphia dwellings, the exceptions being altogether rare and noticeable. The English basement or the high stoop basement and sub-cellar treatment are nearly unknown in that city.

The question arises, can we successfully and acceptably transplant this feature of a back building and accommodate it to our standard city lot? Are there advantages or drawbacks in the introduction of this back building on a lot whose full depth is only a hundred feet? Will it compensate for the entire occupation of the land and consequent loss of yard room?

We have heretofore expressed the belief that the addition of extensions or back buildings to houses of less width than twenty-five feet is altogether unwarrantable and injudicious. Their introduction in houses having a greater width than twenty-five feet may be successfully attempted, especially as in the case of Mr. Mosle's house on Fifty-first street, where an air space of twenty feet is allowed on one side of the house, running the full depth of the lot.

Builders are often confronted with the temptation to build extensions on twenty-five foot houses; and sometimes, when houses of this width are built without extensions, an occasional purchaser may undertake to add the extension of his own notion. If we will conceive of a row of twenty-five foot houses being built with extensions we will then realize the chief objections to this treatment. The only way extensions can be safely introduced is by attaching them to adjoining houses, the extensions being then built back to back. In this way a sufficient air space will be left on three sides, and unless the adjoining neighbors improve their lots in the same way the view, air and light will be nearly equal to those in houses without extensions. The fatal objection to back buildings is that they render the interior rooms in houses sunless, ill-ventilated and unserviceable. An examination of the early dwellings of the city furnishes the proof that our city lots were intended for improvement with buildings having a depth of about one-half the lot, say fifty feet, the remainder of the lot being designed for yard room or air space. In the newer portions of the city above Fifty-ninth street there are now to be seen dwellings built on the two faces of blocks, with yard rooms between, occupying nearly half the block. In the cases which we have in mind, the avenue fronts at either end of the blocks were subordinated and the lots made to face upon the street. In these examples there is a clear, open space between the rows of houses, unobstructed at any point and at either end, through which the air circulates with perfect freedom. There is no question that blocks improved in this manner present the maximum of healthfulness, and such houses are indeed the true and typical New York dwelling.

We are opposed to crowding on the standard city lot any more bricks and mortar than it is readily capable of holding, and we are also opposed to any proposition having in view the reduction of the standard measurement of our city lots. The full extent of one hundred feet is necessary for a convenient depth of building with serviceable yard room. The only reduction in size that the New York public are willing to tolerate is the contraction of the front width. Many houses are now being erected having a frontage of twelve and a half feet and a depth of fifty or sixty feet on lots which have the full depth of one hundred feet. These miniature dwellings seem to be more acceptable to the general public than any other form of economizing land and building materials.

Back buildings are usually attached to the residences of the wealthy, and indicate an attempt to extort from the area of the standard lot a greater service than it is capable of rendering. To make these houses agreeable and comfortable as homes, it is necessary that they should be constructed with consummate skill, such as few builders and architects possess, and amid surroundings that can rarely be commanded in a thickly settled city like New York. Free circulation of air and abundant flooding of sunlight are prime essentials of wholesome dwellings, for the loss or abridgment of which no interior or exterior effect or convenience can be said to compensate. The growing custom of attaching pantry extensions to dwellings is not a commendable one because of their disproportioned expense, unsightly obstructiveness and the unnecessary prominence thus given to a minor domestic office which can be easily planned within the solid lines of a dwelling.

LEGAL DECISIONS.

A. entered into a written contract with B. for the purchase from the latter of certain real estate. A. paid B. $1,000 on account of the purchase price, and was thereupon permitted to enter into possession of the premises contracted for. The property, however, was not conveyed by deed, and the parties subsequently entered into an agreement to cancel and surrender the contract for the purchase of the premises in question. A., thereupon, sued B. to recover the $1,000 purchase money. The Court of Appeals hold that A., by releasing all right, title and interest under the contract, expressly waived and gave up his claim to re-payment of the purchase money, and, therefore, could not recover

---

In the case of the Northern Insurance Company against Wright, the Court of Appeals hold, in an action on a guaranty, given by the defendant to the plaintiff on an assignment of a mortgage, that the mortgaged premises were sufficient to pay the debt, and also guaranteeing the collection of the mortgage, that before any action can be maintained on the guarantee there must have been a diligent foreclosure. The mortgage in question was payable in installments and contained the usual default clause for non-payment of principal or interest. The last payment of interest was made nine months before suit was brought to foreclose, and the first installment was then over-due three years. This, the Court hold to be, laches sufficient to discharge the guarantor.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

During the past week the market presented no new feature, the sales held were, without exception, by orders of courts.

We notice, by the conveyances, that Mr. Anthony Mowbray has purchased four lots (100x100.5) on the south side of Sixty-seventh street, 95 feet west of Madison avenue for $63,000; five lots (125x100.5), adjoining the above on the west, for $59,500, and has re-conveyed the last named parcel for $60,000 to Mr. Wm. H. DeForest. Four lots (100.5x95), on the southwest corner of Madison avenue and Sixty-seventh street, have been conveyed for $68,000 to Cornelius W. Layster.

At private sale Messrs. E. H. Ludlow & Co. have sold the plot (100.5x125) on the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and Forty-eighth street, for $192,500, to George Opdycke and Charles J. Osborn, and the westerly front of block (200.10x95) on Madison avenue, between Forty-seventh and Forty-eighth streets, for $115,000 to Messrs. Duggin & Crossman.

Attention is directed to the important sale of Brooklyn property to be held on Thursday, May 29, when Jacob Cole, auctioneer, at the Commercial Exchange, Brooklyn, will offer 1,172 lots in the Eighth Ward of Brooklyn, on Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth avenues, between Forty-sixth and Fifty-eighth streets, being part of the real estate of Thomas Hunt, deceased. A description of the property to be sold appears in our advertising columns.

Eighteen plans, embracing thirty-six buildings, the estimated cost of which is $292,650, have been filed during the week.

The following are the sales at the Exchange Salesroom for the week ending May 16:

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—We still find the market for Common Hards to have moved along in much the same uniform condition recorded for several weeks past, and business appears to have been entirely free of exciting elements. The selling interest unquestionably had the best of the position, but the conservative feeling current prevented any attempt to force matters, and the bidding of full former rates has in all cases proven successful in securing supplies, receivers preferring to keep cargoes in motion rather than run the risk of making an accumulation, but standing out for an advance. Demand has been quite up to the previous average, and the appearances would seem to indicate that the supply in the hands of manufacturers will all be exhausted. About the last of the "Up-Rivers" are now at hand, and the supply in the "Bay" commences to look slim, while the probabilities are that with the exception of a few offerings from New Jersey, no new stock will be available within two or three weeks. Complaints of a scarcity of labor at the points of manufacture are still heard, and the progress of the new crop is accordingly impeded, but in view of demonstrations among the bricklayers here, there is a possibility that a "strike" may reduce consumption to a sufficient extent to neutralize any diminution in the product. At the moment the extreme figures on the average are $5.37½ for Haverstraw Bay, and $4.75 for "Up Rivers," though exceptional cargoes may exceed these rates. Pale Brick, if very choice, might reach $2.50 per M., but this is extreme, and the demand generally proves quite moderate. Fronts are in fair request and ruling about steady on all the really good lots of stock. We quote Pale, per M, $2.00@2.50; Hards, Up-Rivers, $4.50@4.75; Haverstraw bay, $5.12½@5.50; favorite brands, $6.00; Fronts, Croton—Brown, $7.00@8.00; dark, $8.00@9.00; red, $9.00@9.50; Philadelphia, $26@28; Trenton, $24@29; Baltimore, $34@38. Yard prices, delivery included, $2.00@3.00 higher on ordinary and $5.00@6.00 on fronts.

GLASS.—To local retailers, consumers, etc., some of our jobbers are distributing a very fair amount of stock and the business is proportionately active with other lines of merchandise, especially in the building material line. Beyond this, however, we do not hear of many very liberal movements and dealers are frequently to be heard expressing much disgust over the condition of trade with the interior. A great many points from which, in former years, the call had, by this time, become liberal, now send forward small and evidently carefully calculated orders, to last them until they can get a better idea of probable wants. Stocks appear to be under very good control and the limit of valuation is preserved on a basis of full former rates and especially for the popular sizes.

HARDWARE.—Business has shown some irregularity but, on the whole, continues to reach a very fair total and the condition of the market is generally satisfactory to dealers. About all the ordinary outlets of the season are drawing supplies, including a fair amount for export, and there seems to be an impression that no great lull in the movement will occur for some time, or until well on toward warm weather. Values, in a general way, remain steady, though one of the leading companies, it is understood, contemplates a reduction on some styles of Bolts and Wrought Butts. At a recent meeting all the leading screw manufacturers agreed to shut down to half time after June, and also to insist that all dealers adhere strictly to the printed schedule prices. The Vulcan Saw Works have issued a new list, with the following discounts: Circular saws, 35; circular top and shingle saws, 35; circular repairing saws, net; wire guages, 20; concave circular saws, 35; segment saws, 10; saw mandrels, 20; mulay and drag saws, 35; mill and gang saws, 35; pit saws and tillers, 35; ice saws, 35; cross-cut saws, 30; cross-cut saw handles, 15; turning and felloe webs, 30; Fay's scroll saws, 30; hand saws, 30; back saws, 30; miter-box saws, 30; compass saws, 30; fret saw blades, 30; currier blades, 30; kitchen saws, 30; butcher saws, 30; pork packers' saws, 30; pruning saws, 30; butcher blades, 30; buck saw blades, 30; billet webs, 30; wood saws, 30; saw rods, 25; saw frames, 25; plastering trowels, 30; mitre rods, 30; cabinet scrapers, 30; saw screws, 20; saw handles, 20; saw sets, 25; band saws, 20.

LABOR.—During the week the various associations of brick-layers in this city have healed their old differences and come together under what they claim will be a perfect and strong union of the mechanics employed in this branch of trade. Their plan is understood to be to make a demand on Monday next for an advance of fifty cents per day, and if refused to inaugurate a general strike. We find contractors and builders somewhat reticent upon the subject and apparently inclined to assume an indifferent tone until the matter culminates into some positive form. It is intimated, however, that while a few seem slightly favorable to granting the demand, the majority are most decidedly opposed, as their margins through competition to secure work are already figured down to the lowest possible limit, and an addition to cost of this kind must entail positive loss. Furthermore, past experience has shown that submission to the demands of trade unions are pretty sure to establish a precedent through which the workmen will be emboldened to make further exactions and in all probability hopelessly prostrate the business, now apparently on the eve of revival.

LATH.—Sellers have retained the advantage and the market shows a further slight improvement, but the gain is due rather more to the moderate amount of stock available than to any actual increase of demand. Indeed, as prices go up, the attendance of buyers becomes more and more confined to those in actual and immediate need of supplies, with bidding conducted carefully in all cases. Up to the present writing the highest positive report of sales is at $1.35, but in some cases the limit of holders stands at $1.40 per M, and the offering limited.

LIME.—An irregular tone continues, but, on the whole, buyers have made the gain for the week. Supplies have not reached proportions which would in former years be considered large, but the amount was quite as full as could be handled conveniently, and at times it was difficult to place cargoes, with sufficient rapidity to prevent an accumulation. On Eastern common the general quoting rate has been 70c., but we hear of some sales made at a fractional shading from this, and finishing sold down to 85c. State lime went off to 55c. for common and had an irregular tone, with only a light trade, but at the close some of the agents manifested an inclination to talk a shade firmer

LUMBER.—Business in a wholesale way moves along without much animation, and the market is entirely free from exciting features. The volume of operations has on the whole, we think, been larger this week, including the filling of home and shipping orders, but there was stock enough to meet the call, with owners all most anxious to sell, and the competition over the more desirable customers held in check all inclinations to buoyancy. Some additions have been made to stock in the way of small odd parcels, but these and larger amounts expected are composed in the main of supplies owned and wintered over by New York parties. Most dealers still refuse to invest in lumber beyond their most imperative necessities, and the offerings from primary points in the interior suffer considerable neglect, even though quiet hinting at easy terms takes place. Coastwise arrivals have, as a rule, been entered into second hands, and there is not great amount now within easy call. Exporters promise fairly, the recent advices from both South America and the West India's proving somewhat encouraging, but no unusual movement is to be expected.

Eastern Spruce has found about the usual market, and there is nothing very decidedly new to report. Buyers were secured for most of the offerings afloat on a basis of about the general range of figures for some time quoted, but within the extremes variations were constant, as receivers had to fix a rate to suit momentary influences, and a shrewd customer generally managed to secure the advantage. At the close, however, there appears to be a tendency toward somewhat greater steadiness. We quote at $10.00@11.00 for random, possibly $11.25@11 50 for choice lengths in small cargoes and $12.00@13.00 for specials, the extreme for extra difficult.

White Pine has a very fairly maintained market for the present, but lacking buoyancy. Stocks have failed to accumulate, and for both shipping grades and qualities adapted to local consumption, holders expect at least former extreme rates. There is, however, considerable contest over all really desirable orders coming upon the market, and the buyer of course loses nothing by this. The shipments this week have been moderate, but exporters are negotiating for fair amounts. We quote at $14.25@15.00 per M. for West India shipping boards; $19 50@21 for South American do.; $16@15 for box boards; $16@17 for do. wide and sound; and timber to order at $38@50 per M.

Yellow Pine has sold to fair extent on orders for deliveries at the mills, a large proportion of the amount thus taken being for export. There was, however, also some demand from domestic ports, and this has been met at former cost. Our local consumption at the moment is small, but promises to increase at an early day, in the way of small lots to be worked into use at once. We quote random cargoes at about $18@22 per M.; ordered cargoes $22@24 do.; green flooring boards, $20@21 do., and dry do. do, $20@23. Cargoes at the South $13@14.50 per M.; hewed timber $7.50@14.

Shingles do not find much of an open or general demand, and all ordinary or undesirable styles are difficult to place. A few dealers, however, appear to have stock of attractive quality which they are enabled to distribute to a fair extent on both home and shipping account. Export operations are still confined to small parcels. Cypress are selling at about $6 for saps and $8 50@9.00 for hearts; pine shipping stocks, $4 for 18 inch, and Eastern saw grades at $2 50@4.50 for 16-inch, and as to quality and quantity. Machine dressed cedar shingles quoted as follows: For 30 inch, $16@22.25 for A and $28 75@33.25 for No. 1; for 24-inch, $6.50@16 for A and $16.75@23 for No. 1; for 20-inch, $5@10.50 for A, and $11 25@15.75 for No. 1.

Hardwoods are commencing to pick up again, and while the offering here is not full enough to admit of much in the way of filling export orders, agents are closing sales against stock at primary points or in transit. From the yards the distribution depends a little on the character of the offering, but where dealers have been careful in bringing forward good quality, they secure a desirable attendance of customers. We quote at wholesale rates by car load about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do; oak, $35@40 do; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do., culls, $18@20 do; cherry, $45@75 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch, $25@27.50, and do. inch $33@35 do; hickory, $35@45 do. for Western, and $65@75 for good nearby stock.

From the yards there is going out a considerable amount of stock. Like last season the movement does not make any great display, but buyers picking up odd lots of one kind and another soon run up a respectable aggregate. Some few deliveries are commencing to builders. The general accumulation on hand may be and will be improved as soon as opportunity admits of securing just the right lot to fill in, but dealers will not handle a miscellaneous assortment.

From among the lumber charters recently reported we select the following:

A Br. brig, 121 tons, from Musquodobit, N. S., to Barbados, lumber, $6.50; a schr., 397 tons, from St. John, N. B., to Grenada, lumber, $6.75; a Br. brig, 250 M lumber, from Montreal to River Plate, $17 net; a ship, 763 tons, from Portland to Buenos Ayres, lumber, $12.50; a barque, 500 M lumber, from Boston to River Plate, $12.50; a barque, 338 tons hence to Havana, white pine lumber, $5; a Br. barque, 411 tons, from Bridgewater, N. THE WEST.

Special correspondence of the REAL ESTATE RECORD.

CHICAGO, May 14, 1879.

On Thursday last, the cargo market in this city took an unexpected turn upward, and for the last five or six days prices have been better and the demand more active than at any time before this season. Since last writing, good Manistee piece stuff, green, has been sold as high as $6 62½, and yesterday the inside quotation was $6.50, with dry ranging from $7.50 to $7.75. The reason for this sudden advance is found in the fact that the receipts have been unusually light, while the inquiry has been brisk. Sellers, of course, have taken advantage of this combination, and the necessities of a few buyers who are compelled to replenish their stocks at once, to force prices up a few notches. To day green piece stuff is quoted nominally at $6.75 with none on sale; dry do. rules at $7.50@7.75. Boards and strips are moderately active at $7.50@10.50 for green, and $8.50@.12 for dry. Shingles are higher than they were a week ago, sales having been made of standard brands at $1.72½ @1.75. No. 1 shingles bring 65 cents. Lath are about the same as they have been, the prices being $1.15@ 1.25 for green and dry respectively.

It is hardly to be expected that this improvement will be anything more than temporary. Telegrams received here to-day and yesterday, report heavy freshets in the Wisconsin streams tributary to the Mississippi, which will give the manufacturers of that section all the logs they want, and insure the cutting of timber enough to supply the Western trade without much help from Chicago. The hanging up of a large part of the Mississippi log crop has been regarded by many as almost assured, and it is partly due to the prevalence of this belief that the advance above noted occurred. The theory that the Mississippi men are not going to have lumber enough, will not hold water any longer, and it is difficult to see how, under such circumstances, prices can be kept up at the docks. At this writing it seems likely that before the close of the present week they will drop back to the figures current ten days ago.

No important change has occured in the situation at the yards. The shipments are heavier than for the corresponding time last year, but, judging from what the dealers, say it does not indicate a better trade. As I mentioned last week there has been some delay in shipping, and the present movement is largely on old orders. Generally it is very quiet in the Twenty-second district. A few buyers are in from the country, but most of the business done is on bills received by mail. There is considerable trading around among the different yards, assortments being yet badly broken. Prices are without any quotable change. There has been no improvement in them, and, as far as can be discovered, their condition is no worse than when I last wrote. Now that a drive is assured in the Wisconsin streams there is not much chance of an advance in the price of lumber, even if some of the Michigan mill men hold back their stock in the log, as they threaten to. The general opinion is that while bottom has been reached, and lumber is as low as it will be, it is useless to expect any better prices this season. I give this for what it is worth; lumbermen's opinions are, as a rule, not so valuable as they once were.

SAGINAW VALLEY.

Lumberman's Gazette Office,

BAY CITY, May 13, 1879.

The market is not in a healthy condition for sellers, nor is it sufficiently settled to promote the interest of buyers. The inquiry for stocks has been quite liberal, but sales have not always resulted, on account of the prices offered not being satisfactory. The ruling prices seem to be $5, $10 and $25, at which rate most of the sales have been made, but even these figures have been shaded. Long Norway bill stuff has sold at $8.50 and short at $7@7.50; fence strips at $6, and rough log run at $7.50. The disposition of manufacturers is not to sell at the prices offered, but the sawing season has already been delayed too long and dock room for the new cut must be had. It is, therefore, doubtful if they will be able to hold on to their stocks. Those who have room will undoubtedly do so, for the stiffening of the Chicago market has put heart into them.

The shipments from the Valley for the week ending the 10th were as follows:

Lumber	11,760,000
Lath	800,000
Shingles	3,500,000

Lake freight remain unchanged.

We quote cargoes rates:

Three upper qualities	$25 00@27 00
Common	10 00@11 00
Shipping culls	5 00@ 6 00
Lath	1 25@ 1 30
Shingles	1 40@ 2 40

The following from the Lumberman and Manufacturer:

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., May 8, 1879.

Glory to the powers that rule! Chicago shipped last week last week 17,000,000 feet and received 34,000,000, and day by day the pressure will be put on (judging by the outlook), until it will be an ascertained fact whether any man can do business in the West or not.

Lumber is being sold as fast as the cars can be had to ship it upon at nearly all the points on the river, from St. Louis to Minneapolis. Prices are low, but not lower than our people can stand. The logs are all in a fair way to come in on the principal streams of the West.

On the Chippewa, the Yellow River dams were opened on Saturday, and nearly all the drive of Peck and Barnard, and all the old logs lying below the mouth of the Yellow River, were run out. The rains of Saturday added something, and nearly three feet rise was measured at Eau Claire, with a large quantity of logs running by. Enough have been secured to set all the mills on the Chippewa running.

On the Black River several crews were set to work, but the rise was not sufficient to make any considerable drive.

No news from the Upper Wisconsin.

On the Upper Mississippi, we learn that the Willow River drive will be all out into the main river in ten days, with all the logs put in and below Rice Lake. Moose River is all out clean. Wabona Lake and Bear River are soon to come, but it will take rain to bring the Upper Prairie River logs. The Pine River will be out in two weeks, nearly clean.

The shipments of lumber are all that can be asked at nearly every place in the West, at the prices asked for dry stuff. Gentlemen, just keep the dry stock you have on hand for the next sixty days, and do not sell at present figures.

FOREIGN.

The London Timber Trade's Journal of April 26th has the following:

LONDON TIMBER SALES.

Messrs Simson and Mason held their sale of timber, deals and sundries at the Baltic, Threadneedle street, on Wednesday, the 23d. The attendance on this occasion was below the average, and throughout the proceedings there was very few features in the bidding that called for special remark. No improvement in prices was observable. The bids were almost exclusively confined to the unreserved lots; very little flooring was sold, and the few parcels that changed hands went very low. The trade has had a plethora of public sales, and can afford, just now that the spring goods are arriving, to rest while they give part of their attention to the free-on-board trade. Country buyers at these sales are no doubt influenced by the opening of the shipping ports, and are not so dependent on London now to replenish their stock.

LIVERPOOL, April 23d, 1879.

There is apparently a little more inquiry in the retail business, and the railway companies' and water carriers' wharves are looking more lively than they have done for some time past.

This, however, is yet of far too unimportant a nature to have any material effect either toward reducing the stocks or affecting the prices.

LIVERPOOL TIMBER SALES.

On the 18th inst., Messrs. Robert Coltart, Smith & Co. offered two cargoes of hewn and sawn pitch pine, about 37,000 spruce and pine deals, 1,000 redwood deals, 5,000 pieces pitch pine flooring, 500 logs American oak staves, etc.

There was a fair attendance of buyers, including many from the country, and although the bidding was languid, a considerable portion of the goods offered was sold at the auction, the withdrawn lots in many cases finding buyers on private terms.

Latest mail advices from Cuba report:

White Pine.—One cargo came in this week from St. John and remains unsold. Under a quiet inquiry, we quote nominally, at from $33@31 gold, per mille feet.

Pitch Pine.—Prices for this article, of which there has been no late arrival, continue nominal at $30 gold, per mille feet.

Cooperage Stock.—Box Shooks.—Small sales at 7½ and 8 rs gold.

Hogshead Shooks.—Last sales of sugar shooks at 18 and 19 rs, and those for molasses continue dull and nominal.

Empty casks.—No late sales and nominal at $3¾ gold.

Hoops continue plentiful and neglected. We quote $45@48 gold, as the nominal values of the article.

NAILS.—From all quarters the demand comes in much the same old slow and cautious form, and the market lacks positive spirit. The card rates are supposed to be the selling basis and most dealers quote them, but there is evidently much irregularity on cost, with desirable customers likely to secure advantages. We quote nominally 10d. to 60d., common fence and sheathing per keg, $2.25; 8d. and 9d., common do. per keg, $2.40, 6d. and 7d., common per keg, $2.65; 4d. and 5d., common do. per keg, $2.90; 3d. and 4d., light, per keg, $3 65; 3d., fine, per keg, $4 40; 2d., per keg, $4.40.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $2.30. Floor casing and box, 75c. above the same sizes of common. Finishing, $1 above and fine finishing $1.25 above.

CLINCH NAILS.

1¾ to 1½in.	2 & 2¼in.	2½ & 2¾ in.	3 in. & longer
$5.00	$4.50	$4.25	$4.00 per keg.

OILS.—No very important changes can be noted on the general condition of the market. Jobbers are distributing about an average amount of stock, and in most cases obtaining former rates, and they in turn became buyers upon the wholesale market as stocks may happen to run down. We quote linseed oil 60@ 62c. ₱ gallon; lard, 48@51c. for winter; 43@46c. for No. 1, and 40@43c. for No. 2; crude cotton seed, 34@ 37c., and refined summer yellow do., 42@43c.

PAINTS.—Demand not very active and confined rather closely to actual and immediate wants of operators. Some of our jobbers, however, seem to be very well satisfied with amount of trade doing and are looking for a continuation of about the present volume for a considerable time to come. Stocks are fair in quantity and assortment but form no excess, and are held at previous rates. Competition, however, is pretty sharp still, and this tends to hold in check about all buoyant tendencies.

PLASTER PARIS.—No really new features seem to be developed on the market for calcined since our last. About the majority of reports made complain of the low prices ruling and the absence of margin, but at the same time admit of little probability that improvement can take place so long as the bitter competition among manufacturers continues. The amount of stock moving is about equal to last year, and to the ordinary outlets, with the exception of California. The latter State is now developing a home supply, and calls upon the East one less frequent. Lump plaster comes to hand on orders, though a few cargoes could be reached, if wanted, on a basis of about old rates.

PITCH.—Demand shows only about the ordinary animation, and the market has a more or less dull and tame tone. Supplies are ample, in most cases offered with freedom, and holders well disposed to accept about former rates. We quote at $1.75@ $1.87½ per bbl. for city, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—Business has not been very active and rarely extended beyond the immediate wants of the local and near-by trade. Supply and demand, however, have been on a fair balance, and prices underwent no great change until toward the close, when there was a slight shading. As this report is closed the quotations stand at about 29@ 30½c. per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—Orders from some sources have increased a little, but the general market is without animation and the feeling unsettled. The average tendency may be considered in buyers' favor, however, especially on large parcels. We quote at $1.40@1.75 per bbl. for Newberne and Washington, and $1.60@ $1.87 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice. A new law (North Carolina) fixes the weight of tar at 280 lb. to the barrel.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date

NEW ERA OF REAL ESTATE SPECULATION.

At length the dismal cloud which has hung so impenetrably and so immovably over real estate interests for nearly six years has begun to move, and promises to be speedily lifted and dispersed. Since the beginning of the new year the movement of real estate has been so active and vigorous, so continuous and determined, and withal so widely ramified, as to recall the exceptional experiences of 1868 and 1872, although presenting with those epochs only a remote and dwarfed contrast. Any watchful observer of real estate transactions must be satisfied that the deadlock in property is entirely broken, and that, for the first time in six years, it may be asserted, with the strongest emphasis, that real estate is now a thoroughly negotiable commodity. This reaction so long delayed is a surprise only to those who have settled down into a chronic state of depression, stupefaction and skepticism. To those at all familiar with the history of New York real estate, the reaction seems only an inevitable result, the occurrence of which has been fondly anticipated, but too long and unreasonably delayed. So far, the demand for vacant property has been exclusively of an investment character, emanating from parties who are well versed in these ventures, and who are displaying their accustomed sagacity and shrewdness both in the selection of locations and the period in which they have timed their purchases. The initial feature of this real estate revival was an impetuous and outspoken demand for elegant private dwellings, which has stripped the fashionable quarter of all finished houses and made large inroads into the stock of completed building productions in the new residence quarter. The demand sprang up so suddenly that builders were hardly able to reap any greater advantage than the prompt marketing of their productions at prices which they had been vainly asking for months before. At the same time the builders are concurrent in their admission that the prices included a fair margin of profit. As is apt to be the case, the active market for finished houses has stimulated the views of lot owners, and in the best quarters improvable lots have been marked up to prices which smack strongly of inflation times. Of course the expectation is, that builders, encouraged by their success in selling this spring, will be tempted to embark in new enterprises at higher values of lots. The lots which we have in mind are so scarce and so much sought after that it is easy to foresee a severe struggle between builders and lot-owners before prices can be agreed upon.

With such a substantial and promising foundation it is hardly surprising that a demand should have been developed for lots ordinarily deemed speculative; such as are not ready for immediate improvement. The records of the past season show plainly the indiscriminating character of this new investment demand—legitimate speculative demand, as it may be called. The West Side has been largely dealt in, from Fifty-ninth to One Hundred and Tenth street, and lots on the outer margin of the East Side, as well as through Harlem, have found ready purchasers, while in the new wards a fair share of business is springing up. Of course, all these vast purchases have been made with speculative intent, even though the operators may be prepared to carry their possessions for years. No active speculation can be said to exist, for the simple reason that there has been little or no re-sale of property recently purchased. Sales have been made by parties who have taken in property under foreclosure, or who have been compelled to carry it through the long years of depression, and perhaps were quite ready to part with it even at the present low range of prices. The financial result of these late investments has yet to be developed.

Many expert operators in real estate are of the opinion that we are on the eve of a rampant and determined speculation. The extreme low price of money, the exhaustion of good Stock Exchange securities, the complete famine of mortgages and the disposition shown in financial circles to embark in speculative securities, such as wild cat stocks, non-interest paying bonds, and in mining stocks and other schemes of a highly speculative and questionable nature—all betoken the existence of a restless class in the community who have ready money to place at risk. Real estate is always the last to be affected by good or bad influences, and hence it is argued that, after the catalogue of ordinary and vulgar speculations has been fairly exhausted, in due season the turn for real estate will come.

Opposed, in sentiment and on principle, as we are to wild speculations in land, particularly in New York city real estate, and as determined as we are to repel and counteract, by every fair means, purely speculative influences, at the same time we cannot gainsay the statement that at the present range of prices there are classes of real estate on this island which would seem to offer the safest depository for money that can be desired. While much standard property, especially that in the fashionable quarter and desirable business localities, is both actually and relatively high, inasmuch as the reaction in these properties set in shortly after the panic and has continued steadily until quite an advance in values has been effected, still there is much vacant land on either side of the Central Park north of Seventy-second street, the values of which, before the panic, ascended to the highest possible pitch of inflation and afterwards fell to the lowest possible point of depreciation. The prices at which such property is selling to-day are, to be sure, much above the levels of its value at periods succeeding former seasons of depression, and yet, by comparison with the prices of first-class, that is, active and marketable vacant property, they must be deemed to be exceedingly low. If cheapness is a recommendation in real estate, surely investors have nothing more to desire in that respect, so far as East and West Side properties are concerned. The extreme point of depreciation to which this property has fallen seems, on the principle of reactions, to afford the most reliable assurance of the early setting in of an active speculation. The speculative investment demand, or what we will call the legitimate speculation in property, is altogether helpful to real estate, promotes its negotiability and excites as it betokens activity in the market. Such a movement, instead of being deprecated, should be encouraged by all well-wishers of real estate. Wild speculations of irresponsible men, who invest little or no money in their purchases, who seek to carry them on contracts or on heavy mortgages, solely for the purpose of unloading upon some credulous and inexperienced purchaser, are transactions which confer no benefit on anybody and inflict a positive injury upon the real estate market. Whether we are on the eve of an ebullition of wild speculation is more than we can now determine. That there will be, during the year, extensive purchases of real estate, no one can doubt who is at all conversant with the ratio between intrinsic and present low values.

The causes which have contributed to the establishment of these exceedingly and unnaturally low values, outside those attributable to the recent revulsion, are worth studying, and may be summarized under three heads.

1st. The Dearth of Building Enterprise.—In all panics previous to 1873, the building interest was seriously prostrated, owing less to shrinkage of values, which was small, than to the fact that the panic in every case had culminated in the midst of multitudinous projections amounting to excessive over-production of buildings. This was not the case in 1873. The few buildings then in course of erection had been capitalized at enormously high prices, and natural shrinkage alone involved the builders in disastrous losses, but there was no indication of any over-production. In fact, there has been no excess of finished houses at any time since the panic, and the demand for good houses has been so continuous, and withal so appreciative, that builders have found no difficulty in marketing their productions at any time, if they were at all able to meet the expectations and resources of buyers. This result may be clearly attributed to the prevalence of a wise caution among both builders and capitalists in regard to embarking in building enterprises. In fact, during the past six years there have been so few examples of unsound building schemes as hardly to be worth the mention, and within our range of observation, we may say, that the majority of building ventures have been conducted on extremely conservative principles. The projection of buildings is far below, in number at least, what might be expected in a growing city like New York. Instead of fifteen hundred buildings a year, the normal growth of our city requires, and our builders should easily and safely be able to produce twice or three times this number. The lack of enterprise of this description accounts for the recent dulness of vacant lots, for the uninterrupted decline of their values, and the much lamented scarcity of good mortgages. In the absence of a demand from builders, it is natural that one should spring up from solid investors to absorb lots offering at temptingly low prices. It will not be surprising if, under existing conditions, the typical speculator in real estate should before long make his presence and influence felt.

2d. Excessive Taxes.—The prices of vacant property to-day, instead of being inclusive, as visionary economists would have us believe, of the enormous taxes and assessments heretofore levied upon it, really present the anomaly of prices out of which a liberal discount or allowance has been made to provide for future impositions of taxes and assessments. Not only have the owners of vacant land been compelled to sacrifice all their large investments in past taxes and assessments, but in order to realize any price at all they are obliged to discount the future and accept a price which will fully and safely indemnify the purchaser for any demands which the city may make for years to come, to satisfy in the way of local taxation. This is no random nor inconsiderate statement. An examination of the conveyances made during the past season of vacant land in the upper wards of the city will furnish convincing proof of the justice of these remarks. If anyone could determine how soon the tax oppression of real estate would be taken off and abolished, it would be quite easy to forecast a magnificent speculation in real estate. The single drawback, the obstinate deterrent to hopeful and healthy activity in real estate, is the uncertainty as to when, if ever, the heavy hand of government will be raised from real estate interests. Investors who are now embarking their funds, are doing so with full knowledge of the extent to which they will be called upon to respond to taxes and assessments. If these exactions are continued indefinitely it will be safe to prophesy that their investments will be unsatisfactory. If, as many expect and as some signs would seem to indicate, these exactions are soon to be removed, then there will be an immediate and marked rebound in values, which will make present investments more than ordinarily lucrative, and upon this slight hope the present speculation is mainly based.

3d. Enlarged Area of Accessible Property.—In these new investments and in the exploiting of any fresh speculation in real estate, account must certainly be taken of the greatly enlarged area of accessible property. Instead of the consecutive growth which has characterized the city in past years, we must expect and, indeed, are not now lacking in examples of the scattered and isolated projection of buildings, quite distantly removed from the solid building line.

This feature will continue to characterize the growth of the city. Values will no longer admit of being indicated by an inclined plane, the apex of which would mark those nearest the line of improvements, from which there is a steady diminution, until the most remote point is reached. Already the work of equalization has commenced, and above Seventy-second street recent transactions have shown that properties as much as two miles apart command equal values. The full establishment of rapid transit will bring into market such a vastly increased number of lots, that the first effect can hardly be otherwise than of a restraining and depressing nature. Until new centres of residence have been established, and until builders have gotten actively to work in these different localities, we can hardly expect any pronounced or signal recovery in prices. With the development of fresh building enterprise, with continued ease of money on mortgage, and especially with any practical relief in taxation, we might easily expect the values of speculative property to show an increase of from 50 to 100 per cent.

STOOP CLOSETS.

It is a modern improvement to utilize the space under the front stoop of a dwelling for an ash closet. The former practice was to build the stoop foundation in a solid abutment, but modern ingenuity has devised an economical use for this space. Instead of a solid abutment, lateral walls are built up from the main foundation to receive the stoop steps, leaving an open interior space which is partially enclosed in front and faced up with stone ashler, the entrance opening being finished with a wooden or iron door. These closets might be very serviceable if there was any satisfactory way of ventilating them. In practice, under ordinary household care, they become the depositories for ashes, swill, garbage, filth and rubbish. Even wih particular care, it seems almost impossible to preserve them from misuse and defilement. Ventilation alone might fail to be a purifier, and might more likely be the means of distributing abroad the stifling and nauseous gases of which these closets are too often the active magazines.

If the house is badly framed, and if the stoop work is badly set and imperfectly pointed up, these gases, after being pent up in their storehouse and under the stoop platform, are apt to penetrate through the crevices of the door-sill, and find their way into the dead space between the parlor floor and basement ceiling, and into the recesses of the front wall furring, whence they are disseminated through the whole building. The disagreeable and often sickening odors that assail the nostrils in the vestibule, and in the hallway of many a fine mansion in this city, have their origin in a polluted and neglected ash closet.

The majority of these closets are totally unventilated, and are rarely fumigated or deodorized, ordinary cleansing being quite unequal to the task of battling with this peculiar sort of corruption. Even if swill and ashes are scrupulously kept in seperate pails, and the interior of the closet frequently cleansed and purified, the garbage pail alone will be sure to furnish a constant supply of disgusting odors; and through long use the metal of which it is composed will become saturated with a filthy and decaying slime.

The later and more sensible way of treating these stoop closets, and one which should command itself to every house buyer and builder, is to leave the entire space under the stoop open and exposed, without facing or door, the interior being finished with ashlar, enameled or front brick, to correspond with the area finish. In this case the underside of the stoop steps are rubbed and champered to present a neat, smooth and finished appearance. This open method of treating stoop closets overcomes at once two objections to the enclosed closet. In the first place, the aeration of this recess is complete, and this condition in cold weather will be sufficient to overcome or dissipate the gases of decomposition which may arise there. In the second place, it is exposed to ready view, and any diligent housekeeper can, without much trouble, easily and habitually determine the degree of tidiness possessed by her servants. Being thus exposed, the incentive to cleanliness is considerably enhanced. This open recess admits of being kept in as tidy a condition as the area itself, and presents a convenient location for a refrigerator. If intended to be used for ash and garbage storage, separate receptacles should be provided, made of metal and tightly covered. These kettles should be regularly emptied every day, and the garbage kettle should be thoroughly scoured and purified from time to time. In this way one vitiating element of household atmosphere will be effectually removed.

LEGAL DECISIONS.

R. agreed in writing to convey to L. certain premises in this city, subject to a mortgage of $8,000, which mortgage the purchaser agreed to assume and pay. The title to the premises was subsequently conveyed pursuant to the contract, but nothing was said at the time of the closing of title about the payment or allowance to the grantee of the interest to date on the mortgage, although the semi-annual installment of interest became due about two months after. The plaintiff (L.) to prevent foreclosure, was obliged to pay the semi-annual interest, and thereafter brought suit against R. to recover the four months interest which had accrued at the time of the conveyance.

Held, that where a contract is entered into for the sale of land subject to the payment of a mortgage thereon, and a deed is accepted wherein and whereby the grantee assumes and agrees to pay such mortgage, he is bound to pay all the interest on the mortgage which becomes due and payable subsequent to the conveyance, and cannot recover from the grantor the proportionate part of the interest which had accrued up to the time of the conveyance. So, although L. was only in possession of the land two months when the semi-annual interest became due, he is liable for the whole thereof.

M. was employed as agent by B. to collect for him rents of premises in this city belonging to the infant children of the latter. M. collected the rents for several years, and from time to time accounted to and paid over the same to B., who it appears had never been officially appointed by any court guardian of the estate of his children. It was proven that the infants knew that M. collected the rents and paid the same to their father, and that after they became of age they called at the agent's place of business in reference to the rents, and made no objection to the continued payment of the same to their father.

After the infants became of age they brought suit against M. for all the rents collected by him, claiming that their father was never appointed their guardian, and had no authority in law, without a special appointment as guardian, to collect their rents, and that their father had never paid over the same to them.

Held, that under the laws of this State the father, B., had full power and authority to collect the rents during the minority of his children without any special appointment as guardian. Further, that no recovery could be had for the rents paid over to their father after they became of age, as they were estopped from denying his authority to continue to receive the rents by failing to notify the agent to discontinue the payments of the same to him; and by permitting the agent without objection on their part to make such payment, they having knowledge of the agent's acts, ratified the same.

Where a married woman executes a bond and mortgage upon her land to secure an indebtedness of her husband; Held, that she is not liable for any deficiency arising upon a foreclosure sale of the mortgaged premises, unless by words in the bond and mortgage she expressly binds her separate estate with the payment of the amount intended to be secured by the bond and mortgage.

In order to hold a chattel mortgage valid as against a creditor of the mortgagor, it is held necessary that the mortgagee should, within the time prescribed by law, refile his mortgage, or take the property out of the possession of the mortgagor; and this is so, notwithstanding the mortgage has become absolute by default in its payment. The change of possession must be actual and not formal; and continuous and not temporary. The making an inventory of the property, and taking the mortgagor's receipt for the same is not sufficient.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

At the Exchange Salesroom during the past week several parcels were offered by executors and trustees, besides the usual volume of foreclosure sales by orders of courts. On Tuesday, J. T. Boyd, by order of the executor of Jacob Wolf, deceased, sold the houses (lots, each, 25x100), Nos. 224 and 226 Stanton street for $19,000 to E. C. F. Gasteyger, and the three-story brick front dwelling, No. 237 Stanton street, for $13,000 to same purchaser. Scott & Myers sold a three-story stone front dwelling (17.2x70), on the northwest corner of Madison avenue and One Hundred and Fourth street, for $9,000, and a similar dwelling (17.1x70), on the west side of Madison avenue, 81.10 north of One Hundred and Fourth street, for $7,750. On Thursday, A. H. Muller & Son sold, by order of trustees, two three-story brick dwellings (50 x100), Nos. 52 and 54 Varick street, for $18,100, to Edward H. Betts, and the four-story brick building (21x69.2), No. 7 Pine street, for $33,500, to Wm. P. Douglass (trustee). The same auctioneer sold, by order of the Supreme Court, thirty-one lots on Twelfth avenue, One Hundred and Thirty third and One Hundred and Thirty fourth streets, for $25 725; the property was sold to satisfy a mortgage amounting to about $21,650. R. V. Harnett (partition sale) sold four lots on the southeast corner of Third avenue and Ninety-fifth street, for $20,300. Particulars of all other sales made are appended.

On Thursday next, May 20, at the Commercial Exchange, Brooklyn, Jacob Cole, by order of the executors of Thomas Hunt, deceased, will sell 1,172 valuable building lots on Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth avenues, between Forty-sixth and Fifty-eighth streets, Brooklyn. An excellent opportunity is offered to buyers as 75 per cent of the purchase money may remain on bond and mortgage for a term of years if desired. Henry C. Murphy, Jr., Esq., of 44 Court street, Brooklyn, is attorney for the executors.

Plans embracing sixty-two buildings, to be erected at an estimated cost of $690,850, have been filed during the week; thirty-three three story dwellings will be erected on Madison avenue, Fourth avenue, One Hundred and Twelfth, One Hundred and Fourteenth, One Hundred and Fifteenth and One Hundred and Twenty-fourth streets, cost $255,500.

The following are the sales at the Exchange Sales-room for the week ending May 23:

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—A comparatively steady tone continues on the general market for Common Hards, and business moves along without unusual feature. If anything, the tone is somewhat firmer than at the date of our last, and stock has in a few instances sold at a fractional advance, but there is nothing shown in the way of a decided upward tendency, and the gain secured by the selling interest is simply the gradual hardening up on values as demand more closely exhausts the amount of supply available. From the North River the offering still consists entirely of old stock, which naturally daily becomes less plenty, and advices at hand continue to intimate that the new crop will not only be backward but of comparatively small amount at first. Difficulty still continues to be experienced in procuring reliable labor, and probably at a full estimate not more than one-half of the productive capacity is engaged. There has as yet been no stoppage of work here by difficulties with the bricklayers, and the consumption is quite as full, if not greater, than at the commencement of the month. A few arrivals of new stock from Jersey yards are reported with the price standing at about $4.50@5.00 per M. Pale Brick are not very much sought after, but fine stock would command full former rates. Fronts have a good average demand, and may be called steady, but sellers complain of the low rates to which builders and contractors endeavor to screw them down.

We quote Pale, per M, $2.00@2.50; Hards, Up-Rivers, $1.50@5.60; Haverstraw bay, $5.25@5.50; favorite brands, $6.00; Fronts, Croton—Brown, $7.00@8.00; dark, $8.00@9.00; red, $9.00@9.50; Philadelphia, $26@28; Trenton, $24@29; Baltimore, $34@38. Yard prices, delivery included, $2.00@3.00 higher on ordinary and $5.00@6.00 on fronts.

CEMENT.—Upon all descriptions of Cement the selling interest appears to be very well pleased with the condition of the market, and the average report made is of a cheerful character. Dealers and manufacturers' agents advise a sale of Rosendale fully equal to the supply available, and indeed in excess, as some of the mills are already contracted considerably ahead of production. Deliveries for elevated railroad work, of course, help swell the outlet to some extent, but outside of this the ordinary sources of local consumption are calling for comparatively liberal quantities. Shipping demand has been good with charter rates from Rondout to the eastward 22@27c. per bbl. and to the southward 12@14c., the latter absorbing the largest amount of stock at the moment. On prices there is no change but the feeling extremely firm, and the possibilities of an advance hinted at. Taylor's American Portland has been doing first rate this season, and the largely increased sale on ordinary orders with considerable amount still due on contract, exhaust the product rapidly. Without detracting in the least from the merits of competing cements, some of which are unquestionably superior for many kinds of work, there is no doubt of the growing popularity of this domestic article, and the recently issued circular containing unqualified testimonials from prominent engineers and architects as to its worth, cannot be ignored. On the foreign grades of Portland there has been a degree of animation quite in proportion to the indications and expectations referred to before in this column. Indeed, the demand has exceeded the supply, and contracts were made by anxious buyers sometime ahead of arrivals in order to guard against disappointments. The distribution has been to all regular channels, including many parcels for public works. Several vessels are still behind, and there is no accumulation in first hands. Prices appear to be hardening somewhat, and we learn from agents of the leading brands of English, such as J. B. White & Bros., that they are asking a slight advance over former quotations. Lime of Teil is not very active at the moment, but ruling about steady at quotations.

HARDWARE.—The general outward movement of stock continues quite full, and the condition of business cheerful. Manufacturers and dealers are not altogether satisfied with the margin they secure, but hope to make the quantity of goods sold act as an offset, and work the aggregate profit up accordingly. A goodly portion of the distribution of late has been of builders' hardware, both on local account and to meet interior orders, and this demand is expected to continue for some time to come. On prices we learn of no important changes, and the general tone of the market now appears to be quite uniform. Of supplies and assortments there is enough for all wants.

Owing to the increased cost of hemp the manufacturers of cordage have made a further addition to their rates, and the following are the revised figures: Manila cordage, sizes above 12 thread and hay and hide rope, 12c; do do, 12 thread (3⅝ in. diam.), 12½c; do do, 6 thread and 9 thread (1¼ in. and 5-16 in. diam.), 13c.; Manila cordage, bolt rope yarns, 13½c; do do, do 6 thread and 9 thread, 14½c; Manila whale lines, 13½c; tarred Manilla, 11½c; fine tarred Manila lath yarn, 13c; Sisal rope, sizes above 12 thread and hay and hide rope, 10c; do 12 thread (3⅝ in. diam.), 10½c; do 6 thread and 9 thread (1¼ in. and 5-16 in. diam.), 11c; tarred Sisal lath yarn, 9½c; navy oakum, 7¼c; U. S. Navy oakum, 8¼c; best oakum, 9¼c.

LABOR.—The demand of the bricklayers for an increase to $3 per day was made, and to all intents and purposes proved successful, as most of the leading contractors and builders are reported as having submitted. This rate was in reality already being paid to first-class workmen, and as the majority under employment were of this class, the employers preferred making the allowance in a few additional cases to breaking up and losing their gangs in the midst of a busy season. Especially as no organization had been perfected for resistance. The workmen consider that they have gained a victory, but as the principal result is to place the inferior mechanic on a par with the more proficient craftsmen it is difficult to understand what benefit is to accrue to the latter.

LATH.—The market has shown pretty much the same general features, and the only positive change is in the higher level of valuation. At the rates asked buyers are still unwilling to handle stock beyond the necessities of the hour, but those compelled to operate must submit as the small amount offering gives the seller all the advantage. On a temporary flurry some extreme figures have been talked of since our last, but with the close of this report we find those who have disposed of the most recent cargoes quoting at $1.40 per M strong.

LIME.—The irregularity noted in our last, suddenly developed into considerable excitement when one of the principal receivers suddenly jammed the market down to 65c. per bbl. for common Rockland, and sold freely both on spot and to arrive, rather to the astonishment of the balance of the trade. Remarks and reasons are plenty as to the cause of this movement, but we can only condense all under the general head of "competition." After the offers ceased at the above named rate there was a so called reaction, and as we write the supposed market rate is 70c., per bbl., but in reality there is no regular figure, and the situation is simply nominal. Buyers, of course, were quick to take advantage of the unexpected turn in their favor, and the result is that all the principal outlets are for some time supplied, and it is difficult to say what an additional offering would command. State lime is quoted about as before by cargo, but receivers say they are determined to ask an advance on small lots.

LUMBER.—On the general situation there is little or no change worthy of note this week. Demand continues to show rather a slow form, and to secure the business going the competition is sharp and decisive, under which, of course, values are easy, and the average advantage remains with the buyer. Occasionally a falling off in the amount of stock available, admits of a temporary show of steadiness, and will even form basis for securing a fractional advance, but there is no feature calculated to stimulate values into a decided improvement. Nor do we discover that expectations of much of an upward turn are entertained. It appears to be quite generally conceded that supplies, if not exactly excessive, are likely to be quite sufficient for all wants, even allowing for the predicted increase of consumption; that the manner in which most of the production is carried on, requires that the manufacturer shall realize without much delay; and this, in connection with the caution of buyers and the entire absence of speculative feeling, are all elements calculated to hold values within an easy line. Export orders come forward somewhat irregularly, but dealers appear to be pretty well satisfied with what they have done thus far this year, and are hopeful of a continued good movement.

Eastern Spruce has undergone no very important change on the general situation of the market. Demand is not of a character to lead to very great expectations on the part of sellers, and all good opportunities for disposing of cargoes are improved to guard against an accumulation afloat. Occasional scarcities, however, will occur and on these it is possible to secure temporary fractional gains. The call for special cuts is moderate and buyers seldom show an inclination to pay much in excess of the random rates. We quote at $10.00@11.00 for random, possibly $11.25@11 50 for choice lengths in small cargoes, and $12.00@13.00 for specials, the extreme for extra difficult.

White Pine has found about an average demand on the ordinary run of home orders, and a good fair proportion of business on export account, most of which has been readily and easily met, and at about former cost. Prices, however, have a pretty firm tone for really desirable stock, as the advices from the interior seem to show that the supply is not moving forward quite as rapidly as expected. We quote at $14 25@15.00 per M. for West India shipping boards; $19 50@21.00 for South American do.; $14 @15 for box boards; $16@17 for do. wide and sound; and timber to order at $38@50 per M.

Yellow Pine moving moderately on local consumptive account at somewhat irregular values, but except on quite small parcels, the buyer rather has the advantage. In the way of contracts on cargoes for the various deliveries, both domestic and foreign, there is more or less doing, but we hear complaints from agents, etc., that some other agents (of couse it's always "the other fellow") are competing so sharply as to cut down margins to a mere nothing We quote random cargoes at about $18@22 per M.; ordered cargoes $22@24 do.; green flooring boards, $20@21 do., and dry do. do. $20 @23. Cargoes at the South $13@14.50 per M.; hewed timber $7.50@14.

Hardwoods are selling very well, both on the spot and to arrive, the general market retaining a healthy and cheerful tone. The amount of stock at hand is moderate and offerings from the interior are not over-abundant, but still no positive scarcity exists. We quote at wholesale rates by car load about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do: oak, $35@ 40 do: maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30 @35; do. do., culls, $18@20 do; cherry, $45@75 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch, $25@27.50, and do. inch $33@35 do; hickory, $35@45 do. for Western, and $65 @75 for good nearby stock.

Yard business, according to the reports given, appears to be good, bad and indifferent This variation in the naming of operations, however, is due to location, assortments offering and the terms sellers are willing to accept, while taken in the aggregate, the movement is no doubt reasonably full.

From among the lumber charters recently reported we select the following:

A Br. barque, 942 tons, from Three Rivers to Montevideo, lumber, $14 net; a barque, 673 tons, hence to Rio Janeiro, white pine lumber, $15 net; a Br. barque, 428 tons, from Brunswick to Rio Janeiro, lumber, $18.50 net; a schr., 167 tons, hence to Jacksonville, current rates, thence to Mayaguez, lumber, $19, option of a second port in Porto Rico $1 extra; a schr., 300 M lumber, from Savannah to New York, $6; a schr., 300 M lumber, from Brunswick to Baltimore, $6.25; a schr., 200 M lumber, from Fernandina to New York, $7; a schr., 296 tons, hence to King's Ferry and back with lumber, $7.50 for the round, free of New York wharfage; a barque, 450 tons, from Baltimore to Galveston, coal, $3 50, and back from Pensacola to New York, lumber, $8; a schr., 200 M lumber, from Savannah to Elizabethport, $6; a schr., 225 M lumber, from Fernandina to Jersey City, $6.75; a schr., 402 tons, hence to Fernandina and back with lumber, $7.25 for the round.

GENERAL LUMBER NOTES.

STATE.

ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

The Argus reports for the week ending May 20, 1879:

The near advent of new lumber brings with it, as is customary, a good many buyers, who prefer to await a fair assortment from which to purchase rather than make selections from old stocks, and, as is very noticeable this season, from a stock pretty well thinned out. Recent large purchasers have been the representatives of three of New York's largest shipping houses. Prices have not undergone any change. The yards will be all well stocked within the course of a few days.

Of coarse lumber the receipts, owing to canal interruptions, have been light, but new stock is now, even partially, beginning to come along. The sales since our last have been free, and prices are without change of moment. The conviction still holds that it will be impossible to regain the ground lost early in the season in production of sawed lumber.

Manitoba is drawing freely on Georgian bay for lumber that usually makes Albany its market. The Gulf Lumber Company has been among the recent sellers, covering some four or five million feet

Michigan reports a very active demand for lumber from points that can be reached by rail; cutting off, to the extent of that trade, so much lumber that would otherwise be shipped in this direction.

Free shipments of lumber are reported from Georgian bay to Ogdensburgh.

At Bay City all of the stock of board lumber on Miller's docks was sold to Buffalo parties at $5.50 and $11.25 per M. To Oswego parties 300,000 feet 2-inch stuff sold at $6, $12, $21, and the same parties took 900,000 feet board, none selling below $5, $10, $25. Sturtevant & Co. report 300,000 feet to go to Ohio on p. t. One large dealer stated he had sold none this season below $5.25 and $10.50.

The receipts at Buffalo for the week ending May 19th were 53 car loads; by Lake 4,836,000 feet.

Freights from Bay City to Tonawanda are placed at $1.50 ₱ M feet; from Buffalo to Albany, $1.85; from Oswego to Albany, $1.60. Lake Ontario freights to Oswego, 60c. From Ottawa to Whitehall they are under $2, and from Whitehall to Albany $1.

TONAWANDA LUMBERMEN'S ASSOCIATION.—At the annual meeting of the Lumbermen's Association, held at the office of Messrs. Evans, Yocom & Co., Thursday evening, the 8th inst., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Edmond Evans, president; Alex. McBean, vice-president; W. R. Gregory, secretary (re elected); D. W. Buckmaster, treasurer (re-elected); T. S. Fassett, D. R. Burrowes, W. H. Cowper, W. H. Gratwick and E. Goodrich, directors.—Herald.

THE WEST.

Special correspondence of the REAL ESTATE RECORD.

CHICAGO, May 21, 1879.

Contrary to the general expectations the cargo market in this city has weakened but slightly since last report. It was believed a week ago that the change in the situation on the tributaries of the Mississippi, and the consequent assurance that the manufacturers in that section will have all the logs they care to cut, would counteract the effect produced by light receipts and force prices down to a point perhaps lower than any they have yet reached, but I am glad to say that as yet these anticipations have not been realized. The supply has been very limited, and with a pretty good demand from both local and out-of-town buyers, the commission men have been able to keep prices very close to last week's average. Piece stuff this morning was fairly firm at $6.50@6.62½ for green and $7.75@8 for dry. Boards and strips range from $7.75 for common green to $12 for choice dry. Shingles are steady at $1.50@1 60, and lath at $1.15@1.20. Dry lumber is in good request, and cargoes are picked up almost as soon as they reach the dock. The prices realized for seasoned stock, too, are remarkably good, which circumstance is due to the fact that some of the yards are very short of dry lumber, and are compelled to buy in order to fill their orders. Another thing that tends to make the inquiry better than it otherwise would be is that many buyers have been holding off along back in the hope that prices would get still lower, but now are anxious to buy in order that the lumber may be drying. It takes fully sixty days to get green stuff in shipping condition, and they feel that unless it is piled very soon it will not be ready for sale when it is wanted. True, the aggregate bought in this way is in itself not very large, but when the offerings are so light a comparatively limited demand enables the commission men to handle the market just about as they want to.

It is impossible to forecast the future of the cargo market with any sort of accuracy. There are all kinds of opinions current regarding it, but nothing definite can be asserted. It is claimed by some of the commission men that green piece stuff will touch $7 within a day or two, and it is no doubt possible, if the supply continues as small as it has been for the past three days. Still, it is hardly to be expected that with a full stock on the Mississippi River prices can be very long held at the present figures.

Considerable lumber is going forward from the yard, but the dealers say that a large part of it is stock bought some time ago, which it has been impossible to ship, owing to the scarcity of cars. The railroads are all very busy moving grain, and that being a more profitable freight than lumber it is of course given the preference But with all the complaints that are made by shippers, it is nevertheless true that they are sending more lumber into the country than at this time last year. The statistics of the trade, though for the most part not very accurate, come near enough the truth to show this. Up to date the shipments of lumber from Chicago, as reported by the railroad companies, have been 207,217,627 feet, against 188,389,487 feet to the same time last year. This shows an increase of nearly 20,000,000 feet, which proves that, in spite of some serious drawbacks, our lumbermen have succeeded in selling more than they did in 1878. Whether or not this improvement will last, I am not prepared to say. The business now doing is certainly equal in volume to that of a year ago, and reports from the interior indicate that it will continue so, and perhaps improve somewhat. Assortments are still badly broken, which necessitates some trading around among the yards, but lumber is coming in every day now, and this sort of business will soon be materially cut down.

There is nothing new to note in regard to prices. They may be a shade firmer because of the strength of the cargo market, but no one has yet advanced his figures for that reason. They will probably remain in statu quo for the present.

I am permitted to make the following extract from a private letter received here a day or two since from the Chippewa River, Wisconsin. It is dated at Eau Claire, May 17. The writer says: "I returned from the drives to-day. Most of the logs on this stream and its tributaries will come down, and all the mills in this valley and along the Mississippi will have full stocks. They will all begin running as soon as the logs reach them, and will be able to continue sawing without interruption until late in the fall." This information comes from a perfectly reliable source, and covers the ground fully. From what is known of the effect of the rains on the St. Croix, Black and Wisconsin Rivers—the other tributaries of the Mississippi—it may be stated, as an assumed fact, that the Mississippi Valley will be abundantly supplied this season with both logs and lumber.

SAGINAW VALLEY.

Lumberman's Gazette Office,

BAY CITY, May 20, 1879.

A better understanding prevails this week than last, and transactions have been more numerous. Dealers are beginning to understand that they cannot buy stocks below $5, $10 and $25, and cannot secure good dry lots at these figures. There is considerable haggling, however, buyers exhibiting the utmost caution not to pay more than is absolutely necessary to secure what they want. Whether the change in the northwestern situation will affect this market unfavorably is not yet apparent.

Sales aggregating 4,500,000 at $5, $10 and $25 have been reported. The major part of this was green lumber. Two-inch stuff has been sold at $6, $12 and $26. Other sales have been made at $5 25 and $10.50; $5.50 and $11.25; $5.50 and $11, and at $5, $10 and $24. The movement of shingles has been large. Sales have been made at from $1.25 to $1.50 for common and $2.15 to $2.50 for XXX.

There has been considerable box lumber, 1¼ inch, sold to go East at $6.25.

The shipments from the river for the week ending May 17, were:

	Bay City.	East Sag.
Lumber, ft	4,869,358	1,915,000
Shingles	550,000	2,880,000

The total shipments last week were, lumber, 11,760,000, shingles, 3,500,000.

We quote cargoes rates:

Three upper qualities	$25 00@27 00
Common	10 00@11 00
Shipping culls	5 00@ 6 00
Lath	1 25@ 1 30
Shingles	1 40@ 2 40

The following from the Lumberman and Manufacturer:

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., May 15, 1879.

The scarcity of dry of the upper grades of lumber in the West is carrying from thence a large amount of trade to Chicago and Michigan. During the last few weeks the sash, door and blind factories, and other branches of trade requiring the better kinds of lumber, in Minnesota, have been receiving supplies from Eastern Wisconsin, which, in part, accounts for the heavy receipts at Minneapolis. The log crop of 1878 was, perhaps, the poorest ever cut on the waters of the Mississippi, owing to the lack of snow for hauling out of uncut timber, forcing operators into old shore cuttings. Such logs, of course, furnished but a small per cent. of clear lumber, and very little floorings, sidings, cuttings, etc. No one seems to have anticipated this condition of things, and holders have been pressing this class of goods on the market at even less figures than they brought two years ago, when they were a drug on the market. The summer will bring relief, as the cut of 1879 is reported above the average, so far as quality is concerned, and with the help of lumber driers can soon be made available for use. We report below a new price list for Minneapolis, which makes some changes in the figures of last week. A few grades are advanced fifty cents to the $1, but not enough to affect the market, uniform prices being aimed at rather than an advance. The demand has reduced the stocks in the city to a minimum, and many of them are considerably broken. Prices have been strengthening up a little, and less cutting inpulged in for the past two weeks, and has resulted in the adoption of a uniform list by nearly all the principal dealers of the city. It is low enough to command the trade.

THE LOG DRIVES.—The prospects of securing the logs on the tributaries of the Mississippi has very materially brightened during the week. On Friday, Saturday and Sunday last heavy rains visited the whole northwest, raising all the streams to a driving stage, and such of the loggers as were ready to take advantage of the situation will secure their crop of logs. The Wisconsin, Black, Chippewa and St. Croix rivers raised an average of five feet, and a considerable part of the logs in these streams will be secured on the present flood. At least enough to supply all present or prospective needs. On the Wisconsin river the booms at Wausau have 20,000,000 feet enclosed ready for manufacture, and the logs still running. The Black river loggers have started with their whole cut, as will be seen by the news elsewhere, and may secure at least from forty to fifty millions with the present water.

The Chippewa commenced rising on Saturday and reached five feet on Sunday night, and the logs commenced running on the whole length of the river, but on Monday began to "jam" on the river above Chippewa Falls, and it required 100 men until yesterday noon to break it. Other jams are reported, the principal one being on the lower Jump. An immense force is at work driving on the main river and its branches. A large part of the logs are coming, but no estimate of the amount which will reach the booms can be given until another week at least.

On the St. Croix river water came up full five feet at St. Croix Falls, and the floods carried out two dams on North Fork of Clam which hung up 5,000,000 feet. With this exception all the logs on the St. Croix have been started with favorable water for getting in. The best posted lumbermen estimate that at least two-thirds of all the logs on the St. Croix waters will be run into the booms with the present supply of water. Some of the new crop are already running in.

On the upper Mississippi they were not so fortunate. The Crow Wing country did not get any rains, but all other branches reached a good driving stage, and those who had crews ready have been making good progress on the brooks. Very few men were on Rum river, and five days driving was lost in getting the news down and sending crews up. We think that unless more rains shall come soon the drives on this stream will not reach the booms All are confident, however, that a supply will be secured for the mills at Minneapolis.

We are in receipt of several special telegrams from reliable parties giving us the above information, and it may be relied upon.

FOREIGN.

The Timber Trade's Journal as follows:

LONDON, May 9th.

The prices that have ruled in the market here since the year began, which have hitherto been on a sliding scale, have latterly assumed a more stationary attitude, and though no upward inclination is yet apparent, we are not obliged to report any further tendency in the opposite direction. But, while this negative sort of result is far from satisfactory, it is, nevertheless, some comfort to find that values of the various descriptions of deals are more to be depended on, and even if they stop where they are, and show no further serious fluctuations either way, both buyers and sellers will have a better opportunity to shape their dealings in accordance with what the market affords, and calculate their profit or loss with some degree of certainty, while trade with the shipping ports may be expected to take a more confident tone in proportion as its transactions are governed by these influences Sudden changes in anything are not desirable, and less so in commercial matters than in almost anything else.

Messrs. Churchill & Sim held their usual sale of deals, &c., at the "Baltic," on Wednesday, the 30th, and the day following. The attendance was quite up to the average, and some brisk bidding kept up, the interest in the proceedings being well sustained, though prices did not show much improvement, the sales being mostly confined to the large dealers, who, as a rule, do not bid against one another, except it be for some special parcel that is inquired for, and of which the stocks are running short. Pitch Pine timber seemed to stick between 60s. and 62s. 6d., and deals at £9 and £10, while floorings, of which there was an unusually heavy assortment, went indifferently. Bright Pine deals are hardly so firm, and the impression is that 2ds and 3ds will improve. Very little joinery was sold, what was offered being mostly under reserve.

LIVERPOOL, May 7, 1878.

There is no change in the state of our market from the condition it was in at the time of your last publication. Prices continue to be very low for every class of goods excepting prime qualities and favorite sizes, and little impression is made upon the stocks. However, there appears to be a very strong feeling against entering into contract for future delivery, and as the supply for the incoming season will probably be very light, not only from the southern ports of America, but also from Canada and the Baltic, we may see a reaction at no distant date, with prices as such a mark that will, to say the least, leave shippers without such heavy losses as they are at present sustaining. Low as the freight market now is, few importers are to be tempted into contracts, and the general disposition seems to be to wait the course of events, and buy as the goods come upon the market, which will in all likelihood be the case to certain extent during this year.

METALS.—COPPER—Ingot has of late sold with much freedom, the contracts made covering some 15,000,000 lbs., about two-thirds for export. Naturally with this movement, holders ideas have strengthened, and prices as we write are quite firm, with 16¼@16¾c. asked for Lake. Manufactured Copper in fair demand and about steady. We quote about as follows: Brazier's Copper, ordinary size over 16 oz. per sq. foot, 24c. per lb.; do. do. do., 16 oz. and over 12 oz., per sq. foot, 26c. per lb.; do. do., 10 and 12 oz. per sq. foot, 28c. per lb.; do., do., lighter than 10 oz. per sq. foot, 30c. per lb.; circles, less than 84 inches in diameter, 27c. per lb.; do. 84 inches in diameter and over, 30c. per lb.; segment and pattern sheets, 27c. per lb.; locomotive fire box sheets, 24c. per lb.; Sheathing Copper, over 12 oz. per sq. foot, 22c. per lb., and Bolt Copper 24c. per lb. IRON—Scotch Pig sells moderately at about former rates, but the offering of parcels to arrive is pretty free and prices weak in a wholesale way. We quote at $19.00@22.00 per ton, according to brand and quantity handled. American Pig finds a good steady sale, with an occasional contract of considerable magnitude concluded and prices are steady, but sellers are unable to secure any positive buoyancy. We quote at $17.50@19.00 for No. 1 per ton, $16.50@17.50 for No. 2, and $15.50 @16.00 for Forge. Rails have been rather dull on fresh operations, and we hear of no important movement of either iron or steel. Most of the mills, however, are busy working out back orders. We quote at $33.00@36.00 for new iron, and $42 00@45.00 for steel, according to delivery. Old Rails $21.00@ 21.50 per ton: scrap, $23.50@24.50. Manufactured iron continues to sell with quite seasonable freedom, but there is scarcely enough vitality to infuse any buoyancy into values. Common merchant bar quoted in round lots at 1.6c., and Refined at 1.8c., but for ten-ton lots from store, 1¾c. and 1.9@2c. are respectively asked. Common sheet, 2¾@2⅞c., and best R. G. American, 3¾c. from store. LEAD—Domestic Pig has been more active since our last, with some considerable parcels changing hands, and prices improved, closing firmly. We quote at 3⅛@3¼c. The manufactures of lead are steady and quoted: Bar 4¼c., Pipe 4¼c. and Sheet 5¼c.—less the usual discount to the trade; and Tin-lined Pipe 12c., Block Tin Pipe 30c., on same terms. TIN—Pig has sold rather slowly and in a somewhat uncertain manner, with values more or less nominal, though on the whole, lacking strength. We quote at 17¾@17¼c. for Banca, 14⅜@14½c. for Straits, 14¾@15c. for English refined, and 14⅝@14¾c. for do. common. Tin Plates are slow of sale and generally weak on value, with most of the current quotations on a nominal basis only. Spelter has eased off a trifle on value, with a limited demand prevailing. Quoted at 4⅜@4⅝c. Sheet Zinc is dull and saleable only at about 6⅛@6¼ in lots from store.

NAILS.—There has been no improvement in the demand, and the general market seldom becomes more than fairly active. The volume of business, in fact, fails to give sellers an advantage, and they seek to keep values up by reducing the production and talking firmly on a highly graded card rate. Careful buyers, however, generally manage to secure any reasonable favor. We quote nominally at $2.20@$2.25 per keg for 10d to 60d.

OILS.—Demand continues moderately active for most styles, and on jobbing parcels at about former rates. Wholesale values, however, do not fluctuate to any great extent, and holders refrain from pressing stocks. We quote 60@61 per gallon for Linseed Oil, from crusher's hands.

PAINTS.—Operations about the same in form and quantity as for some time past, and there is no new features of general importance on the situation. Outside lots of white lead, it is claimed, occasionally come upon the market at something below the list rates, but, as a rule, prices on this and most of the other leading articles are carried about steady.

PITCH.—Only a moderate and quite uncertain call prevailed, with the market at times in a very dull and stupid condition. Supplies ample and readily offered with holders ideas easy on values, though not below former figures. We quote at $1.75@1.87½ per bbl. for city delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—A further shading on cost soon after our last increased business somewhat, but the demand was quite readily met from the stock in first hands, and buyers have again in a measure withdrawn. As a rule, the feeling is easy. As this report is closed the quotations stand at about 28@30c. per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—The market without much animation outside of general run of grade orders, and showing no specially noticeable features. Stocks are ample, and holders quite generally well inclined to keep terms easy, and offer their accumulations with freedom. We quote at $1.40@1.75 per bbl. for Newberne and Washington, and $1.60@1.87 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice. A new law (North Carolina) fixes the weight of tar at 280 lb. to the barrel.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as headings are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Wherever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date

MISCELLANEOUS.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Mr. J. W. Reedy, of Nos. 532, 534 and 536 Canal street, whose card appears elsewhere, has just moved into his new quarters, which he has selected and fitted up with new and improved machinery to secure greater facilities and increased space for the manufacture of his Improved Elevators, his former quarters, at 530 Canal street, having proved inadequate for his fast growing business. Mr. W. H. Skerritt, manager and superintendent, informs us they have in the neighborhood of five hundred of their elevators in operation in New York, a great many of which are placed in some of our largest manufacturing, storage and wholesale houses. Mr. Reedy builds all manner of lifting machines, from the slight dumb waiter for residences to the three-ton freight Elevator for manufacturing establishments, which are operated by hand, steam, caloric and hydraulic power. He solicits an inspection of his Elevators and Works by parties wanting anything in his line. His new illustrated circular and price list gives full description of the various machines he manufactures.

SPRING REVIEW.

The season which has just closed is by far the most brilliant which it has been our privilege to record since the memorable years of 1868 and 1872, and stands in glowing and auspicious contrast with the many years of depression and disaster which have been endured since the days of the panic. Real estate has at length not only reinstated itself as an active and negotiable commodity, but the interest which has been developed in it threatens to take the form of a speculative craze. The repressive and deterrent effects of the anticipation of specie resumption were plainly illustrated by the intense and startling activity which followed quickly after its successful re-establishment. No sooner had the experiment become well assured than the flood gates of capital and enterprise were opened, and in all departments of real estate, activity, life and progress have taken the places of inertia and decay. Only a few elements are lacking to complete the sum of real estate happiness. The supplying of these elements would furnish a foundation whereon to erect the structure of our new local prosperity, broader and more durable than has ever before existed or could ever again be desired or expected. Principal among these are the determination of questions of taxation, of the proper development of public improvements, the restriction of assessments, the equalization and removal of assessments already levied, the adjustment of the interest question and of the relations between capital and labor and, above all, the ultimate attitude of the labor question itself. The specific and righteous settlement of these questions would tend to reassure the future of real estate above the power of any ordinary guarantee. But within any one of them there is the germ of much trouble if not of ultimate serious disaster.

The present season may be signalized as a golden era in the history of New York real estate. Its opening and closing were marked by displays of gallant courage and incomparable enterprise. A great boom was given to the market by the railroad Colossus, otherwise the great untaxed, whose action and example were as potential in quickening the views and actions of dealers as they are supposed to be in the domain of stock gambling.

The settled tone of the real estate market is one of assured confidence and cheerful expectancy. Little or no speculative interest has as yet been developed, but the times are full of signs of a disposition to once more court the favor of the goddess of chance in real estate ventures. To suppose that we are on the eve of a new speculative mania may be warrantable on the principle of reactions, and yet discreet and thinking citizens will unavoidably deplore any prospective recurrence of scenes which have been enacted only too recently to be entirely forgotten by the community. No one but an ignoramus would dispute or doubt the certain progressive value of first-class New York real estate, but any efforts to forecast or forestall great advances of value must sooner or later recoil upon the head of some unfortunate speculators. Of all commodities, real estate is the most susceptible of cautious and conservative management, and in the long run and in accordance with the experience of the wisest heads, sound prudence and a wise discretion are indispensable qualities in the successful manipulation of real estate. As faithful chroniclers we shall continue to record events as they happen, without exaggeration or depreciation.

SALES.—The movement in real estate was really begun before the close of the year by the noteworthy and well-trumpeted purchases of Mr. Vanderbilt and his family. The immediate members of this family have taken up no less than thirty lots in the fashionable quarter for immediate improvement with domiciles and stables, and as many more houses and lots may be set down as the purchases of the immediate followers of Mr. Vanderbilt. When the conveyances of this spring's operations shall have been fully recorded, it will be found that no less than two hundred and fifty pieces of property have changed hands in the new and old fashionable quarters. This movement embraces vacant lots sold to builders and private individuals for immediate improvement; lots with houses already built, new and old, and, in more than one case, lots with houses already built upon them, which the new purchasers intend to tear down and remove or essentially modify. The details of these transactions are somewhat complicated, and would be confusing to any but expert observers. For instance, No. 9 West Fifty-sixth street, a full front house and lot of David Robbins' build, was sold at $35,000, and about the same time a vacant lot in the rear, with rock on it, was sold at the same price, $35,000. The house and lot No. 15 West Fifty-seventh street, of full dimensions, the house being elaborately built and finished with a three-story extension, was sold at $55,000, and a lot on the same street, just east of Fifth avenue, of a little extra width, was sold for $35,000. Running the eye through the list of conveyances, we find this same astonishing disproportion between the value of a vacant lot and the values of improved properties of similar dimensions, and the disparity between new and old houses of the same dimensions is also significant. A twenty-foot house of elaborate construction and modern finish in one street sells for $33,000 to $35,000, while houses similar in size, which were built ten or fifteen years ago, are selling from $20,000 to $25,000. This shows variety in taste as well as variety in means. The first demonstration of revived activity was made in the best quarter of the city, and on the part of the most wealthy citizens. In fact, there is no evidence to be found in the transactions of this season that the middle or moderate class of population are taking any interest in new purchases of real estate. New York city property, especially residence property, is growing every day, every year, to be a real luxury reserved for the enjoyment of the rich and well-to-do. The activity has been of that peculiarly fashionable and aristocratic kind that it has had the effect of stimulating the views of lot owners throughout the new building district, where lots have been sold at an advance of from fifteen to twenty per cent. upon prices previously obtained, and the views of some holders are considerably in advance of recent sales. The most notable event of the season is the development of a continuous buying demand on the west side of the Park, where many parcels of choice lots have been taken up by prominent and wealthy citizens, some of whom are recognized as being among the shrewdest and most sagacious real estate operators in the city, and who have made the course of real estate a life-long study. Mr. Edward Clark has commenced the erection of an extensive block of medium-sized houses on Seventy-third street, between Eighth and Ninth avenues. His example will doubtless be quickly followed by enterprising owners, and before the close of the year our citizens may be rejoiced with the display of commendable building activity on the West Side, and with the prospect of securing eligible and comfortable homes at moderate prices and rents. The advance in the prices of lots in the best building quarters has been accompanied with a slight advance in building materials, and at the present time the master builders are considerably exercised over the premonition of extensive strikes, some of which have already culminated. It is very certain that builders will have to encounter increased costs of production, and the public may as well be prepared to hear higher prices quoted for finished houses during the coming fall and winter. The activity of the present season came upon the builders so suddenly and unexpectedly that they were not able to realize any benefit of the subsequent advance. They were surprised and somewhat bewildered to find their offerings taken up promptly by the public at very nearly the prices which they had been asking unsuccessfully during the winter. In consequence of the advance in lots and materials, and prospective advances in labor, their productions for next season are being capitalized at a largely increased cost, and unless a corresponding advance is realized in the selling prices the prospect will be anything but cheering to the master builders. In fact, the danger which seriously threatens the trade is a speculative advance in the raw materials which they deal in, which may force them to place their capital in jeopardy.

The owners of choice parcels of improvable lots should be admonished of the extreme folly of advancing prices beyond the resources of builders, and thus defeating an early market. Long delay in selling, occasioned by the tardy approach of private individuals who buy single lots for special improvement, will be certain to consume a considerable share of the profits expected from the holding. The interest of lot-owners, house-buyers as well as of builders and the prospective growth of the city are all bound together in the maintenance of uniform and reasonable prices of vacant land.

In the way of sales the following are the latest sensations credibly reported:

The Devlin Estate to Jose F. Navarro, 100x

100.5, north side 57th st, 295 e 6th av, 4 lots for $97,000.

C. L. Tiffany to Geo. W. Quintard, northeast corner of 73d st and 5th av, 100x125, for $165,000.

Mr. Henry Havemeyer has bought the northeast corner of 5th av and 67th st, 50x100, and Mr. Hendricks has bought the northeast corner of Madison av and 67th st, on terms which have not yet transpired. R. L. Stuart has sold one lot, north side 68th st, between 5th and Madison avs, for $21,000. The north side of 79th st, between 5th and Madison avs (17 lots), has been sold by Mr. Sandford for $250,000, to a private investor.

The Mason Jones Estate has sold to Jose F. Navarro 72.6x100.5 on north side 57th st, commencing 100 feet east of 5th av, for $120,000.

RENTS.—The struggle between landlords and tenants was never more obstinately and persistently carried on than during the present season. Both sides entered bravely and gallantly into the conflict, but, as the issue has proved, with varying if not doubtful success. The glamour created by the notable activities in selling property spread early in the year over the rental market, and many landlords supposed that they were on the eve of realizing fairly remunerative rents for their properties. Leases made before the 1st of April and under the influence of the spirited movement in real estate property, were effected at altogether better rates than could be maintained through the season, and at rates largely in advance of those which had been realized during two or three preceding seasons. The spasm of tight money, which occurred early in April, seemed to have a dampening effect upon the spirits of tenants, and many withdrew summarily from the market, never to return. During the month of April, there was such a falling off in the demand for rented premises as to leave the market in a condition almost approaching stagnation. This condition no doubt resulted in a great measure from the determination on the part of landlords to hold out for the rents which they had first named. No better evidence can be desired of the partial nature of the present recovery of business than in the contrast between the selling and the renting markets. While the sales are confined to wealthy parties, and while such parties are paying comparatively fabulous prices to gratify their tastes, the great majority of the community who are compelled to live in rented houses absolutely and unequivocally refuse to pay the reasonable rents demanded by landlords, which rents are fully one-third less than the annual expense incurred by the purchase of similar properties. It may be safely assumed that the recent revival of prosperity is confined for the present to those who have large means, while the struggling masses, who live from hand to mouth, or with small margins of reserve, are not equal to the payment of rents which are barely remunerative to the landlord. There is an intricate problem as well as a serious question involved in this readjustment and equalization of house rents and land values. Either landlords will be compelled to accept very moderate interest on rented property, or else they will be compelled through lack of tenants willing to pay a higher rate of interest to offer their property for sale, and accept for it the best attainable price. The failure of landlords generally, throughout the city, after a fair trial and under the most favorable circumstances, to realize adequate rents for their property, suggests also the imperative necessity of their obtaining relief in the same way from excessive taxation, which is slowly crushing the life out of property owners in this city, who are at all dependent upon rents for income.

LOANS.—The sensation of the present season is the appearance and offering of five per cent. money. To be sure these offerings were only in limited amount, generally by non-residents; and in many cases the money was controlled by brokers or lawyers who were notorious for exacting full commissions and fees. The negotiation of those five per cent. loans involved the payment of expenses amounting to from two-and-a-half to three per cent. As compared with six per cent. loans, free of legal expenses, the latter became more desirable. Still, many loans, as will appear from our mortgage list, have been negotiated at five and five-and-a-half per cent., generally for moderate amounts. Thus far, the name of no institution appears in connection with these loans, and yet intimations have been given that at least one institution stood ready to accept choice applications on the basis of five per cent. interest with moderate expenses. Of six per cent. money there is even a greater glut than was ever before known in the financial history of the city. As a rule such loans can be negotiated without the incurring of any expenses on the part of the borrower, although in the majority of cases moderate expenses may be expected. Some mortgages continue to figure in our lists at seven per cent. These represent speculative loans made by venturesome institutions or individuals who, for the sake of realizing the maximum rates of interest, are willing to run the risk of having to take property by foreclosure. It also represents the oppression of needy and ignorant borrowers by unscrupulous lenders. The play of the natural law of supply and demand was never before so well illustrated as in the present condition of the mortgage loan market. And never was it so easy to demonstrate the uselessness and viciousness of such a six per cent interest bill as has lately passed through the legislature. Prime loans are negotiable at five per cent., and no doubt in any given case negotiation will compel the intermediaries in these transactions to accept moderate brokerages and counsel fees. The standard rate is six per cent., and those who wish to borrow on poor security can do so by paying the present maximum legal rate.

The following list of mortgages, on the property named, is compiled from the pages of THE RECORD and includes all made at the rates named recorded since January 1st.

LEGAL DECISIONS.

The Court of Appeals has decided that where the grantor of premises upon which there is a mortgage is not liable to pay the mortgage debt, his grantee thereof incurs no liability to the holder of the mortgage by reason of a covenant on his part contained in the deed to assume and pay the mortgage.

The Supreme Court has decided that where a contract of sale is not carried out by reason of the default of the seller, a lien exists on the land purchased, in favor of the vendee, when the purchase money, or a part of it, has been prematurely paid before a conveyance. This lien exists not only against the vendor but as against a subsequent purchaser or mortgagee who has notice of the payment having been made.

The Superior Court has decided that the following general clause of description in a deed is sufficient: "Also all other lands contained within the limits of said commons, as described on said map of said Charles Clinton, not heretofore conveyed by the parties of the first part, &c." The court say, that, all the lands within the commons, which the party has not conveyed, is tantamount to all the land there of which he is seized.

Judge McAdam has decided that where land is devised to executors in trust, in all matters connected with the execution of the trust, it is the duty of all the trustees to join. And where a new lease had been executed by only one of the trustees, in and by which the payment of over $12,000 of rent under the old lease was postponed to a future day this was not a valid execution of the trust, and constituted no defence to a proceeding to dispossess the tenant. In order to be valid, the judge holds, the new lease should have been executed by all the trustees.

A. recovered judgment in the Marine Court against B. in December, 1874, for $525.86, and in July, 1876, B. was discharged from his debts in bankruptcy proceedings. In March, 1879, B. applied to the Marine Court to cancel the judgment of record by reason of such discharge. It appears the debtor owned two pieces of real estate, one of which was conveyed by him after the docketing of the judgment and before his adjudication a bankrupt, and the other was conveyed by deed recorded since his discharge.

Judge McAdam holds that, the right of a judgment debtor discharged from his debts by proceedings in bankruptcy to have a judgment against him cancelled of record after the lapse of two years since the discharge was granted, is absolute under the laws of this State: and this is so notwithstanding the fact that the judgment was a lien upon certain real estate conveyed by the bankrupt.

Held further, that a lien by judgment is a general and not a specific lien, and that it is the creditor's duty to enforce the lien against the debtor's property within two years after the bankrupt's discharge.

MARKET REVIEW.

REAL ESTATE MARKET.

On the editorial page of this week's issue we present our regular quarterly review of the real estate market. For fully six years we have had nothing but the dark side to look at, and our readers know that during this time THE RECORD has faced the whole thing squarely, and has never failed to depict truthfully the condition of the market. It is with a sense of real pleasure that we realize now that a change has begun and that there are many indications that it will be lasting. We shall continue to watch carefully the changes taking place, and shall keep abreast of all movements likely to affect favorably or unfavorably the particular interest which we represent.

Our list of market quotations of vacant lots, revised and corrected in accordance with recent sales, is given below. Beginning with the avenue lots, from Fifty-ninth street to Seventy-second street, no changes of importance are made, except in Fifth and Madison avenue lots. Fifth avenue corner lots in this location, which one year ago were fairly quoted from $25,000 to $30,000, cannot now be bought for less than $40,000 to $50,000, and the same description of lots on Madison avenue are now in demand at from $15,000 to $18,000, where one year ago $10,000 would have been thought a good price. Eighth avenue Central Park lots have not as yet had a proportional advance, but with the activity which is likely to soon set in with west side property, these lots are sure to advance largely in price. We shall be very glad to have property owners and their agents scan this list closely, and will investigate carefully any correction suggested.

During the week the sales held at the Exchange Salesroom were with few exceptions by orders of Courts, and the plaintiffs became the purchasers in most instances. Annexed will be found a list of all sales made.

An increased number of plans have been filed with the Superintendent of Buildings during the week: Mr. F. W. Stevens will erect at Nos. 14, 16 and 18 Wall and 3 Nassau street, one five and six-story brick and Belleville stone office building, it will have a frontage of 69 feet on Wall street, 23.5 on Nassau street and will be 111 feet deep, the estimated cost is $200,000. Four five-story brick stores and flats will be erected on the northeast corner of Broadway and Thirty-seventh street.

The following are the sales at the Exchange Salesroom for the week ending May 30:

BUILDING MATERIAL MARKET.

BRICKS.—A steady gain of strength is the noticeable feature of the market, the cost of Common Hards having again increased somewhat, and the general tone ruling quite firm. We cannot discover that there has been any increase of the demand, as the appearance of new buyers finds an offset in the withdrawal of a few who are contesting the workmen's strike for an increase of wages, but resistance of this nature is the exception, and, as noted in our last, the employers may be said to have submitted for the time being at least, and there has been found a sale for about everything offered. There does not appear to have been any "Up-Rivers" available for less than $5 per M., and Haverstraws were worth $5.50@5.75, with choice and favorite brands still higher and the tone firm, as we close, in view of prospective light supplies. The advices from primary points indicate that the strike among the workingmen at the yards has assumed more serious and determined shape, with a reduction in product already resulting, and this naturally acts as a stimulus to values, especially as manufacturers experience difficulty in replacing dissatisfied employees. Of new stock there has been a few arrivals here from the "North River" yards, but no considerable quantity is looked for under ten days or a fortnight. Jersey stock continues to come in to some extent, and sells at $4.75@5, but most of this offering finds an outlet on orders from the Eastward. Pale Brick moderately active and firm for choice grades. Fronts are selling very well and command full former rates on all the leading qualities.

We quote Pale, per M, $2.25@2.50; Hards, Up-Rivers, $4.75@5.00; Haverstraw bay, $5.50@5.75; favorite brands, $6.00; Fronts, Croton—Brown, $7.00@8.00; dark, $8.00@9.00; red, $9.00@9.50; Philadelphia, $26@28; Trenton, $21@29; Baltimore, $31@38. Yard prices, delivery included, $2.00@3.00 higher on ordinary and $5.00@6.00 on fronts.

GLASS.—General demand continues quite moderate, and we have a very dull market reported by the majority of dealers. The orders received are merely such as the most absolute necessities of the hour compel, and buyers in scarcely any instance at all can be induced to anticipate their wants. Prices are quoted as steady, but this basis is only a nominal one, and variations are said to be made according to size of invoice, special terms, etc. Supplies and assortments are quite equal to the wants of the market, and offered without much hesitation. It is reported that so far as domestic glass is concerned, the dullness here may be accounted for by the fact that from the primary points a liberal distribution is being made to the interior.

HARDWARE.—A pretty good general business is doing, and the movement of supplies quite up to a seasonable average. Dealers seem to think the call will hold good two or three weeks longer than ordinary and admit of considerable addition to the volume of distribution, but at this period the situation is doubtful, and not much dependence can be placed in an increase of orders. The average tone on values remains about as steady as could be expected on a gradual falling off of operations, and, as a rule, the regular lists are fairly adhered to. The National Tube Works announce a discount on wrought iron pipe of 60@65 per cent. from list of March 15, 1876, to apply to black, enameled and galvanized pipe. We hear of no other important change.

LABOR—There has been no new developments on the bricklayers' demand for an increase of wages since our last. In a few cases, opposition is shown, but, as a rule, employers submit for the time being, and most of the jobs are kept going. Among the brickmakers, however, we understand matters have assumed a more serious form, as manufacturers are offering opposition to the demands made upon them, and men have already quit work in sufficient numbers to considerably curtail the production. There is a possibility that the strikers may be replaced, as much of the labor at the yards requires no special degree of skill, but it is said that workmen are not over plenty in the country this year, and besides this the haying season is approaching, which generally diverts quite an amount of labor from the brick yards, even when no differences over the question of labor exist.

LATH—The market has shown a slightly irregular tone, but on the whole, held its own fairly. Supplies increased, and the demand kept within about former limits, buyers as usual on the showing of a larger offering, restraining their anxiety, and this gained them a concession of 5c. with sales at $1.35 per M. Receivers, however, have not been urgent sellers at this figure, and there seems to be an undertone of confidence in the future of the market.

LIME.—The general market continues in an irregular and feverish condition, and evidently has not recovered from the effects of the late "break." As before noted, all the principal buyers stocked themselves pretty well on the late break, and the current demand in consequence amounts to very little, making it extremely difficult to place fresh offerings, and leaving values very uncertain. In a general sort of way, 60c.@65 for common Rockland, and 80c.@85 for finishing are mentioned, but all figures for the time being are to a large extent nominal. The same may be said of State lime, and generally the market has an unsettled tone, on which there is not much hope of an improvement until supply and demand become more closely adjusted.

LUMBER.—So far as the volume of business is concerned, there does not appear to be much fault to find with the market, the movement if anything tending to increase, and coastwise receipts failing to accumulate. Most stock from the interior is placed before arrival. On prices, however, matters are not quite so satisfactory, and dealers complain of the extremely narrow margins on which they are obliged to work to retain their quota of the business going. Values harden up, and now and then standing off for a time, are successful in securing a fractional gain, but no basis for positive buoyancy is secured. Nor do we find that many, if any of the principal operators are expecting anything of the kind. All work projected and contracts assumed have had in view a low cost of lumber and material of all kinds, and must be so carried out, beside which the supply of the product of the forest will without doubt prove full this year, and the competition to sell it, strong and general. In brief, while none expect a further shrinkage, the majority of the trade calculate that about present values and possibly occasional small additions will be about all sellers can secure on the outlook as now given.

Eastern Spruce continues in a fairly uniform condition, and we have little of interest to advise for the general market. Some reports have been current of an intention among manufactures to hold back supplies in hopes of forcing values to a higher range, but it is doubtful if the movement could prove more than temporarily successful, even if it made any headway at all. There are a great many points from which shipments can be made at this season, and quite a goodly number of manufacturers anxious to sell their products. Recent arrivals were fair. We quote at $10.00@11.00 for random, possibly $11.25@11.50 for choice lengths in small cargoes, and $12.00@13.00 for specials, the extreme for extra difficult.

White Pine continues to be quoted at "about former rates," and is called steady. Demand on home account is not steadily active, but now and then swells up into fair proportions, while for export the average movement is keeping up pretty well. The latter trade reqires close figuring and sellers are submitting in the effort to secure the orders. We quote at $11.25@15.00 per M. for West India shipping boards; $19.50@21.00 for South American do.; $13@15 for box boards; $16@.17 for do. wide and sound and timber to order at $28@30 per M.

Yellow Pine not meeting with much demand outside the ordinary run of orders, and in all essential particulars, the market remains about the same as for a week or so. Contracts to load and ship from primary points can be closed at about previous rates, but for delivery here and along the Sound, etc., sellers want a fraction more to cover the addition to cost of transportation. Not many available parcels have come to hand of late. We quote random cargoes at about $18@22 per M.; ordered cargoes $22@24 do.; green flooring boards, $20@21 do., and dry do. do. $20@23. Cargoes at the South $13@14.50 per M.; hewed timber $7.50@14.

Shingles have sold somewhat better on home account. The movement was principally in the way of small invoices but the aggregate proved fair and apparently satisfactory. For export there has been much the usual call, and parcels taken out were frequently only such as could be used to fill freight room, etc., though the aggregate of late shows some increase. Cypress are selling at about $6 for saps and $8.50@9.00 for hearts; pine shipping stocks, $1 for 18 inch, and Eastern saw grades at $2.50@4.50 for 16-inch, as to quality and quantity. Machine dressed cedar shingles quoted as follows: For 30 inch, $16@22.25 for A and $28.75@32.25 for No. 1; for 24-inch, $6.50@16 for A and $16.75@21 for No. 1; for 20-inch, $5@10.50 for A, and $11.25@15.75 for No. 1.

Hardwoods continue in fair demand and in general terms the market may be called steady. The situation, however, does not appear to be quite so satisfactory and an occasional complaint is heard. This is due in part to increased supplies either here or offered to arrive making a stock somewhat in excess of demand. Still, holders do not press matters and the former average line of prices is continued. We quote at wholesale rates by car load about as follows: Walnut, $77@85 per M.; ash, $33@36 do; oak, $35@40 do; maple, $30@35; chestnut, 1st and 2d, $30@35; do. do., culls, $18@20 do; cherry, $45@75 do; white wood, ½ and ⅝ inch, $25@27.50, and do. inch $34@35 do; hickory, $35@45 do. for Western, and $65@75 for good nearby stock.

The amount of business doing in the way of distribution from yard is very good. Pretty much all classes of buyers are represented on local account and there is a fair run of orders from nearby dependent points. Every dealer has his own way of fixing prices and there is a very great difference in the manner of grading and quotations, therefore, they can only be given on what appears to be an average range.

From among the lumber charters recently reported we select the following:

GENERAL LUMBER NOTES.

STATE.

ALBANY LUMBER MARKET.

The Argus reports for the week ending May 27, 1879:

Now that a good assortment of new dry pine lumber has been received by the canal, the attendance of buyers, as was expected, is better, quite a number being in market to-day. From this time forward it is thought that trade will be much more active. Several large sales have been made since our last report, and with the present low canal freight many firms will be tempted to enter into contracts for early delivery. There is no question but what present prices will be maintained on dry stock. Prices are without change.

Coarse lumber comes forward very slow; the low water checks receipts of logs at the mills, hence but little lumber is manufactured. The demand continues very good and prices are firm.

The receipts at Chicago, from January 1st to May 17th, are 189,438,000 feet lumber against 165,251,000 feet for a corresponding period in 1878. The shipments, 205,345,000 feet against 186,532,000 feet.

At Saginaw 1,200,000 feet coarse lumber to Detroit parties at $5 and $10; 1,000,000 feet green at $5, $10 and $25. A sale of 1,800,000 feet was made for Albany at $5, $10 and $25. From East Saginaw the shipments during the week ending May 24th were 10,256,000 feet of lumber and 8,700,000 shingles. From Bay City the week's shipments were 18,968,000 feet pine and 336,000 feet oak.

The receipts at Buffalo by lake for the week ending May 26th were only 2,696,000 feet; by rail, 44 cars.

At Oswego the week's receipts by lake are reported at 2,600,500 feet; the shipments by canal were 2,178,000 feet.

The receipts at Albany by canal, from the opening to the 23d May, are:

	Bds &Sctg. ft.	Shingles M.	Timber, c. f.	Staves, lb
1878..	28,196,100	759	....	....
1879..	9,653,700	181	....	....

The receipts at tide water, from the opening of canal navigation to 23d May, are:

	Bds.&Sctg. ft.	Shingles, M.	Timber, c. f.	Staves, lb
1878..	47,940,000	759	....	6,496,000
1879..	12,720,300	181	....	400,000

Freights from Bay City to Tonawanda are placed at $1.50 per M. feet; from Tonawanda to Albany, $1 85; from Oswego to Albany, $1 60. Lake Ontario freights to Oswego, 6 c. From Ottawa to Whitehall they are under $2, and from Whitehall to Albany $1.

Comparative statement showing the total quantity (in tons) of each article cleared on the canals from the 15th of May to the 22d, inclusive, 1878 and 1879:

THE WEST.

Special correspondence of the REAL ESTATE RECORD.

CHICAGO, May 28, 1879.

During the past week business at the wholesale docks has been more active than at any time before this season. The receipts have been heavier and the sales larger, as a natural consequence. On Monday, the market opened with a fleet of about sixty vessels on sale, and it was expected that the commission men would have to submit to a material reduction in prices to get rid of the offerings; but again, the general impression proved at fault, and the anticipated decline failed to put in an appearance. The range of values quoted in my last has been fully maintained, the figures I gave being still current; but lumber is sensibly weaker, and if the offerings do not fall off again, it does not seem possible that a break in prices can be very much longer delayed. The attendance of buyers from the interior has been good this week, and their purchases have helped not a little to keep the market in its present condition. Still the bulk of the lumber has to be disposed of to city dealers, and the fact that so much of it has been placed is good evidence that they are buying. The truth of the matter is that many of them are so situated that it is impossible for them to get along without buying. They have employed men and must furnish them employment, and the only way they can do it is to buy lumber. Sure, they might discharge their extra hands, but they do not like to do it. Labor is not plenty here, and the chances are if they did that, they would be unable to get help when they want it, as they undoubtedly will before long. But in the majority of cases dealers buy only what they need to keep their men busy.

Buyers are just as confident as ever that prices will drop off from the present quotation. The prevailing belief among them is that spruce stuff will go to $6, and most operators think it will touch that figure very soon. It is, of course, impossible to tell anything about the market, and these guesses at its future are to be taken cum grano salis.

There has been a slight reduction made in the freight rates on lumber from the other side of the lake which will tend to increase arrivals, and so help to weaken prices. The present rates are as follows, from the points named to this port:

Grand River	$1 25	Menominee	$1 50
Muskegon, mouth	1 19	Cedar and Ford Rivers	1 50
Muskegon	1 25	Oconto, rafts alongside	1 87½
White Lake	1 32	Oconto, scows alongside	1 62½
Pentwater	1 37½	Pensaukee	1 62½
Ludington, mouth	1 31½	Green Bay	1 87½
Ludington	1 37½	Sturgeon Bay	1 62½
Manistee, mouth	1 40
Manistee, head	1 50
Frankford	1 50

There is practically no change in the situation at the yards. Sales are about the same as they have been, and they are made at fully as low prices as ever. As far as can be determined from present indications, this department of our lumber trade is likely to remain in about its present condition for some time to come. It is believed that prices are as low as they can be, and as there is no reason to look for any improvement, it is probable that they will not change very much.

In hardwood, a pretty good business has been transacted, so far this year. The demand has been rather better than in former years, and the dealers claim to have sold out most of their seasoned stock. Prices are fairly firm, though no higher than they have been along back. Like nearly everything, hardwood is sold now upon a hard pan basis, and it is not to be expected that anything like old time prices will be realized. The present prospect is that the supply of hardwood to come forward this season will be ample for any demand. The past winter was an excellent one for logging, and the owners of hardwood timber did not neglect so good an opportunity to get it to market. Operators in this line, however, do not fear any over stock or material depreciation in values in consequence, but on the contrary, look forward to a fairly prosperous season.

SAGINAW VALLEY.

Lumberman's Gazette Office,

BAY CITY, May 27, 1879.

The shipments of lumber from the river the past week have been the largest of any week since the opening of navigation, aggregating 30,000,000 in round numbers; yet this does not indicate that there has been an unusual degree of activity in sales. Buyers and sellers seem yet to be somewhat apart in their views, buyers hoping and waiting for a break in prices, and manufacturers stoutly maintaining rates. It must not be inferred from these remarks that no sales are being made, for there is a steady fire all the line, mostly from small artillery, however. Enough lumber is being sold in small lots to prevent the docks from being packed and manufacturers forced to sell at a sacrifice or shut down. The downward tendency of the market appears to be checked, and a firmer tone is apparent. The shortening of the cutting season by a month, and the lessened tonnage engaged in the lumber trade, will prevent dealers getting the advantage they have anticipated from a fall in rates for both lumber and freights, and which influences them to buy more closely than usual. Manufacturers express confidence in the maintenance of prices. A number of Chicago buyers are now in the Valley, but have made no purchases as yet. The sale of the week have taken a somewhat wide range, from $5, $10 and $25 to $6, $11.50 and $26, the latter for choice dry lots. The mean prices would probably be $5.25, $10.50 and $25. Bill stuff has been sold at $6.50 and $7.

The movement of shingles has been very large, the shipments from the river for the week aggregating 14,000,000 in round numbers. Prices range from $1.15 to $1 50 for clear butts to $2.15@2.50 for XXX. Hoops are held at $3 25 on the dock.

Lake freights steady at $1.25@1.37½ to Ohio ports, and $1.50@1.62½ to Buffalo, the outside figures from Saginaw.

We quote cargo rates:

Three upper qualities	$25 00@27 00
Common	10 00@11 00
Shipping culls	5 00@ 6 00
Lath	1 25@ 1 30
Shingles	1 40@ 2 40

The following from the Lumberman and Manufacturer:

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., May 22, 1879.

The manufacturing season has fairly opened, and promises to be a most active one. The supply of logs is abundant to run all the mills of the West until winter.

The drives have so far progressed as to make it sure that very few will be hung up on the streams

The present and prospective demand for lumber is so great that no fears are indulged that the stocks will be burdensome for any great length of time in the Mississippi Valley. Prices rule so low that customers are encouraged to buy. The lumber trade is good at all points on the river.

St. Louis, especially, is enjoying a large business and low freight rates in the West. Stocks at Hannibal and all points along the river to Clinton are reduced to a minimum and badly broken up.

Speaking of Hannibal, reminds us to mention that she has also a very low rate of freight to the Missouri.

We print elsewhere the particulars of the drives of last week, from nearly all the points of the West. We note that all the logs on the upper Mississippi, above Brainerd, are coming in finely. The Pine River drive is at Fort Ripley to-day with the rear.

From the Chippewa we are assured that the drive will be the cleanest ever known on the river.

THE EAST.

A Boston journal says:

Fifty million feet of lumber is now on its way down the Connecticut River, consisting of spruce and pine timber, hewn during the past winter in the forests of northern Vermont and New Hampshire. Parts of this float will be left at Mackindoe's Falls, Northampton, Holyoke and Hartford, and five or six millions of it are bound to the New Haven Steam Saw Mill Company. The Connecticut River lumber company have begun driving piles across the river opposite their mill at Mt. Tom to serve as a barrier against the logs that come down the river during the summer.

The cut on the Kennebec River this season aggregates 65,000,000 ft. in round numbers, or about 12,000,000 less than the cut of 1878. A drive of twenty millions of logs is on the way to Lewiston from the upper Androscoggin. A serious disaster occurred on the west branch of the Penobscot River last week, by the washing away of a portion of the North Twin dam. There are 25,000,000 logs, old and new, on the west branch and if the drive does not get through, it will be a loss to the Penobscot lumbermen of $50,000. A large boom, containing 10,000,000 feet, was started from North Bridgton last week.

THE PROVINCES.

A fire broke out in McLaren's lumber yard, in Carleton, a place twenty-eight miles from Ottawa, on Tuesday last, caused by sparks from a passing locomotive. The fire rapidly spread, imperilling the safety of the town. Assistance was called for from Ottawa, Arnprior, Almonte, Smith's Falls, Brockville, each of which towns sent one steam fire engine. At half-past five P. M. the fire had been got under control after 14,000,000 feet of lumber had been destroyed, amounting in value to $100,000. There was insurance on it for $50,000 only, divided among several American companies.

NAILS.—Demand continues slow and careful, and buyers fill only such orders as may be required on absolute necessity. Some few fair sized parcels have recently been taken for shipment, but they were exceptional, and do not show the general business. Values are unsettled and close selling rates difficult to name, though the "card" figures are those named on the open market. We quote nominally 10d. to 60d., common fence and sheathing per keg, $2.25; 8d. and 9d., common do. per keg, $2.40, 6d. and 7d., common per keg, $2.60; 4d. and 5d., common do. per keg, $2.90; 3d. and 4d., light, per keg, $3.65; 3d., fine, per keg, $4.40; 2d., per keg, $4.40.

Cut spikes, all sizes, $2.30. Floor casing and box, 75c. above the same sizes of common. Finishing, $1 above and fine finishing $1.25 above.

CLINCH NAILS.

1¾ to 1½in.	2 & 2¼in.	2½ & 2¾ in.	3 in. & longer
$5.00	$4.50	$4.25	$4.00 per keg.

OILS.—There is not much of a market at the moment, beyond the ordinary trade movement. Jobbers manage to preserve a fairly steady tone, but wholesale prices and values are to some extent nominal, except on linseed oil which has advanced. The Brooklyn fire destroyed considerable seed, and this stimulates values. We quote linseed oil 61@63c. ₱ gallon; lard, 48@51c. for winter; 43@46 c. for No. 1, and 40@43c. for No. 2; crude cotton seed, 32@36., and refined summer yellow do., 12@13c.

PAINT.—Business not quite so active on the general outlet, and the market showing no new features of importance. On wholesale parcels, both of domestic and foreign goods, cost has fluctuated a trifle, but the changes were not full enough to influence the position in second hands, and jobbers retain about former valuations. The retailers and consumers are still somewhat busy, but are getting past the spring drive of operations, and a comparatively dull market is expected for some time to come. We still hear complaints to the effect that outside or irregular offerings of white lead are available below the "regular" figures, even at the reduction recently made, but it is also claimed that all such sales are of "off" quality goods. There has been a very good and rather increasing movement in Paris green, and corresponding strength on values.

PITCH.—The inquiry continues without much animation and, on the whole, is uncertain beyond the usual run of jobbing orders. Supplies are ample and about all within reach on an easy line of cost, holders feeling well inclined to realize. We quote at $1.75 @1.87½ per bbl. for city, delivered.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE—Business has shown no great amount of animation, and the market is without features of unusual interest. Stocks are under sufficient control to prevent pressure but, as a rule, are offered with freedom when buyers appear. As this report is closed the quotations stand about 27½ @30c. per gallon, according to the quantity of stock handled.

TAR.—Demand continues moderate and the amount of stock offering much in excess of the outlet. Prices, under the circumstances, lack elements of buoyancy and sellers seem well inclined to accept former figures. We quote at $1.40@4.75 per bbl. for Newberne and Washington, and $1 60@4.87 for Wilmington, according to size of invoice.
